THE STANDARD SOUTHERN NEWSPAPER

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE

VOL. LIX., No. 317. Entered at Atlanta P. O. As Second-Class Mail Matter. ATLANTA, GA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1927. ONLY MORNING NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN ATLANTA. Single Copies, Daily 5c; Sunday 10c. Daily and Sunday, Weekly 20c; Monthly 90c.

LOUISIANA GOVERNOR ORDERS ARTIFICIAL BREAK IN MISSISSIPPI LEVEE TO SAVE NEW ORLEANS

BLOODSHED SEEN IN EFFORT TO CUT LOUISIANA LEVEE

Terms of Compensation Offered To People Living in Territory To Be Affected Rejected.

THREATS TO SHOOT MADE BY TRAPPERS

Natives of Parish Redouble Patrols and Place Armed Guards on All Roads Leading to Levee.

New Orleans, April 26.—(United News.)—Fears that blood would be shed in an effort to save New Orleans from the ravages of the rampant Mississippi were felt here tonight.

Terms of compensation made to the people living along the long stretch of the Mississippi between New Orleans and the Gulf of Mexico if they would permit cutting of the levees to cause a fall in the gradually rising river have been rejected, and levee authorities feel that force must be used if necessary to save this city of 400,000 people from serious damage, if not destruction.

The cut is to be made in St. Bernard parish, a few miles below New Orleans.

Cash Is Demanded.

The city, with an assessment of $500,000,000 and a real value of probably $800,000,000, offered to compensate the citizens of St. Bernard for all damage done. New Orleans offered to post $150,000 for immediate relief and to pay for all damages after assessments have been made, following cutting of the crevasse.

But the down-river folk demanded cash.

"We will take only cash, now, and for full value," they told a New Orleans delegation which waited upon them at a mass meeting on the lawn of the parish courthouse this afternoon.

"These are our homes," they said. "We have worked a lifetime for them. We will shoot any man who tries to destroy them."

After the meeting, the natives of the parish redoubled patrols along the levees, placed armed guards on all roads leading to the parish and declared a state of emergency.

People Determined.

No one who knows the bayou people doubts that they meant it when they said they would kill any person who approaches the levee without permission.

The water at New Orleans now is within six inches of the record for all time and it is certain to exceed that record by at least two feet if no relief is given. Only by cutting the levee south of the city can New Orleans insure itself against being flooded.

Permission has been granted conditionally by Secretary of War Davis for cutting the levee, and it is quite probable that the crevasse will have to be made by force.

St. Bernard parish lies on the eastern bank of the Mississippi river. A narrow strip along the stream is habitable and is cultivated intensely. But the back country is primeval swamp land, where little groups of houses perch upon stilts in the mire.

Life Is Held Cheap.

Dark-skinned natives who live in the swamp work with boats and guns. They import liquor, and fight feuds with the famous avidity of the Kentucky mountain folk. Life is held cheap and they have all the primitive distrust of strangers.

Should the levee break north of New Orleans on the eastern side of the river, nearly all New Orleans would be flooded. If it should occur in the city, the damage would be tremendous.

It is because of this that engineers have determined to provide an outlet for the waters by cutting the levee below the city and on the eastern bank.

Double Grand Opera Bill Pleases Audience

'GIANNI SCHICCHI' AND 'THREE KINGS' STRONG CONTRAST

Comedy Followed by Tragedy Enthralls Second Huge Throng of Week at Auditorium.

'TURANDOT' TONIGHT OFFERS SPECTACLE

Greatest Interest Centers in Production of Puccini's Massive Posthumous Work.

TONIGHT'S CAST.
AT 8 O'CLOCK
GIACOMO PUCCINI'S OPERA
Turandot
(In Italian)

Princess Turandot	Florence Easton
The Emperor Altoum	Max Altglass
Timur	Pavel Ludiker
The Unknown Prince-Calaf	Edward Johnson
Liu	Nanette Guilford
Ping	Giuseppe De Luca
Pang	Angelo Bada
Pong	Alfio Tedesco
A Mandarin	George Cehanovsky
Two Maids	Louise Lerch, Dorothea Flexer

Conductor, Tullio Serafin

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

Tuesday night's big double bill, calling into service more than a score of the stars of the Metropolitan Opera company, enjoyed by another large and brightly-clad crowd, maintained the high standard of the present opera season in Atlanta and with the happy blending of the light-themed "Gianni Schicchi" and the heavier "Love of Three Kings" provided one of the most pleasing offerings of any season.

For more than three hours the audience sat in rapt enjoyment of the Puccini and Montemezzi scores, both sung in Italian, and bestowed unstinted applause on the big array of stars appearing in the two operas. Giuseppe De Luca, one of the Metropolitan veterans, was cast as "Gianni Schicchi," an ideal role for him, and he gave it a whimsical comedy touch which brought out the real humor of the opera despite the fact that it was sung in a language that few of the members of the audience understood.

In the heavy "L'Amore dei Tre Re" ("The Love of Three Kings") magnificent roles were provided for beautiful Rosa Ponselle, soprano, Giovanni Martinelli, one of the most popular tenors who ever sang in Atlanta; Lawrence Tibbett, who seems to be bent on establishing himself as one of the great baritones of all time in spite of his American ancestry. Ezio Pinza, the profound basso and numerous others.

Contrasts Provided.

Powerful in its dramatic situations, with its action woven around the conflict of a pure but illicit love against family pride and family honor, "The Love of Three Kings" contains a score which rings with emotion and

Continued on Page 5, Column 2

Morning Hours Are Business Hours

Whether you go to grand opera, the movies, vaudeville, the legitimate, or indulge in some other amusement, the afternoons and evenings are certain to have their diversions. You have neither the time nor the inclination to read advertisements and give the offerings consideration.

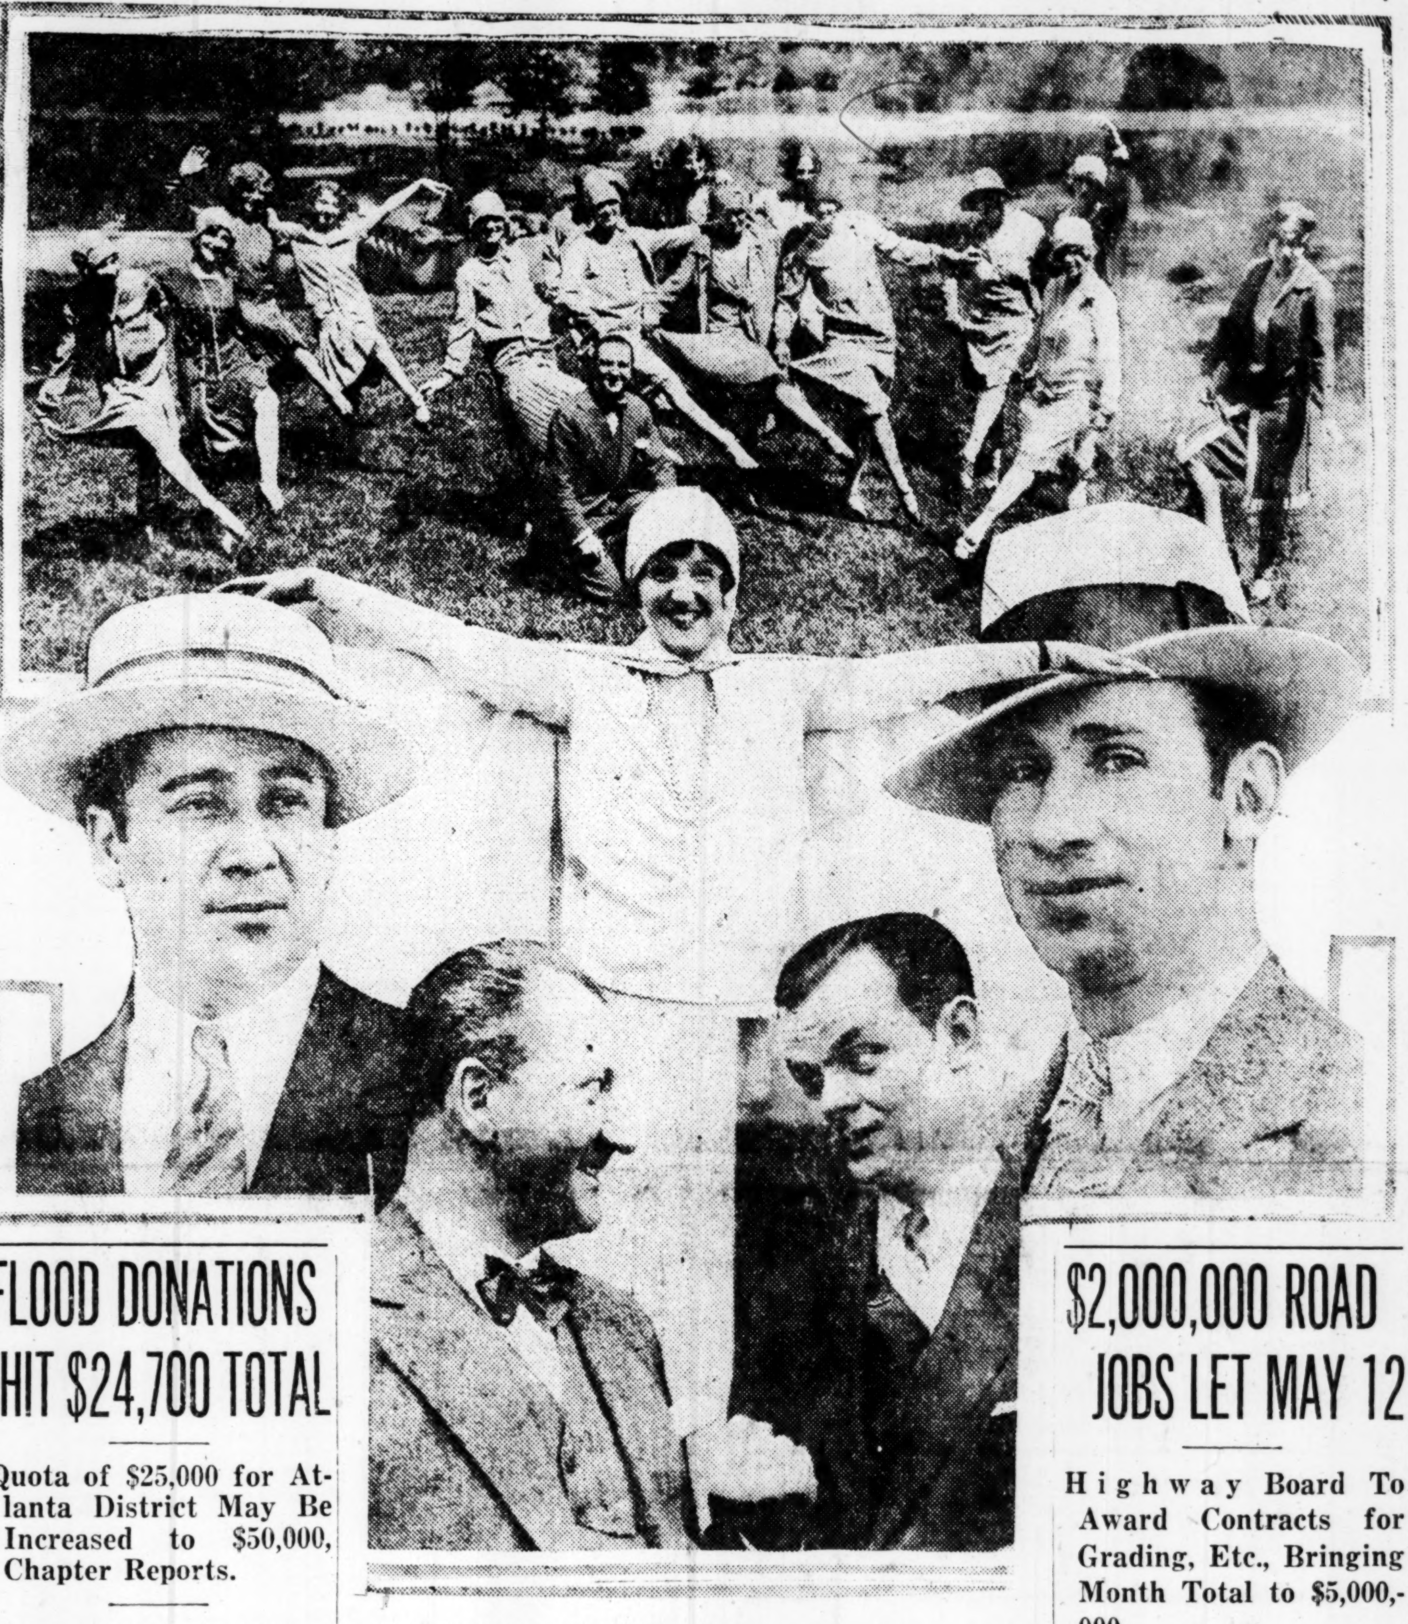
In the morning it is entirely different. There is no amusement and no diversion. You are certain of ample time to read the advertisements in The Constitution and give the offerings therein due consideration.

If you see something that you desire there is ample time before luncheon to investigate personally and purchase the articles needed.

That is one of the reasons why The Constitution goes into more homes in Atlanta and suburbs than any other Atlanta newspaper.

ADVERTISING IN THE CONSTITUTION PAYS THE ADVERTISER AND SAVES THE BUYER

Metropolitan Stars in Happy Moments Off Stage



Photos by Kenneth Rogers, Staff Photographer.

Upper center shows members of the Metropolitan ballet rehearsing special dances of the Venetian fete to be given at the Biltmore hotel Thursday night after the performance of "Mignon" at the auditorium, climaxing the social activities for the week. The terpsichorean beauties are staging their rehearsals on the Biltmore terrace. Left shows Armand Tokatyan, tenor, who sings several important roles during the week, including that of Lieutenant Pinkerton in "Butterfly" on Saturday night. Center is Louise Hunter, demonstrating what milady should wear when she leans to white morning ensembles. At the right is Joseph T. McPherson, the American baritone sensation from Nashville, who makes his Atlanta debut in "Romeo and Juliet" Saturday afternoon. At the bottom, left, Walther Kirchhoff, German tenor, who sings the title role in "Lohengrin" Friday afternoon, discusses Atlanta girls, weather, scenery, etc., with Lawrence Tibbett, famous California baritone, who won a personal ovation from the opening night audience on Monday. Tibbett also appears in the "Lohengrin" cast.

FLOOD DONATIONS HIT $24,700 TOTAL

Quota of $25,000 for Atlanta District May Be Increased to $50,000, Chapter Reports.

Tuesday night found a total of $24,700 raised by the Atlanta chapter of the American Red Cross for the flooded Mississippi valley sufferers.

This is within a few hundred dollars of the original quota of $25,000, but according to a statement from the headquarters of the local chapter, the Atlanta quota will be greater now that the sum to be raised in the entire country has been increased from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. Just how much this increase will affect the quota from this chapter has not been communicated to the Atlanta headquarters, but it can reasonably be inferred that it is double the original amount, it was said.

According to local Red Cross headquarters, $11,149.87 was received Tuesday, with about $4,000 received in pledges. The response, while generous, is not quote so spontaneous as was the case in the recent Florida disaster.

The following is the subscription list received to date:

Thomas James, $15; C. B. Bulch, $10; O. R. C., division 180, $10; cash, $3; P. M. LaCross, $2; city of Atlanta, $10,000; Coca-Cola company, $5,000; Arthur Montgomery, $250; W. R. C. Smith, $200; Walter Brown Publishing company, $100; Dr. and Mrs. C. Strickler, $100; George Lewis, $100; Berean class, West End Baptist church, $83.58; M. E. church south (Cedartown), $63.89; Martin & Hoyt company, $50; George E. Lewis, $50; David Woodward, $50; Mary S. Hurt, $50; M. M. Winter, $50; First Christian church, $40.25; C. A. McDaniel, Nor-

Continued on Page 4, Column 7

BUGGY RIDING IN GASOLINE AGE BRINGS SLAYING

Lambertville, N. J., April 26—(United News.)—Unique in the annals of New Jersey crime is the "buggy ride" murder charge against Charles Price, 63, in this gasoline age.

Price is accused of shooting and killing Edward Masterson, 38, while Masterson was buggy riding with Price's wife, Paula, also 38.

Quite unusual was the compact, signed before a justice of the peace a month ago, in which Price gave his wife permission to buggy ride with Masterson, if she would remain at the Price home and prepare Price's meals.

Old-fashioned atmosphere also was lent the shooting, according to the police, who point out that Price used a 32-calibre revolver which was 45 years old.

Police charge that when Price saw the couple riding Monday night, he halted the horse, and shot Masterson dead in the seat.

Confession To Murder

MAKES OF ACCOMPLICE REAL BOOB

By Widow Grips Court

BY SAM LOVE.

New York, April 26.—(United News.)—Looming as high and definite as the ghostly presence of the electric chair in the great, bare Queens county courtroom Tuesday was the fact that Henry Judd Gray, corset salesman, was a boob of the first water.

It was between nearly every line in the ghastly confession of his co-defendant, Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder.

Judd didn't get much out of the "great love" that led him to murder Albert Snyder. Judd sought love and he got tears and complaints of a silly blonde woman.

The little bespectacled salesman with the curly hair and—until his silly plans to fool the police collapsed—a romantic idea of himself as a clever fellow and a lover among lovers, cut such a sorry figure as almost to excite compassion.

Judd was the type of lover that would have caused the strong, dominant Albert Snyder to laugh out loud—had he suspected his existence.

His affair was not what it was cracked up to be. Every caress was buttered with a doleful recital. Every moment of intimacy was paid for by listening to the whining which Albert Snyder refused to hear.

A devil of a fellow—Judd. Never suspecting that his beloved was merely dumping into his little white hands the querulous whining she could not get rid of at home, Judd eventually rose in his wrath and carefully and cautiously murdered the man who wouldn't listen to it.

That is the figure he cut in Mrs. Snyder's confession, read to the jury by District Attorney Richard S. Newcombe.

The alienists have names for the weaknesses that afflict Gray. No doubt they will be introduced at the proper time.

But this day was one of those given over to the state, and grim and ghoulish in it was the plain statement of fact as incorporated in Mrs. Snyder's 8-page confession.

District Attorney Newcombe read it to the jury in a voice as clear as a bell, seeking only to get before them a story of murder.

But out of it rose three figures, their contours and circumstances in life etched deeper and clearer than any of the ten score writers covering the trial have been able to set down.

One was Albert Snyder, master of his environment. The second was Ruth Brown Snyder, a querulous

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

$2,000,000 ROAD JOBS LET MAY 12

Highway Board To Award Contracts for Grading, Etc., Bringing Month Total to $5,000,000.

Highway paving contracts totaling $2,000,000, for more than 150 miles of roadway to link up important routes already paved, will be let at a meeting of the state highway board on May 12 at East Point, John N. Holder, chairman, announced Tuesday.

Twenty contracts in all will be let at the approaching meeting for the grading, draining and basing of the projects, Mr. Holder said. Chert or gravel bases will be called for, to be surmounted later with concrete or asphalt.

Included in the list of contracts to be let are 18 miles of the Atlantic coastal highway, between Kingsland and Waverly, 16 miles in Whitfield county, seven miles between Marietta and Kennesaw, 22 miles in Toombs and Bacon counties on federal route No. 1, and five miles in Catoosa county, with other projects.

The contracts to be awarded on May 12, coupled with those awarded at a meeting of the board recently, will bring the total awarded within a month to $5,000,000.

13-YEAR-OLD BOY DESIGNS OFFICIAL FLAG FOR ALASKA

Juneau, Alaska, April 26.—(AP)—Alaska is to have an official flag, designed by a 13-year-old boy.

The territorial house of representatives today gave its approval and voted $2,000 for sending Benny Benson, of Seward, the school boy whose design was accepted, to Paris for the American Legion convention.

Favorable action by the senate is expected.

The flag has eight gold stars set in a field of blue, seven of the stars form the constellation of Ursa, or the Great Bear, pointing toward the polar star, the eighth one of the flag.

The polar star "stands for Alaska, the northernmost star in a galaxy of stars," the official description reads, "and which at some future time will take its place as the forty-ninth star in our national emblem."

THOUSANDS HONOR HEROES OF SOUTH IN WAR OF SIXTIES

Impressive Parade and Ceremonies Mark City's Annual Observance of Memorial Day.

COLORFUL THRONGS APPLAUD VETERANS

Many Organizations Join Regular Army Troops, National Guardsmen and Others in Parade.

BY BEN COOPER.

Their once well-filled ranks sadly depleted, a mere handful of "Johnny Rebs" marched through Atlanta Tuesday to Oakland cemetery to pay tribute to the memory of those who fought by their side when Confederate troops valiantly fought invading hosts from the north.

It was Memorial day in the south, and finer weather conditions for such an occasion rarely have been seen in sunny Dixie. With faltering step and heads held high in the pride of patriotism that led them to battle in the '60s, survivors of that great conflict of half a century ago marched through the phoenix-like Gate City of the south, amid cheers and blaring bands.

Over streets which three score years ago ran red with the blood of a brave people and over which flared flames, the veterans marched between lines of cheering thousands, the while southern hearts beat the faster, with a feeling of pride for these old souls whose eyes still flash the fire that for four long years held an unbroken line against superior numbers.

Flags Carried Together.

In the Memorial day parade the stars and stripes and the stars and bars of Dixie waved as a symbol of a reunited country, while groups from the American Legion, Spanish war veterans, Fort McPherson regulars, 122d infantry and others kept step with Confederate heroes. There were bands galore, with stirring martial airs to which veterans turned ears that once more seemed to hear the roar of cannon as the applause of thousands of Atlantans lining Peachtree and Whitehall roared at their passage.

Starting from Peachtree and West Peachtree at Baker street, the parade passed along Peachtree and Whitehall to Hunter, thence to Oakland cemetery, where Memorial day ceremonies were observed, with Dr. Lucien Lamar Knight as orator of the day.

In the parade line were American legionnaires, veterans of foreign wars, Spanish-American war veterans, Daughters of the American Revolu-

Continued on Page 10, Column 3

BANK PRESIDENT 'SHOOTS IT OUT'

Battles Two Bandits, Saves $10,000 But Is Wounded Twice and May Lose His Life.

Elkhorn, Neb., April 26.—(AP)—Flanked to the front and rear but determined to protect $10,000 in cash, John N. Wyatt, bank president, "shot it out" with two armed men today and frustrated their plans to rob the State Bank of Elkhorn. In doing so, however, he was shot twice and may die.

Confronted by the menacing guns of the two unmasked men, Wyatt, aged 51, answered their brusque command, "hands up," by reaching for his revolver. As he did so, one of the two shot, but missed, while the other slipped to the banker's rear, and shot him in the back. As Wyatt wheeled around to shoot his rearward assailant he was again shot.

As the banker sank to the floor in the bank cage, the two robbers, disregarding the feverish attempt of Ed Saeger, bookkeeper to sound the alarm and get into the vault for a gun, ran out of the bank, leaped into their automobile and escaped.

The robbers' automobile, found later, contained a woman's hat, dark coat and pair of trousers which police believe was used to disguise the driver. Blood transfusions were resorted to in an Omaha hospital this afternoon in an attempt to save Wyatt.

WAR DEPARTMENT GRANTS CONSENT TO CUT IN LEVEE

Desperate Measures Are Taken To Protect Crescent City From Wrath of Great Flood.

RIVER COMMISSION APPROVES SCHEME

Break To Be Made Near Poydras at Noon Friday; Plans Completed To Care for Refugees.

New Orleans, April 26.—(AP)—Governor O. H. Simpson tonight issued a proclamation declaring that a public emergency exists and ordering the creation of an artificial break in the levee of the Mississippi river near Poydras at noon Friday, April 29.

The proclamation was issued after the receipt of a telegram from General Jadwin, chief of engineers, granting permission for "a temporary break" for this "emergency only."

It climaxed a day of feverish activity during which Governor Simpson conferred with bankers, engineers and citizens, discussing all details of the proposed break.

Although no announcement had been made in the city of what steps were being taken, rumors were general that the levee would be broken near the scene of the 1922 crevasse. The first refugees brought verification of the rumors.

Arrangements were made to care for Poydras refugees at the army supply base and an appeal was made for funds and clothing to aid other sufferers in the upper valley.

The proclamation said: "An unprecedented flood now holds in its grip the lower Mississippi valley. Large areas of the state of Louisiana and the entire city of New Orleans are seriously threatened.

"The levees of this state are now holding, but the strain to which they will be subjected in the next 15 days seriously aggravated the present danger and imperatively demands that drastic steps shall be taken to avert the menace.

"The Mississippi river commission believes that the creation of an artificial break at some appropriate point will reduce the flood waters at New Orleans and for miles above, thus avoiding great loss of life and property.

"The state board of engineers and the engineers of the city of New Orleans and of the dock board concur in this view and recommend immediate action.

"Effective relief can be obtained for the city of New Orleans and surrounding territory by taking such action and their safety secured."

Governor Simpson added that he had been assured that his police powers could be invoked in the emergency.

"I am impressed with the danger and I am determined to avert it. The people in the affected area will be removed to safety and properly cared for. No lives will [illegible]acrificed. Re-

Continued on Page 4, Column 1

The Weather

FAIR.

Washington—Forecast:
Georgia: Fair Wednesday and Thursday.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature	71
Lowest temperature	52
Mean temperature	62
Normal temperature	65
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins.	.00
Deficiency since 1st of mo., ins.	1.60
Total rainfall since Jan. 1, ins.	12.32
Deficiency since Jan. 1, ins.	6.72

	7 a.m.	N'n.	7 p.m.
Dry temperature	54	68	68
Wet bulb	47	52	54
Relative humidity	56	34	41

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature		Rain 12 hrs Ins.
	7 p.m.	High
ATLANTA, clear	68	76	.00
Birmingham, clear	70	76	.00
Boston, rain	52	60	.00
Buffalo, cldy.	44	48	.18
Charleston, clear	62	70	.00
Chicago, cldy.	46	64	.00
Denver, pt. cldy.	74	80	.00
Des Moines, cldy.	78	84	.00
Galveston, clear	70	76	.00
Hatteras, clear	60	76	[illegible]
Havre, cldy.	66	70	[illegible]
Jacksonville, clear	66	70	.00
Kansas City, clear	78	82	.00
Memphis, clear	70	72	.00
Miami, clear	74	80	.00
Mobile, clear	68	76	.00
Montgomery, clear	70	76	.00
New Orleans, clear	72	76	.00
New York, pt. cldy.	50	52	.04
North Platte, clear	84	90	.00
Oklahoma City, clear	76	82	.00
Phoenix, pt. cldy	96	98	.00
Pittsburgh, cldy.	56	62	.08
Raleigh, cldy.	66	72	.00
San Francisco, cldy.	54	62	.00
St. Louis, clear	78	82	.00
Salt Lake City, clear	82	84	.00
Savannah, clear	64	74	00
Tampa, clear	70	76	.00
Toledo, cldy.	52	60	.00
Vicksburg, clear	72	76	.00
Washington, cldy.	68	70	.00

C. F. von HERRMANN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Largest Home Delivered Circulation in Atlanta

Combined City and Suburban Circulation Largest of Any Daily Paper in Atlanta

Tragedy Will Not Halt

DAVIS AND WOOSTER ARE KILLED

New York-Paris Flight

New York, April 26.—(AP)—Although the Paris-to-New York nonstop flight, stalked by accident and tragedy since it was first proposed, today lost to death two of its intrepid entrants in Lieutenant Commander Noel Davis and his alternate pilot, Lieutenant Stanton Hall Wooster, killed at Messick, Va., the flight will go on, perhaps, in the next four or five days.

Announcement to this effect came from those "still in the race," who said the loss of Davis had robbed the venture of much of its sporting element.

Despite an accident Sunday to the giant monoplane, the Bellanca, that craft will be ready to take off by Sunday if wind and weather are favorable, it was announced by its backers. Test flights have shown it to be in perfect condition.

Four Casualties.

The death of the two in Virginia brought the casualties of the proposed classic to four, two other fliers having been killed last year when, coincidentally, Davis was also in the field at that time as a candidate for the $25,000 Orteig prize. Taking off from Roosevelt field, the giant Fonck caught fire, and burned Jacob Islamoff, mechanic, and Charles Clavier, radio operator, Captain Rene Fonck and Lieutenant Lawrence Curtin, pilot, escaped.

Accidents less serious in the past few days have marked the tests and preparations of two other big planes, the America and the Bellanca. Three fliers, Commander Richard E. Byrd Floyd Bennett, his pilot, and George O. Neville, radio man, were all in the hospital a few days after the accidents at Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., April 16. The America overturned and its damages are now being repaired.

The accident to the Bellanca in which Bert Acosta and Clarence D. Chamberlin recently won the endurance record of the world might have proved fatal but for skillful piloting.

Last Sunday, the craft, piloted by Chamberlin and containing two girl passengers, suffered a broken strut as it left the ground and more than an hour's maneuvering was necessary to effect a landing without injury.

Expresses Sorrow.

Charles A. Levine, a sponsor of the proposed flight of the Bellanca monoplane, expressed sorrow today at the tragic fate that eliminated "another gallant attempt to cross the Atlantic."

"While the plans will proceed with the Bellanca plane, the sporting spirit has been removed because of the fact that we have lost Davis," he said. "And Commander Byrd's plane, the America, has been practically eliminated."

Grover Whalen, associated with Rodman Wanamaker, backer of Commander Byrd in his projected flight, declined to comment on Mr. Levine's statement that the plane was "practically eliminated," but said, "we are quite capable of making any statement of that matter for ourselves. We have, however, no statement to make until Floyd Bennett, who was injured, is 'out of the woods.'"

A wave of sorrow swept through flying circles when the news of the Virginia crash reached here. Expressions of regret were made by Commander Byrd, G. W. Bellanca, designer of the Bellanca plane; Chamberlin and Acosta, Lieutenant Colonel Benjamin D. Foulois, commander of Mitchel field; Charles A. Levine and others.

Meantime word came from Paris that plans there are continuing for a take-off westward to New York, and from Washington it was learned that Charles A. Lindbergh, former air mail pilot, is still expecting to have a monoplane finished on the Pacific coast in time to be ready for trial flights soon.

TWO FLIERS KILLED IN CRASH OF PLANE.

Newport News, Va., April 26.—(AP) Lieutenant Commander Noel Davis and Lieutenant Stanton Wooster, naval aviators, were killed today when the giant biplane in which they had hoped to cross the Atlantic flopped over in making a landing in a marsh near here.

Both airmen were trapped in the cockpit which was submerged in mud and water. Officers from Langley field who reached the machine a few minutes after it had turned over said they found that Davis had been crushed about the face and that Wooster's neck had been broken.

A naval court of inquiry convened in executive session late today in an attempt to ascertain the cause of the accident, a step that is always taken under the circumstances.

Davis and Wooster, both of them graduates of the naval academy, met death in the plane in which they had planned to compete for the $25,000 Orteig prize for the first non-stop flight between New York and Paris.

The plane, recently christened the American Legion by the wife of Commander Davis, was carrying a load of 16,000 pounds.

It is the opinion of persons who reached the machine before the bodies were removed that either engine trouble or too much load kept the craft from rising to the height necessary for safe maneuvering. They believe that the aviators realized this and elected to make a forced landing rather than take a chance on getting back to Langley field, from which they had taken off.

TONGUE IS CUT FROM SQUEALER

Chicago, April 26.—Gangland has employed a new method of torture for members, or others who know of its criminality and who talk too much. It is the simple expedient of cutting out the tongue of the offender and permitting him to bleed slowly to death.

Police early this morning came upon an automobile parked in a lonely spot, with Joseph Krowszyk, 21, with his tongue severed near the roots. With him were John Walniak and George Bonsheck.

Krowszyk was crouched down between the other two, almost unconscious from loss of blood. The others were stolidly smoking cigarettes.

The injured man was rushed to the nearest hospital, but it is doubtful if he can recover.

At first his companions refused to talk, but under pressure said all three had been drinking and they had collided with a lamp post. The force of the shock, they said, had caused Krowszyk to bite his tongue in half. However, the automobile showed no marks of collision and the police surgeon said the tongue had been severed with a sharp instrument, much too far back to have been caused by biting.

"Evidently, his tongue was drawn far out and severed near the roots," said Dr. Scanlan. "He could not have bitten it. There are marks of crude surgery; marks of a cylindrical knife."

PIGGLY WIGGLY
Money Saved is Money Earned

Very Fancy, Tender, Green (Fine As Home Grown)
CORN Each 3½c

Wonderful, Fancy Heads
LETTUCE Ea. 8c

Extra Fancy, Home Grown
Strawberries Qt. 18c

Fancy—Best on the Market
BEANS Qt. 10c

Facts About Milk

One year ago Atlantans were paying 18c per quart and 10c per pint for Sweet Milk.

At that time Piggly Wiggly announced a sharp reduction in price and since then prices have been continually lower at all chain stores.

We Set the Pace---Others Followed

Today at Piggly Wiggly stores you can buy
Clean, Pure, Unadulterated
SWEET MILK
Qt. 12c; Pt. 6c

What would you be paying for milk if there were no Piggly Wiggly Stores in Atlanta?

Meats You Can Eat With Enjoyment

Beef Lion Steak—K. C. Top Beef, Lb.	39c
Beef—T-Bone Steak—K. C. Top Beef, Lb.	45c
Breakfast Bacon—Our Own Sliced, Lb.	38c
Large Salt Mackerel—2 for	25c
Bulk All-Pork Sausage, Lb.	18c
Ham, Baked—Spiked With Brown Sugar, Lb.	95c
Ducks—Long Island Young, Lb.	33c
Hamburger Steak for Meat Loaf, Lb.	18c
Hams—Whole or Half—All Brands, Lb.	28c
Hams Sliced—First Cut, Lb.	30c
Hams Sliced—Center Cuts, Lb.	48c
Hams—Small Sugar-Cured, Lb.	18c
Beef Short Ribs, Lb.	16c
Beef—Chippd; Fine in Omelet or Toast, Lb.	70c
Veal Stew—For Pies, Lb.	18c
Lamb Legs—Use Mint Sauce, Lb.	39c
Lamb Chops—Loin or Rib, Lb.	45c
Lamb Roast—Bone Out, Lb.	31c
Lamb Stew—With English Peas, Lb.	18c
Large Sour Pickles—3 for	12c
Beef—Rolled Roast to Make Sandwiches, Lb.	25c
Pork Shoulder Roast, Lb.	23c
Pork Chops—Loin or Ribs, Lb.	28c
Nock Wush—Cook with beans or cabbage, Lb.	28c
Dried Salt Pork—Boiled with all kinds greens Lb.	15c

SELF SERVICE
NIFTY JIFFY GROCERY SYSTEM

ALWAYS
The Best For Less

-- CORN --
Extra Fancy Large Ears Young and Tender Each 2½c Midsummer Price

Baley Georgia
SQUASH, lb. 6½c

Young, Tender, Georgia
Beans, Qt. 9c
First of the Season

Homegrown Georgia
Cabbage Large Heads Ea. 7½c

Fancy Georgia
BEETS Just the Right Size. Large Bunch 7c

Georgia Green Bell
Peppers Large Size Ea. 2c

Fancy Georgia
Cucumbers Ea. 1c

Goldell
Butter Finest Quality Georgia Lb. 48c

Fancy Georgia
Carrots Bunch 4c

Homegrown Early June
PEAS Qt. 5c

Homegrown Spring
ONIONS Large Bunch 7½c

Homegrown
SPINACH Lb. 5c

On Trial for Husband's Murder

MRS SNYDER, WHO HAS CONFESSED PART IN MURDER OF HER HUSBAND.

CONFESSION TO MURDER BY WIDOW GRIPS COURT

Continued from first page.

seeker after happiness, a headstrong and rebellious woman, who asked herself often "what am I getting out of life?" And found no answer, perhaps because, aside from her body which was already losing its first, fresh nordic firmness, she had little to put into life. And the third was Judd, the trig business man who thought himself a devil of a fellow sent by chance to become a receptacle for her hatred of her husband.

Humor Is Sardonic.

Sardonic humor was lent to the expose of Judd's hollow philandering by Justice Townsend Scudder, who ruled that the jury disregard all references to the defendant Gray in Mrs. Snyder's guileless recital of his sorry capers.

Gray's own confession will be put into evidence Wednesday. The court permitted his attorneys to take a copy of it home with them Tuesday night.

During the reading of Mrs. Snyder's, Gray huddled in his chair, his face a beety color, one nervous white hand fingering his chin and his tight-lipped mouth. His lawyer, William J. Millard, a grayed court room vet, tried to distract him from the flowing words with bright whispered conversation, but to no avail.

"My name is Ruth May Snyder," began the reading district attorney, "and I want to make a full and truthful statement about death of my husband—"

The courtroom, packed like a big box with a single layer of human sardines neatly wedged into the bottom, leaned forward in concert.

"—I will be 32 years of age on Sunday, March 27, 1927—my mother, Josephine Brown, born in Sweden—my father, Harry Brown, born in Norway—graduate of high school—worked for the telephone and then took a secretarial course—and met my husband, Albert Snyder while I was employed with the Cosmopolitan magazine. I was 19 then and he was 32, employed as an artist—"

They Were Married.

And so the little blonde stenographer and the artist were married on July 24, 1915, in the Bronx by a pastor Young. In 1917 Lorraine was born. Five years later they were living in their Queens Village bungalow, Albert making $115 a week and managing to pay for the house, which cost $11,500 with a $4,000 mortgage.

"But I began having trouble with my husband almost immediately after my marriage—he was like a man of 50 to me—I was apparently too giddy for his years. We quarreled quite frequently. He took care of me and my daughter all right from a financial standpoint, but—"

Then in the office of the Bien Jolet Corset company she met Gray, "introduced by a Mr. Folsom, who I knew was connected with the stocking business." Gray had a fine territory for selling corsets and he appeared to the blonde matron as—

"A slight built man of about 130 or 1[illegible]0 pounds, fair complexion, brown curly hair, clean shaven, wears glasses with the brims over his ears."

Her first intimate experience with Gray was in the Imperial hotel in July, 1925.

"I was constantly being belittled by my husband—he was constantly picking and nagging at me. I could not divorce him and—

"Mr. Gray was the only man who would listen to my troubles. I told him more and more"—

An so, Mrs. Snyder related, every time they met she would tell Gray of all she had had to endure in between—of the details of domestic arguments over money, duty and the Buick car.

At length her letters to Gray also became loaded with her troubles.

She wrote him that her husband had threatened to blow her brains out.

Gray Wrote Back.

Gray wrote back and wanted to know if she thought "he" would really do it. She replied that "he" was capable of anything.

So a "secret code" was developed and finally Gray came to understand that "it was better to get him (my husband) before he got me."

Gray, apparently devilled until he could hardly sell corsets, by all these troubles, met Mrs. Snyder on March 5 and handed her the window weight he had purchased at Kingston, N. Y. She took it home and hid it.

The date was set for a few days later. Gray came to the house. The weight and chloroform were ready, the husband was asleep, but the conspirators got cold feet.

"The two of us cried like babies and I said to him, 'Go on home, you're not going to do it.'

"The next day I got a letter from Mr. Gray from Buffalo saying he was glad I sent him home."

He probably had heaved sighs of relief all the way to Buffalo. But he wasn't through so easily. Only a couple of days later Gray received a tearful epistle from his "Momsie" to the effect that her old husband had again told her she could either "get to hell out" or he would blow her brains out.

Doubting not a word, Gray sat down and wrote "that we're going to deliver the goods Saturday, which I knew from my understanding with Mr. Gray that we were to do the job of getting rid of my husband, on Saturday, March 19, 1927."

He Held Weight.

"When I went into my mother's room Mr. Gray had the window weight which I had shown in the district attorney's office. I had brought the window weight up from the cellar that afternoon to have it all ready for Mr. Gray.

"We had arranged also for Mr. Gray to get a bottle of chloroform and when he went into my mother's room he had the bottle. He also had a piece of cheese cloth and cotton waste with him.

"In addition to that he had a blue cotton handkerchief and he put the waste in the cotton handkerchief and then poured the chloroform on the waste and cotton handkerchief. The original paper that was on the weight when I first received it from Mr. Gray was on it Saturday night.

"I left a quart of liquor for him on Saturday night.

"He kissed me and walked into my husband's room.

"There were no lights in the house. He walked from me, where I was standing in my mother's bedroom into my own bedroom and I followed him into the hall.

"I stood in the hall. In the darkness I could see Mr. Gray raise his arm, holding what I believed to be the weight in his hand and in the darkness the white paper around the weight stood out.

"I saw this weight in Mr. Gray's hand start to travel and immediately heard a thud and my husband groaned twice after I heard the thud. I saw Mr. Gray tie my husband's hands behind his back.

"When Mr. Gray struck my husband he was lying on his left side. He tied his hands behind his back and put the blue handkerchief and the waste with the chloroform on it on the pillow and then turned my husband face down on the pillow so that the waste and blue handkerchief with the chloroform on it, would cover his nose and mouth. He then covered his head with the blankets to make sure of suffocation. He then tied his feet.

"I'm quite sure that Mr. Gray then came out of the room and said to me, 'I guess that's it.'

"We then went down stairs and took the weight and his shirt and the blood-stained paper down to the cellar and burned the shirt and the paper with the bloodstains on it, in the furnace. We then put the window weight, sprinkled with ashes into the tool box and then we came upstairs to the livingroom and sat there.

"To Make Sure."

"While we were sitting there, he thought of binding his neck with the wire to make sure of everything. He took this piece of wire from his pocket.

"He tightened it up with his fingers. While Mr. Gray and I were in my mother's room before he went into my husband's room, we had planned that in order to avoid detection, to upset the house and throw the stuff in the house around, so that it would like a burglary or robbery and we had planned that I was to tell the police that it was robbery.

"After upsetting everything upstairs we then came down stairs and upset everything and then I took the wallet out of my husband's pocket.

"I gave Mr. Gray the contents of this wallet. I didn't count how much it was.

"Before he left he tied my feet, my hands and I lay down on my mother's bed, where I remained until about 8 o'clock when I rolled out of the bed and crawled to my daughter's door and awakened her and told her to get Mrs. Mulhauser, a neighbor.

"I was in love with Mr. Gray and Mr. Gray loved me," Mrs. Snyder said as a sort of explanatory conclusion to her confession. "If he had not threatened to take my life, we would not have thought of taking his life."

David Belasco, the veteran theatrical producer, was one of the audience to hear this document read. He gave out an interview later in which he declared he was firmly of the opinion this was a "love murder" and if Mrs. Snyder thought of money, it was only to get silk stockings, fancy underwear and other fineries.

Peter M. Daly, assistant district attorney, was on the stand throughout the reading of the confession. He was put through a gruelling cross-examination by Dana Wallace and Edgar F. Hazleton, Mrs. Snyder's lawyers, to show that the statement was obtained by third-degree methods.

Daly stoutly maintained that it was not, although he admitted that Mrs. Snyder was not officially arrested until the morning of March 22, after having been in the hands of the police nearly two days.

Former Police Commissioner George V. McLaughlin, who solved the crime, was one of the 12 witnesses Tuesday.

Another was Milton C. Fidgeon, the host at the suburban bridge party that prefaced the murder. He testified that Mrs. Snyder, after the first round, asked that her drinks be served to her husband.

Arthur W. Stanford, another guest, corroborated the stout and uncomfortable Fidgeon's testimony.

Judd Gray's impressions of what the murder was all about are expected to be revealed in his own statement first thing Wednesday.

PERRY-MARIETTA ROAD WILL OPEN WITH MOTORCADE

Macon, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—Representatives from each county along Georgia's first 141-mile stretch of paved highway between Perry and Marietta, will meet at the Macon Chamber of Commerce Friday morning at 11 o'clock to make final plans for the two motorcades which will celebrate the completion of this highway May 25.

Thousands of Georgians are expected to be in the two motorcades, one forming at Perry and the other at Marietta on that date. The groups will move toward each other, meeting at the Spalding county line, north of Griffin, where the last shovelful of concrete will be poured, cementing together north and south Georgia with a continuous ribbon of pavement along the backbone of the state.

SPRING WEATHER, TEMPERATURES UP, FORECAST FOR DAY

Continued fine spring weather, with slightly higher temperatures is the official weather forecast for operagoers today, according to C. F. von Herrmann. The weather will be ideal and the temperatures will probably range between 58 and 74 degrees it was stated. The temperatures Tuesday ranged from 52 as the low mark to 71 during the early hours of the afternoon.

All weather indications point to several days of bright spring weather, according to officials at the local weather bureau.

GULF
Venom
A Powerful Insecticide

Kills Flies Mosquitoes and all insects

Easy to spray, harmless, will not stain. Venomize Pests early in season

½ pt. 50c Qt. $1.25
1 pt. 75c Gal. 4.00
One pint and Sprayer $1.00

At all good stores

Gulf Refining Company
No. 2

Our 41st Anniversary
and Second Anniversary
Sale
Begins Thursday
April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS
no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

ROAST BEEF GRAVY makes a wonderful appetizing dressing when seasoned with LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

ROGERS
Southern Grocery Stores, Inc.

QUALIFIED By Quality

The foods you buy in Rogers stores carry an unqualified guarantee: "You must be satisfied or your money will be refunded." Could such a guarantee be given unless the merchandise was qualified by quality?

The price you pay for quality — at Rogers — is lower than the average price for equivalent quality elsewhere.

Passes all city requirements---Stands all tests---

Sweet Milk
Quality Milk at Lowest Prices
Pint 5c Quart 10c
Sold with a Guarantee

Fresh Georgia Red Valentine
BEANS Qt. 10c

Tender, Yellow SQUASH, lb. 5c

Baking POTATOES, lb. 4½c

IN ALL CITY MARKETS
Swift's Premium, Armour's Star, Puritan—Black Hawk
Hams
Halves or Whole lb. 28c

IN STORES as Well as MARKETS
Pure Hog LARD lb. 15½c

There's a 6c Saving on Every One
Electric Light BULBS
25c Sellers
40-watt or 25-watt frosted bulbs—guaranteed for 1000 light hours. Sold everywhere for 25c; special for today 19c

FIXTURE MEN OPEN CONVENTION TUESDAY

The sixteenth annual convention of the National Commercial Fixture Manufacturers' association held its open session Tuesday morning at the Biltmore hotel with business discussions, reports, and an address on "Specifications of Special Cabinet Work," by A. B. Nachtegall, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Tuesday afternoon was devoted to business of the convention.

F. E. Lutchfield, first southern president of the organization, called the meeting to order after a meeting of the executive committee, Tuesday morning. The address of welcome was delivered by former Mayor James L. Ker.

For 13 Days

Watch These Low Prices

$25.00 Set of Teeth $12.50

$10.00 Gold Crowns Bridge Work Per Tooth $5.00

Guaranteed to Fit

Remember

Dr. E. G. Griffin Personally in Charge

All Classes of Dental Work at Reduced Prices

DR. E. G. GRIFFIN'S Gate City Dental Rooms

63½ Whitehall St. Lady Attendant Hours—8-5:30 Sunday, 9-12 Phone WAlnut 8570

MEMORIAL DAY CROWD VISITS LAKEWOOD PARK

Memorial day was fittingly observed at Lakewood Amusement park Tuesday when hundreds of Atlantans visited the recreation center. The largest crowd since opening day thronged the midway and took boat rides on the lake. Hundreds crowded the large dancing pavilion Tuesday night and enjoyed special dance music.

The park opens at 10 o'clock in the morning and closes at 11 o'clock at night each week day.

LAST RITES HELD FOR J. C. A. BRANAN

Funeral services for J. C. A. Branan, 86, formey mayor of Kirkwood, who died Sunday afternoon at the residence on Boulevard-DeKalb, were held Tuesday morning from the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son. The Rev. Charles L. Bass officiated and interment was in Oakland cemetery.

Mr. Branan was a prominent railroad engineer for many years, until he tired several years ago. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He had lived in Atlanta for 72 years.

A. P. DIRECTORS REELECT NOYES

New York, A . 26.—(AP)—Frank B. Noyes, of the Washington (D. C.) Star was reelected president of The Associated Press at a meeting today of the new board of directors.

The following additional officers were named: First vice president, Frederick I. Thompson, Mobile (Ala.) Register; second vice president, W. J. Pape, Waterbury (Conn.) Republican; counsellor, Melville E. Stone; secretary, Kent Cooper; assistant secretary, Jackson S. Elliott; treasurer, J. R. Youatt.

The executive committee, reelected today, includes: President Noyes, Adolph S. Ochs, Clark Howell, E. Lansing Ray, Elbert H. Baker, Robert McLean and Benjamin H. Anthony.

40 PULLMAN CARS TO AID SUFFERERS IN FLOODED AREA

The Pullman company, is sending 25 Pullman cars as well as some dining cars to Vicksburg, Miss., for use in housing of flood refugees there, it was announced here Tuesday by Colonel W. M. Camp, division supervisor. The first group of cars left Atlanta Monday afternoon.

The Pullman company donated use of some 40 cars in aiding refugees of the Florida hurricane last fall, Colonel Camp said.

BOY SCOUT WARREN WINS BROOKHAVEN CLEAN-UP AWARD

Boy Scout Howard Warren, son of S. D. Warren, of Brookhaven, Tuesday was awarded the first prize of $2.50, offered by the newly organized Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce in its campaign to clean up that section. Young Warren collected the greatest number of discarded tin cans to win the first prize.

Other prize winners in the contest for Brookhaven boys include Lawton Hill, J. E. Echols, Jr., Frank Walker, Douglas Wright, Lloyd Bowen, Grady Lambert and J. W. Gibson, Jr.

The work accomplished by the boys resulted in cleaning the neighborhood of 50 truckloads of cans.

Purse Snatched.

Miss Mary Walton, of 404 Tenth street, reported to police Tuesday that her purse containing a small amount of money was snatched from her Monday night as she was going home from work. She was walking on Tenth street near her home at the time, police were told.

Oratory Contest Winners Named In 12 Districts

With the selection of Andrew Gilbert, student of the Brunswick High school, as the representative from the eleventh district in the fourth national oratorical contest, sponsored in Georgia by The Constitution, the district contests class and interest centers now in the state finals to be held in Atlanta next Saturday afternoon when a state winner will be selected.

Those who will represent the 12 districts are: First, Miss Nellie Weeks, of Millen; second, Baxter Williams, of Bainbridge; third, Miss Mary Elia Montfort, of Fort Gaines, fourth, Willard Harrell, of West Point; fifth, Leigh Skinner, of Decatur; sixth, Threatt Moore, Jr., of Jackson; seventh, Robert Walton, of Cartersville; eighth, John Braselton, of Jefferson; ninth, Charles W. Fortson, of Washington; tenth, Gilbert F. Schumaker, of Augusta; eleventh, Andrew Gilbert, Brunswick; twelfth, Miss Eliazbeth Heath, of Stillmore.

The state contest will be held in the house of representatives at the state capitol, the exercises to begin at 3 o'clock. There will be 12 speeches of approximately 10 minutes long.

The program will open with the singing of the national anthem, followed by the invocation. Dr. Joseph S. Stewart, director of the contest in Georgia, will introduce Clark Howell, editor of The Constitution, who will explain the purposes of the contest. Contest speeches will then follow.

The judges and presiding officer at the state meet include Judge Samuel C. Atkinson, of the supreme court of Georgia; Colonel Sanders McDaniel, prominent Atlanta attorney; Dr. Plato Durham, of Emory university, well-known educator, and Judge Hugh Dorsey, former governor of Georgia.

Information received at contest headquarters indicates that high schools near Atlanta that have representatives are planning to send big delegations of students and citizens to boost their representative. West Point, Cartersville, Jackson, Jefferson, Washington, Decatur, have indicated that a large number of students will accompany their representative to the state finals, these towns being within a few hours' ride of Atlanta.

The district representatives won $15 in gold and the state winner will receive $100 in gold, with the second and third winners in the state contest being awarded $10 each. These prizes are offered by The Constitution.

The state winner will enter the zone contest to be held in Birmingham on May 7 and the winner there will enter the national finals to be held in Washington on May 27.

The zone and national winners are given a six weeks' trip abroad with all expenses paid.

The contest, national in scope, is held under the sponsorship of the American Bar association, Randolph Leigh, Washington, being national director. High school students are participants in the contest and the subjects of all orations must be on some phase of the United States Constitution.

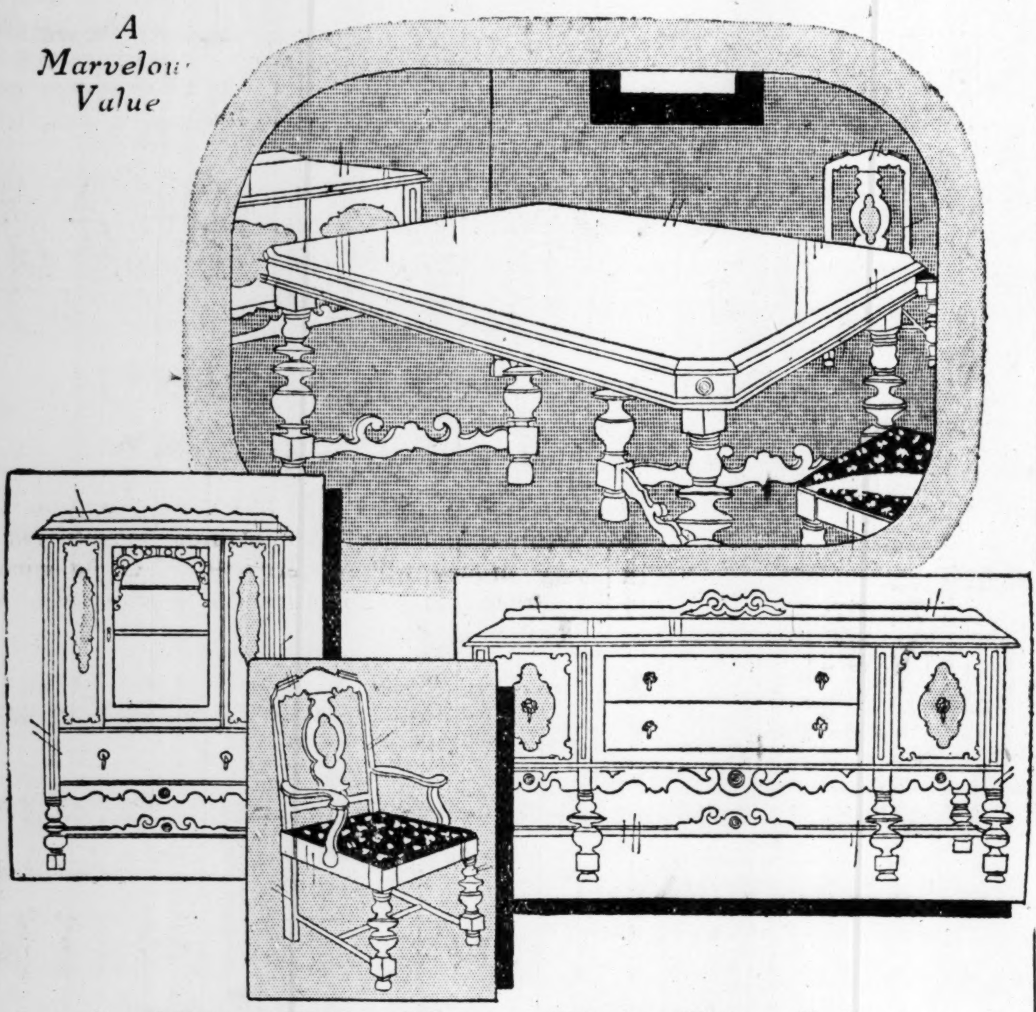
There Is Something in a Name :-: Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

SPRING FURNITURE SALE

Every Article of Furniture Reduced---Club Payment Plan 10% Cash---10% Monthly

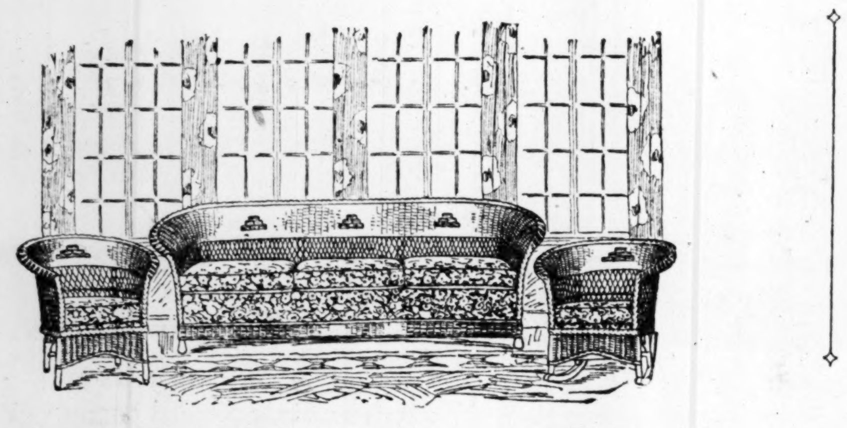
Don't miss the opportunity offered during this great event to SAVE on the furniture you need. Hundreds are buying here now, for every piece of furniture in our immense stock is greatly reduced in price. Out-of-town Grand Opera visitors are especially and cordially invited to visit us and see the amazing values we are offering in good furniture.

A Marvelous Value



$290 10-Piece Massive Dining Room Suite

Exactly as pictured, in walnut, with beautiful burl walnut fronts. The raised panels are in soft tone maple. Consists of 66-in. sideboard, china cabinet, serving table, extension table, 5 side and 1 arm chair. An outstanding value. Only 3 to sell $195



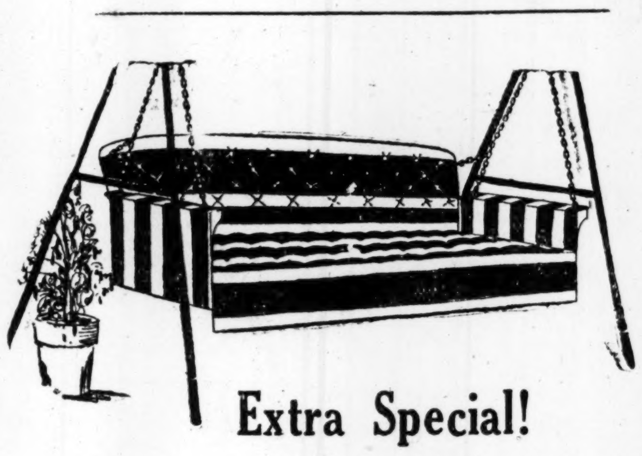
Bed Davenport Suite

For the Unexpected Guest

In fibre—Nachmann springs, loose cushions—consisting of Bed Davenport, Chair and Rocker—one of the outstanding features of this suite is, that with one motion the Davenport can be converted into a full-size bed, and there is a full-length Cedar Chest built into the bottom for storage of bed linens. Can be furnished in black, with burnt orange trimming, or in the light forest brown. The loose spring cushions are covered in beautiful designs of fine grade cretonnes. $135 value; Spring Furniture Sale price only $89

Featured Values in BEDROOM SUITES

$313 6-piece beautifully decorated enamel Bedroom Suite, with twin beds..	$213
$294 5-piece walnut Bedroom Suite	$245
$467 8-piece maple Bedroom Suite, with twin beds	$367
$623 decorated Bedroom Suite in maple, 8 pieces, twin beds	$540
$286 6-piece mahogany Bedroom Suite	$214
$456 Berkey & Gay walnut Bedroom Suite, 7 pieces	$395



Extra Special!

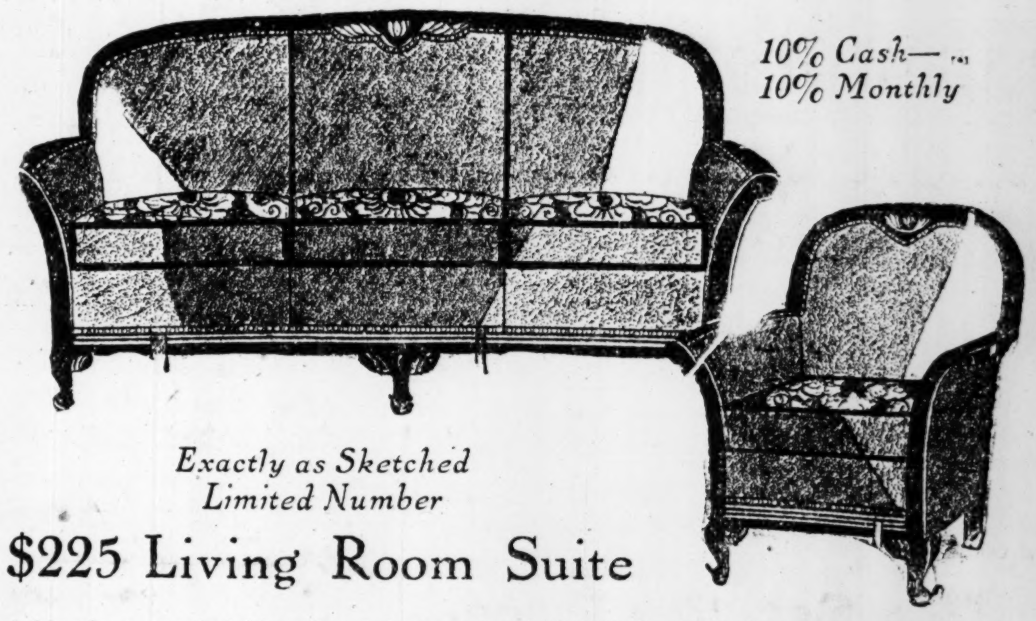
Couch Hammocks

$50 Couch Hammock, exactly as pictured. The seat and back are filled with first-class felted cotton, the tubular frames are extra heavy, this being in every respect a high-grade production. Comes in one color only, 5-ft. length. The Hammock and Stand complete, Spring Sale price—only 12 to sell $30

Reduced Prices on LIVING ROOM FURNITURE

$210 all-mohair overstuffed 2-piece Living Room Suite	$159
$285 all-mohair Davenport Bed Suite, 2 pieces	$245
$350 overstuffed Grand Rapids Living Room Suite, all-mohair, 2 pieces.....	$280
$275 Valentine-Seaver, 2-piece overstuffed Living Room Suite	$225
$370 Karpen mohair and tapestry overstuffed 2-piece Living Room Suite.	$270
EXTRA SPECIAL!—3-piece Jacquard Living Room Suite	$159

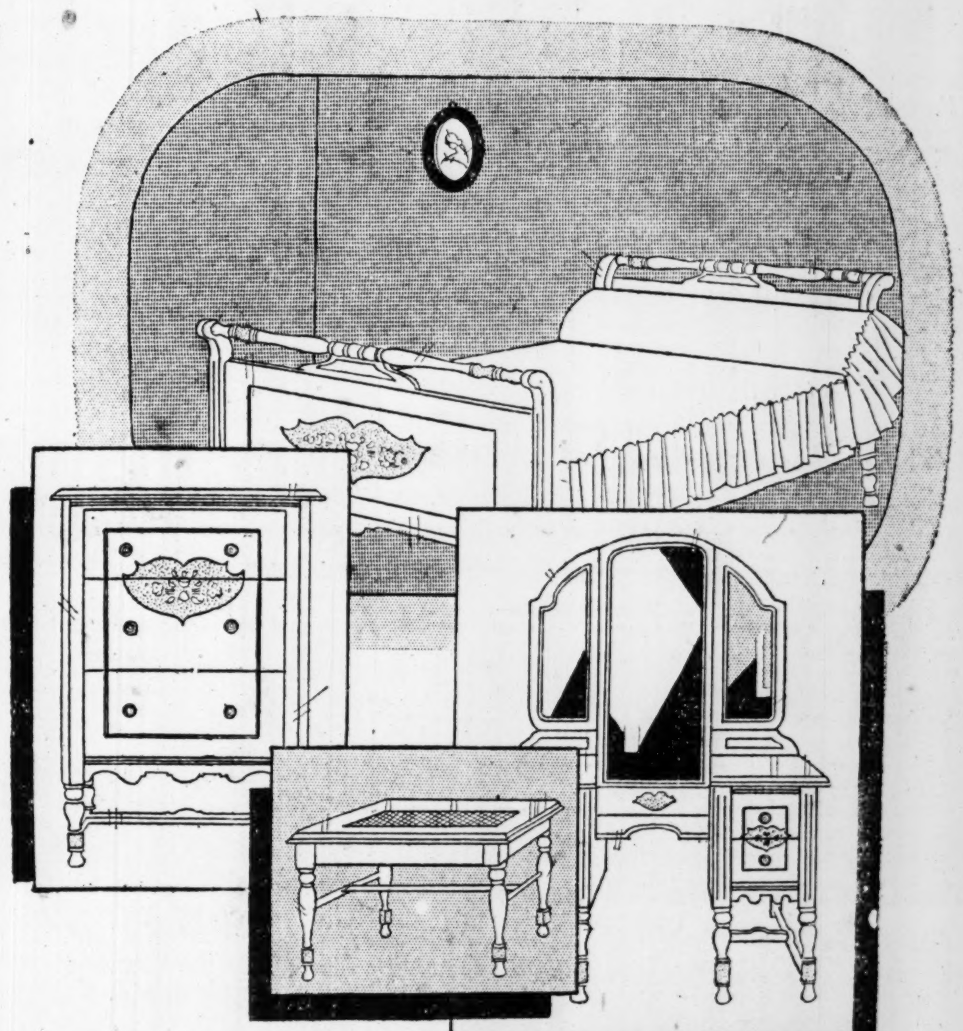
10% Cash— 10% Monthly



Exactly as Sketched Limited Number

$225 Living Room Suite

A luxurious, comfortable suite of davenport and club chair. Full wood frame, hand-carved. Web bottom construction for greater service. All outside arms and back covered in same material as front. Nachmann springs. Reverse cushions covered in figured silk damask. Comes in rose-taupe, moss green, or plum mohair. $185



$195 6-Piece Old Ivory and Parchment Decorated Bedroom Suite

Exactly as pictured. Consists of full-size Vanity, Bed, Chest of Drawers, Bench, Chair and Rocker. You will find this a wonderfully well-constructed suite, priced far below its real worth. Only 4 to sell........ $115

EXTRA SPECIAL!

50-lb. all-felt Simmons Mattress, guaranteed never to lump. Extra special	$9.95
Brown mahogany Simmons Bed, with new turn spindles; latest design	$9.95
Simmons guaranteed Link Springs	$5.95

Freight Paid Within Radius of 300 Miles

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Furniture Department---Fourth Floor

EXTRA SPECIAL!

$30 Coxwell Chair, fine tapestry seats and backs	$17.75
$40 Day Bed, full coil springs, brown mahogany ends; makes into full size bed	$29.75
$85 brown mahogany Secretary	$68

Hundreds of Refugees Sit in Sun To Get Warm

PITIFUL SCENES MEET VISITOR ON LEVEES

Memphis, Tenn., April 26.—(AP)—Weary and weak from the long battle with the raging flood in the Mississippi river and its tributaries, hundreds of refugees in the concentration camp of the Red Cross here sit idly in the warm sun of fading April, wondering when the waters will recede and what will be left when they are gone.

Most of the refugees have vague, indefinite plans of returning to their homes, digging their belongings out of the mud and drifts and tilling the fertile soil now covered by an angry sea. Some have no plans and are merely wondering what to do. Others declare frankly that they have had enough and will never return to the great empire separated from the great rivers by a few feet of earthen levees.

And Red Cross officials say the picture is typical of every camp in the stricken area. Thousands of negro tenant farmers declare they are through with "delta farming." Other thousands are trying to solve the problem of whether it is best to return to wrecked homes with wrecked hopes, or seek new fields of labor.

Plantation owners are wondering whether the water will recede fast enough to enable them to grow a profitable crop this year. Some doubt that it will and these are making no plans for the year other than the general repair of the plantations. The experts are convinced that thousands of acres, which usually produce big cotton crops, will lie idle this year as a result of the flood.

Pitiful, almost tearful, scenes greet visitors at the local concentration camp. Hundreds of men, women and children of both races are huddled in groups, and all they talk about is the horrors of the flood. They have established temporary homes in the big camp and each family has its own fire-side group. They are fed and clothed by the Red Cross and the American Legion, and the city looks after their physical ills.

GOVERNOR ORDERS LEVEE DYNAMITED

Continued From First Page.

lief measures have been provided and will be put into immediate effect. The damage resulting from this act will be paid. The faith of the government of the state of Louisiana and the city of New Orleans is pledged to this course.

"Therefore, I do hereby declare that a public emergency exists and in order to adequately deal with this situation, an artificial break in the levee of the Mississippi river is hereby ordered to be created at or near Poydras plantation in the parish of St. Bernard, La., at 12 o'clock noon, on Friday, April 29, 1927, which is the place and time recommended to me by the engineers, and I hereby commit the execution of this order to the chief of state board of engineers and the adjutant general of Louisiana."

The proposed crevasses would be about 2,000 feet wide and near the scene of the break in 1922 which flooded 70,000 acres of farming and trapping lands in Plaquimine and St. Bernard parishes. Engineers believe that an opening of that width would lower the level at New Orleans three feet, since one only six hundred feet wide cut the river stage in New Orleans almost two feet in 1922.

SECRETARY OF WAR GIVES PERMISSION.

Washington, April 26.—(United News.)—Secretary of War Davis today gave his consent to breaking the Mississippi levee at Poydras, La., if this emergency measure is found necessary by Governor Simpson, of Louisiana, and the Mississippi river commission to relieve the flood waters.

Davis, replying to a request from the Louisiana governor, pointed out, however, that federal officials can not authorize making the break, which is a state matter, and can not assume any responsibility for damages.

War department officials estimate that the proposed break at Poydras, which is below New Orleans, would lower the level of the river at New Orleans about a foot and one-half. Davis granted his conditional consent after taking the matter up with Major General Edgar Jadwin, chief of army engineers and the Mississippi river commission, which now is in the disaster area.

Laid Before Cabinet.

The secretary of war laid the request of the Louisiana governor before the cabinet today, and it was announced afterward at the white house that the federal government had no authority to assume responsibility for making a break. This, it was said, was the general opinion of cabinet members.

Davis agreed conditionally three hours later.

"The war department," Davis wired to the governor, "cannot assume responsibility for any of the injuries and damages resulting from such a break, but will cooperate and render all assistance within its power."

In his request, Governor Simpson said that "The state of Louisiana and the city of New Orleans hereby pledge their faith, and undertake and agree to compensate any and all persons who must suffer damages as the result of this act."

Anticipating more serious conditions in the Mississippi flood area than the critical conditions now, the war department today planned further relief measures.

Peak Not Reached.

An official statement said that the peak of the flood will not be reached along the Mississippi for several days.

"Meanwhile, much is being accomplished in preparation for ultimate relief measures," it added.

"Military authorities are in close contact with relief and municipal agencies, which it is said, are well organized to meet the coming emergencies.

"Besides steps being taken locally, the war department also has new measures for aid. Five thousand tents are being sent today from the reserve depot at Cumberland, Pa., to Camp Jesup, Ga. From Philadelphia 7,500 tents have been sent to the St. Louis depot and 3,500 to New Orleans.

"An additional shipment to Baton Rouge, La., of 1,000 blankets, 640 pyramid tents, 79 wall tents and 114 storage tents has been authorized by the commander of the fourth corps area.

DRASTIC MEASURES TAKEN BY GOVERNOR.

Memphis, Tenn., April 26.—(AP)—Drastic measures to protect New Orleans from the floods that daily are laying waste vast new areas in Arkansas and Mississippi were agreed upon tonight by the Mississippi river commission and army engineers.

A great opening will be made at noon Friday in the levee on the east side of the Mississippi river ten miles below the Crescent City to ease the flood waters which now threaten New Orleans. This would inundate two parishes in southeastern Louisiana.

Evacuation of these parishes began late today, but some of the trappers of that region who attended a meeting in New Orleans returned to their armed defense of the levees, vowing they would remain until they had been guaranteed against the losses that would accrue to them by dynamiting the dikes.

Adjutant General Toombs issued an order for the immediate mobilization of the Louisiana National Guard. He said this was a precautionary measure to meet any possible developments in the flood situation.

While the danger to New Orleans is not thought to be imminent, army engineers long have been apprehensive for the safety of that port when the crest of the flood located today off Helena, Ark., passed Vicksburg to join with the rushing waters coming down the Red river from Arkansas and the Yazoo river from Mississippi.

Should a break occur on the east side of the river below Natchez, the engineers said, New Orleans would be inundated with a tremendous loss of property and perhaps of life. Thus far the strengthened levees have held but whether they could do so under the vastly increased volume and pressure of water was regarded as doubtful.

Waters Overflow.

While the question of protecting New Orleans was occupying the attention of engineers and federal and state officials, the raging overflow waters of the Arkansas and Mississippi were hourly making more acute the stuation in both southeastern Arkansas and Mississippi delta region.

Conditions in Arkansas gave Red Cross officials here the most concern for the floods from the Arkansas river were spreading with alarming rapidity, inundating six more towns—Calion, Watson, Endore, Kilso, Dermott and Tiller—and rapidly swelling the army of refugees.

Far to the northeast the situation also was made worse by two breaks in the Kochtitzke drainage district levee four miles south of Dell, a refugee concentration point. It was estimated that 20 square miles would be flooded with the probability that the waters would go into three more towns, McFerrin, Kiver and Marie.

Arkansas City, on the Mississippi river below Helena, was reported under from 7 to 14 feet of water with 3,000 refugees on the levee and about 3,000 marooned in the lowlands. The Red Cross dispatched the barge line steamer Cairo to this town to remove the refugees from the levee.

Further eastward in Arkansas the Ouachita river went out of its banks north of El Dorado and it was reported that the town of Calion had been flooded and that from 50,000 to 75,000 acres of land in Ashley county soon would be under water.

In the Mississippi delta section the flood waters from the Mississippi river and the backwaters from the overflowed Yazoo made junction south of Rolling Fork and that little town was reported under water. It also was stated that the surging waters had carried out practically all highway bridges north of Rolling Fork.

Communications Cut.

Much of the delta country was cut off from communication during the day and only meager reports were received. Dispatches from Greenwood said urgent calls for aid for refugees had come from Isola and north of Belzoni and boats were dispatched to that section.

Rescuers from Greenville, where the water was rising rapidly, also continued their search in the flooded area for refugees still reported clinging to housetops and trees or seeking a haven on Indian mounds.

The bodies of a young man and a young woman were taken to Greenville from Stringtown, where they were found. They have not been identified. These were the only additional deaths reported from this area, but it was feared that a number of plantation tenants who failed to heed warnings to seek safety on the levees had lost their lives.

A new concentration camp at Deeson on the plantation of the Pine and Delta Land company was reported here by L. K. Salsbury, manager of the plantation, who came to Memphis by airplane to enlist the aid of Senator McKellar, of this state, in obtaining Red Cross and government aid in caring for the refugees, mostly negro employees of the plantation.

COLONEL DANFORTH SENT TO AREA

Major General Malin Craig, commandant of the Fourth Corps area, will be represented in the Mississippi flood section by Colonel Charles Danforth, chief of the Fourth Corps air service. Colonel Danforth will cooperate with relief workers in the flooded area and will report to his superior officer on the best manner in which the army can help in the work.

RED CROSS DEPOT SET UP IN MEMPHIS.

Memphis, April 26.—(United News.)—As the crest of [illegible] great flood moved southward, imperiling New Orleans, the Red Cross today established a large depot here for the distribution of supplies to the army of 200,000 refugees.

Henry M. Baker, national Red Cross director of relief work, has requisitioned 25,000 tents, 25,000 cots, 100,000 blankets, 200 field kitchens and other supplies from the war department.

In the face of threatened epidemics from contaminated water, a new exodus began at Greenville, Miss., only 5,0000 of whose 15,000 population remained when the rampant Mississippi surged into the town.

Leland and Arcola, Mississippi delta towns, were in desperate circumstances as food supplies ran low. These towns were crowded with refugees from the surrounding flood country.

$2,172,000 RELIEF FUND NOW RAISED

Washington, April 26.—The Red Cross flood relief fund reached $2,172,000 late this afternoon and officials predicted the halfway mark in the $5,000,000 drive would be passed by Wednesday morning.

From all parts of the nation and outlying territories contributions continue to pour into national headquarters here.

Funds have been sent the Red Cross from Hawaii and Port Au Prince, Haiti. In many instances chapters have raised the quotas assigned them and are starting new drives for additional funds. The Winston-Salem, N. C., chapter has gone $6,000 beyond its quota, with $7,000 already contributed. Of this amount $10,000 was contributed by the R. J. Reynolds tobacco company, and $1,000 by Marion Talley, Metropolitan opera star.

The spirit of a sympathetic people is best portrayed in Jacob Jauck, a civil war veteran of the national military home, Dayton, Ohio, who served with the union army. He gave $40. Miss Dorothy Williamson, director of Red Cross at the home, said Jauck brought in four installments of $10 each time he read accounts of the suffering the flood has caused.

The Flood At a Glance

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Deliberate flooding of a large area in southeastern Louisiana to save New Orleans has been agreed upon by army engineers and the Mississippi river commission with the tacit approval of the federal government.

Evacuation of the two parishes that would be affected by the break 10 miles south of the Crescent City already has been begun.

Trappers who visited New Orleans to protest against the action returned to their armed patrol of the levees until they receive a guaranty against losses from the flood.

Floods in Arkansas spread with alarming rapidity, inundating six more towns and many thousands of additional acres of farm lands.

New danger points developed in Pine Tree state with the overflowing of the Ouachita river below Camden and two crevasses developing in the Kochtitzke drainage district in the northeast.

Flood waters of the Mississippi and the Yazoo form junction in delta section of Mississippi, flooding Rolling Fork.

Army of refugees increased far beyond the 150,000 mark as more thousands flee before the swift-moving waters.

Three additional deaths increased the known total to more than 110 with estimates of the probable dead running as high as 500.

Nation's response to President Coolidge's call for funds passed the $2,000,000 mark, nearly half of the $5,000,000 immediately sought.

Red Cross medical director calls conference of health officers of seven states in flood area to coordinate their work with that of the Red Cross and United States public health service.

Rescue work continues in all sections with many more hundreds taken from perilous positions on housetops, in trees and from mounds and levees.

Secretary Hoover gets close-up picture of devastation in visit to Greenville, Miss., the largest of the flooded cities.

CONGRESS ACTION ON FLOODS SEEN

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, April 26.—Mississippi river valley flood control legislation is bound to be a major issue in the early days of the next congress, according to Senator Pat Harrison, democrat, of Mississippi, who declared today that senators and house members from valley states now suffering the worst floods in the country's history will unite in a demand for adequate relief and protective measures.

"The present situation," said the senator, who has returned to Washington after an extensive survey of conditions in the flooded districts in his own state, "will serve to force congress to pass remedial legislation. It is an engineering problem, but the solution will probably consist of raising the levees or dikes and the construction of reservoirs at the head-waters of the tributaries of the Mississippi."

Meanwhile, it became known, Representative Frank Reid, republican, of Illinois, chairman of the house flood control committee, may call an informal meting of his committee within the next few weeks to map plans for a revival of the flood control legislation which was killed in the last session. After exhaustive hearings, the committee unanimously approved a measure authorizing the appropriation of $100,000 to finance preliminary surveys of Mississippi river tributaries. The proposed appropriation was disapproved by the budget bureau, however, and the bill was shelved by the rules committee, which refused the special rule necessary to bring the measure to the floor for consideration.

THREE MEN DROWN IN SWOLLEN RIVER.

Calico Rock, Ark., April 26.—(AP) Three men were drowned in the swollen White river near here today while attempting to stretch a ferry cable. They were Will Collie, 40; Mack Flanery, 30, and Will Jones, 27. Their bodies have not been recovered.

AIRPLANES AID FIGHT FOR LEVEE.

Memphis, April 26.—(AP)—Airplanes were called upon late today to aid in the desperate fight which has been going on for several days and nights to hold the South Bend levee on the Arkansas river south of Pine Bluff.

Responding to a call relayed through Red Cross headquarters here, the military authorities at Little Rock agreed to rush planes to the scene with a large number of sacks to be filled with sand in an effort to strengthen the dykes. In a message to the Red Cross, Miss Katherine B. Monroe, of Pine Bluff, said the only hope of saving the levee was to get the sacks within three or four hours and added that if it did break it would "inundate all southeast Arkansas."

THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES FLEE TO NEW ORLEANS

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New Orleans, La., April 26.—Caravans of families were in an endless rush into New Orleans tonight after orders had been issued calling for the evacuation of two parishes which are to be flooded, making 10,000 persons homeless and causing property damage estimated at $20,000,000, to save the city of New Orleans from the Mississippi river overflow.

Scenes identical with memories of French and Belgian families fleeing ahead of the German armies twelve years ago, met the astonished gaze of onlookers. They brought a realization that this threatened invasion was war, war perhaps of a different variety than the word itself implies, but first a war with the elements, a war against an enemy that knows none of the mercies of the war among men; no women or children are spared if the Mississippi comes upon them unawares.

200,000 People Will Be Trapped By Rising Waters

BY ALFRED P. RECK.

Vicksburg, Miss., April 26.—(United News.)—Approximately 200,000 people in Louisiana along the Mississippi river from Vicksburg, Miss., to the mouth of the Red river, will be trapped by the rapidly rising flood, but government and state officials are powerless to help them, Charles H. West, senior member of the Mississippi river commission, told the United News today.

The flood is not expected to reach this section for two or three days but when it does it will spread out in Louisiana across the river from Natchez, Miss., covering thousands of acres of farm land and numerous small towns, West predicted.

50,000 Men At Work.

"We are leaving nothing undone," the commissioner said. "We have 50,000 men working on the levees, but when the great force of the flood hits this point, nothing will hold it back, I believe."

According to West, New Orleans should ride out the flood in spite of the fact that high waters are expected to exceed all previous records. The flood will not hit this section for a week or ten days.

"The danger to New Orleans depends to a great extent upon what happens between Vicksburg and Red river. Should the entire force of the Mississippi pour down on New Orleans without a break no one can tell what will happen," West said.

The Red river is rising rapidly, 20 miles south of here, and combined with return water from the levee break at Stop's landing, Miss., which is just reaching Vicksburg, West believes the new rise will start Wednesday and continue mounting for a week.

Faces Gravest Danger.

All danger has passed north of this city, the commissioner said, but with the combined waters of the Red river, the return water and the swollen Mississippi, the territory south faces the gravest danger.

From Greenville, Miss., 90 miles down the river to Vicksburg the vast area covered by the flood-swollen Mississippi resembles nothing more than a gigantic inland sea.

Houses dot the muddy surface of the waters with the waves stirred up by a strong southern wind lapping the eaves. Parts of unbroken levee stick-out like islands upon which all living things have gathered to escape the wrath of the floods.

A few remote houses snuggling in the wooded lands bordering the river have been caught in backwater. In some cases they appear deserted; on these people have gathered, climbing to the roofs while the relentless Mississippi pushes sluggishly on, higher and higher.

WHOLE POPULATION HUDDLES ON LEVEE.

Arkansas City, Ark., April 26.—(Via Seaplane to Little Rock.)—(AP) An Associated Press correspondent came into this flood devastated town today to find most of its population of 2,000 huddled on the levee and a number of their homes floating about in from 10 to 12 feet of water.

Mayor C. C. Hemmingway requested the correspondent to send out an appeal for food, clothing, other supplies and boats to aid in rescuing several thousand persons whom he said were marooned in the rural districts.

"Please tell the world that we need food, boats, shelter, tents and bedding," he mayor said. "There are 500 refugees here who want to leave. All of the people on the levee are in dire need. Any aid you can send the stricken town will be gratefully received."

DISEASE EPIDEMIC FEARED IN ARKANSAS.

Pine Bluff, Ark., April 26.—(AP) With several cases already reported, Monticello tonight was taking every measure to prevent an epidemic of pellagra and malaria among the hundreds of refugees now being taken care of there. Emergency wards have been established and serum is being rushed there to check the spread.

First reports of the disease were brought here today by Lieutenant Griff McSwine, of the government flying forces, who said there are 3,000 negroes and 1,000 white refugees being taken care of there. Of the white people four-fifths are women and children, he reported.

SUPPLIES BROUGHT BY COAST GUARD

Memphis, April 26.—(AP)—Food and other necessary supplies, including fuel for cooking, were being taken tonight to the people of Arkansas City aboard the coast guard cutter Kankakee from this city. Additional supplies will be loaded at Helena. In making this announcement, Red Cross headquarters here made public an official report of conditions at Arkansas City as observed by H. H. Righter, disaster relief chairman of the Helena, Ark., chapter, who flew over the town and later landed at Rosedale. The report said:

"These people are truly in a terrible fix. They are on top of the levee to the number of 1,200 or 1,500. Most of them are negroes. All the white women and children have been moved to the McArthur (steamboat) where they are being fed and housed. They will be moved in the McArthur to Rosedale, Miss., where they will entrain for Cleveland. They will, of course, be taken care of until they reach Cleveland, after which they will be self-supporting as all are members of families of means.

"The McArthur carried 100 tents and 1,000 blankets, which are being used to make the people on the levee as comfortable as possible. Food in small quantities plus a small amount of food saved locally is probably sufficient until help arrives.

"The water rose on the inside of the levee ten feet on Sunday night and is one and one-half foot deeper there than in the Mississippi. There is eight to ten feet clearance. The houses of the town are flooded and floated. There are 25 or 30 head of live stock. It is the wish of the men who are remaining on the levee to stay there."

FLOOD DONATIONS TOTAL $27,400

Continued from first page.

cross, Ga., $38.75; Second Baptist church, $36; David Marx, $35; J. R. Wells, Stone Mountain, $30; Theodore Roosevelt camp, $30; Mary Wells, $10; cash, $5; Mrs. Charles B. Wallace, $5; Mrs. Blance Elrod, $3; S. H. Beam, $5; Art Sign company, $5; Robert Gibbs, $1; C. D. Hopkins, $5; J. R. Wells, $30; N. B. Hidson, $10; Mrs. L. B. Joel, $10; Feist M. Strauss, $10; J. H. Penn, $4; Bernard McH. Cline, $10; C. A. Norton, $5; Mrs. M. E. Williams, $5; Richard I. Hilley, $10; W. E. Talley, $23.70; Mrs. Mae Duncan, $2; Dixie Plumbing company, $10; Green & Milam, $10; John M. Conley, $2.50; Gossett Fain company, $2.50; R. L. Miles, $5; L. E. Holloway, $3; M. M. Hall, $1; J. T. Elder, $3; R. T. Peavy, $2; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Swann, $3; J. B. Hoyt, $10; Peeples & Melone, $20; Milton J. Washer, $2; W. J. Zahn, $5; H. H. Thomas, $5; Claude S. Bennett, $10; T. T. Flager, $5; J. H. Hamilton, $2; Miss Helen Schaid, $5.

George C. Biggar, $2.50; F. R. Wood $10; H. H. Hardaway, $5; Mrs. E. W. Klein, $10; Mrs. A. M. Moore, $15; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Winship $20; Mrs. Kittie T. Cox, $5; Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Dawson $5; Misses Bowie $5; Sidney, $1; John Knox, $10; F. H. Jackson, $5; Helen Taylor, $5; W. E. Coleman, $5; E. T. Morgan, $2; R. C. Edwards, $5; Palmetto Baptist church, $67; Palmetto Methodist church, $68.40; DeWitt Todd, $10; A. J. Roper, $5; Georgia School Book Depository, $20; William H. Flint, $10; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Oensel, $10; Mrs. Lucian York, $10; Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Green, $10; Sadie Weiss, $2.50; cash, $5; E. J. Jones, $10; C. T. Jones, $5; Addison Hume, $1; Benjamin W. Sill, $10; Mrs. J. E. Sommerfield, $10; Mrs. G. R. Appelbaum, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Brannon, $15; Boulevard Park pharmacy, $5; W. G. Smith, $25; Frances Abercrombie, $2; Azile Jones, $1; L. A. Hawkins, $5; E. H. Phillips, $25; E. Stow, $10; Andrew Johnson, $18; Church of Our Saviour $3; Mrs. J. D. Couldman, $25; West End Christian church, $24; Robert Strickland, Jr., $5; Mrs. J. H. Zachery, $5; Mrs. Carrie Newcomb, $5; Nell M. Marquardt, $1; The Lowery company, $2.50; C. E. Williamson, $10; Emma E. Caldwell, $10; William B. Alhgreen, $5; John B. Chotworthy, $6; Rufus Parker, $2; Mrs. Mary W. Turner, $5; Second Baptist church, $25; Church of Holy Comforter, $25; David Woodward, $30; Rev. Taylor Morton, $8; Mrs. C. F. Clark, $5; Charles F. Woodward, $2; M. A. Coykenhail, $5; Julius Rosenburg, $1; Inman Park Methodist church $50; Inman Park Methodist church, $23.70; Lee Parker, $63.96; J. L. Gilstrap, $10; Catherine Whitman, $1; Walker M. Means, $5; C. L. Niall, $10; Janie Wells, $10; O. T. Fishback, $5; L. E. Chalenor, $10; W. T. Hudson, $2.50; W. Y. Roper, $5; Mrs. Frank T. Mason, $10; Robert D. Suter, $10; John W. Hanley, $10; Charles S. Heyman, $10; Myrtle Seckinger, $2; W. W. Causey, $2; Lucia A. Tiller, $5; National Library Bindery company, $10; Arthur Martin, $5; Mrs. G. A. LaBrant, $5; Mrs. S. W. Page, $2; M. M. Winter, $50; H. H. Friedwald, $5; Rosa F. Berman, $1; E. H. Cone, $10; C. W. Logan, $10; J. W. James, West End Baptist church $83.58; Lon Brooks, $4; Mrs. Mattie Schmit, $2; Haralson Bleckley, $5; L. W. Allen, $10; T. E. Williams, $1; Fred A. Hoyt, $25.

Total receipts listed here, $6,983.09.

Hoover Hurries To New Orleans With His Party

Greenville, Miss., April 26.—United News.)—On board the Mississippi river steamer Chisca. Riding before the crest of the Mississippi river flood, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, General Edgar Jadwin, chief of army engineers, and James L. Fieser, acting chairman of the Red Cross, were hurrying to New Orleans.

Efforts will be made to prepare the river front from Vicksburg to New Orleans to evacuate immediately upon first signs of danger. This section, accustomed to the angry writhings of the Mississippi, will be gripped by one of the worst floods in history unless levee breaks divert the waters from descending upon the Louisiana capital. A brief stop was made last night at Helena, Ark., riding high above the encroaching waters and caring for 12,000 refugees. After an inspection of Greenville, Miss., Hoover's party headed for Vicksburg where a conference between the commerce secretary, generalissimo of the flood relief, and officials of three states is scheduled.

At Greenville Hoover witnessed effects of the gigantic force of the Father of Waters, the town being one of the hardest hit along the entire Mississippi valley. Streets are covered with water, the river is creeping to the eves of many homes and rescue work is being pushed to human capacity. But the river is still rising.

A special train is scheduled to carry Hoover and his party from Vicksburg to New Orleans.

Stewart's Basement

A Great Clearance of Women's Shoes

This Week Only!

$3.95

Formerly to $15.00

1,643 Pairs!

MOST any kind of shoe you want! High heels—medium heels—low heels! Special Window! Extra salespeople! Every size—every width in the entire lot. Come Today! Buy! Save!

25 Whitehall St.

Stewart's
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.—25 Whitehall St.

25 Whitehall St.

Our 41st Anniversary
and Second Anniversary
Sale
Begins Thursday
April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

A free life-insurance policy with it!

"This Barrett Specification Roof is off your mind until 1947 at least—the 20 year bond guarantees that."

THAT'S what the Surety Bond (given to the owner of a Barrett Specification Roof) practically amounts to—life insurance. This Bond, issued by a nationally-known surety company, guarantees the long life of the roof—no repair or maintenance expense until 1947.

Twenty years is a long time. But service records show that the average roof of a Barrett Specification type lasts far longer—35 and more years without repairs.

Think it over. Then come in and see us. We lay Barrett Specification Roofs.

Barrett SPECIFICATION ROOFS

PRIDGEN ROOFING CO.
163 Whitehall St. Atlanta, Ga.
WAlnut 6949

CALIFORNIA

Take the scenic route of the BURLINGTON

The Burlington Route through Denver, the Pike's Peak region, the Royal Gorge, Scenic Colorado, and Salt Lake City—the only route of great scenic beauty to or from California.

Visit the American Wonderland, the Pacific Northwest, including Yellowstone and Rainier, or Glacier and Rainier National Parks. An ocean trip may be included.

Special Summer Tourist round trip fares make the cost surprisingly low—To California $108.25; to the Pacific Northwest $117.55; to California including the Pacific Northwest $130.91.

Let the Burlington Travel Bureau help you plan your trip.

SEND COUPON FOR FREE INFORMATION

Burlington Route
The National Park Line

Burlington Travel Bureau, Dept. C-1
822 Healy Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
H. R. Todd, Gen. Agt. Phone Walnut 0175

Please give me more information about your special low fares to California.

Name..........

Address..........

S. M. S.

Knabe
"Acknowledged the World's Best Piano"

Rosa
PONSELLE

The distinguished young star of the Metropolitan Opera Co., voices her appreciation of the Knabe Piano

"IT gives me extreme pleasure to congratulate you on the supremacy of the Knabe Piano. My fellow artists and my personal friends derive the greatest satisfaction when playing or hearing it. To me personally it is an inspiration. Accept my sincerest thanks."

Truly yours,
ROSA PONSELLE

EDICO PIANO CO.
241 Peachtree St.

OFFICIAL PIANO OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA

Record "Two-For-One Sale" Is Staged by Metropolitan

LONG-DISTANCE CONVERSATIONALIST DOES HER STUFF

BY LOYD A. WILHOIT.

Of course it remained for the Metropolitan Opera company to stage the biggest "two-for-one sale" Atlanta has ever known. The special-purchase, price-smashing, astounding-value musical selling event was held Tuesday night, when the Met pleasingly blended tragedy and comedy; enticed you into smiles and then wiped them out and substituted tears, with the first vocal double-header of the 1927 season of high notes and low gowns.

The opening performance, rendered into plain English, was "Johnny Skeeky," though some highbrows insist upon the pure Italian of "Gianni Schicchi." It was new to Atlanta, and southern opera-lovers found it as full of sonorous majors as a military wedding, with a liberal dash of minors, after the fashion of pool rooms.

The second and final presentation—to steal the pronunciation of the amateur critic in the foyer—was "Lay More Die Tray Ray," the opera whose entitlement starts like a slogan in an egg-producing contest and winds up like a college yell.

Hot Domestic Scenes.

It was with truly commendable fortitude that the audience waded through charming domestic scenes of flirtation, prying by a nosy paw-in-law, a wholesale family poisoning engineered by blind papa, and an abrupt cessation of melody occasioned by the fact that everybody who could sing had been pleasantly throttled, bichlorided or so loaded with grief over the utter desolation that his voice failed him.

But before that laughter reigned while "Skeeky" held the boards; deep, throaty Italian cheer with lots of good round "r-r-r-r-r's" and "brava's" and foreign "so's your old man's" thrown in to heighten the effect of comedy.

The men all wore knee length skirts with lace tucks at the bottoms and cotton stockings—full-fashioned and spared by the boll weevil as that little pest's "bit" toward the success of grand opera. All the characters staged a hand and arm pantomime that would have gladdened the heart of a high school calisthenics master, and everybody laughed—sometimes in the wrong place. But whose concern was that? At opera you can roar at anything and nobody knows but what it was a clever gag pulled on the stage.

Natural Love Making.

The "Skeeky" piece revolved about a young and pretty girl who wanted to marry a fellow by the unpronounceable name of "Rinuccio," which proved that she thought a great deal of him. The love element keenly aroused the interest of the sweet young thing who happened to be sitting next to me and who, by every sign of word and look and action, was a bride of the most recent and undisillusioned variety. While "Rinuccio" was making thoroughly awkward and inefficient love to his sweetie, she leaned forward to address an acquaintance in the row ahead and I could hear her delighted giggle as she whispered:

"It makes me think of how poor Tom acted."

And then followed more about "poor Tom," who had been discussed and analyzed through the first opera from his taste in biscuits to how hard it was to keep his socks mended.

HELLO DEAR!
S-S-SS
SHUT UP!

I remember that the one-sided conversation—punctuated here and there by sibilant "s-s-s-s-s-" from a fat lady to the left—started just as the curtain rose.

Competition Flourishes.

"Why, hello, dear," attracted my attention, and I listened to the music and the reply at the same time. "What a pertty gown you have on. Oh, mine? It's just a simple little thing Tom insisted that I buy. He says the blue sets my eyes off so well. Oh, yes; they're wearing 'em above the knee again, you know."

Here the first "s-s-s-s-s" broke into the small talk.

"Mean old thing—don't want you to talk at opera, the very idea—yes, she's feeling fine—Tom wouldn't come—business friend in town just for the night——." I heard next.

At this point Avito—in hubby's absence—was "saying it with high notes" to his girl friend, the same being an early Italian rendition of "Though You Belong to Somebody Else, Tonight You Belong to Me," and the Metropolitan Opera company for the nonce had no competition. But it soon recommenced.

"Yes, I just love it—the music, I mean," in rapturous whisper. "But I don't think much of the way the young wife carries on with that other man. My favorite of them all is 'Lohengrin.' I'm going to see it Friday afternoon. The wedding march is worth the price of admission, I think. When they get to it I just know I'll expect a hired tenor to get up and sing 'Oh, Promise Me,' while everybody in the audience weeps. Isn't crying at weddings the silliest thing? Oh, yes; mamma just bawled when Tom and I——. Look, there's Manfredo; isn't he big and handsome?"

"S-s-s-s-s" Fails.

Another "s-s-s-s-s" from the fat dame who didn't care to have the titles read for her benefit fell on deaf ears.

"I was reading that pajamas are going out of style," was the next conversational tack taken by the fair opera lover. "I like them better than—. Yes, you know in 'Lohengrin' they accuse her of killing her brother. The newspapers are full of stories about girls who kill men—but usually it isn't their brothers. And is it in 'Three Kings' or 'Lohengrin' that they have a swan pulling a boat? Who ever heard of such a thing? That just shows you how grand opera has all the advantage over the movies. Imagine a film with a crazy thing in it like that. Why mamma once wrote to David Belasco because he let a gas light get into a scene supposed to show the battle of Bunker Hill."

Out of the darkness floated another discouraged "s-s-s-s-s."

"Now just look at that silly girl fixing to get in trouble with her husband. I just wish somebody would try that line on me. I'd tell him Tom was——. There; that's another one poisoned!"

THAT'S MY DISH!
MOVIES

And while the only surviving character of the piece clinched with a corpse in a damp and venomous embrace and the lights came up, the bride was explaining that, while she was "simply crazy about opera," she did think "the movies left a better taste in your mouth because they always end happily."

I'm going to take the tip. This afternoon will find me sitting in the dark of a picture house.

DOUBLE OPERA BILL PLEASES

Continued from first page.

with blare and clangor blended with pure and limpid tones of love and it provided a marked contrast in its sombre tones with the colorful "La Traviata" of the opening night.

Rosa Ponselle, Giovanni Martinelli, Ezia Pinza and Lawrence Tibbett formed the quartette of stars whose work was the outstanding feature of this opera. The honors of the evening apparently shared by the four in equal proportions as the audience made no differentiation in its applause. The four stars were called before the curtain seven times after the second act. Miss Ponselle was presented with two beautiful bouquets of flowers by admirers.

Miss Ponselle was in wonderful voice and the purity of tone, dramatic power and clarity of emotional expression sustained the high reputation she has won in previous Atlanta appearances. Her rare ability as an actress added to the perfection of her portrayal of the lovely Fiora, who is torn between the duty she owes her husband and between the love which she has always held for her first lover.

Ezia Pinza, as the blind and aged King Archibaldo, with a rumbling bass voice of penetrating power, played with a dignity and intensity of feeling that won the admiration of all his auditors. In his big scene where he chokes his unfaithful daughter-in-law, his singing and the high crescendo of the music brought shivers of horror to the crowd.

Martinelli and Tibbett sang with fire and fervor. One as Avito, the lover, and the other as Manfredo, the betrayed husband, gave each part the delicate dramatic touch it required. Martinelli sang passionately as a lover and gave his beloved perhaps the longest lasting kiss seen in grand opera. Alfio Tedesco, tenor, sang the role of Flaminio with graceful effect, while the work of the supporting cast in the ensemble number in the last act was excellent. Conductor Tullio Serafin and the Metropolitan orchestra again provided a singularly fine interpretation of Montemizzi's score.

Hunter Scores.

Gianni Schicchi is an operetta that provides plenty of work for every member of the cast. It gave a particularly fine opportunity to Miss Louise Hunter, soprano, and this wonderful little singer demonstrated that she can travel with the most able members of the Metropolitan cast in handling the most difficult of, roles. As Lauretta she had two pleasing numbers, in fact the two outstanding melodies of the opera. Otherwise there is about as much clowning done in Gianni Schicchi as it would be possible to see in grand opera.

Those in the cast whose work was unusually good in the Gianni Schicchi production besides Miss Hunter and De Luca were Armand Tokatyan, the versatile Armenian tenor, who gave a gay touch to his role of Rinnuncia, Angela Bada, Grace Anthony, Ina Bourskaya, Paola Ananian, Pavel Ludikar, Louis D'Angelo, Nanette Guilford, Millo Picco, Vincenzo Reschiglian, Arnold Gabor and a bright and pretty little girl who played the part of Guerardino but whose name was not on the program. Vincenzo Bellezza conducted the orchestra. All the stars named were forced to respond to many curtain calls after the end of the operetta.

Another animated and pleased crowd enjoyed the double bill and between the acts there was much mingling of friends in boxes. Stars of Gianni Schicchi came out into the audience after they had finished their work and joined local friends in hearing the Ponselle-Pinzia-Martinelli-Tibbett group sing the "Love of Three Kings."

Humorous Plot.

"Gianni Schicchi," an opera in one act, is one of the last productions of the fecund Puccini and it is a great novelty in that the theme is light and humorous throughout. It has a real plot with a fine situation for the humorist and it reveals the frailties and weaknesses of the "poor relation" with as fine delineation as Charles Lamb's noted essay on the same subject.

The relations are gathered about the death bed of the wealthy head of the family and their ludicrous distress when they learn that the man of wealth has made a will and left his entire fortune to a monastery is relieved by a scheme proposed by one of the handsome young relations that they call in "Gianni Schicchi," a shrewd Tuscan peasant who incidentally possesses a beautiful daughter. Then "Gianni" steps to the front and carries the show forward to the amusing denouement. The shrewd peasant agrees to substitute himself for the corpse, whose death has not been announced, and to make a new will in which he will see to it that the money and property is not left the monastery as originally planned by the devisor, but, after a few minor bequests, he gives the bulk of the property to himself, much to the discomfiture of the designing relatives. It all ends happily, however, as this estate falls next to "Schicchi's" pretty daughter and she transfers it to the handsome young relative by the simple method of falling in love with him and marrying him.

Tragedy Follows.

In almost the opposite vein was "The Love of Kings," which was pure tragedy almost from the first rise of the curtain. As Puccini's light music told the story of the wiles of "Schicchi" almost as well as words, so did the music of Montemezzi depict the despair and unrequited loves of the principal figures in "The Three Kings" which brought misery and death in their wake. The blending of the two themes, however, like the old days of the stage when a comedy followed a tragedy, provided a well-balanced evening of enjoyment.

As blue April skies and a friendly sun brought ideal weather the stars of the Metropolitan opera company put in a busy day Tuesday with their numerous friends in Atlanta. Big automobiles, be-chauffeured in metropolitan style, fairly exuding wealth and social standing, rolled up and out of the Biltmore terrace with monotonous regularity Tuesday and carried away or brought back jolly groups of singers and their friends.

Not only is the Biltmore hotel lobby ablaze with social gaieties but other hotels of the city reported "filled to capacity" Tuesday. The lobbies of the Henry Grady, the Robert Fulton, the Winecoff, the Cecil, the Piedmont and other downtown hotels were crowded with visitors Tuesday and the Georgian Terrace, out on Peachtree street, reported a colorful crowd of opera visitors.

Visitors Busy.

Atlanta's smart shops and big department stores came in for numerous visits by people from out of the city who are here for the opera season and the streets all day were filled with people spending the "off hour" from opera activities in shopping and sightseeing.

Atlanta's standby points of interest also are coming in for attention from the visitors as well as from the opera stars themselves and busses and privately owned automobiles sped back and forth Tuesday between Stone mountain, Kennesaw mountain, the ante-bellum oaks of Roswell, the Roosevelt boulevard, the Northside drives and the beautiful wooded sections around the city which are at the height of their spring-time beauty in foliage and fragrance.

With the strains of Tuesday night operas still running through their heads opera visitors today are preparing for one of the big treats of the present season, the presentation of Puccini's stupendous "Turandot" Wednesday night.

Great Spectacle.

Spectacles always are ideal for grand opera adaptation and in "Turandot" the Metropolitan Opera company has brought a spectacle here which approaches in massiveness anything in this line staged by the company in a decade. In addition to virtually the entire opera company, the corps de ballet and a large array of stars, more than 100 extra people were engaged for this production.

"Turandot" is based on a story of the legendary days of China thousands of years ago. The rich Chinese robes, the strange dragons, beasts and monsters and the queer customs of these legendary days are reproduced with remarkable fidelity to tradition in the big opera. The music itself is massive and tensely dramatic. There are several big moments of rare dramatic value and an appealing love theme which culminates in the union of the lovers with all concerned strewing flowers in their path, an odd and unusual ending for a grand opera.

The Atlanta Music Festival association is enforcing to the letter the rule that all visitors to the opera must be in their seats by 8 o'clock at the evening performances or must remain standing until the end of the first act and this rule has served to bring out the first two crowds on time. The rule will be in force at matinees Friday and Saturday, 2 o'clock in the afternoon being the dead line.

With "La Traviata" providing a glorious opening night, with "Gianni Schicchi" and "The Love of Three Kings" scoring big successes and with "Turandot" in prospect for Wednesday night the first half of the week is a well established success. The last three days will bring some of the most selected for this year's engagement. attractive and most enjoyable operas Ambroise Thomas's "Mignon" comes Thursday night and its popularity is attested by the big advance sale of tickets. Friday afternoon Richard Wagner's "Lohengrin" will be sung in German with Walther Kirchoff, distinguished German tenor, making his Atlanta debut.

Friday night will witness the production of "La Forza del Destino," one of Verdi's greatest operas and those who have enjoyed previous Verdi scores know that his music is a kind that can be appreciated to the fullest extent by the ordinary layman. The famous duet between Martinelli and Basiola is well worth hearing if this alone were the chief feature, but with a wealth of melodies the Friday night opera should be one of the most enjoyable of the entire list.

Saturday will see the end of the season with two of the finest operas in the Metropolitan repertoire, "Romeo et Juliette" in the afternoon and "Madama Butterfly" at night, both including a big list of the most popular members of the company.

Our 41st Anniversary
and Second Anniversary
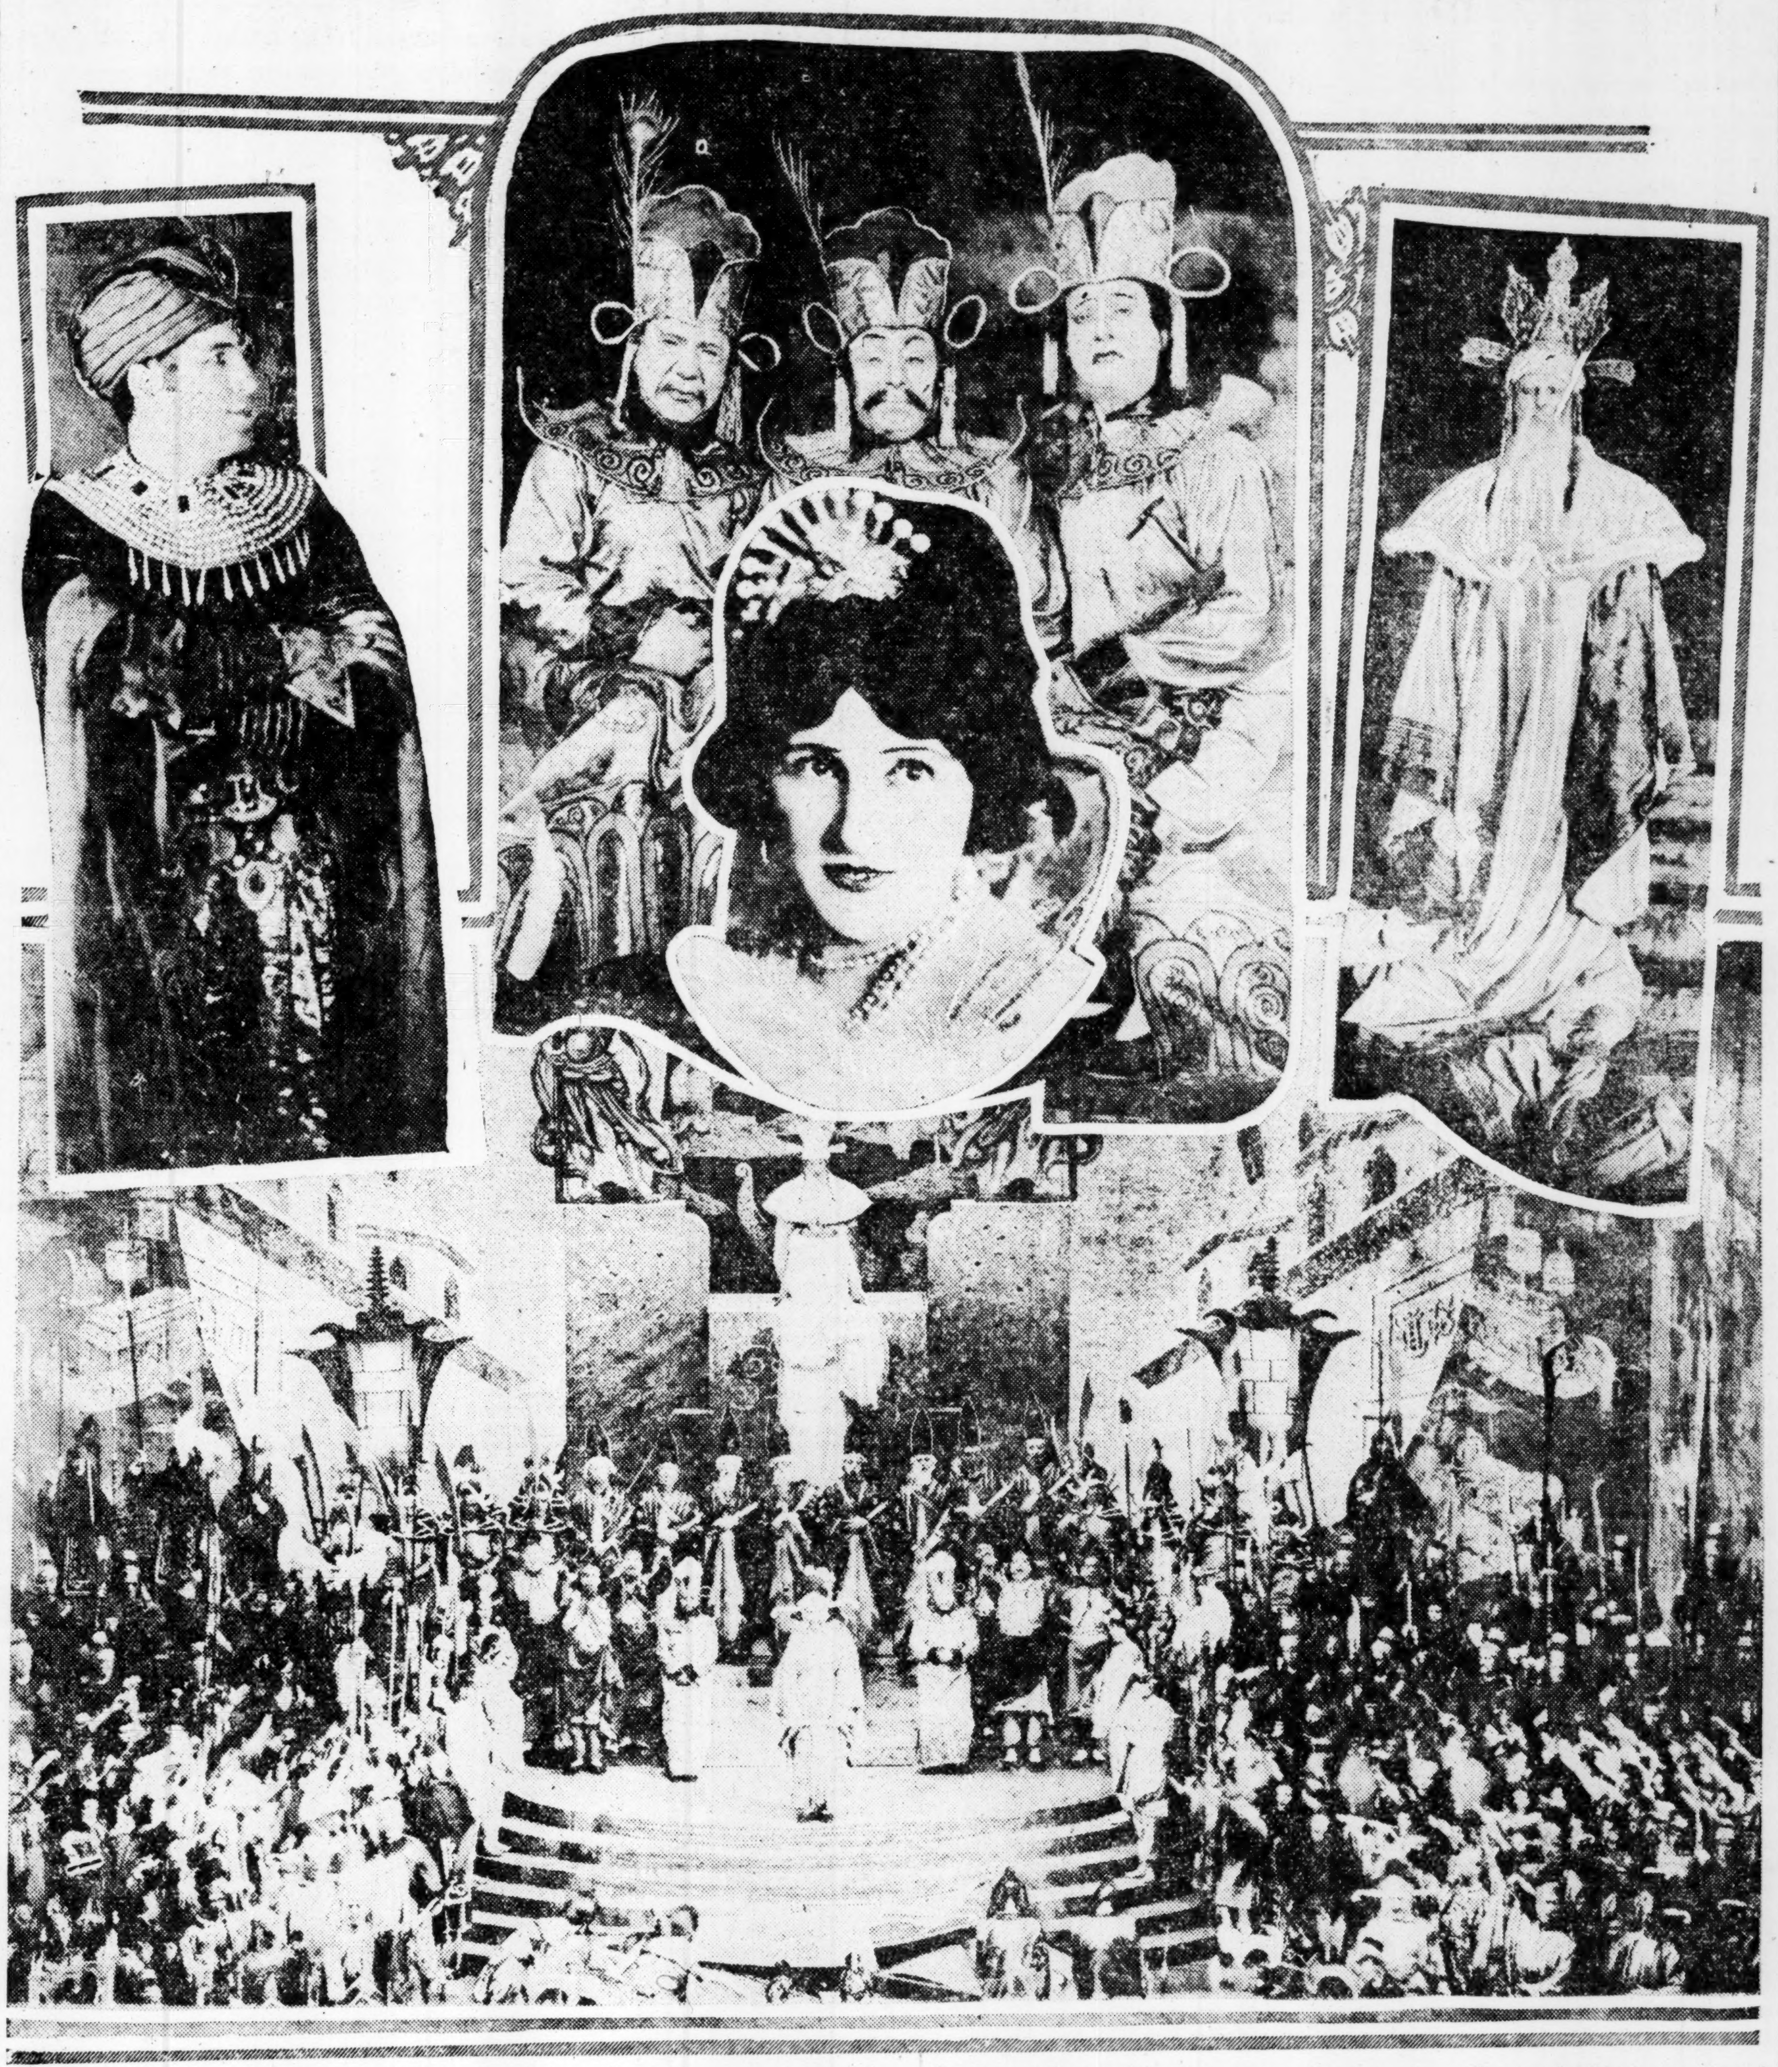
Sale
Begins Thursday
April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS
no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

Principals and Scenes in Massive "Turandot" Tonight



When "Turandot" is offered tonight by the Metropolitan Opera company at the auditorium, Atlanta will witness one of the most massive productions ever staged. The lower cut will give an idea of the immensity of the opera. Edward Johnson, the noted Canadian tenor (upper left), will sing the role of "The Unknown Prince;" Florence Easton, soprano (in the center), will sing the role of "Turandot." At the top are seen Giuseppe DeLuca, baritone, and Angelo Bada and Alfio Tedesco, tenors, as "Ping," "Pang" and "Pong," three grotesque characters in the opera. At the upper right is Max Altglass, tenor, in the role of "Emperor Altoum."

Music Festival Head Praises Auspicious Start of Opera

Commenting Tuesday night upon the auspicious start of the seventeenth annual grand opera season in Atlanta, H. M. Atkinson, president of the Music Festival association, said:

"Officers and directors of the association are highly gratified over the tremendous success of the first two nights of the annual opera season. The inspiring work of artists in La Traviata on Monday night and in the two operas Tuesday night, moved brilliant audiences to great demonstrations of appreciation.

"And in Turandot Wednesday night and in the programs the remainder of the week, opera lovers will witness a galaxy of the greatest stars ever brought to the south.

"The season is underway and everyone is highly gratified."

Towns Throughout Georgia Pay Tribute to War Dead

With tragically thinning lines of gary, every town, village and hamlet in Georgia Tuesday paid tribute to the memory of Confederate and world war dead. From all parts of the state came word that Memorial day had been given its customary mark of respect, citizens and civic organizations joining hands in a pause of tribute to those whose lives were the extreme sacrifice for a cause.

Milledgeville, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—R. W. Hatcher, president of the National Retail Hardware association and head of a Macon and Milledgeville hardware concern, delivered a stirring memorial address to more than 3,000 hearers at the Memorial day celebration held here Tuesday.

The ceremony began at 2 o'clock when a parade of the cadet battalion, Baldwin Blues, national guard company, members of the American Legion, old veterans, sons of veterans, and members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was staged through the principal streets of the city.

The parade concluded at the city cemetery where the exercises were held.

Congressman Carl Vinson acted as master of ceremonies and presented Mr. Hatcher.

Cartersville, Ga., April 26—(Special.)—In the presence of descendants down to the fifth generation of Mark A. Cooper, pioneer developer of Georgia, the historic monument erected by him 75 years ago was unveiled here Tuesday afternoon with impressive exercises sponsored by members of Bartow chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mayor H. Carl Nelson served as master of ceremonies and prominent citizens of the community took in the program, a closing feature of which were short addresses by Hon. John P. Cooper, of Rome, and Hon. Walter G. Cooper, of Atlanta, Master Mark Cooper, of Atlanta, III, of Atlanta, pulled the cord which unveiled the imposing shaft. For many years this monument had been left in the abandoned section, but was only recently brought into Cartersville and again erected at a vantage point in the city. Mark Cooper erected this shaft as a memorial to the friendship of pioneer Georgians who came to his rescue and assisted him in developing the village of Etowah, which flourished until destroyed by Sherman's troops.

AMERICAN SAILORS IN CHINA WOUNDED

Shanghai, April 26.—(AP)—Acting as a convoy for the steamers Tungwo and Tuckwo down the River Yangtze, the United States auxiliary Penguin, was subjected to a heavy and persistent fire last night from the south bank of the Yangtze river, midway between Nanking and Shanghai, occupied by the Cantonese.

A number of bluejackets aboard the Penguin were wounded, one it is thought mortally. This attack proved to be the most serious affair that any of the American warships have sustained since they appeared in Chinese waters.

Penguin Responds.

Immediately the Penguin opened up with machine guns and rifles, and the Cantonese replied with field pieces; whereupon the Penguin brought her big guns to bear upon the Chinese, who finally desisted.

$10,000,000 IS PAID CANTONESE BY SOVIET.

Pekin, April 26.—(AP)—That the soviet Russian government during the last year had paid over $10,000,000 in support of the Cantonese military and "anti-foreign" activities is the claim made in a statement issued by the police today.

The statements asserts that accountants have examined the books of the Dalil (soviet) bank, seized during the recent raid on the soviet embassy compounds. The accounts were found in perfect order and revealed that during the past year the soviet government paid over $10,000,000 in support of the Cantonese military and anti-foreign movements.

The police statement continues:

"The money was remitted largely through the soviet military attache in Pekin. A complete list of arms and munitions supplied by the soviet government was discovered together with correspondence showing the soviet officials dissatisfied with the inferior and slovenly work of the Cantonese staff and insisted on Russian advisers in order to insure success of the campaign."

Ballet Rehearses For Venetian Fete Thursday Night

Members of the corps de ballet of the Metropolitan Opera company held a rehearsal on the Biltmore hotel lawn Tuesday in preparation for the "Venetian Night" program to be staged Thursday night in connection with a brilliant costume ball as one of the chief social features of the visit of the Metropolitan Opera company to Atlanta.

The ballet, headed by Rita Deleporte, solo dancer, will give one special dance and one dance used in one of the operas. The "Venetian Night" program will be staged on the lawn of the Biltmore, dancers emerging before a beautiful drop curtain designed by Joseph Urban, famous scenery creator.

The opening number will be staged at 12:15 o'clock after the singing of "Mignon." The ballet will dance one dance from "The Tales of Hoffman" and a dance from "LaForza Del Destino" and then a solo dance will be presented by Miss De Leporte. A Venetian water dance will be offered by Miss De Leporte and Miss Lillian Ogden.

Guests will be seated at tables surrounding the terrace. A buffet supper will be served after which there will be dancing.

Lung Patient Greets Sun With Smile

Roanoke, Va., April 26.—(AP)—Walter Boothe today turned his gaze from the shadows and smiled. A flash of sunlight from the April sky penetrated his room and in a burst of spring-like warmth strengthened the hearts of the sturdy men who since last Thursday have formed a human chain as a bulwark against a creeping death.

Walter Boothe smiled; smiled after 122 maddening hours of mental anguish and physical pain, looked into the face of his father and mother and asked an occasional question about his home and relatives. Pure pluck and a gameness that acknowledge none of the terror of a stifling of imminent death, all are his.

"He seems brighter [illegible]," said an attendant in a puzz[illegible] "We cannot speculate as to how [illegible]er he will hold on."

"He can't last through the night," they said last night.

And all the while the raising and lowering of the arms continue, machine-like maintenance, but the only nourishment known to feed the life in a body whose respiratory organs have ceased to function.

FRUIT MEN HIT EXPRESS COMPANY

Jacksonville, April 26—(AP)—The first day of the Interstate Commerce Commission's investigation of refrigeration rates applying to fruit and vegetables originating in Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina and Virginia practically was given over to a frontal assault on methods employed by the Fruit Growers Express company, the testimony of F. S. Smith, assistant director of the commission's bureau of service.

In outline, Mr. Smith testified that check on icing operations kept by the refrigerating company is not of such nature as to make accurate records possible; that in some instances icing records of the carriers show more ice used than was available; that ice shrinkage in transit to icing stations has in some cases been made up by overcharge; that knowledge of employes of the refrigeration company that a check was being made by his men apparently resulted in a change of methods; that the general practice is for the icing foreman to estimate the ice necessary for cars instead of checking the ice used; that records for southeastern territory show a disproportionately higher consumption of ice than those for California shipments and that apparently home line riginating traffic is given preferential status in certain yards for forwarding.

Car Overcharges.

The sole new development of the afternoon session was the declaration by Mr. Smith that his records indicate overcharges to individual cars.

In support of this declaration, the witness offered records on a point on the Florida East Coast railway at which he said refrigeration company records showed, on certain days, more ice put in refrigerator cars than the local ice plant could possibly produce. There were no storage facilities, he said, and no ice was shipped in.

The witness carried the same contention to Thomaston, Ga., where he said in the past season ice importation and refrigerator car charging records show a shrinkage in transportation of only 7.6 per cent. The actual shrinkage, he said, must run between 25 and 35 per cent, indicating an overcharge during the season of about 522,700 pounds of ice at that point alone.

Cross-Examination.

Most of the afternoon session was taken up by cross-examination of the witness by W. J. Brantley, Jr., and Henry Thurtell, of Washington, leaders of the carriers' counsel.

The witness was led through direct testimony by John L. Rogers, special examiner for the interstate commerce commission.

William P. Bartel, director of the bureau of service of the commission, is presiding.

Chief of counsel for the shippers is C. R. Marshall, of Washington, assisted by H. J. Wagner, of Norfolk, Va.

Florida shippers also are represented by J. Curtis Robinson, secretary-manager of the Growers and Shippers League of Florida.

Heads of several national producing and shipping associations, railroad traffic chiefs and state railroad commissioners also are here as participants or spectators.

Tomorrow's sessions will be devoted to the testimony of the commerce commission's accountant who has been given access to the records of the refrigeration company.

Husband Near Death, Wife Visits Slayer

Los Angeles, April 26.—(AP)—Evidence was obtained today that Dorothy Mackaye, stage actress, was drinking gin fizzes in the Hollywood apartment of Paul Kelly, film juvenile, early last Tuesday morning when her husband, Ray Raymond, musical comedy star, died at a hospital, allegedly from a beating administered by Kelly, the district attorney's office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Forrest Murray, who has been assigned to the prosecution of Kelly, charged with murder, and of Miss Mackaye and Dr. W. J. Sullivan, indicted on two felony counts for an alleged attempt to "cover up" facts surrounding Raymond's death, said the new evidence would be used in Kelly's trial.

The evidence shows, Murray said, that Miss Mackaye and her friend, Miss Helen Wilkinson, left the hospital a short time before Raymond died and went to Kelly's apartment. At the hospital with the dying man the two women left Frank Loomis, a theatrical man and a close friend of Raymond, Murray said. Soon after Miss Mackaye had left the hospital Raymond died in Loomis' arms.

Previously, Miss Mackaye had admitted to the authorities that she was in Kelly's apartment the night of April 16, when the film actor went to her home and engaged in a fist fight with her husband.

A nurse at the Raymond home tonight said Miss Mackaye was too ill to be interviewed on the new developments in the case.

SONG WRITER ILL OF DIPHTHERIA; DOCTORS CALLED

New York, April 26.—(AP)—Irving Berlin, song writer, is seriously ill at his home here, it was learned today. He has been under the physician's care for the last two weeks.

The nature of his illness could not be learned, although there were intimations that he had diphtheria.

THE CONSTITUTION
CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager.
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager.

THE SOUTH'S STANDARD NEWSPAPER CONSTITUTION
ESTABLISHED 1868

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone WAl. 6565.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

	1 Wk.	1 Mo.	3 Mos.	6 Mos.	1 Yr.
Daily and Sunday	20c	90c	$2.50	$5.00	$9.50
Daily	16c	70c	2.00	4.00	7.50

Single Copies—Daily, 5c. Sunday, 10c.
By Mail Only.

Sunday	10c	45c	$1.25	$2.50	$5.00

ATLANTA, GA., APRIL 27, 1927.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, sole advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Hotaling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third street (Times building corner); Schnitz News Agency, at Bryant Park, and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and also the local news published herein.

WALKING WITH GOD—The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand. Psalm 37:23-24.

PRAYER—My God, I thank Thee, Thou art able, by Thy Spirit, in Christ Jesus, to keep us from stumbling.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

It was a notable address in many respects that President Coolidge delivered at the annual dinner of the United Press association in New York Monday evening. It was particularly reassuring and heartening as to America's position with regard to existing foreign troubles. As an illustration he said, in referring to the nation's relations to Mexico:

"We do not want any controversy with Mexico. The Mexican ambassador has recently declared to me that she does not intend to confiscate our property; that she has shown diligence in capturing and punishing those who have murdered our citizens, and expressed the wish, which we so thoroughly entertain, of keeping cordial and friendly relations. With a strong sentiment of this nature, which, I am convinced, animates the people of both countries, it will surely be possible to reach an amicable adjustment."

It is the first time that definite official information has been divulged as to Mexico's reconsideration of an earlier determination to make her alien laws retroactive, therefore confiscatory. Promises were made at the beginning of the Calles administration that the land and petroleum nationalization laws enacted in 1917, but not enforced by the Obregon government, would not apply except as to conveyances and leases made after the beginning of their enforcement. Subsequent developments, however, were to the effect that President Calles intended to make them retroactive, thereby resulting in the confiscation of millions of dollars invested by Americans. It is gratifying, upon the word of the president and his faith in later promises, that this will not be done. It illustrates the really masterful manner that the whole Mexican situation has been handled by the president and Secretary of State Kellogg. Our relations with Mexico should always be friendly, and private and selfish exploiters should not be permitted to strain such relations. Mexico is a North American neighbor, with her borders bounding ours with only a mere ribbon of water dividing. There is every economic reason why the two nations should always remain on the friendliest of terms.

It is equally as heartening to hear the president speak frankly as to Nicaragua. "We are not making war on Nicaragua," he said, "any more than a policeman on the street is making war on passers-by." The significance of the analogy is not entirely definite, but the presumption is we are merely helping to police Nicaragua in her present revolution, looking after the interests of our nationals first and also the interests of the recognized government of Nicaragua.

As to the Chinese situation the president was more definite and more heartening to the American people who have a deep sympathy for the Chinese people as a whole, and for the patriotism of the nationalist movement. He said:

"We do not wish to pursue any course of aggression against the Chinese people. Our actions will at all times be those of a friend solicitous for the well-being of the Chinese people. We are there to prevent aggression against our people by any of their disorderly elements."

This attitude of the government will be heartily commended.

The outstanding feature of the president's address was the definiteness with which he unfolded America's foreign problems, and the policies revealed, which fit closely the recognized sentiment of the American people. On the whole, the president showed a cooperative and helpful attitude toward the nearby Latin American countries—something of a big brother protection for them.

CANADA'S CONTROL SYSTEM.

In Canada the New Brunswick legislature has just passed a bill doing away with prohibition. This leaves only Prince Edward Island, the smallest of the provinces, with prohibition, although every province in Canada had earnestly tried the experiment, some of them with dry laws as rigid and as drastic as those in America.

In abandoning prohibition Quebec and British Columbia led the way. Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba voted for government control. Ontario, the richest and most populous of the provinces, held out longer than the agricultural provinces in the west, but at the last plebiscite the voters overwhelmingly voted a control system.

The complete reversal of public sentiment in Canada was the result of the same lack of enforcement that is evident to every observer in the United States—a situation that made the liquor status a disgrace, and that tore at the morals of the people, and lessened their respect for all law.

It is said that there is an entirely different moral atmosphere in Canada as a result of the control laws. There is not only less inebriacy, but drunkenness is almost unknown. The bootleg industry has been largely broken up. The young people do not journey around with hip-pocket and vanity bag flasks. There is less crime and fewer criminals. There are no saloons.

It is something to think about. In Canada, by reason of the parliament enactment which made the dominion a confederation of provinces with practical independence, each province must control her own liquor situation except as to the customs regulations. The legal situation, therefore, is quite different from that in this country, with the 18th amendment a fundamental law. There is no likelihood of a repeal of that amendment. Congress can, without a referendum, revise the statutory laws which constitute the vehicle for the amendment.

It is a problem—a great moral problem, to be frank about it. Bootleg concoctions of various kinds—mostly poisonous—are to be found with comparative ease in every city, town, hamlet and cross-roads in America. Enforcement, instead of improving, is getting less effective. Drunkenness is on the increase. Crime is on the increase. Traffic accidents, because of hooch, are on the increase. The situation challenges careful thought. The laws, as they exist, should either be rigidly enforced everywhere, or they should be reconstructed so that they can be enforced. No self-respecting person wants to see the return of the saloon. By the same token no self-respecting person wants to see a continuation of the present miserable farce, with all of its distressing elements.

FOR FLOOD CONTROL.

While the existing flood is the worst ever known on the Mississippi river and its tributaries, it is a fact that severe floods are almost annual occurrences, and that just what has developed in the past few days had long been anticipated and feared.

It is a reflection upon congress that effective flood control had not long ago been provided for.

It will be an engineering job, of course, and one not familiar with the technical details cannot pretend to offer a solution. But everyone knows that it is entirely possible, however heavy the expense, to obviate the human distress, the loss of life, and the almost incalculable economic losses that have resulted from the present situation.

Perhaps the levees should be made higher and stronger. Perhaps spillways and canals should be dug and reservoirs built. Whatever may be required should be done.

It is foolish to wait until the nag has been stolen to lock the stable door, but when once stolen the lesson may be an impressive one.

The lesson in this instance is more than impressive. It is inescapable.

The next congress must provide for proper flood control so that there may not be recurrences of the present series of disasters.

We have always called a spade a spade and can remember only one kind—the back-breaking garden variety. It is interesting to note that the department of commerce has eliminated from the market 4,070 varieties of spades. The high, low and jack of spades are retained.

Some of us may not applaud everything that Senator Borah does, but all of us will have to admit he is one public official who earns his salary.

There are 5,000,000 more women than men in soviet Russia, which accounts for the fact that the women there don't dress to kill.

Possibly the next congress will listen to the appeal of the south and eliminate the cotton estimate, leaving the information to a straw vote or the weather prophets.

BITS OF NEW YORK LIFE

BY JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

New York, April 26.—She is a sweet-faced, white-haired, motherly-looking woman, well dressed and benign. You see her any bright afternoon, dallying on the sunny side of the avenue in the crowded environs of the Boob Bazars. Once in a while she pauses with a smile to address some well-tailored passerby:

"Have you any frocks or furs at home, that you would like to dispose of, M'lady?" she says. "I pay the highest price in the city for second-hand wear!"

A New Yorker and a lad from "Lunnon" engaged recently in a spirited, albeit good-natured argument with respect to the outstanding excellencies of British and American motor cars.

The boy from Thamestown drives an extremely expensive and high-powered car, and while admitting the comparative flexibility of Yankee motors on high gear, none the less was inclined to be "sniffy" at gear boxes as made by the Eminent Tinsmith of Detroit.

"All that you say may be true,' replied the New Yorker; "but what can you do with your fluffy broad-A'd gear box that I can't do with mine?"

"I can play 'God Save the King' on it," was the somewhat unexpected reply.

The American laughed, but the other was serious.

"All right," he said, "listen."

He took the foot off the clutch and set the spark so that his engine was running at a fair rate of speed and changed his gears ever so slightly, so that they just scraped together and no more. The car's equipment of four forward and one reverse speeds gave him a range of five notes; and with those limitations he faithfully produced the royal anthem.

The New Yorker is now practicing the "Star-Spangled Banner" as a counter attraction. He said to a friend the other day:

"I wish I had a Ford to practice on. They're inherently musical."

New York hotel managers have a way all their own. Take the case of Dave Belasco, who poses in his clerical collar with two fingers on his cheek in theatrical publications and cigaret ads.

David lived for 20 years with his wife at a hotel on upper Broadway. Last October Mrs. Belasco died and David sought other quarters. Before leaving the caravansarie he says he wrote to the management as follows:

"The thought never occurred to me that I should be leaving the Marie Antoinette, but, then, the thought had never occurred to me that death would interrupt the union between me and Mrs. Belasco; and since that has taken place I have suffered agony whenever I have entered our rooms."

The management said they were sorry, of course, and all that sort of thing, but that they had never received any such letter and if Dave had written it he must have forgotten to drop it in the box. So they entered suit for $1,600.

David has requested a trial by jury and all he has to do is get one widower in the box and he'll be sittin' purty.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Time and Tide

BY JOHN HUBERT GREUSEL

THE END OF THE TRAIL.

Tom Edison's published conclusions on his belief in immortality for the mind, or thought, adds to an old, old subject, the weight of still another famous name. But Mr. Edison has yet to take the next step. He must now ask with even greater consideration than he ever gave to any of his mechanical inventions:

"Do I really care to live forever? Would such a condition be a curse or would it be a blessing?"

Before you reply one way or the other, on first impressions, read slowly what has been said on this subject by two learned men, each in his way a sage. First, this from Stuart Mills, penned many years ago:

"The mere cessation of existence is no evil to any one. The idea is only formidable through the illusion of imagination . . . the loss of friends dying before us will always suffice to keep alive in the more imaginative natures the imaginative hope of a futurity which, if there is nothing to prove, there is as little in our knowledge and experience to contradict. It seems to me not only possible, but probable, that in a higher and above all a happier condition of human life, not annihilation but immortality may be the burdensome idea."

Whatever you may think of this, at least you may say with honor, "Mills was certainly a self-regardless thinker, none greater."

And 2,300 years ago, Socrates pontificates thus before his judges who are about to sentence him to death by drinking the hemlock:

"When I, Socrates, do not know whether death is a good or an evil, why should I propose a penalty which certainly would be an evil? . . . There is great reason to hope that death is good for one of the two things: Either death is a state of utter unconsciousness, or, as men say, there is a change and migration of the soul from this world to another. Now, if it is a sleep like the sleep of him who is undisturbed by the sight of dreams, death will be an unspeakable gain. But if death be a journey to another place and there, as men say, all the dead are, what good, oh friends and judges, can be greater than this? The hour of departure has arrived (for me) and we go our ways—I to die, and you to live. Which is the better, the gods only know."

The end of the trail—then what?

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Minor Musings

Somehow, the things that are "good for you" never are good for anything else.

* * *

People who have no reason to marry, frequently prove they have no reason by marrying.

* * *

After a man decides he is an after-dinner speaker, he never means the same to his business again.

* * *

What a shallow thinker believes to be sound logic usually is just that—"sound" logic.

* * *

If a pioneer settler and an early settler mean the same thing would it be all right to call one a pioneer settler who "settles" on the first of the month?

* * *

If the soft coal miners really must strike, they have a nice day for it.

* * *

With nearly all our marines in China, what if another Nicaraguan should go on a rampage?

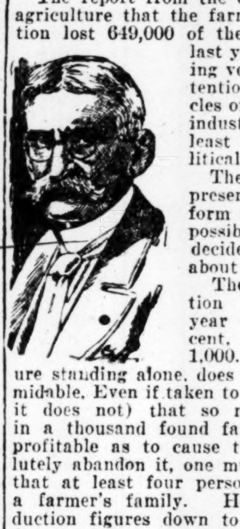
—W. E. S.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

LOOKING AND LISTENING

BY SAM W. SMALL.

The Acres of Diamonds That Are Imbedded in the Farms of Georgia.



The report from the department of agriculture that the farms of the nation lost 649,000 of their population last year is attracting very serious attention in all circles of business and industry. And not least of all in political quarters.

The facts are presented in such form as to make it possible to have decided opinions about them.

The net reduction within the year was 2.3 per cent, or 23 per 1,000. That figure standing alone, does not seem formidable. Even if taken to mean (which it does not) that so many persons in a thousand found farming so unprofitable as to cause them to absolutely abandon it, one must remember that at least four persons constitute a farmer's family. Hence, the reduction figures down to eight actual farm quitters out of every 250 who were on the soil at the beginning of 1926.

Big figures sometimes look alarming from one angle, but cease to have that aspect to another point of view. For instance, while 2,155,000 persons moved from the farms last year to cities, towns and villages, 1,135,000 concluded that life in those localities was undesirable and moved out and onto farms to try for better livings.

A half-dozen persuasive considerations, other than the unprofitableness of farming, enter the equation and account in thousands of cases for individual transfers from the farms to the avocations and opportunities of urban communities.

* * *

The Movement Distributed.

The farm population on the first day of this year was 27,892,000, or 97.7 per cent of what it was on the first day of 1926.

The figures for the geographic divisions of the states show a remarkable uniformity in the percentages of losses.

In the New England states it was the exact average, 97.7 while on the other side of the continent, in the Pacific states, the loss was least, the percentage being 98.6, or only 1.4 less farm population than in 1925.

In New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania the loss was 2.2 per cent; in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, it was the average, 97.7.

Out in the wheat and corn belts, from which the greatest complaints of agricultural distress have come in high and clamorous notes, the loss of farm population was only 2 per cent. Only the east south central group, embracing Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi, with a loss of 1.7 per cent, and the Pacific states of Washington, Oregon and California, with a loss of 1.4 per cent, showed better stability of farm population than those howling farm-bloc states of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, the two Dakotas, Nebraska and Kansas, with their 2 per cent loss.

On the face of those figures the inference obtrudes that those western farmers who want "relief" are not yet disgusted enough with farming to stage a general strike.

* * *

Our Status in the Southeast.

Here in the southeastern group, embracing the states from Delaware to Florida inclusive, we suffered more last year from farm desertions than any other group except the west south central states of Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. We lost 2.5 per cent of our farm population and they lost 3 per cent of theirs.

The greater part of our last percentage was of negro tenant farmers, either renters or cropers. The slump in cotton prices hit them hardest and thousands of them were forced to quit the fields and hunt jobs in the towns, or migrate to the northern industrial areas. Their loss to farm productivity in the aggregate was not so great as to seriously menace the industry in our section.

In this area of the South Atlantic states we have the largest farm population of any of the nine geographical groups. We have 5,393,000 such population. The nearest approach to us is in the west north central states (Minnesota to Kansas inclusive) in which grand area there is a farm population of 4,729,000.

In our area last year 354,000 individuals were moved from the farms and 133,000 left cities and towns and moved onto farms, showing a net loss of 221,000 from our farm population.

Very few of those who left the farms moved out of our area. They were attracted to the growing towns and to the multiplying industrial enterprises that are steadily expanding in the southeastern states from Virginia to Florida. The official figures demonstrate that.

* * *

A Case of Mutual Benefits.

Very careful economic auditors estimate that these farm statistics represent mutual advantages to those coming off the farms and to those who remain upon them, or are going to them.

The 649,000 persons who went from farms to towns last year, augmented by non-agricultural immigrants, added about a million mouths extra to be fed mostly from our farms.

That is equivalent to feeding the entire state of Colorado, or supplying the food for one-third of the population of Georgia.

Farmers should certainly look upon a market expansion of a million consumers per year as something worth while and as promising better times for them ahead.

Here in the south, and in Georgia especially, both our producers and consumers should realize the great economic values that may be reaped from the situation.

In 1910 the cities and towns of Georgia contained only 20 per cent of our total population; in 1920 the percentage was 25.1, and now it is estimated to be not under 30 per cent. That means nearly a million persons in cities, towns and villages who are buyers of farm products.

It has been shown in this column and by The Constitution in other ways that the Georgia people send out of the state every year for just seven farm products the enormous sum of $238,000,000! That is within $12,000,000 of the reported value of the gross farm crops of the state in 1925.

* * *

What Is the Answer?

Why, the answer to the facts is ringing out all over Georgia from the best brains of the state. It is that whenever our farmers determine to live at home from their farms themselves and to monopolize the home markets for their diversified food products, they will find themselves the most independent and profit-making farmers of all that occupy this continent.

That is not the prophecy of a visionary who doesn't know enough about farming to tell a moldboard from a corn-sheller. It is the common sense comment of the most informed experts in agricultural economics.

A high authority of the federal reclamation bureau who recently made an inspection tour of the southeastern voices his amazement that the farmers of Georgia have not long since awakened to their wealth resources. He says he knows of no area in North America so adapted to diversified farming as is Georgia and that it is beyond question that in ten years, under proper culture and expert marketing, she could be the richest agricultural state in the union.

A distinguished Englishman, an expert in estimating industrial values all over the world, heartily agreed with that opinion, having just returned from a tour of the south and a study of Georgia opportunities particularly.

Why can't our people catch on to these great facts and materialize them?

Comic-Strip Parents

BY JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

A Chicago minister, with more religion than humor in his make-up sent a questionnaire to 275 youngsters the other day asking for their ideas on "What's Wrong With the Home?"

One boy replied that the trouble in his home arose over the fact that his mother couldn't keep a secret.

Another unfortunate little fellow seized the occasion to unburden himself of the plaint that his home had "become a courtroom and the supper table a trial scene."

And a third sat down and penned the following example of modern juvenile cynicism:

"People who, themselves, led the wildest lives before marriage, make the strictest parents, I find."

All of which is a sweet-scented commentary on American home life. It is not the fault of the youngsters. If parents do not respect themselves, or each other, how can they expect their children to grow up with anything but contempt for them?

It is the custom among highbrows today to bewail the prevalence of the comic strip—to sigh over its "vulgarity"—to lament the low standards it disseminates.

The pictures of "Skippy" may be exaggerated; but exaggeration is the basis of caricature and caricature is the truest of all portraits.

The comic strip creators receive annually vast amounts of money for furnishing daily, to thousands of newspapers throughout the country, a pictorial rehearsal of the unhappy home life of discontented, selfish women, their chinless husbands and the offspring of these comic opera couples.

The success of the comic strip is based on its verity. It is a true picture of what is happening around the average American radiator. It is not meant for emulation. Its purpose is more akin to that of a "detour" sign.

The biggest work of any generation is safeguarding the generation that is to follow. This is done by child conservation. Handle the youngsters carefully. You're dealing in soul stuff.

And youngsters are not safeguarded when they are brought up by comic-strip parents, in comic strip homes.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

ANSWERED BY

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman.

New Jersey.

Don't publish my town. I want to ask, what is love? I am a girl of twenty. Two years ago I fell in love with a young man who seemed desirable in every way. Then he made certain overtures which I declined. He is now indifferent to me and says he has found some one else. I admit that I love him still. What can I do to conquer feelings of which I am ashamed?

Are you not really in love with love; that is, with your dreams of a possible husband and a home, and not with this fellow whose advances you rightly rejected? He reminds one of that notorious philanderer, Casanova, who was interested in conquests, not in marriage.

If my suggestion is correct, your felt loss of an ideal domestic state disguises itself as continued affection for a scoundrel who would betray its happiness ahead. Since he is about as healthy for a girl of twenty as the bubonic plague, do not take his quittance too seriously. Tragedy is relished at your age and ridiculed at forty. Surely nobody could environ his sordidness with a tragic atmosphere. I gant that the experience you relate was as acute as it is regrettable. But you sin against yourself by bestowing a second thought on one who is utterly unworthy of you.

As for your first question, love's first onset is often deeply intense. Cynics call it a brain fever. When its intensity suddenly relaxes, as in your case, a mental or emotional shock follows the severance of its fascinating relationships. This relationship's monopoly of your interest and enjoyment divorces you from life's prosaic realities.

As an aftermath these seem stale and meaningless. Then the former things revive and the pain subsides. Immerse yourself in them. Forget the honeyed words of a lustful plunderer whose main object in seeking you was selfish and debased. Blot him out of your mind. The real man will one day appear. Visualize him, but do not stake your happiness on any one or anything except yourself and your personal rectitude.

* * *

New York City.

Does not the theory of evolution apply to the human spirit, and must it not develop to a certain point before the hope of immortality is warranted? Is not oblivion the fate of all below that point?

Your question involves a comparison of the doctrine of Plato that the soul is naturally immortal with the teaching of Christ that eternal life is the gift of God conditioned upon the recipient's character.

It seems reasonable to those who accept the New Testament as their guide that the soul must atain a certain degree of spiritual development before it can be assured of perpetuity.

The backward races who were or are not in immediate contact with the nobler ideas of immortality will have their opportunity for such contact in God's own place and time. They cannot be justly deprived of its privileges until they have enjoyed equal opportunities for attaining them.

Upon these grounds I venture to think that the theory of evolution does apply to the soul's progressive growth in this world and the next. Immortality as thus construed is in a very real sense the survival of the fittest.

* * *

Stuart, Fla.

Is it inconsistent with the teaching of Christ to believe that the soul dwells more than once upon earth? Since my childhood days I have dreamed of a place which I have never seen in this life. The dream is always the same, the details are perfectly clear, the same people are always present and the dream always ends at the same point.

Is the belief unreasonable that this dream is a chapter out of a former life?

There is nothing in the teaching of Christ about reincarnation. To force that doctrine into His words: "Ye must be born again," as some do, is clearly wrong. But I would not dogmatize and say that those who accept reincarnation are completely out of harmony with Christian teaching. I only know that the accepted theology of the church declares the beginning of our conscious life to be in this world.

Perhaps your dream can be explained on purely psychological lines. The phenomenon of the repeated dream is quite familiar to students of our unconscious states. If, as is claimed, most dreams are the fulfillment of desires, then your dream, after the interpretation you gave to it, would have a tendency to reappear because of its desirability.

Further, reincarnationists contend that they can reproduce their former lives on earth progressively, not statically, by consecutive dreams. Thus Mrs. Besant declared that her ability to learn Sanskrit was marked by a facility which could be explained only by the fact that she knew the language in a previous life. She gave to reincarnation the credit which, in my opinion, belonged to her inherent brain power.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY.

THE STATE OF COMA.

Natural sleep is partial loss of consciousness. That consciousness or sensibility is not completely lost is evident in the ease with which a sleeping person may be aroused by sound, touch and various sensations such as thirst, pain, itching, cold. These stimuli will not arouse a person who is comatose. In coma the loss of consciousness or sensibility is complete.

A striking example of the difference between natural sleep and coma occurs in the attempt to chloroform a sleeping person. An easy thing to do, if you believe in novels, but not so easy if you ever really attempt it. Unless the person is very ill or far from a normal state of health your attempt is certain to awaken the sleeper and bring resistance. If you overpower the resistance and get the victim under the chloroform or other anaesthetic, do not run away with the fancy that the victim will not remember all about it when he comes to. This overworked yarn about folks being chloroformed in their sleep without their knowledge is a fatal alibi to toy with nowadays. Even a skilled physician who knows how to use anaesthetics finds it almost impossible to anaesthetize a sleeping child or adult who is sick, so it is foolhardy to try it on a well person.

One form of coma which sometimes is mistaken for natural sleep is that due to hemorrhage within the skull from injury to the head. The victim suffers a blow on the head or strikes his head in falling, presently lies down perhaps for the usual night's sleep, and some hours later is found unconscious. This occurs from slow bleeding and increasing pressure of the clot upon the brain. Some suspicion of this should be aroused if the victim of a head injury recovers promptly from the immediate daze or shock and then after a few hours manifests an unusual desire for sleep, especially sleep at the time or under circumstances which would not ordinarily find the individual sleepy.

The coma of shock from injury is seldom complete. The victim is generally rather in a dazed state, feebly responding to stimuli such as shouts or pain, if at all, pallid, cold, clammy, limp. The breathing is very shallow, the pulse is weak and hard to feel, the pupils are dilated. This same condition may occur from other causes than injury or accident. Great fright may produce it, and it is also characteristic of internal or external hemorrhage, of fainting, and of heat exhaustion (not sunstroke). An identical condition may occur from certain poisons. Shock is the real explanation for most cases of the so-called "concussion of the brain." "Concussion" is a dangerous term because it leads to confusion. Head injuries should be regarded as causing immediate shock, and perhaps more serious conditions besides or later, such as hemorrhage within the skull and pressure on the brain, pressure on the brain by fragments of broken skull or foreign body, or grave damage to the brain by puncture or other wound. "Concussion" is a treacherous illusion to dally with in any such case.

In contrast with this picture of shock is the coma of opium poisoning, sunstroke, uremia, apoplexy, and brain compression. In coma from any of these causes the victim is usually flushed or at least not pallid, the skin is hot and dry, the pulse is hard and full, the pupils usually contracted, the breathing deep and stentorous or snoring.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

The Way I Feel About It

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Prohibition is not succeeding as well as was expected among those who never expected it to succeed as well as was expected.

EPH SNOW.

"Now that he is free again maybe it would be better for the rest of us if Doc Cook would discover the North Pole again," suggests Eph Snow.

THERE ARE WORMS AND WORMS.

Just because she is married to a book worm is no sign a woman isn't fond of the products of the silk worm.

BUT HE HAS TO BE "IN CONFERENCE."

A wife is a person who can't figure how a man could have "a hard day at the office" when all he has to do there is to count his money and dictate letters to a good-looking stenographer.

RECALL BUT NO ENCORE.

How do you account for the fact that the very people who say the big time Volstead act is a flop, are trying to recall it?

IN OUR TOWN.

Bert Needless, our former prosecuting attorney, thinks we could stamp out John Barleycorn if when we put our foot on him we'd keep our hands out of his pockets.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

It Is Easy To Have the Kind Of Friends You Deserve

By Robert Quillen

The darlings of the gods, who never are self-conscious, go joyously through life making friends of everybody—at ease among the high and the low, invariably making a good impression because they make no effort to do it. These are few.

The less fortunate majority is composed of people who are more or less unhappy because they have fewer friends than they desire.

Some of these are proud and become ill-mannered in an effort to hide their yearning for friendship. Some swallow their pride and deliberately and fruitlessly court those whose friendship they desire.

None need desire friends in vain. If you have few friends, it is because you demand more than you are worth. You don't offer a fair trade.

Man is rather ignoble, and it is his nature to scorn those beneath him and court those above. If he is ambitious and is afflicted with the common American malady called swellhead, he even scorns his equals.

There is the root of the trouble. In friendship there is mutual admiration, and it is to be found only among equals. They need not be equals in all particulars, but each must have some quality that to the other seems admirable.

How shall you discover your equals?

Well, first of all you must grade yourself accurately. Assuming that a mark of 100 indicates perfection, and assuming that you are fair enough to grade yourself honestly, we will assume further that you grade 85 in honor, 70 in courage, 65 in common sense, 80 in good manners, 60 in good taste, 90 in loyalty, 55 in manliness.

The rest should be easy. Grade your acquaintances by the same standard; eliminate as undesirable those who grade too far below you; eliminate as unattainable those who grade too far above you. The remainder are your own kind, birds of a feather, your natural affinities.

Finding yourself one of them may not tickle your vanity, but here are the friends you deserve and may have.

Is the scullery maid doomed to go unmarried to her grave? Well, no wonder! She has her heart set on a prince.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN.

France in America.

"France's influence in the American theater is as good as nil," said M. Savoir, playwright and producer, after a visit to New York. "Be not deluded by what our so-called stars tell you upon their return from the states. All you hear is 'oh, it was wonderful, applause, flowers . . . dollars! Let us be frank and confess they were failures in America most of them. America wants 'the goods.' They are not satisfied with the impossibilities that we sent. America has learned to stand on its own feet in the theater. It has looked elsewhere for inspiration. At the present time Hungarian influence far surpasses French on the New York stage. Of course, America has a long time had an erroneous conception of our theater. Our theater presentations were supposed to be daring and risque. Americans have been disappointed. But I tell you, I saw plays running in New York, approved by the critics and applauded by the public that would be whistled and thrown off the stage in Paris. American life is so vigorous that it demands a little more than the impossibilities we are still in the habit as honoring as our great stars."

* * *

Prodigal Daughter.

Raquel Meller, whom the English papers reported as "tired of the world" and therefore had decided to enter a convent, as it had been reported before of Mae Murray, Pola Negri and certain other actresses, has safely arrived in Paris. She allowed it to be echoed from America that she had found things so wonderful there that she had abandoned unenthusiastic and uninspiring Europe. But there must have been a snag somewhere, which she found only tardily. She has stolen back into Paris quietly, so quietly that it took some time for the news to leak out. She is expected back at the Palace shortly, and Paris will probably forgive that unkind cut about Europe, Raquel being so "sympathique."

* * *

Napoleon Film.

The premiere of the French film "Napoleon" at the National Opera proved a work of Napoleonic magnitude. It was also the premiere of the triple screen. The rhythm of turbulent surging seas is caught by the motion cameras and flung out on the screen in Napoleon's flight to France from Corsica. Then, in cinematographic smile, the director pictures the turbulent surging of the human sea in the national convention. He lets one dissolve into the other and back again. He merges them together. And then the proscenium curtains draw further to the sides across the front of the auditorium is flung a mad, lashing, sythmic fury of mingled waves and men. "A figure of sight" had been developed to parallel a figure of speech. That was a great artistic achievement. A single narrow screen had been opened wide to the horizon. That was a new and effective technical achievement. There are other fine moments of great beauty in Gance's monumental photodrama.

* * *

Pantheon Of War.

It has been decided that the ashes of the French generals who distinguished themselves during the war and were killed during the course of it or have since died shall be brought to the Invalides. The building will thus become a sort of military Pantheon, which already has Napoleon as its greatest occupant. A date will shortly be fixed for an imposing ceremony this summer at which the transfer of the ashes will be made. Twenty-eight names have already been chosen for the posthumous distinction. They would have been increased to twenty-nine if it had not been that General Gallieni, the governor of Paris in 1914, particularly desired to be buried at Saint Raphael.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

YOUR BOY AND YOUR GIRL

BY ARTHUR DEAN, SC. D.

FOR PARENTS AND SCHOOL AUTHORITIES.

Did anyone ever threaten to expel you from school? Seems to me I have heard this short and rather ugly word before. If you are a teacher did you ever try to carry out your threat? I'll wager that you had difficulty in making your superior see it in your light and that he slowly counted a hundred before he agreed to back you up. Why? Well listen to this little bed-time, true story for school boards, superintendents, teachers and parents.

It seems some high school boys brought intoxicating liquor to a school function in a New Hampshire town. The superintendent and principal took the matter up with the school board. The board held a meeting at which the boys and their parents were heard. The board admonished several of the boys and dismissed from the school one boy who would not swear that he would be good forever after.

The boy then brought suit against the school, through his father, for $5,000 damages. The case came before the court and the jury found against the school officers and placed the damages at $2,180.34. (Why those extra cents I do not know.)

The presiding justice set aside the verdict and ordered a verdict for the defendants. The case next went to the supreme court, and the unanimous decision was favorable to the school board, school principal and school superintendent.

May Be a Law Suit.

Now this is a very important question. It is mighty serious business to dismiss a child absolutely from the benefits of a public school system. Once in a while it becomes necessary to take this extreme action. School boards often dislike to take it because they fear they will be sued. Many a principal has become hot-headed only to find later that he was "in Dutch," in a dismissal which did not hold water.

Dismissal is the most serious school punishment. It should be invoked rarely and only with deliberation. Every effort should first be made through the pupil and his parents to secure correct behavior. When these efforts fail, there should be formal dismissal. The pupil and his parents should have an opportunity to meet the board and to present their case. The board is not bound to justify its decision to those who attend the hearing, nor need the hearing be open to the general public, but the board should make entirely plain the reason for its decision and should include a full statement in its records.

The power of dismissal (expulsion) rests with the school board, and it alone. No teacher, headmaster, or superintendent can expel a pupil.

OUR CONVERSATION CORNER.

Vice and Advice.

A girl writes me: "I want the lights and I want the men. I want to have fun without paying a price. I want the thrills. I want to tweeze my eyebrows and paint my lips. In fact I want to be naughty and yet be nice."

I do not know whether my young reader really wants these things or not. Her "wants" sound so much like a piece of poetry I saw entitled, "The Flapper's Petition." In it the young writer asked her lawyer to give her advice on how she could be naughty and still be nice. I don't recall all the words of the lawyer's reply, but it run something like this:

"You can't eat your pie and have it too, and whatever you get you will pay the price.

"You will have to watch your step," the lawyer advised.

"If you want to be naughty and still be nice."

There is, of course, sound sense in this doggereel.

Fear.

Is it necessary for a child to go through a period of fear as one intelligent mother tells me?

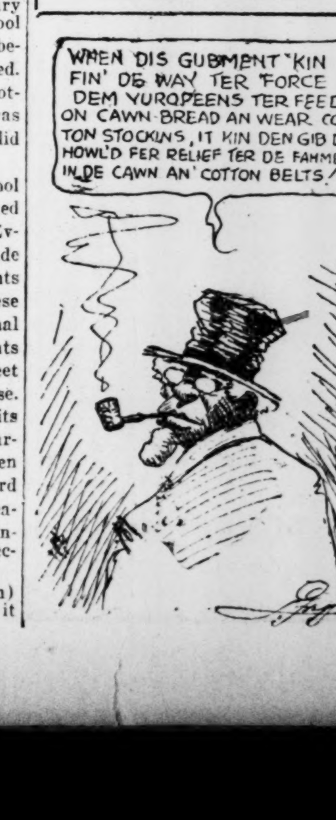
WONDERING MOTHER.

Answer.—All of us seem to be born with fears. I suspect that these are leftovers of our ancestral life. Some fears are helpful; for example the fear of falling off a tight rope. Fear of the dark in children can be cured very easily. Fears of "bogymen" can best be overcome by never starting the idea. The enclosed leaflet goes more into detail than we have space for her. Others may have it for the asking.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

OLD SI SAYS:

BY SAM W. SMALL.



WHEN DIS GUBMENT KIN FIN' DE WAY TER FORCE DEM YUROPEENS TER FEED ON CAWN BREAD AN WEAR COTTON STOCKINS, IT KIN DEN GIB DE HOWL'D FER RELIEF TER DE FAHMERS IN DE CAWN AN' COTTON BELTS!

Milton C. Work's Pointer On How To Play Bridge

(Milton C. Work, the international bridge authority, will answer your auction bridge questions. A stamped self-addressed envelope must accompany each request for replies.)

The pointer for today is:

An informatory double asks partner to answer with a four-card major no matter how weak; do not double unless prepared for that kind of answer.

Yesterday's hand was held by West who had to decide what to do after a declaration by South.

♠ 8-3
♡ A-K-10-2
♢ A-J-4
♣ J-10-7-6

My answer slip reads:

No. 5. South pass; West should bid one Heart or one No Trump.

No. 6. South one No Trump; West should pass.

No. 7. South one Spade; West should double.

No. 8. South one Club; West should bid one Heart.

My reasons in support of these declarations are:

No. 5. When choosing between a strong four-card Major and a No Trump with three suits stopped, the selection is an optional one. In this case it is a reasonably close choice. My preference would be the Heart because it contains three honors and the defenseless suit is composed of but two cards, but I give both bids as correct.

No. 6. Too weak to bid two Hearts over a No Trump on the right and furthermore that bid might steer the adversaries into Spades, at which they might be more dangerous than at No Trump. The hand has the strength for a double, but East is apt to answer with two Spades, which would not fit. West's best way out of the difficulty is to pass. An adverse game at No Trump is not probable.

No. 7. The double is fully justified by West's strength and by his desire for a Heart take-out if East have four Hearts.

No. 8. The adverse is safer than No Trump, nd a bid is preferable to a double because of the danger of a takeout by East with four small Spades.

Today's West hand follows:

♠ A-K-10-7
♡ A-Q-10-6-2
♢ 9-7-2
♣ 5

Score love-all; what should West declare after South's declarations, as stated in the answer slip that follows?

Bridge Answer Slip of April 27.

No. 9. South pass; West should..

....

No. 10. South one No Trump; West should ....

....

No. 11. South one Diamond; West should ....

....

No. 12. South one Club; West should ....

....

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

EMORY PROFESSOR MAKES ANALYSIS OF MOTOR TAXES

In the March number of the bulletin of the National Tax association just published Professor James W. Martin, of Emory university department of economics begins the first comprehensive historical and critical analysis of motor vehicle registration taxes in the United States. The work, entitled, "The Motor Vehicle Registration License," is to be continued serially in April, May and June. In the current issue, two phases of the subject are treated, "Early Development of Registration Licenses" and "Registration Tax Rates."

Several interesting facts are shown in connection with the beginnings of motor vehicles and with the early legislative restrictions on the use of such cars. For example, it is shown that automobiles, which would actually run, were invented in 1763—nearly twenty years before Watt perfected his steam engine. It is noted also that England passed a law in 1865 prohibiting the use of motor cars on the public roads unless they were always preceded by a man carrying a red flag. Cars were forbidden to run more than four miles an hour in the country or two miles an hour in town. The early history of American motor vehicle legislation is traced in some detail.

The second part of the paper, dealing with registration tax rates, is more exhaustive. It has to do mainly with the basis on which rates are made and with the actual amounts of revenue which have been and are being raised. Mr. Martin shows, among other things, that horsepower, though it has been used as the basis of graduating the motor vehicle licenses in most states, is wholly unsatisfactory, and that various progressive states are discarding it.

Perhaps the most striking thing in this installment of the article is the assertion, made on the basis of engineering tests, that all the states are discriminating in their license rates against the light vehicle equipped with pneumatic tires in favor of the heavy one fitted with solid rubber or metal tires. Recommendations for the improvement of the basis of rate-making are offered.

Go West

By way of the Canadian Pacific Rockies—open-top observation cars. Stop at Banff, Lake Louise, Field (for Emerald Lake), Sicamous—then down the Fraser Canyon into

Vancouver and Victoria

Travel to or from California by the "Mountaineer." 500 miles of Alps.

Literature and full information from

E. G. CHESBROUGH,
Gen. Agt. Pass. Dept.,
Canadian Pacific Railway, 49 N. Forsyth St.
Atlanta, Ga.
Telephone WAlnut 2217

Canadian Pacific
World's Greatest Travel System

Refills Rheumatism Prescription
Over a Million Times

A firm of druggists established in New York City 75 years ago has refilled a certain Rheumatism prescription more than a million times. People even send for it from foreign countries. A teaspoonful of this famous Rheumatism prescription which is called A-2851, taken three times a day, stops rheumatic pain and quickly relieves painful muscles and stiff, swollen joints. Local druggists everywhere can supply you, or get it for you. Price $1.00.

EIMER & AMEND, 205 Third Ave., N. Y. C.

Let Cuticura Soap Keep Your Skin Fresh and Youthful Sample Soap, Ointment, Talcum free. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. R, Malden, Mass.

Makes the Body Strong Makes the Blood Rich

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

60c.

PERRY IN CAPITAL TO FILE BRIEFS IN RATE CASES

James A. Perry, chairman of the Georgia Public service commission, was in Washington Tuesday conferring with members of the interstate commerce commission regarding a number of rate cases in which this state is interested, it was announced at the chairman's office.

Mr. Perry was to file briefs on the log rate case, in which the Georgia commission is seeking to have reduced the present interstate rates on logs from Florida into Georgia, it was said. The interstate commerce commission conducted two hearings recently in this case, one at Valdosta and the other at Jacksonville.

Announcement also was made that Calvin W. Parker, a member of the Georgia commission, who has been ill at his home in Waycross for several months, is expected to be able to attend the commission's next regular meeting, on May 10.

HUNTER AND PICCO SING AT ROTARY CLUB'S LUNCHEON

Louise Hunter and Millo Picco, members of the Metropolitan Opera company, were honor guests at the regular weekly luncheon of the Rotary club Tuesday at noon at the Capital City club.

Both stars gave several selections for members of the Rotary club. W. H. Royer gave a short talk on Memorial day and the program in which Atlantans observed the day.

Robert S. Parker, president of the club, had charge of the luncheon.

LARGE LIQUOR STILL TAKEN NEAR CHIPLEY

One of the largest stills ever seized in Georgia was captured Tuesday by W. T. Day, deputy prohibition administrator, near Chipley, in Meriwether county. The still was of 2,000 gallon capacity, with a daily output of 500 gallons. Agents Wallace, Cobb, Spence and Crow were in the raiding party.

Falls From Dam.

Milton Lifsey, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lifsey, of 381 Courtland street, was taken to Grady hospital Tuesday suffering from brain concussion received in a fall from a dam at Silver lake while fishing Tuesday morning, according to hospital reports.

Bracelets

In the newest styles

American women, noted for their good taste and elegant choice of adornment, are enthusiastic in their approval of the beautiful bracelets in the large selection we are showing—a variety of the newest styles, appropriate to wear with gorgeous evening gowns and afternoon frocks. Diamond-platinum, crystal and sapphire, platinum-top and white gold, from $45 up.

MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.
31 Whitehall Street Established 40 Years

SAVANNAH FETES GOODWILL FLIERS

Savannah, Ga., April 26.——With the river banks lined with hundreds of people, eager to catch a glimpse of them, the famous Pan-American "goodwill" fliers arrived in Savannah shortly before noon Tuesday and docked in the river at Thunderbolt.

The planes were first sighted about 11:20 o'clock and led by an army plane, circled over the heads of the crowd, finally descending lower until opposite the Casino. They entered the river and proceeded in the direction of the Shrine Country club, finally docking in the river near Bannon's lodge.

At 1:30 o'clock the aviators were tendered a luncheon at Bannon's lodge by Mayor Hull.

Tuesday afternoon the distinguished visitors viewed the annual Memorial day parade.

CLOTHING FOR 200 FLOOD SUFFERERS COLLECTED HERE

Clothing enough for emergency use of more than 200 sufferers in the Mississippi flood was collected by Salvation Army workers in Atlanta Tuesday to be forwarded directly to relief workers in the flood area, it was reported by Staff Captain Raine at the Army's men's service center on Luckie street.

The Army's facilities for collecting and distributing clothing to Atlanta's poor have been diverted temporarily to supplying needs in the flood area.

Discarded clothing for flood relief work and worn-out furniture that can be rebuilt and sold to help support the service center here will be sent for on call to Ivy 2224 or may be sent to the service center at 271 Luckie street, Captain Raine said.

T. J. THWAITES, STABBING VICTIM, FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral services for Tom J. Thwaites, of 1462 Ryan street, victim of a stabbing affray Sunday night near Lakewood, will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

At an inquest Tuesday at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, the coroner's jury recommended a charge of murder against Thomas A. Gibby, of 597 Wells street. J. C. Garrett, said to be Gibby's companion, was ordered held as accessory.

Gibby admitted stabbing Thwaites, but claimed self-defense, it was stated. "I did it only after Thwaites knocked me down twice and when I was in fear of my life," Gibby told the coroner's jury.

EDGAR WATKINS TALKS ON NEW CITY CHARTER

Edgar Watkins, Atlanta attorney, was principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Atlanta Exchange club Tuesday afternoon in the Henry Grady hotel. He talked on the proposed new city charter.

A special musical program was presented by Mrs. Victor Clark, musical director of the Peachtree Christian church, as accompanist, Mrs. G. A. Mitchell, soprano, and Miss Lillian Smith, contralto. An appeal for contributions to the Red Cross to aid in flood relief work was made at the meeting, which was presided over by Dr. L. O. Bricker.

STARK TRAGEDY

Fire Destroys Opera Regalia of Atlanta Couple.

What to wear to grand opera tonight. Hours of debate on this question were abruptly ended; indecision through sleepless moments was cataclysmically changed in one brief instant Tuesday morning into definite knowledge of the one and only course for Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Swatts, of 444 Wabash avenue, N. E., to pursue. Thanks—and there were not so many of them—to a fire in their home, the couple would not be able to wear anything, provided the clothes they wore on their backs were not satisfactory.

Fire, which originated apparently from nowhere, was discovered raging in a closet of their apartment in which hung by far the better portion of their wearing apparel, but, though the fire was extinguished by neighbors and valiant members of the fire department before the house itself was badly injured, the heroes in the case were not quick enough to save that dearest to the heart of every woman—clothes.

EX-TAX COLLECTOR OF CARTERSVILLE, NAT DONAHOO, DIES

Cartersville, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—Nat Donahoo, former tax collector, 69, and a member of one of Bartow county's oldest and most prominent families, died suddenly here Tuesday afternoon. He had gone to the courthouse to appear as witness in a minor case in city court, and before court opened fell over in his chair and died before medical aid could reach him. Surviving are his widow, one son, Clarence, three daughters, Mrs. J. B. Roberts, of Cartersville; Mrs. J. J. Bolling, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Herbert Smith, of Etowah, Tenn.; five brothers and three sisters. Funeral services wil lbe held at Baptist Tabernacle Wednesday afternoon and interment takes place at Oak Hill cemetery.

Companies To Show Value Depreciation Before Commission

Recommendations to the interstate commerce commission relative to the depreciation of value of Class A, B and C telephone companies and steam railways, will be formed Friday at a hearing to be held by southeastern commissioners, the Georgia public service commission announced Tuesday.

H. F. Lee, of the Alabama public service commission, will preside at the meeting as president of the southeastern commission. Florida, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Kentucky and Georgia will be represented at the session.

School for Gardeners.

A professional school for gardeners has been opened in the former Castle Eberhard near Bratislava, Czechoslovakia. The course of study covers a year and includes the culture of flowers, vegetables, fruits, and vines. Students must be indentured gardeners. Castle Eberhard has great parks, gardens, greenhouses, vineyards, and orchards. — Emanual V. Lippert in School Life.

Twins at Grady.

Another set of twins, the second to be born at Grady hospital within the past 36 days, made their advent Tuesday morning. Both youngsters and their mother, Mrs. J. C. M. Mobley, 24, of 35 South Pryor street were reported as doing nicely Tuesday night. One of the lads weighed 5 pounds and 8 ounces while the other weighed 6 pounds exactly.

ATLANTA PLANS GREAT WELCOME TO CUBAN PARTY

Pledges of cooperation by civic, military and business leaders virtually assures President Gerardo Machado, of Cuba, a great welcome on May 5, when he is to pay Atlanta a one-day visit.

A group of representative Atlantans will welcome the distinguished visitor and his party at the Terminal station. An escort including detachments from the 22d and 122d infantry and a cordon of police will form a guard of honor from the station to the Biltmore hotel. A sight-seeing trip over the city, a visit to Stone mountain, a luncheon at the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank and a banquet and reception at the Biltmore hotel are among the events planned. The party will leave the city the morning of May 6 at 1 o'clock.

The financial and trade bonds existing between this country and Cuba were commented upon recently by Governor M. B. Wellborn, of the Federal Reserve bank, who urged that a fitting demonstration be given President Machado.

NORTH CAROLINA CLUB PLANS FOR BANQUET

A meeting of the North Carolina club will be held today at 11:30 o'clock at 89 North Pryor street, it was announced by W. A. Horne, president of the club.

Plans for the annual banquet on May 20 will be laid at the meeting.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT LIONS' LUNCHEON

With a special patriotic program members of the Atlanta Lions club, at their weekly luncheon, Tuesday afternoon at the Winecoff hotel, celebrated Memorial day and paid homage to the soldiers in gray.

The singing of national patriotic songs and Lions club songs and a special appeal for the flood stricken regions featured the meeting, which was presided over by Joseph B. Wolfe, president.

Our 41st Anniversary and Second Anniversary Sale Begins Thursday April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

"Serving the South for More Than Sixty Years"

Serving a Growing City

ATLANTA, the Distributing Center of the Southeast, is steadily expanding her commerce, serving a section whose industrial growth is attracting the attention of the nation.

Since 1865, the Atlanta & Lowry, oldest national bank in the Cotton States, has met to the fullest extent, the ever-increasing demands of Atlanta's business.

With combined resources of more than $70,000,000, it has the ability as well as the desire to serve.

The ATLANTA and LOWRY NATIONAL BANK and the Trust Company of Georgia

A COMPLETE BANKING SERVICE

SCIENCE AMAZED AT MARVELOUS POWERS OF REMARKABLE MINERAL

COULD NOT BUTTON COLLAR

Rheumatism So Bad Could Not Reach Back Collar Button, Says S. H. Brantley

Fairburn Merchant Finds Quick Relief—Says Mineral-Tone Is Best Medicine in the World, and Wants Thousands to Know About It

S. H. BRANTLEY.

A remarkable case of just how Mineral-Tone goes right to the seat of the trouble and removes it by purifying and building up the blood is that of Mr. S. H. Brantley, prominent Fairburn merchant and formerly a member of Ex-Governor Joseph Terrell's staff. Mr. Brantley tells his own story in the following letter:

"I suffered from rheumatism for 7 years.

"I was bilious most all the time. My appetite was not good. I was just all out of sorts. My whole system was beginning to run down mighty fast.

"One of my friends here at the store one day told me he was going to send me a package of Mineral-Tone and for me to take it; said there was no need for me to be in the condition I was in, when Mineral-Tone would positively cure me, so I promised to give it a fair trial.

Best Medicine in World.

"Really I think it's the best medicine in the world. Don't think there is another like it. Why, by the time I had finished my second bottle, my rheumatism had gone, and I had it so bad I couldn't get my hands up to fasten my back collar button, and I had to have help to put on my coat. Well, Mineral-Tone not only cured me of rheumatism, it put me back in perfect condition, it relieved me of this biliousness that I was constantly troubled with and I went to sleeping as sound as anyone. Mineral-Tone gave me a wonderful appetite. I believe if a person would keep it on hand and use a little of it when he began feeling bad, that it would purify his blood and clean him out so thoroughly that it would carry him into old age without any serious illness.

Feels Grateful.

"I am now 69 years old. I'm able to look after my store, go hunting, fishing, or attend to any of my duties. Yes, I give Mineral-Tone credit for the good health I now enjoy and it keeps me feeling and going good.

"I will always feel grateful to Mr. Dobbs for bringing Mineral-Tone to me. I hope by giving this statement I will cause thousands of suffering people to find permanent relief. I think it's the greatest medicine in the world, and a Godsend to suffering humanity. It is one medicine that I can conscientiously recommend to my lifelong friends. Through my recommendation several of my friends have used it with most gratifying results. If anyone wants to know more about Mineral-Tone, just write me.

"S. H. BRANTLEY, Merchant,
"Fairburn, Ga."

Amazing Stories of Cures Like Miracles. Discovery Hailed as Greatest in Medical History—Astounding Mineral Cannot Be Duplicated in Laboratory.

Promises Quick Relief to Sufferers from Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Rheumatism, Eczema, Boils, Run Down Condition or Any Disease Resulting from Bad Blood. Builds Up System.

AT LAST AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC UNDER NAME OF MINERAL-TONE

Discovery of the marvelous properties of a mineral which comes from the heart of Turkey Mountain and the proved stories of many miraculous cures it has worked have caused a sensation in medical circles.

GUARDED MINERAL WITH LIVES

Spot Held Sacred and Guarded By Cherokees for Centuries

Atlanta People Can Now Get Mineral-Tone at Jacobs' Stores and Other Good Druggists

"The Gift of the Great Spirit" was the name that the Cherokee Indians bestowed on the remarkable mineral which they discovered hundreds of years ago in the heart of Turkey Mountain, which rises above their native capital village of Echota. This sturdy, remarkable tribe found the mineral so valuable in restoring health and so richly endowed with life-giving qualities that they held sacred the spot where it was found. Believing that the remarkable health of their tribe, to which sickness was almost unknown, depended on Mineral-Tone, they literally defended it with their lives—so vigorously, in fact, that De Soto, passing through that territory in 1540, believed the mountain to contain gold or some other ore of fabulous worth. History records these facts.

Only when the Cherokees were moved from their beloved hunting grounds in Georgia, did the secret become known to white people and then only to a fortunate few.

Gradually word of the remarkable powers of this mineral spread among the people of that section and the stories of the many astounding cures it has wrought read like miracles.

Jacobs' and other good Atlanta druggists have, with great foresight, secured a quantity sufficient to supply the immediate needs of Atlanta, but pressure now being brought by other sections of the country may delay additional deliveries when the present stocks are exhausted, and we advise all who suffer from a run-down condition or who have stomach trouble, indigestion, rheumatism, eczema or skin eruptions to lay in a supply while it is available.

If your druggist is out of Mineral-Tone send $1.25 to Mineral-Tone, Inc., Wynne-Claughton Bldg., Atlanta, for a package postpaid.

The powers of this mineral, which has been compounded in Nature's laboratory under the surface of the earth through thousands of years, in relieving indigestion and overcoming stomach trouble, rheumatism, eczema, boils and other skin eruptions, as well as in building up, purifying and cleansing the entire system, seem almost miraculous. Doctors stand amazed at the way Mineral-Tone goes right to the seat of the most obstinate trouble and removes it.

For years the best brains in the medical world have tried to find such a remedy that would quickly purify and build up the blood, thus banishing 90 per cent of the ills common to mankind.

No Laboratory Can Duplicate It.

No satisfactory solution has been reached with any medicine made by man, but the discovery of Mineral-Tone has proved an answer to this long-standing quest.

No chemist can duplicate Mineral-Tone, for no chemist can duplicate the conditions or live long enough to carry out the slow process of Nature in fusing together in just the right combination the life-giving minerals which make up Mineral-Tone. Has any chemist ever been able to produce an egg? Man has tried for centuries to find a formula for gold. Has man ever succeeded?

No, Nature guards her secrets.

From any drug store you might buy the different minerals that make up Mineral-Tone. You might mix them together in the same proportions—but, when you finished, would you have Mineral-Tone? Never. Only Nature can take the thousands of years necessary to make Mineral-Tone, and only through Nature can the same marvelous cures be obtained.

More Than a Medicine.

Mineral-Tone is more than a medicine, it is Nature's own tonic. Made only by Nature, untouched by human hands, Mineral-Tone comes to us free from drugs or alcohol—comes to us just as Nature compounded it.

Mineral-Tone increases vitality, restores health and energy to rundown bodies, as only a product of Nature can do, for Mineral-Tone is more than 75 per cent iron, and iron, as all doctors know, is the greatest blood builder and purifier man has ever known.

But the iron in Mineral-Tone is in such form and such combination with other health-giving minerals that it can be easily absorbed by the system, building up rich, pure blood, cleansing the entire system of the poison that is accumulating in the body.

Word of Remarkable Cures Spreads Fast.

For the first time, this wonderful mineral is available to suffering mankind. The stories of its remarkable cures have spread so fast and the demand has been so great that a company has been organized to make available to the public this amazing product of Nature. For the first time you may secure Mineral-Tone. Arrangements have been made with Jacobs' stores and other good druggists to distribute this precious life-giving mineral.

No matter what man-made medicine or tonic you have tried without benefit, don't fail to take this opportunity to regain your health, vigor and vitality through Nature's remarkable gift to suffering mankind. And remember it is fully guaranteed and if you don't receive unusual benefit come back and get your money.

CHEMISTS BAFFLED TRYING TO DUPLICATE MINERAL-TONE

No Laboratory Can Produce Mineral-Tone — Only Known Source Is Guarded With Increasing Care

Medical Men Find Only Nature Can Supply Process That Is Secret of Mineral-Tone's Astounding Power

For many years science has attempted to prepare a formula which would overcome 90 per cent of the ills of mankind by purifying and enriching the blood stream, thus building up the entire system and providing resistance to germs and disease.

It has long been known that iron is needed for rich, pure blood. Mineral-Tone is 75 per cent iron, in such form as to be quickly taken up by the blood and carried to all parts of the human body. It makes the blood rich and red—and pure, rich blood, as all doctors know, means abounding health and vitality.

It is natural that scientists should have tried to perfect a formlua that would do what Mineral-Tone does, but great as the strides in modern science have been, chemists can no more duplicate Mineral-Tone than they can make gold or diamonds or blood itself.

Mineral-Tone Has Been Found in Only One Spot on the Earth.

Though its powers have not been fully understood, it has been used by the people in the Turkey Mountain section for many years and it has effected some of the most remarkable cures in medical history.

TREMENDOUS DEMAND FOR MINERAL-TONE AS WORD OF CURES SPREAD LIKE WILD FIRE

Jacobs' Stores and Other Atlanta Druggists Have Limited Supply

Atlanta People Urged to Buy Now, as Pressure from Other Sections Threatens Shortage Tremendous demand, following the announcement of the miraculous properties of an amazing new mineral substance, together with pressure from other sections of the country, which desire the benefit it gives, threatens a shortage in the supply to Atlanta people.

Word of the almost unbelievable results obtained in the treatment of indigestion, stomach trouble, rheumatism, eczema and other diseases caused by bad blood, has spread like wildfire and the demand for Mineral-Tone is rapidly absorbing the limited supply held by Atlanta druggists.

High-powered motor cars have raced through the night to fill in the stocks of local stores, but other sections of the country are demanding that they be supplied with Mineral-Tone so that they, too, may benefit from its health-giving properties.

Atlanta people can obtain Mineral-Tone at Jacobs' stores and other druggists as long as the supply lasts.

If your druggist is out of Mineral-Tone send $1.25 to Mineral-Tone, Inc., Wynne-Claughton Bldg., Atlanta, for one package postpaid.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR YEARS

Calhoun Woman Could Not Take Solid Food — Now Eats What She Likes

GAINED WEIGHT

Hundreds of cases of obstinate indigestion and stomach trouble have yielded to Mineral-Tone. The following letter from Mrs. J. B. Crowe, of Calhoun, Ga., is typical of many we have on file:

"I have been suffering for years with stomach trouble, have tried almost everything. I decided to try your Mineral-Tone. I then weighed one hundred and nineteen pounds. One month later I weighed one hundred and twenty-eight pounds. I couldn't take any solid food then. I now eat a reasonable portion of nearly anything. I can truthfully say it has greatly benefited me in more than one way. I can highly recommend it to all sufferers of stomach trouble.

"Respectfully,
"MRS. J. B. CROWE.
"Calhoun, Ga."

MINERAL-TONE
for VIM, VIGOR and VITALITY

For Sale by JACOBS' STORES and by
Other Good Drug Stores Price $1.25

News of Better Weather Depresses Cotton Market

NEW YORK COTTON RANGE.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. Close.
Jan . . .	15.68	15.72	15.57	15.58	15.79
May . . .	14.83	14.95	14.81	14.82-83	15.08
July . . .	15.12	15.22	15.08	15.12-13	15.28
Oct . . .	15.40	15.45	15.30	15.34-34	15.47
Dec . . .	15.64	15.71	15.53	15.55-56	15.75

SPOTS IN NEW YORK.

New York, April 26.—Spot cotton, quiet; middling, 15.10.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON RANGE.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. Close.
Jan . . .	15.54	15.59	15.58	15.48	15.66
May . . .	14.85	14.90	14.80	14.86-88	14.95
July . . .	15.17	15.23	15.10	15.16-17	15.25
Oct . . .	15.40	15.45	15.30	15.34	15.47
Dec . . .	15.53	15.62	15.45	15.48	15.64

SPOTS IN NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, April 26.—Spot cotton closed steady 10 point down; sales, 1,082; low middling, 12.85; middling, 14.75; good middling, 15.70; receipts, 3,233; stock, 513,421.

New York, April 26.—(AP)—Reports of better weather in the south and circulation of the first May notices seemed responsible for realizing or liquidation in the cotton market here, and reactions followed. July contracts which had sold at 15.42 at the high point of yesterday, declared to be 15.08 and closed at 15.12, compared with 15.28, at the close the previous day. The final tone was barely steady at net declines of 16 to 22 points.

The market opened easy at a decline of 12 to 18 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables. Further buying on the Mississippi valley situation rallied prices several points after the opening. October selling up from 15.42 to 15.52, or within 5 points of yesterday's closing quotation.

Circulation of May notices estimated at 140,000 bales brought in a good deal of May liquidation, and prices turned easier again during mid-day on the favorable weather news which seemed to create rather a more hopeful view of the flood situation.

Trade interests were good buyers of May at 26 to 28 points under July, which suggested that the notices were being gradually stopped, but some were reported still in circulation during the afternoon, and there was an apparent difference of 30 points between May and July at the close, compared with a difference of 25 points at the close the day before. May sold off to 14.80 and October to 15.36 in late trading. Last prices were within 2 or 3 points of the lowest on most positions.

Further overflows were reported in the Red River parish of Louisiana which was said to be affecting some very good cotton land. These reports probably helped the forenoon rally, but the flood news did not appear to be making much more buying power after the advances of the last few days and in view of the better weather.

Private cables attributed the decline in Liverpool to hedging, with local, London and Bombay selling, but said there was improvement in light cotton cloths for India.

A report that the committee of the Japanese Spinners' association had decided to curtail production 15 per cent for six months beginning May 1 may have been a factor of the afternoon decline. Exports today 23,057, making 9,503,953 so far this season. Port receipts, 15,176. U. S. port stocks, 2,136,481.

COTTON DECLINES AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, April 26.—(AP)—Liquidation and realizing accounted for the declines shown in cotton prices today, after a vain attempt was made to steer upward. Large tenders for May deliveries in New York of 134,000 bales was a helping influence to the weakness of prices.

Today was the first notice day for May deliveries. Tenders for May in the local markets amounted to only 5,400 bales.

First trades showed losses of 6 to 9 points and after a brief spurt upward of 5 to 7 points, prices again turned downward, losing 17 to 19 points. A last minute rally of 5 to 7 points on flood news from northern Louisiana cut down the losses and the market closed at net losses for the day of 9 to 16 points.

October closed at 15.34 and December at 15.48, or 13 to 16 points under Monday's close.

Exports totaled 23,057 bales.

COTTON STATEMENT.

Port Movement.

New Orleans: Middling, 14.75; receipts, 32,133; exports, 14,951; sales, 1,082; stock, 513,421.

Galveston: Middling, 14.95; receipts, 4,437; exports, 6,346; sales, 545; stock, 450,963.

Mobile: Middling, 14.30; receipts, 151; sales, 145; stock, 30,741.

Savannah: Stock, 56,672.

Charleston: Receipts, 2,351; stock, 65,779.

Wilmington: Receipts, 799; stock, 23,978.

Norfolk: Middling, 14.63; receipts, 801; sales, 1,086; stock, 93,463.

New York: Middling, 15.10; stock, 222,150.

Boston: Receipts, 75; stock, 1,300.

Houston: Middling, 14.90; receipts, 3,329; exports, 1,760; sales, 2,054; stock, 640,193.

Minor Ports: Stock, 36,376.

Total Today: Receipts, 15,176; exports, 23,057; sales, 4,912; stock, 2,136,509.

Total for Week: Receipts, 39,549; exports, 58,020.

Total for Season: Receipts, 12,039,238; exports, 9,311,184.

Interior Movement.

Memphis: Middling, 14.00; receipts, 3,825; shipments, 5,920; sales, 3,400; stock, 176,558.

Augusta: Middling, 14.38; receipts, 31; sales, 1,254; stock, 87,657.

St. Louis: Receipts, 555; shipments, 591; stock, 5,144.

Fort Worth: Middling, 14.10; sales, 70.

Little Rock: Middling, 14.25; receipts, 50; shipments, 260; sales, 814; stock, 28,624.

Atlanta: Middling, 14.60; sales, 1,000.

Dallas: Middling, 14.10; sales, 2,314.

Montgomery: Middling, 14.10; sales, 116.

Total Today: Receipts, 4,461; shipments, 6,771; sales, 8,968; stock, 297,383.

Naval Stores Closed.

Savannah naval stores market closed, holiday.

CIVITAN PROGRAM FOR MEMORIAL DAY

A special memorial day program luncheon was held at the Atlanta Athletic club by the Civitan club Tuesday as a substitute for the regular weekly luncheon. Former Governor John M. Slaton, who is civilian aid to the secretary of war for the Fourth Corps area headquarters, was principal speaker.

Governor Slaton spoke on the military training camp for citizens, which will be held during June and July.

Brigadier General H. O. Williams, Colonel G. F. Baltzell and Colonel D. K. Major, of the Fourth Corps area headquarters were guests of honor at the luncheon.

Music was furnished by members of the 22nd Infantry band from Fort McPherson. The entertainment program was arranged by Fred Schaefer and B. G. West, president, presided.

ROGERS-SOUTHERN DECLARES DIVIDEND

The Rogers-Southern Grocery Stores, Inc., operators of three hundred and ten pure food stores in Georgia, South Carolina and Alabama, have approved the regular quarterly dividend on both Class "A" and common stock. The dividends are 62 1-2c per share on Class "A" and 12 1-2c per share common, payable June 1.

Associated Gas and Electric Company

ASSOCIATED GAS & ELECTRIC SYSTEM

61 Broadway, New York

Dividend No. 9 on Class A Stock

The regular quarterly dividend on Class A Stock of 50c per share has been declared for the quarter ended April 30, 1927, to stockholders of record at the close of business March 31, 1927, payable May 2, 1927.

Holders of Class A Stock may apply this dividend to the purchase of additional shares of Class A Stock at the price of $20 per share whereas the present market price is $40.50 per share. This is equivalent to a stock dividend at the rate of 10% per annum, yielding, at the present market price of over $40 per share, approximately $4 per share per annum.

The dividends will be so applied and the Class A Stock (or scrip certificates for fractional shares) purchased therewith will be delivered to all stockholders entitled thereto who do not, on or before April 21, 1927, request payment in cash.

M. C. O'KEEFFE, Secretary.

A guide to profitable Investments.

THE INVESTOR'S POCKET MANUAL

336 Page Booklet Issued Monthly

100 pages of High and Low prices for latest month and year, previous years, etc., for stocks, bonds, cotton, grain, coffee and provisions listed on practically all American and Canadian Exchanges and Curb Markets. Over 200 pages descriptive statistical matter of Railroad, Industrial, Public Utility Co's, etc., showing finances, history, comparative earnings, dividends, etc. Furnished FREE by any Banker or Broker to investors and traders on request OR for 30c latest issue will be mailed direct by THE FINANCIAL PRESS, 116 Broad St., New York City.

Local Stock Quotations

Supplied by Courts & Co., Hurt Building.

	Bid.	Asked
Atlanta Trust company, 8%	129	132
Atlanta & Lowry National bank 16%	338	342
Citizens & Southern bank, 13.2%	257	260
Fourth National bank, 16%	356	. . .
Fulton National bank 7%	129	132
Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co., 14%	250	. . . .
American Savings bank, 8%	122	125
Atlantic Ice & Coal Co., 7½% preferred	108½	110
Atlantic Ice & Coal Co., 8% common	51½	53
Bibb Mfg. Co. 6% preferred	101	102½
Bibb Mfg. Co. 6% common	117½	120½
Continental Gin company, 7% preferred	103½	. . . .
Continental Gin common	55	56
Columbus Electric & Power Co. 7% preferred	103½	. .
Columbus Electric & Power Co., 6½% preferred	99	100
Dinkler Hotels "A" 8%	22½	24
Exposition Cotton Mills, 7% preferred	104	. . . .
Georgia Railway & Power company, 7% first preferred	112	. . . .
Georgia Railway & Power company 8% first preferred	126½	. . . .
Thomaston Cotton Mills, 8% preferred	100	. . . .
Georgia Power company, $6 preferred	94½	96

U. S. OIL PRODUCTION IS MOUNTING HIGHER

New York, April 26.—(AP)—The daily average gross crude oil production in the United States increased 25,600 barrels for the week ended April 23, totaling 2,478,100 barrels, says the weekly summary of the American Petroleum institute today. The daily average production east of California was 1,837,100 barrels, an increase of 24,500 barrels.

Daily average production difference in barrels:

Oklahoma, 721,850; Inc., 7,150; Kansas, 115,650; Inc., 1,800; Panhandle Texas, 124,700; Inc., 2,750; North Texas, 90,750; Inc., 2,250; West Central Texas, 186,000; Inc., 800; East Central Texas, 41,150; Dec., 400; Southwest Texas, 36,550; Dec., 400; North Louisiana, 49,850; Dec., 2,500; Arkansas, 108,500; Dec., 7,000; Coastal Texas, 138,700; Inc., 6,350; Coastal Louisiana 21,000; Inc., 1,800; Eastern, 109,000; Inc., 1,500; Wyoming, 62,000; Inc., 5,700; Montana, 15,050; no change; Colorado, 9,950; Inc., 1,500, New Mexico, 6,400; Inc., 3,200; California, 641,000; Inc., 1,110. Daily average imports of petroleum at principal ports for the week ended April 23 totaled 135,571 barrels compared with 173,000 barrels for the previous week.

Daily average receipts of California oil at Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports for the week ended April 23 totaled 131,143 compared with 68,429 for the previous week.

PRODUCTION OF OIL SHOWS AN INCREASE

Tulsa, Okla., April 26.—(AP)—Crude oil production in the United States averaged 2,442,549 barrels daily for the week ending April 23, an increase of 4,918 barrels over the previous week, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today. The Journal said that slight increases were recorded in virtually every producing area.

Sugar.

New York, April 26.—Raw sugar was quiet today and in absence of business prices were unchanged at 4.83 for Cuban, duty paid.

There was not much activity in raw futures. Prices moved within narrow limits. Early gains of 1 to 3 points on covering and a little outside buying, attracted liquidation and trade selling, followed by reactions, the market closing one point higher to one point net lower. The easier London market and increased offerings in the spot market restricted any aggressive buying and probably promoted the afternoon selling. Approximate sales were only 20,300 tons. May closed, 3.02; July, 3.10; September, 3.20; December, 3.23; January, 3.06; March, 2.92.

Only small business was reported in refined. Prices were unchanged at 6.00 to 6.20 for fine granulated.

NEGRESS SUCCUMBS FROM HYDROPHOBIA

Emma Paden, negress, of 709 Fraser street, died Tuesday morning at her home from hydrophobia which developed last Saturday, according to records at the state board of health.

The girl was bitten by a pet dog late in March and did not take the Pasteur treatment. Several local treatments were given her, it was reported, and last Saturday she was taken to Grady hospital and doctors stated that she was suffering from the disease as a result of the dog bite.

An examination of the dog after it had died showed it to have been suffering from rabies, hospital attaches were told.

This is the fourth death in the state since January 1 from rabies, and the second one to occur in Atlanta, the other two having been reported from Savannah, Ga.

During the year 1926 the Pasteur treatment was administered to 450 persons in Atlanta, the records show.

STEEL DIRECTORS AUTHORIZE DIVIDENDS

New York, April 26.—(AP)—Directors of the United States Steel corporation today formally authorized the payment of a 40 per cent stock dividend on the common stock, amounting to $203,321,000 value, and continued the regular $7 annual dividend on the increased capitalization. The stock dividend is payable June 1 to stockholders of record May 2, and the cash dividend of $1.75 quarterly is payable on the common June 29 to stockholders of record June 7.

This action, which was practically predicted by Chairman Gary at the stockholders' meeting April 28, at which time the proposed increase in capitalization was ratified, increases the quarterly dividend requirements on the common stock from $8,095,294 to $12,453,411.

Total earnings of the corporation for the first quarter were $45,584,725, as compared with $53,502,525 in the preceding quarter and $45,061,285 in the first quarter of 1926. Based on the old capitalization, this is equivalent to $3.93 a share of the common as against $4.88 in the quarter ended December 31, and $3.88 in the quarter ended March 31, 1926. Wall street estimates of total earnings had ranged from $50,000,000 to $54,000,000.

Net income for the first quarter was $30,924,338, after deduction of $11,858,544 for charges and allowances for depletion and depreciation and sinking funds. A further deduction of $4,238,894 on bonds outstanding and $358,082 as a premium on bonds redeemed showed a balance of $26,327,362 available for common and preferred dividends, which totaled $18,758,330, leaving a surplus for the quarter of $7,569,032.

"In my opinion," remarked Chairman Gary after the meeting, "the directors did the right thing at the right time. The figures speak for themselves."

Common stock of the U. S. Steel corporation fluctuated on the New York Stock Exchange today within a range of 2 points. Closing 3-4 of a point higher at 170 1-8. A record high of 172 3-4 was established a short time ago. The "new" stock, that is the amount to be outstanding after the payment of the stock dividend, which is traded in on a "when issued" basis, has ranged between 111 3-8 and 124 7-8 since the stock dividend was proposed, closing today at 122 3-8, up 1-4 net.

TYRE GOES ON TRIAL FOR OFFICER'S DEATH

Jesup, Ga., April 26.—(AP)—Frank Tyre, 40, went on trial here Tuesday morning charged with the murder of Don A. Aspinwall, a county officer, who was slain in Tyre's home a few weeks ago.

The jury follows:

B. S. Plunkett, E. S. Surrency, E. D. Dart, O. D. Thornton, W. M. Sutton, D. M. Haddock, Alonzo Chapman, Virgil Knight, A. A. Robertson, W. A. Hurn, Floyd Long and J. A. Richardson.

Aspinwall was killed during a raid at Tyre's home, Sheriff Maddox and the officer having gone to the latter's residence with search warrants to seek whisky.

Tyre was later arrested in Ludowici where he had gone to employ an attorney to defend him.

Following the selection of a jury court adjourned until afternoon.

INTERRACIAL LEADERS OPEN ANNUAL SESSION

Negroes of the United States are greatly encouraged by the betterment of their conditions resulting from the earnest and commonsense efforts of the commission on interracial cooperation, in the opinion of Mary McLeod Bethune, of Daytona, Fla., president of the National Association of Colored Women's clubs, who is attending the annual meeting or the interracial commission, which convened Tuesday morning for a three-day session in Central Congregational church.

Every southern state, with the exception of Arkansas, is represented in the attendance at the meeting. At the opening session, which was called to order by the chairman, Dr. M. Ashby Jones, of St. Louis, Will W. Alexander, of Atlanta, director of the commission's work, made a general report of conditions, pointing out encouraging progress in the increasing acceptance throughout the south of state and community responsibility for negro welfare, and the rapidly growing interest in race relations manifested by religious groups and students.

R. B. Eleazer, the commission's educational director, expressed appreciation of the fine work that is being done by newspapers for improvement of interracial conditions, and particularly for the unanimous and vigorous assault which they are making on the crime of lynching. He told of the commission's press service, by which constructive news concerning race relations is reaching a constituency of 20,000,000 people through 1,500 newspapers and magazines in all parts of the country. Through this service, he said, some 200 articles are released annually, with a total of about 50,000 mailings. He told also of the efforts being put forth by the commission to reach and interest college and high school students throughout the south. Sue Hill who has special responsibility for work with college students, reported relative to the many interracial forums conducted by college groups and to the cooperation extended to a great many students who are making special studies in this field.

Woman's Work Reported.

At the afternoon session Maud Henderson, the commission's director of woman's work, made a report of activities in her department, telling of the organizations of women which have been effected in every southern state.

Dr. T. J. Woofter, Jr., the commission's research secretary, outlined results of a recent study of negro conditions in representative centers throughout the country, and stressed particularly the need of adequate recreational facilities.

"DEAR OLD PAL" FUNERAL DIRGE OF SLAIN ACTOR

Los Angeles, April 26.—(United News.)—While members of a musical comedy chorus sang "Dear Old Pal," Ray Raymond, victim of Hollywood's alleged "fist fight" murder was lowered into a funeral vault here Tuesday.

Dorothy Mackaye, his actress-wife, who had knelt before the funeral cortege throwing kisses at the bier of her husband for whose murder her sweetheart, Paul Kelly, awaits trial, collapsed and was taken to her home.

She had risen from a sick bed to attend the funeral.

Market Gossip

News From Wall Street and New York Editorial Comment

(By Fenner & Beane Leased Wire to The Constitution)

STOCK OPINIONS.

Fenner & Beane—Would take profits on all strong spots and buy only high grade investment stocks on breaks.

Hornblower & Weeks—Would not sell stocks on any further weakness.

F. B. Keech & Co.—Would not be surprised if the market should work lower as the public is liable to become alarmed at the conditions and sell stocks.

H. Hentz—Believe the present decline will go further and would await a further good sized reaction to pick up standard stocks.

Jackson & Boesel Co.—Would be surprised to see a moderate reactionary movement in the stock market in the next few days.

Prince & Whitely—Look for many of the good stocks to have sharp recoveries this week.

NEW YORK EVENING POST.

One of the few stocks which negotiated new high levels for the year in the course of the day was Lima Locomotive. Resumption of large scale buying here was ascribed as reflecting further accumulation by a new speculative group which was attracted by the company's strong financial position.

A fresh burst of buying in the local gas and electric stocks featured closing dealings. Brooklyn Union was the leader, rising above par for the first time this year. Consolidated Gas changed hands in large blocks. The buying was attributed to houses acting for big Pittsburgh interests.

WALL STREET JOURNAL.

Again today the action of the main body of stocks demonstrated that economic conditions were not favorable to bearish operations. Professionals working for lower prices had been greatly encouraged by the success of their efforts at the start of the week and directed further aggressive drives against the principal speculative issues in the morning hours.

But the prompt resistance which was encountered proved that undiminished confidence existed in important quarters regarding the fundamental soundness of the business and credit structures. After the offerings for short account had been absorbed the whole list rebounded vigorously under the leadership of General Motors and United States Steel.

NEW YORK SUN.

If it was the unsteadiness of the market's technical structure that was responsible for the sharp losses that appeared throughout virtually the entire list at the end of yesterday's session, it evidently did not take long to make the necessary repairs. Not even in the most active days of last week, when a few prominent issues were rushing forward, did the market exhibit a firmer tone and a steadier resistance to selling pressure than it did today. A flurry of offerings appeared soon after the opening but when this had been absorbed an upward trend was established which was practically unbroken all day. The trend was not steep nor was the session a particularly active one, but at the close a good deal more than half of yesterday's losses were made up.

The recovery was just as broad and indiscriminate as yesterday's line. Some of the railroads affected by the Mississippi floods continued to drop and there were a few soft spots in the motor group but such issues were conspicuous by their rarity.

The Day in Finance

BY

R. L. BARNUM

Liquidation Is Resumed in Stock Market, But Selling Is Not So Urgent as on Previous Day.

New York, April 26.—Liquidation was resumed in the stock market after higher opening prices for some shares than yesterday's closing. Today's selling, however, was not as urgent as that of yesterday and around noon there was some show of strength. The market was again supported. Stock purchased for such purposes undoubtedly will come on the market. If no further price decline occurs the outlook for the immediate future is for a traders' market of narrow price movements.

Stocks of southern and southwestern railroads were soft on poor earnings for March and the first quarter and on anticipated flood losses. Southern railway reported March gross at $16,936,000 against $18,429,000 a year ago, and net of $3,443,000 against $4,399,000, with gross for the March quarter of $47,576,000 against $51,220,000 and net of $8,490,000 contrasted with $10,387,000. This shrinkage resulted from conditions in the cotton growing states and in Florida contrasted with a year ago. Undoubtedly these railroads will have considerable expense in replacing washed out tracks, with their April earnings slowed down by delayed traffic. It is too early, however, accurately to estimate the extent of the flood damage.

General Motors Strong.

General Motors was strong on its very favorable earnings statement for the first quarter of the year and Mack Truck was up on what was believed to be continued buying of the stock by General Motors. Studebaker and Hudson were also higher. Pierce-Arrow common and preferred made new lows for the year, the $8 cumulative preferred shares breaking 3 points between sales on the March quarter earnings showing only 43 cents for the preferred stock against $3.28 for the same three months of 1926. In well informed quarters poor March quarter earnings were expected for some of the independent motor companies.

Oil shares made a better showing today despite the news that production in the Seminole territory had made a new high for all time. Pan-American shares were higher on the statement made by President Coolidge last night that under an agreement between the United States and Mexico there would be no confiscation of American property in Mexico. Western Pacific preferred had another break to a new low for the year, 18 points below the year's high. Following the announcement that Arthur Curtiss James, who is a large holder of Great Northern and Northern Pacific had purchased a controlling interest in Western Pacific, a large speculative interest was created in West Pacific.

Steel Earnings.

March earnings of the steel corporation were about what was expected. Some of the independent steel companies made unfavorable earning statements for the first quarter but the Steel corporation has an advantage over these companies in operating costs and in divirsified earnings.

Only a few days ago the average price of 25 representative industrial stocks made a new high for all time at 20.21. This compares with the 1927 low of 171.49, made in the January decline; with 137.65 the 1926 low with 66.24 the low for 1921, when the upward price movement in the stock market began; with 48.48, the low for 1914, the year the war started. This year's high for 25 representative railroad stocks was made a few days ago at 112.90, compared with the year's low of 99.34. The low for 1926 was 81.60; for 1921 it was 47.50; for 1914 it was 66.35. The new high made a few days ago for the combined average of the 50 stocks was 158.49. This compares with the year's low of 135.82; with the 1926 low of 101.16; with the 1921 low of 58.35 and with the 1914 low of 57.41.

With the average price of stocks as high as it is especially for the industrial shares, naturally, every time there is a break in prices the question is raised, is this the end of the long sustained price advance? When asked this question as a result of the severe break which has just occurred in the stock market, the reply of those in Wall street whose opinions are most highly valued was in the negative. Close observers on the stock exchange floor report that there has been the best sort of buying of good stocks on the decline, indicating that the buyers of these stocks are willing to use their money in backing up their confidence that after technical weakness has been eliminated in the market the upward price movement for good stocks will be resumed.

Early American Furniture Expo Draws Attention

A window display that is proving unusually attractive not only to Atlantans but to the many opera visitors who are in the city this week is the furniture display at the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose company, arranged by Wiley Jones, manager of the furniture department.

The big window at the corner of Whitehall and Mitchell streets is tastefully furnished with the most magnificent reproductions of early American pieces afforded by the comprehensive stock of Mr. Jones' department, which occupies the entire fourth floor.

The scene is a living room, and against a background of soft tapestries and rugs, V. S. McCollum, window dresser, has arranged the beautiful colonial pieces with striking effect. The central piece is a sofa which is an exact duplicate of the old one used in a home in old New Orleans furnished to receive Napoleon Bonaparte in event a plot to rescue him from St. Helena proved successful.

There is a graceful old Boston chair and another lounging chair of the Sleepy Hollow style with ottomon to match which literally invites comfortable relaxation. The tables are in Duncan Phyfe style, and there is a Chippendale secretary, a wrought iron torchier, an old style convex mirror and other pieces that carry out the early American influence.

"The window is a splendid educational exhibit for lovers of furniture," Mr. Jones said Tuesday, "and I'm delighted that it is attracting so much attention. I find that the demand for really good furniture is increasing every day, and this store is doing all it can to encourage it."

REPORT PRAISES WARE COUNTY HIGHWAY BOARD

Waycross, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—Ware county, in conjunction with the state highway department, in the past several years has spent on her highways and bridges approximately a million and a quarter dollars, according to J. D. Mitchell, clerk of Ware county superior court and a member of the board of county commissioners.

"I would like to take the opportunity of commending the efforts of the state highway board," Mr. Mitchell says, "on the splendid manner in which they are handling the affairs of this great department.

"A grand jury of Ware county has in its general presentments rightly said that the board's sincerity and earnestness of purpose show to the people of the state their great interest in the road building plan of the entire state."

Ivan Allen Lauds Parks Memorial Plans in Letter

Erection of a building on the campus of the State College for Women at Milledgeville as the best possible monument to the memory of Dr. M. M. Parks, former distinguished head of that institution, was approved by Ivan Allen in a recent letter to Mrs. Wilbe R. Wilson, Fulton county chairman of the school alumni.

In the movement on the part of the State College for Women alumni to establish a memorial to the noted educator the suggestion of raising sufficient funds to construct a new hospital as the memorial has gained considerable headway. The required funds set at $50,000 can be easily raised over the state, it is the opinion of Mr. Allen, as expressed in his letter.

"I am certain that the people of Milledgeville will give liberally to this fund, on account of the large appropriations each year to the state sanitorium and other educational institutions at Milledgeville. The same is true of Athens, and likewise Atlanta must do her part," Mr. Allen declared in his letter to Mrs. Wilson.

MONEY SITUATION IN JAPAN EASED BY MORATORIUM

Tokio, April 26.—(AP)—Japan's money situation having been generally eased by the moratorium, the banks today announced unrestricted payments against bank deposits made on or after Monday of this week.

The finance department states that the Tokio office of the Bank of Formosa (Taiwan) and its other branches in Japan proper are expected to reopen within a few days, anticipating favorable action by the diet on the government's plans for assistance.

Certain industrial enterprises are suffering from the present situation. The cotton spinners have agreed to reduce their output by 15 per cent during the next six months.

Wheat dealers and silk and textile producers in Kyoto are suspending for the period of the moratorium.

$45,000 CHECK IS PAID GEORGIA ON W.&A. RENTAL

W. J. Speer, state treasurer, Tuesday received from the N. C. & St. L. railway, with headquarters at Nashville, a check for $45,000 for rental of the state's Western & Atlantic railway property for next month.

The state receives $540,000 annually from this source, Mr. Speer said.

PRICES MOVING LOWER ON CURB

New York, April 26.—(AP)—Prices moved irregularly lower in today's curb market, with further contraction of pool operations and a tendency of small traders to mark time. There were a few issues which moved against the general trend, but their support appeared more or less apathetic.

Publicity shares on the whole displayed a firm undertone, Blackstone Valley Gas & Electric selling up more than 3 points to a new high for the year, and Electric Investors gaining 2 points. Cities Service, on the other hand, dropped 3 1-2 points.

Oils continued to work in opposite directions, with Vacuum climbing nearly 4 points and Prairie Pipe Line over 2, while Ohio Oil and Standard of Indiana were freely sold. Disappointing quarterly earnings reports by some oil companies probably induced some of the selling.

Glen Alden Coal recovered partially from heavy selling in the early dealings when the price was pushed down more than a point. Material losses were sustained by U. S. Gypsum, Curtis Publishing, Central Leather A (when issued), Deere & Company, and Freshman Radio. Goodyear Tire, American Arch and Western Maryland first preferred advanced 1 to 2 points.

Most of the motor shares were fractionally lower in reflection of poor earnings reports and pessimistic predictions concerning the outlook for the automobile trade.

News, Views And Reviews

Stock Letters.

FENNER & BEANE.

New York, April 26.—Although the stock market rallied sharply at midday, it was largely at the expense of the shorts, and for that reason the technical position is probably weaker now than it was at the close last night. On the eve of the Steel dividend meeting it would have been well-nigh treasonous to have allowed the market to break any further and ruin the constructive effect.

The action of the corporation was anticipated. The regular $7 annual basis for the new issue had been assured by Judge Gary in his remarks at the annual meeting, so for all practical purposes it has been discounted in the market.

Sentiment is very much mixed. We believe that common sense is all on the side of conservatism. The rally today did not look at all convincing and as soon as it set in new volume of trading decreased, which to my mind is a signal for getting out of stocks on rallies.

Cotton Letters.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

New York, April 26.—The market had to absorb heavy tenders of May contracts this morning, which caused the market to ease off from last night's closing price. The May contracts, however, were slowly absorbed by spot houses. The market steadied up towards early afternoon. Business has quieted down moderately, as everyone is waiting now to hear further news from the flood areas.

The weather map was clear throughout except some slightly cloudy weather in the southern part of Texas. It is our feeling that the extent of damage is not yet known and will not be known until we hear directly from the spots affected.

Today we had a wire from the south telling us that the Red river below Shreveport was overflowing its banks, and water entering some of the richest cotton lands in that section. In short, there is still grave danger in flooded areas, particularly south of Memphis; and, as it is now approaching the first of May, when preparations should be well under way, the land instead is under many feet of water and there is no telling what can be done with this land in regard to cotton this season.

Liverpool futures are due tomorrow: May 7.87; July 8.03.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, April 26.—Cotton, spot, fair demand; prices easier. American strict good middling, 9.19; good middling, 8.84; strict middling, 8.94; middling, 8.19; strict low middling, 7.69; low middling, 7.29; strict good ordinary, 6.99; good ordinary, 6.54. Sales, 6,000 bales, including 4,400 American. Receipts, 32,000 bales, including 28,300 American. Futures closed quiet and steady: May, 7.92; July, 8.07; October, 8.19; December, 8.25; January, 8.27; March, 8.33.

Cottonseed Oil.

New York, April 26.—Cottonseed oil was less active and irregular today over a narrow range, averaging lower on liquidation in May and July, coupled with commission house selling, in sympathy with the decline in cotton, which offset the firmness of lard. The close was 2 to 15 points lower. Sales, 17,200 barrels. Prime crude, 7.25; prime summer yellow, spot, 8.60. May closed 8.89; July, 9.31; September, 9.56; October, 9.60; November, 9.55.

New Orleans, April 26.—The cotton oil market for futures ruled steady and well maintained today, although fully 100 notices were issued against contracts, all of which were promptly absorbed. Prime summer yellow oil closed at 8.15, down 5 points and prime crude closed at 7.25. Futures closed steady: May, 8.40; July, 8.77; September, 8.87; October, 8.87; December, 8.80.

Country Produce.

Chicago, April 26.—Poultry: Alive, steady; receipts, 4 cars; fowls, 25@27c; broilers, 36@45c; turkeys, 30c; roosters, 16c; ducks, 32@35c; geese, 17@18c.

Butter: Lower; receipts, 12,761 tubs; creamery extras, 44c; standards, 44c; extra firsts, 42½@43½c; firsts, 41@41½c; seconds, 39@40c.

Eggs: Lower; receipts, 60,177 cases; firsts, 23@23½c; ordinary firsts, 20½@22c; storage packed extras, 26½c; storage packed firsts, 26c.

Potatoes: Receipts, new, 7 cars; old 40 cars; on track, new, 54 cars; old, 171 cars; total United States shipments, 465 cars; old stock supplies liberal, demand and trading good; market, steady; prices higher. Wisconsin sacked round whites, $2.10@2.25, mostly $2.15@2.20; bulk, $2.15@2.20. Idaho sacked russets, $3.15@3.40, mostly $3.25; new stock supplies moderate; demand and trading moderate; market slightly stronger on barrels; steady on sacks. Florida barrel Spalding rose, $6.25@6.50, mostly $6.40@6.50. Texas sacked Bliss triumphs, $3.40@4.00, mostly $3.70@3.90.

Onions: Texas crates yellow Bermudas, $2.30@2.35; crystal wax, $2.50@2.60.

Asparagus: California and Georgia crates, $6.00@7.00.

Peas: Arizona two-thirds crates, fair quality, $1.50@2.00.

Artichokes: California boxes, large sizes, $3.50@3.75; medium, $2.75@3.00.

Apples, cauliflower and tomatoes unchanged.

Lettuce: Arizona, crates, $3.00@3.50.

Celery: Florida, crates, $2.25@2.75.

Cabbage: Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi barrel crates, $2.50@3.00; fair, $1.75@2.25.

Beets: Florida, 7-8 bushels, $3.00@3.50.

Kansas City, April 26.—Butter: Creamery, 51c.

Eggs: Firsts, 20c; seconds, 18c.

Poultry: Heavy hens, 23c; geese, 10c.

Potatoes: Colorado russets, $2.75@2.85; Red river Ohios, $2.70@2.80; Texas, new, $3.50@4.00.

New York, April 26.—Butter: Unsettled; receipts, 15,537; creamery, higher than extras, 48@48½c; creamery, extras (92 score), 47½c; creamery, firsts (88 to 91 score), 46@47c.

Eggs: Steady; receipts, 62,932; fresh gathered, extra firsts, 25½@26½c.

Cheese: Irregular; receipts, 211,729; state, whole milk, flats, fresh, fancy, 23c.

Live Poultry: Weak; broilers by freight, 30@38c; by express, 20@43c; fowls, by freight and by express, 28c; roosters, by freight, 12c.

Dressed Poultry: Steady; prices unchanged.

St. Louis, April 26.—Eggs: ½c lower; fresh firsts, 20½c.

Butter: 2c lower; creamery extras, 48c; Poultry: Hens 1c lower, 24½c; 1927 springs, unchanged, 36@42c; 1926 springs, unchanged, 36c; turkeys, 2c lower, 30c; ducks, unchanged, 26@28c; geese, unchanged, 14c.

Jacksonville, April 26.—Beans, ⅞ bushel hampers, green, $1.50@2.00; cabbage, double crates, $2.00@2.50; celery, crates, 3s and 4s, $2.00@2.50; celery, crates, 3s, fancy, $3.00@3.50; cucumbers, ⅞ bushel hampers, fancy, $1.50@2.00; peppers, crates, fancy, $2.00@2.50; tomatoes, 6s, fancy count, $1.75@2.00; potatoes, square bushel crates, Bliss No. 1s, $2.25@2.50; eggs, fresh, infertile whites, per dozen, 30c.

Baltimore, April 26.—Apples: Bushel baskets, western Maryland, Pennsylvania A, 2½ inches up, Staymans, Starks, Black Twigs and Winesaps, best 75c@$1.00; other varieties unchanged.

Live Poultry: Chickens, springers, colored, 1½ pounds and over, 45@48c; others and ducks, unchanged.

Eggs: Steady; nearby fresh gathered firsts, 22½c.

Stock Market Recovers After Heavy Opening

DAILY STOCK SUMMARY.

	20 Ind.	20 RR.
Tuesday	152.22	139.78
Monday	151.21	139.25
Week ago	153.26	139.66
Year ago	129.89	113.03
High, 1927	154.29	141.65
Low, 1927	141.23	125.58

Total stock sales, 1,922,400 shares.

New York, April 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Impressive recoveries took place in today's stock market after an opening interval of heaviness presumably resulting from the liquidation of impaired marginal accounts. While not all of the ground lost in yesterday's drastic reaction was recovered, net gains of 1 to 5 1-2 points were quite numerous at the close.

President Coolidge's expressed hope of a peaceful settlement of difficulties with Mexico was seized upon by operators for the rise as a bullish factor. Despite the growing seriousness of the Mississippi river flood damage, speculative Wall street was incilned to take a hopeful view of the situation, some commentators emphasizing its supposedly bullish market features. The credit situation continued satisfactory, call money holding steady at 4 per cent. Despite the calling of about $1,000,000 in loans. A temporary tightening of rates, incidental to the heavy month-end demand for funds, would not be surprising.

The quarterly report of the United States Steel corporation, issued after the close of the market, failed to come up to expectations showing only $3.93 a share, as compared with $4.88 in the preceding quarter and $3.88 in the first quarter of 1926. The 40 per cent stock dividend was formally improved, and the new stock placed on an annual $7 basis, as Chairman Gary indicated in his talk to stockholders earlier in the month. Some buying came into the steel during the day on talk of higher steel prices as in the next quarter U. S. Steel common moved within a range of 2 points, closing 3-4 higher at 170 1-8.

Pierce Arrow preferred broke 10 points to 64 on publication of a report showing only 43 cents a share earned on that stock in the first quarter, against $3.28 in the corresponding quarter last year, but later rallied to 68. The common touched a new low at 15 and then rallied a point. General Motors closed 2 1-2 points higher at 191. Mack Trucks recorded a similar gain at 109 1-2.

Lima Locomotive was run up over 4 points to a new top at 76 3-8, but lost more than half its gain on realizing. Net gains of 3 points or more were recorded by Air Reduction, American Radiator, American Woolen preferred, Brooklyn Union Gas, Commercial Solvents B, DuPont, Hudson & Manhattan, National Lead, Pathe Exchange and South Porto Rican Sugar.

In the rail group, Texas & Pacific, Missouri Pacific and St. Louis-Southwestern were freely sold on reports of extensive damage to their properties by the flood. Bangor & Aroosook, on the other hand, jumped 8 points to 79 on usually high first quarter earnings, and Delaware & Hudson touched the highest price in 20 years at 215 3-4 and then eased nearly 3 points.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Practically all of the important commodity markets lost ground. May wheat declined fractionally, but the more distant futures showed moderate improvement. Cotton futures fell back 16 to 22 points on the belief that reports of crop damage were exaggerated. Coffee prices sagged 15 to 20 points, and sugar quotations were practically unchanged.

A sharp drop of nearly 20 points in Italian lire, which again sold below 5 1-2 cents, was the only change of consequence in the foreign exchange market. Demand sterling ruled firm around $4.85 1-6 and French francs were firm around 3.91 cents.

Chicago Grain Quotations

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Following are yesterday's Board of Trade quotations for the Chicago grain market:

	Open.	High.	Low	Close.	Prev. Close.
WHEAT—
May	1.33⅜	1.33⅞	1.33⅛	1.33⅜	1.33⅝
July	1.30½	1.30⅝	1.30⅛	1.30½	1.30⅝
September	1.29⅝	1.29¾	1.29⅛	1.29¼	1.29⅝
CORN—
May	.71¼	.72	.71¼	.71½	.71¼
July	.77⅛	.77⅜	.76¾	.77⅜	.77¼
September	.81⅛	.81⅜	.80¾	.81½	.81⅛
OATS—
May	.44⅛	.44½	.43⅞	.44⅜	.44⅛
July	.44⅞	.45⅛	.44½	.45⅛	.44⅞
September	.44⅝	.44⅞	.44⅛	.44⅜	.44½
RYE—
May	1.02¾	1.02¾	1.02¼	1.02¾	1.02½
July	1.01	1.01⅛	1.00¾	1.01⅛	1.01¼
September	.96	.96½	.96⅜	.96⅜	.96⅛
LARD—
May	12.35	12.40	12.32½	12.40	12.25
July	12.55	12.65	12.55	12.65	12.50
September	12.77½	12.87½	12.77½	12.87½	12.70
RIBS—
May	....	....	....	13.80	13.75
July	13.60	13.70	13.60	13.70	13.35

Bank Clearings, Cotton And Other Quotations

ATLANTA BANK CLEARINGS.

Holiday.

Atlanta spot	14.60
Receipts	357
Shipments	852
Sales	1,000
Stock	40,736

Atlanta Produce Market Basis Atlanta.

Crude oil basis prime tank	$ 7.25
C. S. Meal 7 per cent car lot	27.00@27.50
C. S. meal, Ga. com. date pfd.	25.50@26.00
C. S. hulls, loose	6.50@ 7.50
C. S. hulls, sacked	9.50@10.50
Linters, first cut	.05½@ .06
Linters, clean mill run	.03 @ .03½
Linters, second cut	.02½@ .02½

WALL STREET BRIEFS

Carl Adams, president of the Air Reduction company, today was elected chairman of the board of the U. S. Industrial Alcohol company, a newly created office. Officers were reelected. Interests identified with Air Reduction recently obtained control of the alcohol company in a spirited contest at the annual stockholders' meeting, electing seven of the thirteen directors. The executive committee is composed of Carl Adams, Fred Adams, G. H. Walker, P. J. McIntosh and J. H. Harding.

Prime Western Zinc touched a new low today at 6½c a pound, East St. Louis.

The Missouri Pacific earned $1.16 a share on the common in the first quarter against $1.07 a share in the first quarter of 1926, surplus rising to $1,964,549 from $1,792,089.

Federal Truck declared a stock dividend of 2½ per cent and the regular quarterly cash dividend of 20 cents. The stock dividend is payable July 5 and the cash July 1.

First quarter surplus of Gulf Coast Lines rose to $394,800, equal to $2.63 a share, from $246,801, or $1.64 a share in the first quarter of 1926.

American Rolling Mill declared a dividend of 5 per cent in common stock on the common stock and the regular quarterly cash dividend payment of 50 cents, also the regular quarterly of $1.75 on the preferred. The stock dividend on the common is payable July 30 and the cash dividend July 15.

The pamphlet report of the International-Great Northern railroad for 1926 shows net income of $684,650 transferred to profit and loss, an increase of $237,189 over 1925. Railway operating revenues were $2,161,896 larger. Freight revenue gained $1,894,961.

Net income of the New Orleans, Texas & Mexico railway for 1926 was $339,604 smaller than the year before, $836,361 having been transferred to profit and loss after dividends of $1,038,198. Railway operating revenues increased $1,781,864. Freight revenue gained $1,515,217.

Union Carbide & Carbon reports net profit of $5,346,329 for the first quarter, against $5,781,905 in the first quarter of 1926.

March sales of Southern Stores corporation were the largest of any month in its history, $17,000, an increase of 16.1 per cent over February.

The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western's net operating income for March dropped to $753,561 from $1,704,104 in March last year and for the first quarter to $2,056,071 from $2,325,385 a year ago. The month's gross was $1,177,643 under the $7,603,888 for March, 1926.

General Outdoor Advertising company reports first quarter net profit of $551,253 against $501,885 in the first quarter last year.

Net earnings of Utilities Power & Light corporation of 1926 were $7,329,429 against $3,725,937 in 1925. Consolidated net income was equivalent to $30.17 a share on the preferred; $5.80 a share on the class "A" and $2.72 on the "B" stock.

Merlin Hall Aylesworth was elected a member of the board of directors of Cities Service company. Other directors were reelected.

Barnsdall corporation net earnings declined from $1,364,858, equivalent to $1.18 a share in the first quarter of 1926 to $995,598, or 80 cents a share on the combined A and B stock outstanding.

Smaller earnings for March than a year ago are reported by the New York Central, net railway operating income of $5,139,040 showing a decrease of $341,522 and gross revenues a drop of $374,258 to $33,116,289. Gross for the first quarter of $93,716,382 was a gain of $730,269 over the first quarter last year but net operating income dropped $743,651 to $13,119,099. Freight revenues fo rthe first quarter were surpassed only by those of 1923.

Yesterday's Markets In Brief

NEW YORK.

Stocks—Strong; Delaware & Hudson highest in 20 years.

Bonds—Irregular; $17,350,000 Illinois Central issue oversubscribed.

Foreign exchanges—Steady; Italian and Spanish rates react.

Cotton—Easy; more favorable weather.

Sugar—Steady; commission house buying.

Coffee—Lower; disappointing Brazilian market.

CHICAGO.

Wheat—Weak; decreased visible stock.

Corn—Steady; steady cash markets.

Cattle—Steady.

Hogs—Easy.

Flax.

Duluth, April 26.—Close Flax: April, $2.21¼; May, $2.21¼; July, $2.24¼; September, $2.26¼.

BETTER HOMES WEEK PAGEANT AT WAYCROSS

Waycross, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—One of the most interesting features of Better Homes week, observed in Waycross April 18-23, was the pageant, "The Spirit of Better Homes," written by Mrs. J. A. Follison, of Waycross.

The pageant was presented outdoors Saturday afternoon and was witnessed by approximately 1,500 persons. Miss Marjorie Seals and Miss Agnes King directed the presentation.

SILK AND COTTON, SEWING, U. S. MARINE CORPS, QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., 14 April, 1927. SEALED PROPOSALS, in duplicate, will be received by the Depot Quartermaster, U. S. Marine Corps, 1100 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., until 11:00 a. m., 13 June, 1927, and then be publicly opened for furnishing 27,300 spools of sewing silk, 100 pounds sewing cotton, 8,000 spools sewing cotton, and 4,000 tubes sewing cotton. Proposal blanks nad other information may be obtained upon application to this office and the Depot Quartermaster, U. S. Marine Corps, Philadelphia, Pa. C. L. McCawley, Brigadier General, The Quartermaster. Schedule No. 593.

Members { New York Stock Exchange / New York Cotton Exchange / New Orleans Cotton Exchange

Associate Member Liverpool Cotton Ass.

E. A. Pierce & Co.

successors to

A. A. Housman-Gwathmey & Co.

11 WALL STREET

New York

COTTON

STOCKS : BONDS

Copy of fortnightly

MARKET REVIEW

sent on request.

Private wire connections with Eastern, Southern, Western and Canadian Points.

C. G. ROBINSON & COMPANY

Audits — Systems — Tax Service

Members American Institute of Accountants

101 MARIETTA BLDG. — ATLANTA

New York — Atlanta — Nashville — New Orleans

Hubbard Bros. & Co., Cotton Merchants

Hanover Square, New York

Members New York Cotton Exchange, New Orleans Cotton Exchange, New York Produce Exchange, associate members Liverpool Cotton Association. Orders solicited for the purchase and sale of cotton and cottonseed oil for future delivery. Special attention and liberal terms given for consignments of spot cotton for delivery. Correspondence invited.

Only Complete Closing Reports

QUOTATIONS ON COTTON, STOCKS, BONDS, GRAINS, LIVE STOCK

Markets of World Fully Covered

BOND MARKET

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York, April 26.—Following are today's high, low and closing prices of bonds on the New York Stock Exchange and the total sales of each bond.

(U. S. Government bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds of dollars.)

U. S. Bonds.

Sales (In $1,000.)	High.	Low.	Close.
28 Liberty 3½s '32-47.	101.1	100.31	101.
3 Liberty 1st 4¼s ..	103.8	103.4	103.8
81 Liberty 2d 4¼s ..	100.12	100.10	100.10
52 Liberty 2d 4¼s reg	100.8	100.8	100.8
39 Liberty 3d 4¼s ..	100.29	100.27	100.27
2 Liberty 3d 4¼s reg	100.23	100.23	100.23
107 Liberty 4th 4¼s ..	103.28	103.24	103.26
10 Treasury 3¾s '46-56	105.15	105.15	105.15
105 Treasury 4s '44-54	108.7	108.6	108.7
99 Treasury 4¼s '47-52	113.18	113.15	113.17
Corporation Bonds.
12 Adams Exp cl tr 4s ..	90	89¾	89¾
4 Am Agr Chem 7½s	100¾	100½	100½
1 Am Chain sf db 6s ..	102¾	102¾	102¾
5 Am Smelting 6s	108½	108½	108½
6 Am Smelting 5s	101⅜	101¼	101⅜
16 Am Sugar Ref 6s	105	104¾	105

Sales	High.	Low.	Close.
9 Louis & N rfg 5½s	110	110	110
2 Louis & N 1st rfg 4½s..	102¼	102¼	102¼
1 Louis & N unified 4s..	97	97	97
9 Lou Gas & El 5s	101½	101½	101½
3 Louisville Ry 5s	97¾	97¾	97¾
31 Manh Ry con 4s	70⅜	70	70¼
9 Market St Ry 7s	97¼	97	97
8 Met Ed 6s	108⅝	108½	108⅝
1 Met Ed 5s	101	101	101
1 Met Pow 6s	106⅜	106⅜	106⅜
2 Mich Cent 4s 1940	95⅞	95⅞	95⅞
8 Mid Con Pet 6½s 1940..	104¾	104½	104¾
7 Midvale Stl cvt 5s	99⅛	99	99
13 M E R & L 1st 5s B '61	99½	99	99
3 M E R & L 1st 5s B '51	100⅜	100⅜	100⅜
1 M & St L 1st rfg 4s ..	20½	20½	20½
1 M S P & S S M 6s	100⅜	100⅜	100⅜
7 M S P & S S M gtd 5s..	97¾	97¾	97¾
8 M S P & S S M 1st con 4s	87½	87½	87½
15 M K & T pl 6s C	103½	103½	103½
9 M K & T nw pl 5s A..	103½	103	103½
54 M K & T adj 5s A ..	104¾	104½	104¾
7 M K & T pl 4s B	88	87½	87½

TRADING SLACKENS ON BOND MARKET

DAILY BOND AVERAGES.

	Tues.	Mon.
Ten first grade rails	95.53	95.71
Ten secondary rls.	96.67	96.65
Ten public utilities	95.91	96.02
Ten industrials ..	101.31	101.[illegible]
Combined average .	97.36	97.45
Combined mth. ago	97.38
Combined year ago	95.35

Total bond sales (par values), $10,572,000.

New York, April 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Prices were generally steady in the bond market today, with activity on a reduced scale. Traders were inclined to await developments before adding to their commitments, despite the continuance of relatively easy money rates.

Secondary railway issues gave the first account of themselves, while high grade issues were inclined to heaviness. Delaware & Hudson convertible 5s and the Erie "D" 4s each moved up more than a point, the former touching a new record high for all time at 143 1-2.

Utilities mortgages displayed a number of irregularities. Brooklyn Union Gas debenture 5 1-2s jumped 3 points to a new record price at 167, in sympathy will a rise in the stock, while Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, which has been advancing for several recent sessions, were freely offered and yielded fractionally.

Industrials attracted little attention other than liquidation of Pierce-Arrow 8s, which dropped 3 points on the company's poor first quarter earnings report.

Silesia Electric 6s, gaining more than a point, was the outstanding issue in the dull foreign department.

United Staes government issue sagged slightly.

Prompt oversubscription of the $17,350,000 Illinois Central and Chicago, St. Louis & New Orleans Joint 4 1-2s and the $12,000,000 state mortgage bank of Jugo Slavia 7s.

Live Stock.

Chicago, April 26.—Hogs: Receipts, 21,000; closed slow; general market steady to 10c lower than yesterday's average; spots, 15c off, late on moderate purchases by big packers; top, 10.70; bulk better grade 150 to 200-pound, 10.40@10.70; 210 to 240-pound, 10.10@10.50; 260 to 300-pound, 10.00@10.30; few good butchers 320 pounds up, 9.85@10.00; most packing sows, 8.75@9.10; few 9.25@9.35; big weights downward to 8.50 or below; most pigs 9.85@10.35; few best 10.50; shippers tok 6,000; estimated holdover, 11,000.

Cattle: Receipts 8,000; fed steers and fat she stock steady to strong; low killing quality considered, spots higher than yesterday; bulk steers, offerings, light kinds scaling 960 to 1,100 pounds and selling at 9.75@10.75; best heavies, 12.25; long yearlings, 11.50; heifer yearlings, 10.60; stockers and feeders steady to weak, 8.00@9.25; cutter cows weak; largely 4.50@5.50; bulls 10 to 15c lower; vealers closed 25 to 50c higher, 9.25@9.50 mostly; outsiders to 12.50.

Sheep: Receipts, 8,000; fat lambs steady to strong with yesterday; desirable wooled lambs 16.00@16.50; 91 to 93-pound, 15.50; top clipped lambs, 15.65; bulk, 14.75@15.35; 90-pound clippers, 14.50@14.75 mostly; two doubles 79-pound California springers 10c higher at 17.50; sheep steady; wooled ewes 8.00@9.00; clipped ewes 7.50@8.00.

Sales	High.	Low.	Close.
12 Bolivia 8s '47	104½	104½	104½
37 Bordeaux 6s '34	96⅞	96½	96⅝
3 Brazil 8s '41	107	106¾	106¾
24 Brazil 6½s '57	92¾	92½	92¾
2 Brazil C Ry El 7s '52 ..	95¾	95¾	95¾
5 Bremen 7s '35	103½	103	103½
6 British 5½s '29	118¼	118⅛	118¼
4 British 5¼s '37	109⅜	109¼	109⅜
3 Bulgaria 7s '67	91¾	91¼	91¼
27 Caldas 7½s '46	97¼	97½	97½
29 Can 5½s notes '29	102	102	102
9 Canada 5s '31	101¾	101½	101½
11 Canada 4½s '36	99¼	99	99
10 Chile Mtg Bk 6½s '57...	94	93¾	93¾
25 Chile Mtg Bk 6¾s ct '51.	96⅜	96¼	96¼
3 Chile 8s '41	108	107½	107⅞
15 Chile 8s '46	108	108	108
4 Chile 7s '42	100	99¾	99¾

N. Y. Stock Transactions

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York, April 26.—Following is the complete closing list of today's transactions on the New York Stock Exchange:

Sales (In Hundreds).	High.	Low.	Last.
1 Abitibi Pow & Paper..	90½	90½	90½
2 Abraham & Straus	74	74	74
30 Abraham & Straus pfd..	112	112	112
1 Adams Express	137½	137½	137½
1 Adv Rumely	12½	12½	12½
2 Adv Rumely pfd	33½	33½	33½
11 Ahumada Lead	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
7 Air Reduction	161¼	159½	161¼
15 Ajax Rubber	10¾	10½	10¾
2 Alaska Juneau Gold ..	1½	1⅜	1⅜
1 Albany Perf Wrap Pap.	19½	19½	19½
56 Al Chem & Dye	141⅜	139½	140
23 Allis Chalmers Mfg	104	102	104
3 Amal Leather	16¾	15¾	16¾
27 Amerada Corp	28¾	28¼	28¼
1 Am Agri Chem	11	11	11
3 Am Agri Chem pfd ...	35⅜	35⅜	35⅜
3 Am Bank Note	4½	4½	4½
10 Am Bank Note pfd ..	58	58	58
4 Am Bosch Mag	16	16	16

Sales	High.	Low.	Last.
1 Goodrich B F Co pfd	100½	100½	100½
1 Goth Silk Hos new ..	64	64	64
41 Granby Consol Min ..	39¼	38⅝	38¼
3 Great Nor Ir Ore ctfs ..	20	20	20
12 Great North Ry pfd ..	86½	86½	86½
28 Great West Sugar	113⅜	111½	113½
30 Great West Sug pfd ..	118¼	117	118¼
23 Greene Cananea Cop ..	46⅜	43	44½
10 Guantanamo Sug pfd ...	100	100	100
38 Gulf Mob & North ...	66⅜	64½	65½
1 Gulf Mo & N pfd ...	110	110	110
3 Gulf States Steel	53½	52⅜	53½
7 Hartman Corp B	27½	27	27
4 Hayes Wheel	26	26	26
60 Helme G W pfd	127	126	126
2 Hoe R & Co A	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜
1 Homestake Mining ...	61	61	61
7 Household Prod	48¾	48½	48½
168 Houston Oil	111½	110½	111½
13 Howe Sound Co	38½	38	38½
135 Hudson & Manhat	56⅜	52	55½
435 Hudson Motor Car ..	74	71¾	73½
14 Hupp Motor Car	19½	19	19½
5 Illinois Central	127	126	126
24 Independ Oil & Gas ...	20¼	19½	20¼

PLANTING NEWS DEPRESSES GRAIN

Chicago, April 26.—(AP)—Indications pointing to likelihood of rapid progress for spring seeding both north and south of the Canadian line helped to ease the wheat market today. Fluctuations in wheat were narrow, and the close irregular, 3-8c net lower to 1-4c advance, with corn 1-4c off to 3-8c up, oats at a shade to 3-8c gain, and provisions showing a rise of 5 to 50c.

Taken as a whole, the wheat market throughout the day averaged a little lower. In addition to favorable conditions for spring crop seeding northwest, seasonable temperatures and absence of rain tended to aid the growing winter crop, especially in the southwest. Meanwhile, export demand for North American wheat was less active, purchases today for Europe being estimated at not to exceed 400,000 bushels. Although the Liverpool market is about at a shipping basis compared with values here.

On the other hand, authoritative advices current said large consumption of wheat in Europe is impressing the trade, and that further large European imports are expected by France and Germany in particular. Notice was also taken of reports that offerings from Argentina are distinctly smaller, and that the world's available supply showed a falling-off of 23,038,000 bushels for the week.

Corn was steadied by prospects that there would not be much of a movement of corn from rural sources until after the planting season is over. Oats derived firmness from seaboard advices saying 1,000,000 bushels of oats had been sold for export.

In the provision market, offerings were small, and scattered buying affected prices readily.

Cash Grain.

Kansas City, April 26.—Wheat: No. 2 hard, $1.29@1.35½; No. 2 red, $1.26½@1.27½. Close: May, $1.27⅛; July, $1.22⅝; September, $1.22½.

Corn: No. 2 white, 74½@75½; No. 2 yellow, 79@81½c; No. 3, 78@80c; No. 2 mixed, 74½@76½c. Close: May, 74⅞c; July, 78c; September, 81c.

Oats: No. 2 white, 47½@50c; No. 3, 46½@49c.

Milomaize: $1.25@1.29.

Kaffir: $1.20@1.24.

Rye: 95½@97c.

Barley: 77@79½c.

Chicago, April 26.—Wheat: No. 2 red, $1.34¼; No. 1 hard, $1.38⅜.

Corn: No. 4 mixed, 69c; No. 3 yellow, 71c.

Oats: No. 2 white, 47¾c; No. 3 white, 43½@46½c.

Rye: Not quoted.

Barley: 76@87c.

Hay: Timothy, $4.50@5.25; clover, $29.00@35.75.

Rubber.

New York, April 26.—Rubber closed steady. May, 40.50; July, 41.40; September, 42.10.

St. Louis, April 26.—Wheat: No. 2 red, $1.32½.

Corn: No. 5 mixed, 68½@69c; No. 6 mixed, 67c; No. 2 yellow, 78½c; No. 3 yellow, 77@78c; No. 3 white, 72@75c; No. 4 white, 71c.

Oats: No. 2 white, 51c; No. 3 white, 48@49c.

Futures: Wheat, hard May, $1.34⅜ bid; hard July, $1.30⅜ split bid; hard September, $1.28 bid; red May, $1.28½ bid; red July, $1.28½ asked.

Corn: May, 77¼c; July, 80½c split asked; September, 83¾c.

Seeds.

Toledo, April 26.—Clocer: Cash, imported, $16.65 asked; domestic, $26.50; October, $16.50.

Alsike: Cash, $24.00.

Timothy: Old, $2.60; new, $2.27; April, $2.70; May, $2.70.

Coffee.

New York, April 26.—Coffee futures were lower today under trade selling and liquidation which appeared to be inspired by the easier showing of Rio and prospects for deliveries on contract next month. July sold off to 12.50 and closed at 12.53, the general market opening at a decline of 5 to 14 points and closing 15 to 20 points net lower. Estimated sales 37,000 bags. Closing quotations: May, 13.43; July, 12.53; September, 11.82; December, 11.40; January, 11.30; March, 11.15.

Spot, quiet; Rio 7s, 15¾@15¾c; Santos 4s, 17½@17¾c. Cost and freight offers included part Bourbon 3s and 5s at 15.80 to 16.00.

Rio exchange on London unchanged; dollar buying rate 10 reis lower. Rio market 150 reis lower to 50 reis higher; Santos unchanged to 250 reis lower. Brazilian port receipts 40,000; Jundiahy receipts 26,000.

Dry Goods.

New York, April 26.—Cotton goods held steady today with trade of moderate proportions in unfinished cloths. Prints and ginghams in new styles for fall are now open and buyers have begun ordering them. Yarns held fairly steady and were in light demand. Raw silk was firmer abroad and unchanged here. Printed silks sold well. Burlaps were steady and quiet. Little change was noted in dress goods and men's wear, most of the new business being of a filling-in character.

Sales	High.	Low.	Last.
55 Stewart Warner Speed .	64½	62¾	63¼

CURB MARKET

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York, April 26.—Following is the official list of transactions on the New York Curb Exchange, giving all stocks and bonds traded. (An x preceding name of issue indicates prices are in cents):

Industrials.

Sales (In Hundreds).	High.	Low.	Close.
330 Am Cellulose	147½	146	146
420 Am Cellulose 1st pf..	127½	126	127½
2 Am Arch	107¼	105½	107¼
2 Am Br Bov F	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜
9 Am Br Bov Fgn vtc..	11½	10½	11½
1 Aero Supply B	5	5	5
1 xAm Commander	108	108	108
52 xAm Cont Oilfields	106	95	97
1 xAmer Exploration	50	50	50
29 Am Gas & El	80⅜	79	79
1 Am Gas & El pf	101	101	101
1 Am Haw S S	13⅜	13⅜	13⅜
1 Am Lt & Trac	242	242	242
28 Am Maracaibo	4¾	4⅜	4⅜
25 Am Meter	94	94	94
150 Am Pow & Lt pf	102	101½	101½
3 Am Rayon	5¾	5¼	5¼

Sales	High.	Low.	Close.
20 Utah Pow & Lt pf	108¾	108¾	108¾
125 U S Gypsum	100½	100	100
2 U S Lt & Ht new	54½	54½	54½
4 Utah Apex Min	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
2 Util Pow & Lt B ctf..	14⅜	14¾	14⅜
32 Vacuum Oil	114	111⅜	114
24 Venez Pet	5	5	5
5 Warner Bros Pic	24	23½	23¾
1 Wenden Cop Min	2¼	2¼	2¼
475 Wes Oil & Snow ctf..	53⅜	50½	53⅜
30 Wes Oil & Snow pf ..	96½	96	96½
6 West Dairy Prod A....	50	49¾	50
100 xWest End ext	6	6	6
1 Wilcox Oil & Gas	22½	22½	22½
Domestic Bonds.
1 Alabama Pow 5s 1956	100¾	100¾	100¾
9 All Pack 6s 1939	49	49	49
11 Alum Corp 5s 1952	100½	100	100½
23 Am G & E 6s B 2014..	105½	105½	105½
53 Am P & L 6s 2016 ..	104	103¾	104
1 Am Roll M 6s 1938	104	104	104
7 Am Seat 6s 1936	104½	103¾	104½

Sales	High.	Low.	Close.
3 Nat Pub Serv A ...	21⅞	21⅜	21⅞
5 Nat Pub Serv B ...	18¾	18¾	18¾
5 Nat Trans	14½	14¼	14¼
2 Neisner Bros pf	99	99	99
10 Nichols & Shep	25	24¾	25
2 New Bradford	5⅛	5	5⅛
30 New Eng T & T ...	129	129	129
120 N J Zinc	187	186	186
4 New Mex & Ariz Ld ..	9⅜	9⅜	9⅜
1 Newmont Mining	74	74	74
3 N O Gt Nor R R	37	37	37
3 N Y Oil	10⅞	10⅜	10⅞
25 N Y Tel 6½% pf ...	113¼	113¼	113¼
10 N Y Transit	33	32½	33
42 Nipissing Mines	7⅛	6½	6½
5 Noranda Mines	22¼	21½	22
11 Nor Ohio Pow	10⅞	10⅜	10⅜
8 Nor States Pow A ..	115	114¾	115
7 Northeast Pow	15⅛	15	15
20 xOhio Cop	55	54	54
26 Ohio Oil	55¼	54	54
1 Pac Gas & El 1st pf	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜
1 Pacific Stl Boiler ...	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜
20 Palmolive Co pf ...	109½	109½	109½
50 Palmolive Co	70½	69	70½
112 Pandem Oil	9	8⅛	9
5 Pantepec of Venez ..	11⅛	10⅞	11⅛
5 Parke Davis	29⅜	29	29
1 Pender Groc B	19	19	19
20 Penney A pf	101¾	101¾	101¾
1 Penn Gas & El A ..	19½	19½	19½
1 Penn-Mex	16	16	16
3 Penn Ohio Edis new ..	32½	32½	32½
2 Penn Oh Edis war ..	13	12⅜	12⅜
8 Penn Oh Edis pr pf ..	101⅜	101¼	101⅜
40 Penn Oh Edis 6% pf ..	85½	85½	85½
3 Penn Oh Secur	12⅜	12½	12½
25 Phila Electric	48	48	48
40 Philip Morris	14	13	13
7 Pick Barth vtc	14	13¾	14
75 Pillsbury Flour	65	62	65
60 Pitts Pl Glass	244	241	241
35 Prairie Oil & Gas ..	47¾	47¼	47½
6 Prairie Pipe Line ..	160	158	160
1 Procter & Gamble ...	189	189	189
5 Pullman Co new	71⅜	71¼	71⅜
1 Rand Kard Bur war ..	970	970	970
3 Reiter Foster	7	7	7
5 Rem Noiseless Type ...	45½	45	45½
24 Reo Motor	20⅛	20	20⅛
1 Richfield Oil pf	24¾	24¾	24¾
6 Richfield Oil	17½	17½	17½
5 Ryan Con	5½	5⅛	5½
25 Safety Car H & L	133	133	133
50 Safeway Stores	278	270	278
2 Salt-Creek Cons	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜
8 Salt-Creek Prod	28	27½	28
20 xSan Toy	4	4	4
33 Servel Del	7⅜	6⅛	7⅛
250 Sherwin Williams	52	51¾	52
1 Silica Gel Corp vtc ..	15⅞	15⅞	15⅞
12 Southeast P & L	31½	31	31½
1 Southeast P & L ctf ..	30½	30½	30½
1 So Gas & Pow A new ..	21	21	21
1 South Penn Oil	35⅜	35⅜	35⅜
25 Southwest Bell Tel pf..	116¼	116¼	116¼
40 xSpearhd Gold	2	2	2
102 Stand Oil Ind	65⅜	65½	65½
4 Stand Oil Ky	113	113	113
150 S O Ohio new	83	82½	83
20 Stand Oil Ohio pf ..	119½	119½	119½
1 Stand Pow & Lt new ..	22	22	22
10 xStand Silv-Lead	23	23	23
50 Stroock & Co	40⅜	40⅜	40⅜
1 Swedish Mtch A	78½	78½	78½
17 Stutz Mot	15½	14⅛	15⅛
1 Swift & Co	116⅜	116⅜	116⅜
1 Swift Int	21¼	21¼	21¼
4 Teck Hugh Gold	7	7	7
3 Tidal Osage	19	19	19
7 Tidal Osage non vot ..	16½	15	16½
23 Tidewater Asso Oil ...	16½	16½	16½
4 Tidewater Asso Oil pf..	90½	90½	90½
5 Tietz Inc (Leon) war..	197½	197½	197½
7 Tiken Det Axle	12⅜	12⅛	12⅛
50 Transcont pf	70	70	70
2 Trans Lux Day Pict ..	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1 Trumbull Steel	10⅞	10⅞	10⅞
80 Tubize Art Silk B ctf.	222	220	222
3 Tung Sol Lamp A	19¼	19¼	19¼
13 United Biscuit B	9⅛	8½	9⅛
1 Un Elec Coal ctf	24½	24½	24½
1 U S Freight	70	70	70
14 Unit Gas Imp new ..	99½	98¾	99½
10 Un Lt & Pow A nw..	14	13¾	13¾
4 Un Lt & Pow A pf..	95	94½	95
1 Un Profit Shar new ..	10¼	10¼	10¼

Sales	High.	Low.	Close.
26 Finn Ind Bk 7s '44 ..	100¼	100⅛	100¼
2 Hamburg El 7s '35 ..	101½	101½	101½
11 Hamburg State 6s ..	98¾	98½	98½
18 Lombard Elec 7s	97	96⅜	96⅜
2 Mansfeld M & S 7s '41	111½	111½	111½
25 Mansfeld M & S 7s ww	99	99	99
1 Medellin Colomb 8s ..	104	104	104
15 Medellin Col 7s '51 ..	94	93¾	94
14 Mendoza Pr 7½s '51 ..	97½	97½	97½
1 Miag Mill Mch 7s ww	95	95	95
91 Montecatini 7s '37 ..	105⅜	105	105½
30 New S Wales 5s '57 ..	96⅜	96½	96⅜
29 Peru 7s '59	96⅛	96½	96½
14 Prussia FS 6½s '51 ..	99½	99½	99½
19 Rio Grande 7s '66 ..	97⅛	97	97
1 Sax St Mtg 7s '45 ..	99⅜	99⅜	99⅜
21 Siemens & Halske 6½s	105⅜	105¼	105¼
41 Stinnes Corp 7s	100½	100¼	100¼
21 Stinnes Indus 7s ...	100⅛	100⅛	100⅛
2 ThyssenIrStWks 7s '30	101½	101½	101½
2 Tietz Leonhard 7½s '46	121	120½	121
10 Tietz Leon 7½s '46 ww	101⅜	101½	101½
50 Unit Elec Serv 7s ..	102⅞	102½	102⅞
24 Un St Wks Ger 6½s '51	105	104¾	104¾
14 UnStWksGer 6½s A ww	99½	98½	99½
5 UnStWksGer 6½s C ..	104½	104½	104½

Sales of stocks 266,800 shares.

Sales of bonds $3,119,000.

Provisions.

New York, April 26.—Rye, steady; No. 2 western $1.15 f. o. b. New York and $1.12⅜ c. i. f. export.

Barley, barely steady; malting, 94⅜@96⅜c c. i. f. New York.

Lard, steady; middle west, 12.70@12.80.

Wheat futures opened irregular; domestic, May, $1.35¾; July, $1.34½ asked.

Minneapolis, April 26.—Flour: Unchanged; shipments, 41,126 barrels. Bran, $28.00.

Wheat: No. 1 northern, $1.34@1.36; May, $1.33; July, $1.34⅜; September, $1.32½.

Corn: No. 3 yellow, 72½@73½c.

Oats: No. 3 white, 43¾@44⅜c.

Flax: No. 1, $2.16½@2.27½.

Chicago, April 26.—Lard, $12.37; ribs, $13.87; bellies, $14.62.

Rice.

New Orleans, April 26.—Rough rice, quiet; sales, none; receipts, none; clean rice, dull; sales, 512; blue rose, 4½; receipts, 12,965.

Metals.

New York, April 26.—Copper, easy; electrolytic spot and futures, $13.00.

Tin, firm; spot and nearby, $66.62; June, $65.62.

Iron, steady; unchanged.

Lead, steady; spot, $7.[illegible]

Zinc, quiet; East St. Louis, spot, $6.12; futures, $6.15.

Antimony, spot, $14.50.

Money Market.

New York, April 26.—Call money steady; all loans, 4; closing bid, 4; time loans steady; mixed collateral, 60-90 days, 4⅜@4½; 4-6 mnths, 4⅜@4½; prime mercantile paper, 4@4¼.

Foreign exchanges steady; quotations (in cents):

Great Britain, demand 485 5-16, cables 485⅝; 60-day bills on banks, 481⅞; France, demand, 3.91½, cables 3.91⅞; Italy, demand 5.43½, cables 5.44.

Demand: Belgium, 13.89½; Holland, 39.98; Norway, 25.83; Sweden, 26.75; Denmark, 26.65; Switzerland, 19.23; Spain, 17.56½; Greece, 1.33; Poland, 11.40; Czecho-Slovakia, 2.96; Jugo-Slavia, 1.76; Rumania, .64½; Argentina, 42.31½; Brazil 11.81½; Tokio, 47.25; Shanghai, 6.62; Montreal, 100.17 3-16.

Bar silver, 56; Mexican dollars, 42¼.

London, April 26.—Bar silver 26 1-16 pence per ounce; money, 3⅜ per cent; discount rates, short and three months' bills, 3 11-16@3 3-4 per cent.

Bond Commission Abolition Certain Under New Charter, Alderman Hartsfield Asserts

Western Heights Citizens Hear Candidates Speak. City-Manager System Is Denounced.

Passage of the proposed new charter would immediately nullify the ordinance under which the bond commisson was appointed last year to supervise expenditure of the $8,000,000 bonds because its existence would conflict with the terms of the new city manager form of government, Alderman W. B. Hartsfield, crusader against the proposed change, charged Tuesday.

These complaints were included in a long list of charges made at a fish fry given by the Western Heights Baptist church in the fifth ward, and was accompanied by the opening gun in the primary races set for settlement May 25. All candidates announced against the new charter for Atlanta.

Alderman Charles M. Ford, of the tenth, and G. Everett Millican, aspirant for the post which Mr. Ford seeks for a second time locked horns in the first rally since entry lists closed Monday.

Ford Defends Record.

Mr. Ford pointed to his record and the cooperation the fifth ward delegation has received in improvement projects contemplated in the fifth and exhibited a petition, which is signed by 723 registered voters of the tenth, who requested him to offer again for the position.

"This petition bears signatures of 75 per cent. of the voters of the tenth ward and that should be sufficient to recommend me to you," he said.

Mr. Millican promised to work in harmony with the fifth ward delegation if elected, and promised to protect to the best of his ability the interests of the entire city.

Ellis B. Barrett, councilman from the fifth, who is opposed for reelection by Dr. William Cawnern, charged "political spite" on the part of his enemies in placing a candidate in the field against him.

"It's all because I supported my good friend Councilman Jim Bowden, who last year defeated Tom C. Morris for council," he declared. "They told me they wouldn't let me have the post again without opposition and they are living true to form." His opponent did not appear.

New Charter Move Hit.

Stinging indictments were hurled against the proposed new charter for Atlanta in Mr. Hartsfield's speech. He declared there "is nothing in the new charter which would prevent retention of the bond commission, but pro-charter forces have left no guarantee that there will be."

He declared "there is no assurance that under the new charter there will be any bond commission at all. Thus an imported city manager would not only have the millions of current revenue to spend each year, but also an enormous amount of bond money which the people voted upon the express assurance that a commission of responsible citizens would supervise it.

"In other words, they not only want to spend your current revenue, but to abolish the very body in which citizens of Atlanta exhibited utmost confidence in by voting the bonds, and spend this without any semblance of restraint or check.

"The new charter is crammed full of jokers. It teems with them. One is that you can not sell the city waterworks, but that you can hock it and get only a pawnbroker's price for it. They tell you that council can not sell the waterworks system for what it is worth, but that it can vest title to it in persons or firms who might loan money to the city, and if interest coupons could not be met on time, Atlanta would forever lose all title of right of ownership in it.

Does Not Fit Atlanta.

"This charter was not drawn to meet the needs of Atlanta but of a foreign, imported czar to be known as a city manager. Your vote would end your connection with the city government, and the very men you might elect to protect your interests in council would be powerless to approach the city manager on matters of operation of departments or employment of Atlanta labor.

"We, the anti-charter forces, have been extremely nice and courteous to pro-charter advocates. We have invited them to every meeting we have held, but no invitation has come from the northern section of the city, where they claim victory Horace Russell, advocate and stump speaker for the new government, was invited to be here today, but has not appeared."

Brownies are here!

At this store, the simplest of real cameras that take real pictures are always in stock, in every size. So, before you step out, step in ... and add to your fun.

Eastman Kodak Stores, Inc.
183 Peachtree St.

Temple Tours Through Europe

EUROPEAN TOURS of any length and at prices ranging from as low as $325 for London and the Shakespeare Country, Brussels, Waterloo, Paris, the Battlefields and Versailles, to $4,120 for a complete tour of the world.

Of special interest is the Eight-Week Tour, sailing June 18, under the personal direction of J. M. B. Hoxsey, Jr.

Write or call for detailed information.

J. M. B. Hoxsey, Jr.
Special Representative
427 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg.

The Girl Men Admire

IS THE GIRL WHOSE HEALTH IS PERFECT

A Satiny Skin, Pink Cheeks, Bright Eyes, depend upon the health

A tonic that will help to enrich your blood and clear your complexion is

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical DISCOVERY

IN LIQUID OR TABLETS—All Druggists

Send 10c for Trial Package to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

"SUPREME AUTHORITY"

WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

—THE MERRIAM WEBSTER

Because

Hundreds of Supreme Court Judges concur in highest praise of the work as their Authority.

The Presidents of all leading Universities, Colleges, and Normal Schools give their hearty indorsement.

All States that have adopted a large dictionary as standard have selected Webster's New International.

The Schoolbooks of the Country adhere to the Merriam-Webster system of diacritical marks.

The Government Printing Office at Washington uses it as authority

WRITE for a sample page of the New Words, specimen of Regular and India Papers, FREE.

G. & C. Merriam Co.,
Springfield, Mass.

Get The Best

MACON WILL RAISE $50,000 AD FUND

Macon, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—In a drive starting today a sum of $50,000 will be raised for the purpose of advertising Macon and Georgia. This fund is to be turned over to the Macon Chamber of Commerce to continue the work started more than two years ago, and from which good results have been obtained.

Final plans for the campaign were made at a greater Macon civic dinner Monday night, when 300 business men gathered to indicate their support to the local chamber. P. T. Anderson, past president of the chamber of commerce, is general chairman of the campaign, which is being directed by Malcolm D. Ainsworth. Mr. Ainsworth directed the Macon campaign two years ago, and has just concluded a successful campaign for the Augusta board of trade.

The campaign is to last two days, more than 200 workers having volunteered.

MARINE BRANCH OFFICE PLANNED FOR THIS CITY

A branch office of the traffic department, United States Fleet corporation, will be established in Atlanta in the near future to develop export trade in the southeast states. This information was contained in a letter from General A. C. Dalton, president of the fleet corporation, to the Atlanta chamber of commerce.

The United States Fleet corporation has jurisdiction over all government-owned merchant vessels, and is interested in developing commerce between the United States and foreign countries. A representative of the corporation will be assigned to the Atlanta office, it was announced.

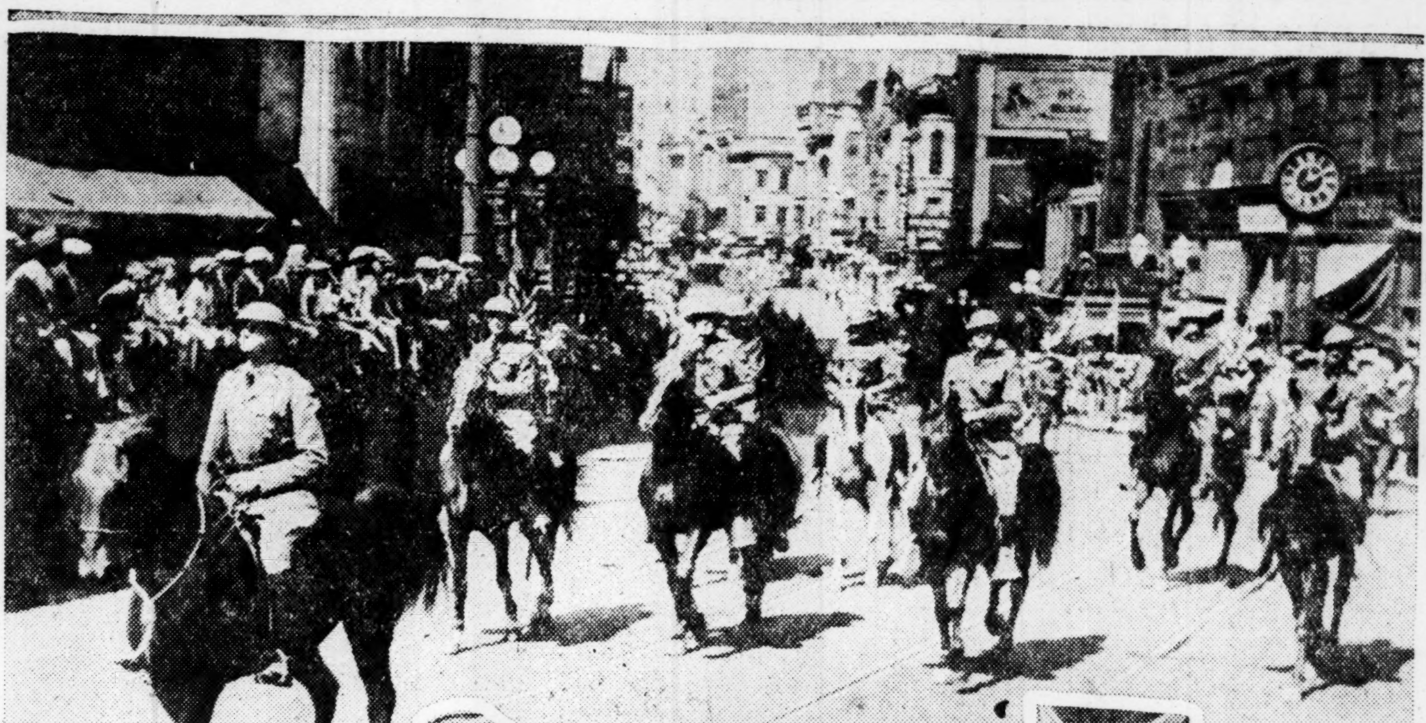
Chamber of commerce officials took up the matter with President Dalton some time ago, supported by United States Senators Harris and George and Congressman L. J. Steele, from the Fifth district.

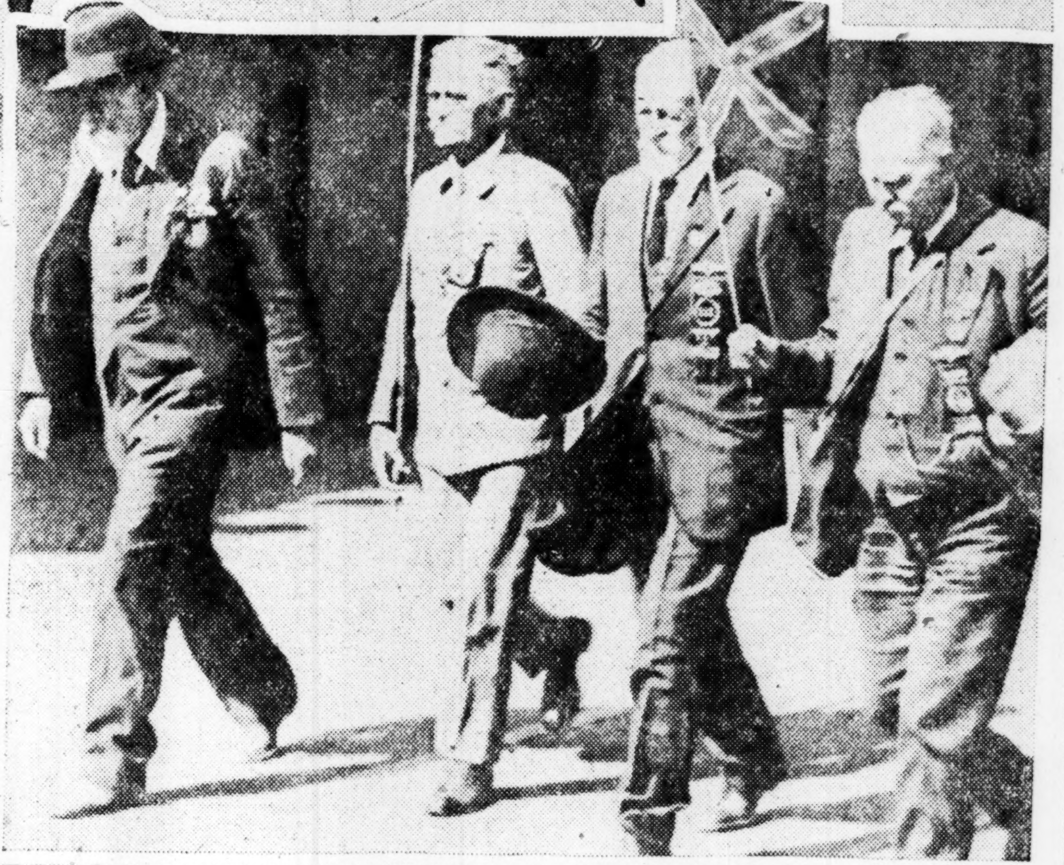
Americus Society Girl Routs Burglar In 10-Minute Fight

Americus, Ga., April 26.—(AP)—Awakening during the night to find some one choking her, Miss Rosa Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Andrews and prominent in the social life of Americus, succeeded in routing a burglar after a 10-minute fight. Several marks on her neck Tuesday bore evidence of the tussle.

Her father, awakened by the young woman's screams, rushed into her room and the burglar leaped through a window and escaped. It was impossible to determine whether the man was a negro or white in the darkness. Police, hurriedly summoned, searched the vicinity without avail.

Atlanta Pays Tribute to Dixie Heroes of 60's





Photos by George Cornett, Staff Photographer.

One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a Memorial day parade in Atlanta lined both sides of the streets along the path of the parade Tuesday afternoon which was a feature of the annual Memorial day exercises here. From the starting point of the parade, at Baker street and Peachtree, into Whitehall and thence to Oakland cemetery, thousands upon thousands cheered marchers. Above are two views of the parade. At the top, Adjutant General Charles H. Cox, at the head of the column formed by Atlanta's Own 122d infantry, national guard, of which he is commanding officer. With him is his regimental staff, left to right, Captain Frank Maloney, adjutant, Captain L. O. Moseley, plans and training officer, First Lieutenant Love B. Harrell, chaplain, and First Lieutenant Clark, medical corps. Below, four of the several score veterans who spurned offers of automobiles and trudged along in columns of fours, receiving the thunderous plaudits of throngs as they marched in tribute to their fallen comrades.

Juvenile Patient Grows Impatient And Fades Out

Police aid was asked Tuesday night in a search for 15-year-old James Marshall, of Thomson, Ga., a patient at Piedmont sanitarium, who, on the approach of the hour set for his operation, took "French leave," attendants said.

Young Marshall, who came to Atlanta Monday in charge of Mrs. J. E. Howell, a friend of his family, was to have been operated on today, but "lost his nerve," nurses believe.

He was described as of a medium build, with black hair and eyes, wearing a cap, brown coat and gray pants. The youth is thought to have but a dollar and no friends in the vicinity.

One Near Death, Another Bruised, In Two Accidents

With his back broken, skull fractured and probable internal injuries, Frank Brantley, 18, of Red Oak, Ga., lay in critical condition at Georgia Baptist hospital Tuesday night, unable to furnish particulars concerning his injuries, although physicians believe they are the result of his being struck down by an automobile.

Young Brantley was carried to Grady hospital about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and was later transferred to the Georgia Baptist hospital. No record of the accident has been filed at city or county police headquarters.

Struck down by an automobile Tuesday afternoon, Joseph Toole, of 305 East Hunter street, was treated at Grady hospital for a bruised arm and chest abrasions. Toole did not give details of the accident to hospital attaches.

Shoe Manufacture At Atlanta Pen To Be Suspended

Washington, April 26.—(AP)—Manufacture of shoes by prisoners in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta is to be suspended, the department of justice announced today. Shoe manufacturing activities will be concentrated at the penitentiary at Leavenworth, although shoe repairing will be continued at the Georgia prison.

THIN GRAY LINE MARCHES AGAIN

Continued from first page.

tion, United Daughters of the Confederacy, regular army troops from Fort McPherson, Georgia National Guards units, the Old Guard, state, county and city officials, R. O. T. C. units from the colleges and prep schools, policemen, firemen, and plain citizens.

Amid the shadowy glades of Oakland cemetery with trees a brilliant green in their new foliage and a mellow warmth in the air, veterans gathered around the monument to Confederate dead for memorial ceremonies. Dr. T. R. Kendall, pastor of the Morningside Methodist church, offered the invocation and benediction.

Dr. Knight in his address paid tribute to the valor of Confederates and to the leadership of Jefferson Davis, Alexander H. Stephens, Robert E. Lee, and others. Following the address, "taps" was sounded, and the decoration of graves of the Confederate dead was carried out—and another tribute to the living and the dead heroes of the '60s was paid.

Big Barbecue Enjoyed.

Following conclusion of the program at Oakland cemetery, members of the 122d infantry, Georgia National Guard, returned to the auditorium-armory where a big barbecue was staged.

Colonel Charles H. Cox, who led the regiment in the big parade, gave the word "chow" at 4 o'clock and several hundred officers and men of the regiment "turned to" in doing away with great quantities of finely barbecued meat and Brunswick stew.

Chief of Police James L. Beavers, Fire Chief W. B. Cody and other prominent city officials and civilians were guests at the barbecue.

MEXICO DEPORTS ANOTHER BISHOP

Merida, Yucatan, Mexico, April 26. (AP)—On orders from Mexico City, Archbishop Martin Tritschler of Yucatan today was placed aboard the American steamship Mexico, sailing from Progreso for Havana and New York. The motive for the deportation is not known here.

RADIO-ING The Air Waves.

TONIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT.

6:30 p. m.—WBZ (333) Springfield, string quartet. WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, talks. WEAF (492) New York, Davis saxophone octette to WTAM, WSAI, WEEI, WRC, WTAG, WJAR, WLIT, WCAE. WHK (273) Cleveland, studio program. WHN (361.2) New York, songs; entertainers. WJZ (455) New York, announced to YKW, KDKA, WBAL. WLW (422.3) Cincinnati, farm talk; Gibson orchestra. WMCA, (341) New York, music. WNYC (526) New York, music appreciation course. WOC (484) Davenport, Voss Vagabonds. WSM (282.8) Nashville, concert.

7:00 p. m.—KFNF (461) Shenandoah, concert. WABC (316) New York, playlet, "Two Crooks and a Lady." WCX (517) Detroit, band concert. WCFL (492) Chicago, popular program (4 hours). WEAF (492) New York, Ipana Troubadors to WDAF, WLIB, WCCO, WCAE, WEEI, WGR, WRC, WWJ, WSAI, KSD, WGY, WEBH (370.2) Chicago, Mooseheart children. WHAD (275) Milwaukee, The Umpire; talks. WHB (365.6) Kansas City, string trio. WHO (526) Des Moines, hotel orchestra. WJZ (455) New York, Maxwell hour to WBZ, KDKA, KYW, WSB, WBZA, WHAS, WMC, WSM, WBAL. WLIT (394.5) Philadelphia, Stanley theater. WLS (345) Chicago all-state program. WMCA (341) New York, White hour. WOO (508.2) Philadelphia, address. WOR (405) Newark, guild program. WOS (441) Jefferson City, market hour. WTAG (545) Worcester, musical program.

7:30 p. m.—KOA (322.4) Denver, dinner concert. CNRM (411) Montreal, Spanish music. CFCA (434) Toronto, Romanelli orchestra. WABC (316) New York, quartet. PWX (400) Havana, Army band. WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, musical program. WEAF (492) New York, "Cycle of Romance," to WCAE, KSD, WGN, WJAR, WGY, WWJ. WEEI (348.6) Boston, air cruise; fiddlers. WFHH (355) Clearwater, open house program. WSUI (484) Iowa City, lecture course.

8:00 p. m.—KYW (536) Chicago, concert. WABC (316) New York, Waldorf dance orchestra. WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, Scout organizations. WEAF (492) New York, Cavaliers to KSD, WRC, WWJ, WCAE, WTAG. WGHP (270) Detroit, Oriole Terrace orchestra. WGY (379.5) Schenectady, studio program to WMAK. WHO (526) Des Moines, musical program (1 hour). WHN (361.2) New York, varied program. WJZ (455) New York, radiotrons to WBZ, KDKA, WEBH, WBZA, WHAS, WMC, WSM, WBZA, WBAL. WLS (345) Chicago, Philharmonic Singing society. WLIT (394.5) Philadelphia, Arcadia dance orchestra. WMAQ (447.5) Chicago, Music Art trio. WOK (410) Chicago, dance music; entertainers (3½ hours). WMCA (341) New York, Polish hour. WOS (441) Jefferson City, address, George Pickens. WGN (303) Chicago, Arabian Nights entertainment.

8:30 p. m.—KFAB (341) Lincoln, request night (2 hours). CNRM (411) Montreal, folk songs. KOA (322.4) Denver, Sandman. WDAF (365.6) Kansas City, Dusty & Rusty. WEAF (492) New York, light opera to WRC, WGY, WCAE, WLITZ KSD. WLS (345) Chicago, Singing Bellboy; WLS Minstrels. WSMB (319) New Orleans, concert (2 hours).

9:00 p. m.—KMA (461) Shenandoah, Scotch songs (2 hrs.). CNRM (411) Montreal, light opera. KOA (322.4) Denver, instrumental program. KYW (536) Chicago, concert. KTHS (374.8) Hot Springs, entertainers (1 hour). WBZ (333) Springfield, Reisman's orchestra. WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, musical program. WDAF (365.6) Kansas City, musical program. WEBH (370.2) Chicago, orchestra; soloists. WGR (319) Buffalo, Statler dance orchestra. WGN (303) Chicago, Sam 'n' Henry; music box. WHT (400) Chicago, orchestra; classic program. WHO (526) Des Moines, Philbreck's orchestra (2 hours). WJR (517) Detroit, Serenaders; vocal. WJZ (455) New York, Astor Grill orchestra. WLS (345) Chicago, popular program (2 hours). WLW (422.3) Cincinnati, Heernan Trio; Castle Farm. WMCA (341) New York, Sylvania's orchestra. WOR (405) Newark, Hagan's orchestra. WOC (484) Davenport, organ. WQJ (447.5) Chicago, popular program (4 hours). WSM (282.8) Nashville, piano pupils. WTAM (389.4) Cleveland, musical program.

9:30 p. m.—KFUO (545.1) St. Louis, address; quartet. CNRM (411) Montreal, grand opera. KYW (536) Chicago, Congress Carnival. KMA (461) Shenandoah, address; quartet. WDAF (365.6) Kansas City, The Cavaliers. WEAF (492) New York, Elkin's orchestra. WCAE (461) Pittsburgh, dance music. WMCA (341) New York, Parody club. WHN (361.2) New York, Silver Slipper orchestra.

10:00 p. m.—KNX (337) Hollywood, courtesy program. CNRM (411) Montreal, Chateau Laurier orchestra. KTHS (374.8) Hot Springs, entertainers (1 hour). WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, musical program. WEBH (370.2) Chicago, popular program. WSM (282.8) Nashville, The Commodores. WLW (422.3) Cincinnati, organ. WLIB (303) Chicago, dance music; organ; songs. WTAM (389.4) Cleveland, orchestra.

10:30 p. m.—CNRW (405.2) Winnipeg, Winnipeg Salon Ensemble. WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, dance program. WHAD (275) Milwaukee, dance music (1 hour). WMCA (341) New York, Salon Royal orchestra. WLW (422.3) Cincinnati, Melody Boys.

10:45 p. m.—WSB (428.3) Atlanta, Buchanan's orchestra. WHB (365.6) Kansas City, musicale (1 hour).

11:00 p. m.—KPO (428.3) San Francisco, Orange Network to KFI, KGO, KGW. WEBH (370.2) Chicago, informal review. WHT (400) Chicago, Your Hour league. WOC (484) Davenport, Silver King orchestra.

11:30 p. m.—WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, organ.

11:45 p. m.—WDAF (365.6) Kansas City, Nighthawk frolic.

12:00 midnight—CNRE (516.9) Edmonton, old-time program. KFI (467) Los Angeles, classical. KNX (337) Hollywood, Burnett's orchestra.

(Copyright, 1927, by Audio Service, Chicago)

SUICIDE SEEN IN ADAMS DEATH

Gainesville, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—That J. O. Adams, well known political character of Gainesville, met his dead by "self inflicted gunshot wounds," was the decision rendered by a coroner's jury at an inquest held Tuesday afternoon after Mr. Adams was found dead with a bullet wound in his right temple, in the Chattahoochee river, early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Adams was discovered in the river by a searching party which was sent out after he failed to return home Monday night after an all-day absence. No reason for suicide could be ascribed by his family or friends. He had served two terms in the legislature from Hall county and one term as senator from the 33d district. His health apparently had been good and his finances in excellent condition.

His automobile was found parked at the bank of the river near the Dunlap plant of the Georgia Power company at a spot which he is said to have visited several times during the past few days. The body was discovered just under the surface of the water into which he is believed to have fallen after the gun shot.

Funeral service will be held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock from his home. The Rev. W. G. Crawley will officiate. He is survived by his three daughters, Sarah Annie, Adel and Frances, and one son, John.

Power Survey Made.

Waycross, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—E. C. Smith, of Albany, a civil engineer, is now in Lakeland making a survey from that city to the dam at Banks lake to determine the amount of water power available for the operation of a municipal water plant.

SALVATION ARMY DONATIONS GROW

While contributions were pouring in to the Red Cross, the response to the Salvation Army's drive for $50,000 was meeting with great success. More than $22,000 was raised by this organization.

Report of the progress of the drive and of the subscriptions raised was made by Fred S. Gould, chairman of the team captains' committee, as follows:

Frank Hooper, Jr., $33; H. G. King, $250; J. C. Kennedy, $149.50; Ed F. Bond, no report; P. E. Arkwright, Jr., $425; Thomas A. Miller, $41; W. Tom Winn, $71; A. F. Lively, $292; C. T. Jordan, $70; Clark Harrison, $136; H. J. Lindig, $131; F. M. Bird, no report; Ensign Salverson, $188.25; Sergeant Suiter, $150; Colonel Walter Peacock, $880; industrial, $587.25; special subscriptions, $1,932. Total, $5,336.

PROMPT ACTION BY POPE SAVES SISTINE CHAPEL

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Rome, April 26.—Prompt action by the technical bureau of the vatican probably saved the Sistine chapel when it was discovered that the outer buttresses had become detached from the outside wall. Immediate restoration has been carried out with great alacrity by order of the pope. The cause of this dangerous damage is the work in adapting the lower rooms in order to install a heating system. The four existing buttresses will be demolished as soon as the new reinforcements are ready.

Asthma

Vapo-Cresolene makes a strong appeal to those afflicted with Bronchial Asthma, because the little lamp, used at night, is at work vaporizing the soothing remedy which makes restful sleep possible for asthmatic people. Introduced in 1879.

Vapo-Cresolene.

"USED WHILE YOU SLEEP"

The popularity of Vapo-Cresolene is due to—Continuous treatment while the patient enjoys undisturbed rest, avoidance of internal medication, prompt relief and unquestionable merit.

A remedy of nearly 50 years standing. Sold by druggists. Send for descriptive booklet

THE VAPO-CRESOLENE CO.,
Dept. A62 Cortlandt St., N. Y.

SANTAL MIDY

Kidney and Bladder Pain

Promptly Eased by
SANTAL MIDY

Be sure to get the Genuine
Look for the word "Midy"

DEANS WILL CASE IN JURY'S HANDS

After seven hours of deliberating upon the evidence presented in the contest to probate the will of the late Robert E. Deans, wealthy Atlanta broker, in favor of Frank Deans, Yale student, as the son and legal heir of an estate of $50,000, the jury at 11 o'clock Tuesday night retired without arriving at a verdict upon order of Judge G. H. Howard. A few minutes previously, Judge Howard had delivered a second charge to the jury.

The jury received the case at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after a 45-minute charge by Judge Howard. Arguments were concluded about 3 o'clock by Reuben R. Arnold, representing W. O. and Charles Deans, executors. Attorney Arnold was preceded by Robert Alston and Ed Stephens, representing Frank Deans.

The case, based upon an appeal by the executors of the estate from a decision recently handed down by Ordinary Thomas H. Jeffries, who set aside the will in favor of the Yale student and ruled that he was the son and only legal heir, got under way last Monday before Judge Howard.

Attorneys for the executors rested their case Monday afternoon after introducing testimony tending to prove the merits of the will. Counsel for young Deans began introduction of evidence Tuesday morning in an attempt to prove that relatives and members of the Deans family used undue influence upon the late broker in getting him to make the will, which did not mention Frank Deans; that Mr. Deans was mentally incompetent of making a will at the time the last testament was drawn and that Frank Deans was the only son and therefore was legally entitled to the residue of the estate.

Dr. Houghton Delivers Sermon On Crucifixion

In response to requests received during the past week, the Rev. Will H. Houghton, pastor of the Baptist tabernacle, delivered a sermon on "The Cross and the Crown" at that church Tuesday night during the evangelistic service being conducted this week.

The sermon, which was enthusiastically received last year and is said to be one of Dr. Houghton's most forceful topics, dealt with the theory that Christ was crucified not only at the order of Pontius Pilate and the execution of the Roman soldiers, but by all sinners. The example set by the thief who asked forgiveness while being crucified by the side of Jesus was cited as one which may be put into use today.

"Webs for Garments" will be the topic tonight. Dr. Houghton will hold prayer meetings at 7:15 daily, and teachings each afternoon at 3:30. Services commence at 7:30 each evening. Friday night a Bible will be presented to the largest family in the tabernacle—largest in point of numbers.

WOMAN OFFERS TO ESCORT LEPER BACK TO COLONY

Raleigh, N. C., April 26.—(AP)—Only one person in North Carolina has volunteered for the task of returning John Early, leper, to the United States leprosarium at Carville, La., and that person is a woman.

She is Mrs. Lillian Tennant Harrington, of Monroe, who wrote Dr. Charles H. Laughinghouse, state health officer, that she would like to accompany Early back to the leper colony from which he escaped recently and fled to a mountain retreat near Burnsville, N. C.

Her letter said she might like to remain at the leper colony as a nurse.

Dr. Laughinghouse rejected the offer "because a strong man was needed."

An attendant is expected soon from the leprosarium to take the leper into custody.

BANKERS OF FLORIDA CONCLUDE SESSIONS

Sarasota, April 26.—(AP)—Florida bankers closed their 34th annual convention here this afternoon. The closing business session was devoted to a discussion of a revision of the banking laws. Dr. Louis A. Bize, of Tampa, was one of the principal speakers today.

DISUNION COSTLY, SOUTH IS WARNED

Chattanooga, April 26.—(AP)—Progress is being made by a number of chambers of commerce in agricultural promotion work, stated papers presented at the Tuesday morning session of the twentieth annual convention of the Southern Commercial Secretaries association in session at Signal Mountain Inn.

The importance of keeping a proper balance between industry and agriculture in the south, and the statement that "most of the schemes being promoted in the south to increase the farm population through colonization projects are ill-advised and doomed to failure," were two of the salient points in a paper prepared by W. H. Smith, of Laurel, Miss., and read by Clarence Williams. Smith stressed favorable conditions in the south for increasing poultry production.

L. J. Folse, manager of the Mississippi board of development, in a short talk, said the south never has received the recognition and the support it should have received. The fact that the south has failed in several projects, he attributes not to congress and the government, but to the fact that the southern people have not acted as a unit on numerous occasions.

"No state can progress while other states are tearing it down," Folse added. "Colonization has failed because of political stupidness." The speaker cited Muscle Shoals as a typical example of how the southern people have been indifferent and have not united in their wants. He then discussed the present flood in the Mississippi, stating that the responsibility was not entirely on the government except that the government should have been advised what the south needs.

"We are not going to get anywhere in the south until we can put this petty jealousy aside," he added.

Of agricultural conditions, Folse said one of the important things was to get rid of this "damnable system of tenantry in the south."

104 BROADCASTING STATIONS FAIL TO GET PERMITS

Washington, April 26.—(AP)—Of the 732 radio stations registered in the United States, 104 have failed to get temporary permits for continuing service, the radio commission found today, after a check.

Telegrams were sent to the operators of the 104 stations notifying them that if they continued service without obtaining some approval from the commission, they would be liable to criminal prosecution and the $5,000 fine the law provides.

Commissioner Bellows explained it was probable that few of the 104 stations were likely to suffer penalties. A number of them are understood to have decided to abandon business. Others are believed to have applications in the mail. None of them are rated as major stations.

U. S. GRAIN EXPORTS DOUBLED IN WEEK

Washington, April 26.—(AP)—Grain exports last week from the United States amounted to 5,333,000 bushels as compared with 2,029,000 bushels the previous week.

Commerce department figures today gave the following comparisons between last week's exports and those of the week before: Wheat, 2,456,000 bushels against 1,900,000; rye, 1,951,000 against 258,000; oats, 441,000 against 48,000; corn, 383,000 against 295,000; barley, 102,000 against 238,000.

Canadian grain exported through United States ports amounted to 2,099,000 bushels against 1,356,000 the week before, while exports of North American wheat flour were 1,101,000 barrels against 353,000.

PLUMBERS TO MEET IN MACON THURSDAY

Macon, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—Master plumbers of the state of Georgia will gather in Macon Thursday and Friday for their annual convention with a good attendance indicated. The convention last year was held in Savannah.

C. J. Warner, president, will preside over the sessions. L. R. Newby, Macon, is vice president; Mrs. C. J. Warner, Atlanta, is secretary, and H. H. Darby, Macon, is treasurer. Zone presidents who will be here are as follows: T. H. Brittingham, Augusta; W. J. Taylor, Savannah; C. R. Allen, Gainesville; C. V. Millirons, Macon.

Our 41st Anniversary
and
Second Anniversary Sale
Begins Thursday, April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS
no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

Sophy Tancred's Husbands

By Elizabeth York Miller.

SYNOPSIS.

Sophy and Piers Tancred have lately taken the Villa Mona at Bordighera on the Italian Riviera. Sophy learns that her former husband, Alan Brooke, the sculptor, is living nearby and that they are to meet at dinner that night. She is afraid of her husband's jealousy and, since he thought she was a widow when he married her, she goes to Brooke's studio to warn him against telling Piers that they had been married. Alan tells Sophy that his housekeeper, Cristina, is really his wife and they have a little son. Willie Moppet, a male gossip of Bordighera, interrupts them and Sophy flies back to the Villa Mona in fear.

INSTALLMENT XV.

Willie Makes a Discovery.

The old woman blurted out to Willie, "Well, your father was a 'somebody.' And I was old enough to know what I was doing, so I won't make any excuses for myself. No, I can't tell you, Willie. You'll know when I die—or when he does. You see, he's still living and, meeting all the grand folk you do, it's likely you'll run across him some day."

"I wish you'd tell me."

"I'd rather not."

"Did he make you promise not to?"

"O, no. He wasn't that kind. He'd have married me, I guess—only he couldn't."

"You mean he was already married?"

The old woman squirmed a little and looked ashamed and uncomfortable.

"You mustn't think ill of your father, Willie. He wasn't the marrying kind, besides being so high above me. No, and he ain't ever got married, either, although he could've had the pick of many. You take after him, I guess."

"I hope not. I don't care who he was, or is. He's a bounder, right enough . . . Let me see, I must have been about a year old when you went to her ladyship at Stellingsford Hall. Before that you were at Mall Court. Weren't you maid to Lady Alice Menes for about five years?"

The pink spots had become scarlet now. "Willie, I wish you wouldn't—"

"I used to think it might have been General Menes, but he's been dead ten years."

"Willie! What dreadful ideas!"

"Hadn't you better tell me, then? O, I know! Gad! I wonder I never thought of it before! It's Landell, Lady Alice Menes' brother."

The old woman was silent—breathlessly so.

"All right." Willie Moppet said quietly. "We won't mention the subject again."

"Willie, you won't say anything? You won't do anything?"

"Of course not." Willie's tone was unflavorably dry and she could make nothing of it. Could it be that he was disappointed? After all, though irregularly born, he had hoped his father was a grand person, and who filled that description more perfectly than the Earl of Landell? A fine figure of a man, indeed, whose gray topper and spats and crimson carnation buttonhole were on view at every important race meeting both at home and abroad. And Willie was so like him, too.

"It was him sent you to school and had you educated for a gentleman," the old woman said wistfully. "When her ladyship pensioned me off so kindly I didn't feel I could take any more from 'him.'"

"I'm damn glad you didn't!" Willie replied. He gave himself a little shake. "I'm sorry I worried you to tell me. Now let's forget all about it. Have you finished those handkerchiefs yet?"

The old woman made an effort to meet his changed mood, but it was plain she would have liked to go on discussing this man, who had played an important though veiled part in her life.

"Cissy finished the handkerchiefs," she said, reluctantly. "Her eyes are better than mine, and as you particularly wanted the monograms so fine I let her do it. Perhaps you'd better call her in now."

"Very well." He got up, a rather subdued Willie Moppet, the like of which the guests of the Hotel Doria would scarcely have recognized. Before he went out he bent down and kissed his mother again and discovered a little trickle of tears on her withered cheek. "Don't you worry about anything," he whispered. "Whatever good there's in me I got from you."

Too clearly he saw through the loose fabric she had held up for his father's protection. Wooed, won, and ruined in the hard code of her own little world by a man who had used his high position as an excuse to evade consequences, she still wished to shield him. Willie could see Lord Landell's point of view quite clearly, and perhaps that made him all the more intolerant of it. He himself was the first fruit of that brief and ill assorted union, and every drop of his father's blood protested at the cold justice of his fate. Justice, indeed! . . Let dog eat dog.

His mother had meant that he should merely call Cissy, but, as she feared, he went out into the garden to find the girl.

Ah, well! The old woman sank back again onto her cushions and thought how queer it was that she who had waited on other women most of her life, should now be attended by this girl, Cecilia Bryant, a girl who was what might be called "a lady," yet who was glad to accept a modest home and 50 pounds a year for menial service. His mother devoutly hoped that Willie wouldn't marry Cecilia Bryant.

It was almost dark outside, and as Willie felt his way cautiously down the roughly paved path the chained dog began to clamor again, and this time no one rebuked him. The voice of wicked abandon was silent and he had to make a guess as to its owner's whereabouts. A line of damp flapping garments got in his way and he dodged under it.

"Cissy!" he called softly. "Where are you? Don't be an idiot. . . . Oh, all right! Goodnight then." He made as if to turn back, but it was only a ruse to draw her from her hiding place. Not successful, though. Miss Cecilia Bryant was not so easily drawn.

After waiting a moment Willie continued his undignified pursuit of this elusive young person. He knocked his shins against flower pots and nearly fell foul of a wheelbarrow growing more and more irritated.

Suddenly he realized that he was wasting himself for nothing. She was not here. He lit matches and investigated a mildewed toolshed, and if he didn't exactly knick the noisy little dog if wasn't for lack of desire.

A glow of light showed Cissy at last framed in the kitchen doorway, inquiring innocently what he was doing out there. For the benefit of the old woman she called him "Mr. Moppet," although from her tone it was obviously all assumed respect.

"I was looking for you," Willie said severely. She made way for him, and he came into the kitchen and immediately requested the loan of a clothes brush.

"Oh, let me do it for you, Mr Moppet," the girl cried.

He waved her away furiously and she stood with her hands on her slim hips laughing at him. There was something about her that reminded him vaguely of Sophy Tancred, but it was a superficial resemblance. They were both of the same type as regarded appearance; both were small and fair and modishly slender. But Sophy's was a soft, tender sort of beauty, appealing and clinging. There was a helplessness about Sophy Tancred which inspired men to deeds of great daring, but there was nothing helpless about Cecilia Bryant. She was gamine in her independence, and under a very feminine skin one suspected an unfeminine hardness. The girl, young though she was, had very nearly found her footing on the treacherous road of life.

As Willie freed his ankles of the mould and cobwebs collected in the shed he pretended great indifference of her, and she, equally unconcerned, turned to her work basket and brought out a pile of fine linen handkerchiefs, exquisitely hemstitched, monogramed and laundered.

"We finished them yesterday," she said. "I hope they're all right."

Then, of course, Willie had to thank her. It was not in her bond that she should slave for him.

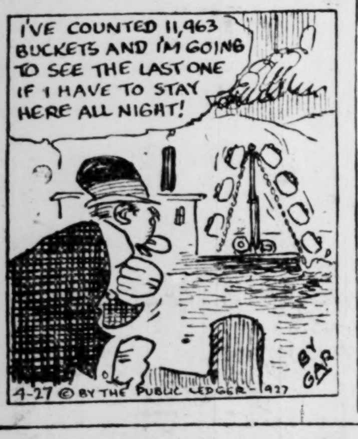
"I wonder what I can do for you," he said in his tender, mocking way, "to show my appreciation."

She wrinkled her fair young forehead. "You can do something if you want to," she replied unexpectedly. "You can arrange a little concert for me at the Doria."

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

Just Nuts



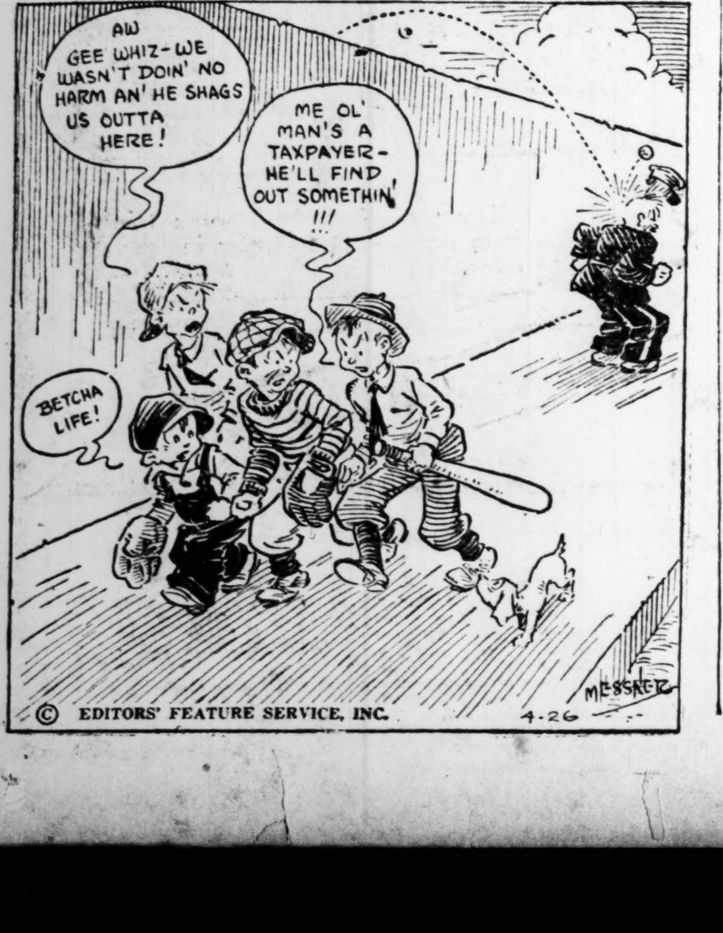
I'VE COUNTED 11,963 BUCKETS AND I'M GOING TO SEE THE LAST ONE IF I HAVE TO STAY HERE ALL NIGHT!
BY GAR
4-27 © BY THE PUBLIC LEDGER 1927

Aunt Het

"Our oldest deacon ain't goin' to like heaven unless he's consulted about the way it ought to be run."

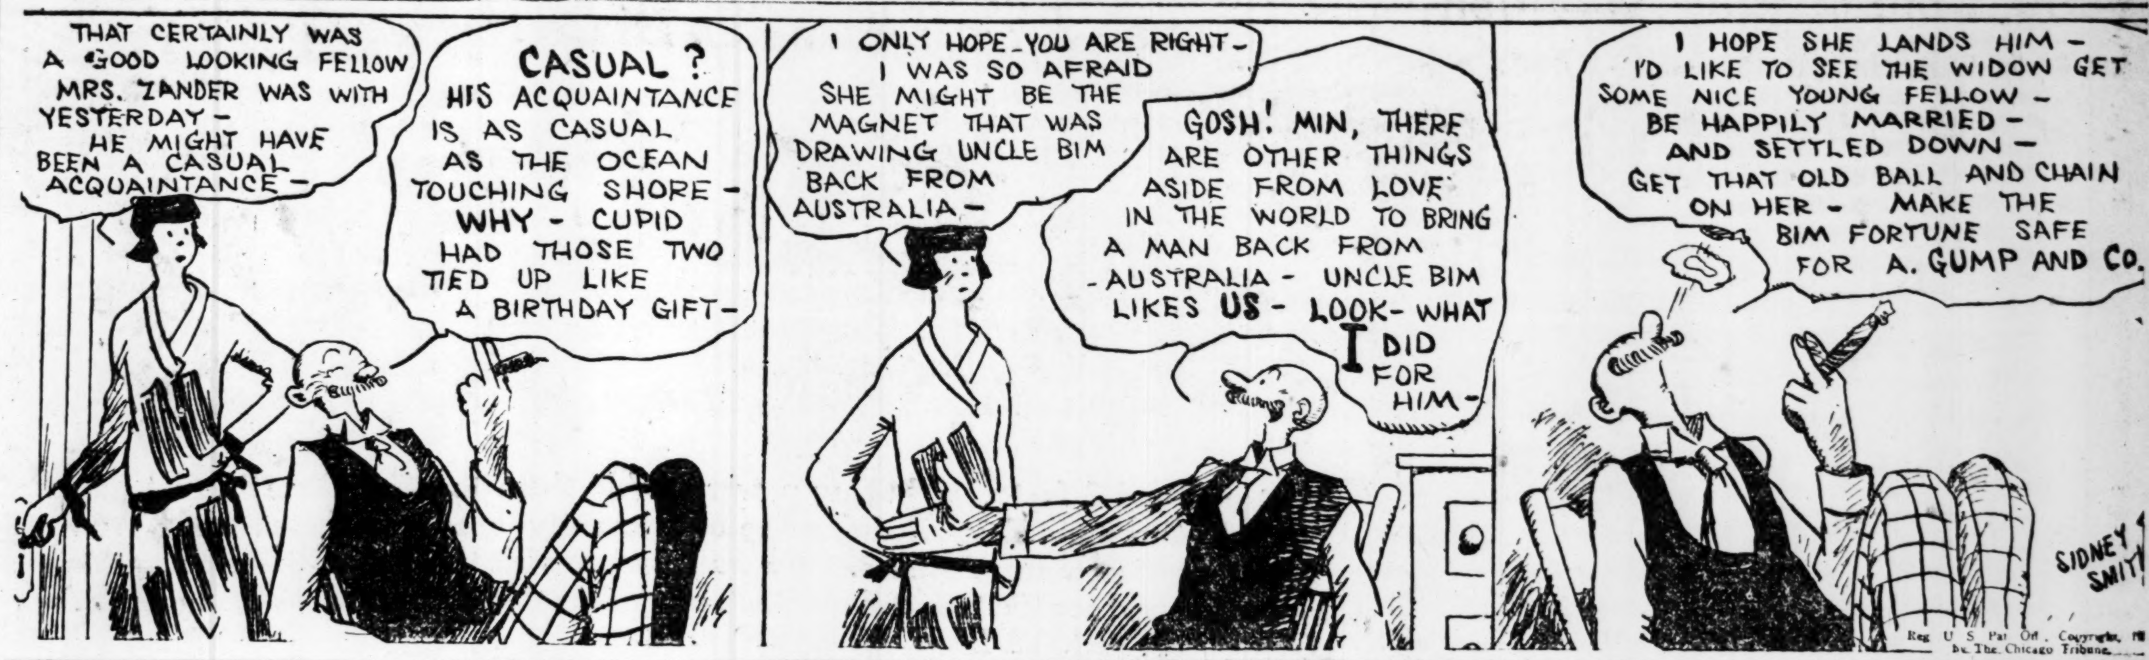
(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

That's Not the Half of It



AW GEE WHIZ-WE WASN'T DOIN' NO HARM AN' HE SHAGS US OUTTA HERE!
ME OL' MAN'S A TAXPAYER-HE'LL FIND OUT SOMETHIN' !!!
BETCHA LIFE!
MESSNER
© EDITORS' FEATURE SERVICE, INC.
4-26

THE GUMPS—ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL



THAT CERTAINLY WAS A GOOD LOOKING FELLOW MRS. ZANDER WAS WITH YESTERDAY - HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN A CASUAL ACQUAINTANCE - CASUAL? HIS ACQUAINTANCE IS AS CASUAL AS THE OCEAN TOUCHING SHORE - WHY - CUPID HAD THOSE TWO TIED UP LIKE A BIRTHDAY GIFT -
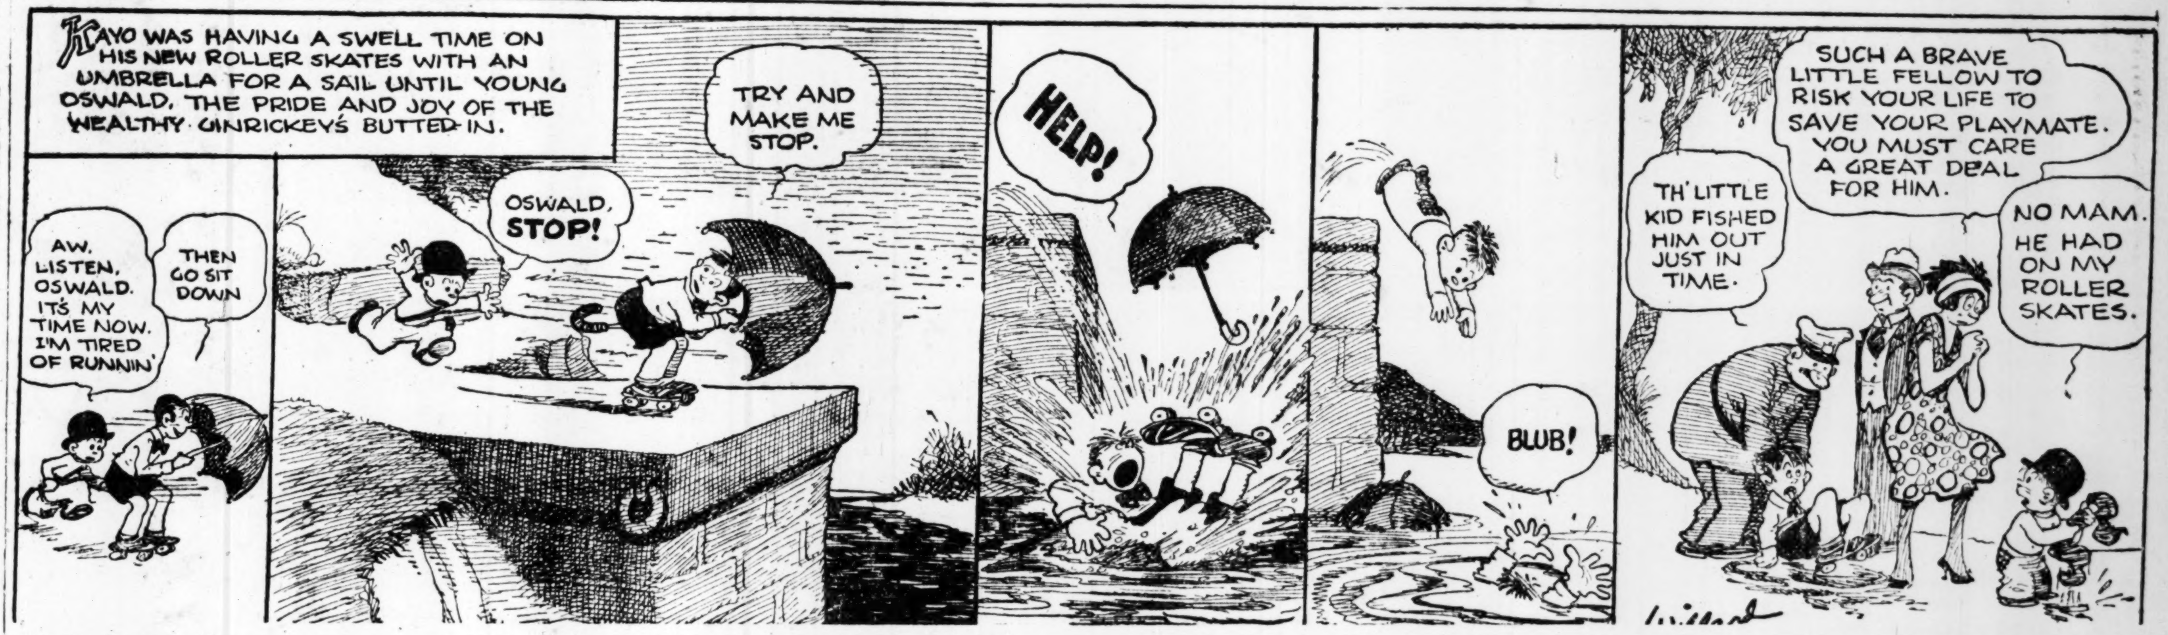
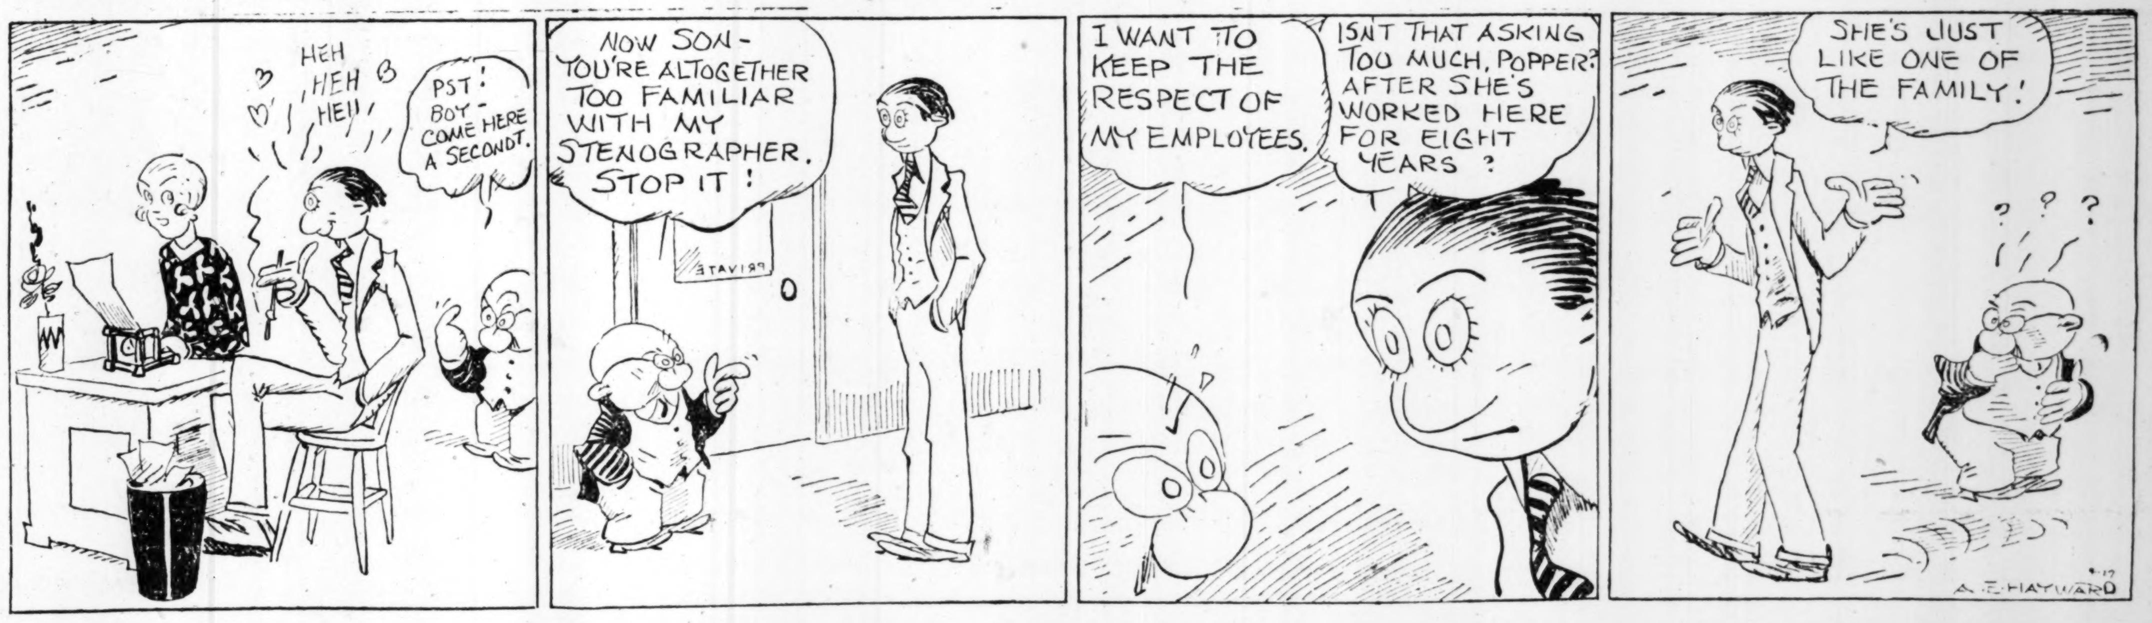
I ONLY HOPE YOU ARE RIGHT - I WAS SO AFRAID SHE MIGHT BE THE MAGNET THAT WAS DRAWING UNCLE BIM BACK FROM AUSTRALIA -
GOSH! MIN, THERE ARE OTHER THINGS ASIDE FROM LOVE IN THE WORLD TO BRING A MAN BACK FROM - AUSTRALIA - UNCLE BIM LIKES US - LOOK - WHAT I DID FOR HIM -
I HOPE SHE LANDS HIM - I'D LIKE TO SEE THE WIDOW GET SOME NICE YOUNG FELLOW - BE HAPPILY MARRIED - AND SETTLED DOWN - GET THAT OLD BALL AND CHAIN ON HER - MAKE THE BIM FORTUNE SAFE FOR A. GUMP AND CO.
SIDNEY SMITH
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off., Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune

MOON MULLINS—OSWALD OUGHT TO GET A BIG KICK OUT OF THIS



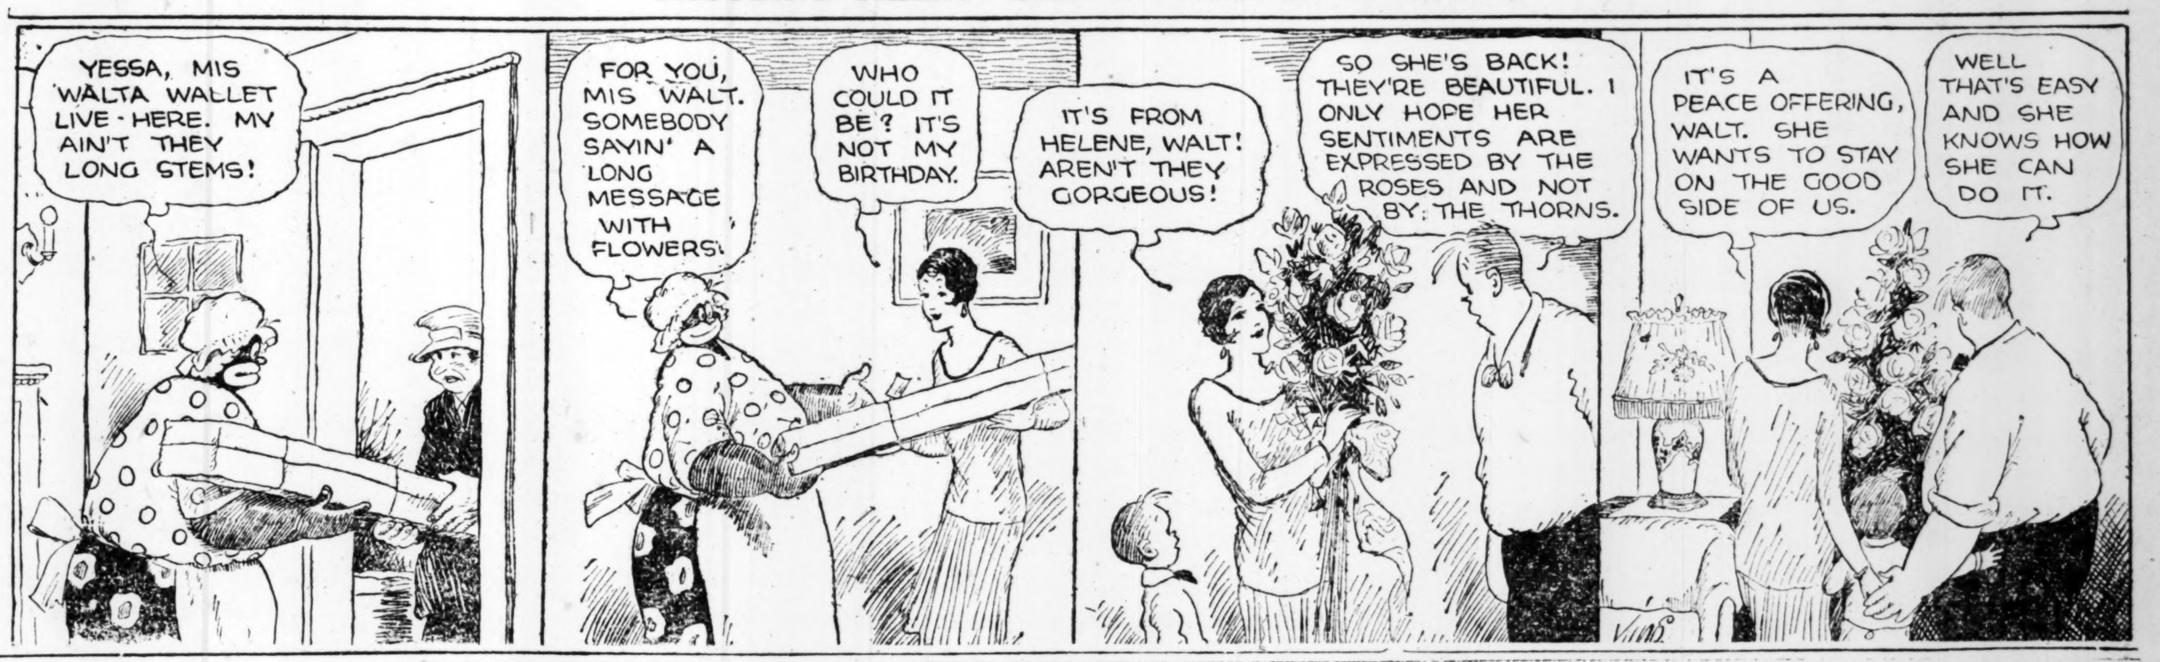
KAYO WAS HAVING A SWELL TIME ON HIS NEW ROLLER SKATES WITH AN UMBRELLA FOR A SAIL UNTIL YOUNG OSWALD, THE PRIDE AND JOY OF THE WEALTHY GINRICKEYS BUTTED IN.
AW. LISTEN, OSWALD. IT'S MY TIME NOW. I'M TIRED OF RUNNIN'
THEN GO SIT DOWN
TRY AND MAKE ME STOP.
OSWALD, STOP!
HELP!
BLUB!
TH' LITTLE KID FISHED HIM OUT JUST IN TIME.
SUCH A BRAVE LITTLE FELLOW TO RISK YOUR LIFE TO SAVE YOUR PLAYMATE. YOU MUST CARE A GREAT DEAL FOR HIM.
NO MAM. HE HAD ON MY ROLLER SKATES.
Willard

SOMEBODY'S STENOG—She's No Respecter of Persons :: :: :: :: :: By Hayward



HEH HEH HEH!
PST! BOY - COME HERE A SECONDT.
NOW SON - YOU'RE ALTOGETHER TOO FAMILIAR WITH MY STENOGRAPHER. STOP IT!
I WANT TO KEEP THE RESPECT OF MY EMPLOYEES.
ISN'T THAT ASKING TOO MUCH, POPPER? AFTER SHE'S WORKED HERE FOR EIGHT YEARS?
SHE'S JUST LIKE ONE OF THE FAMILY!
? ? ?
A. E. HAYWARD

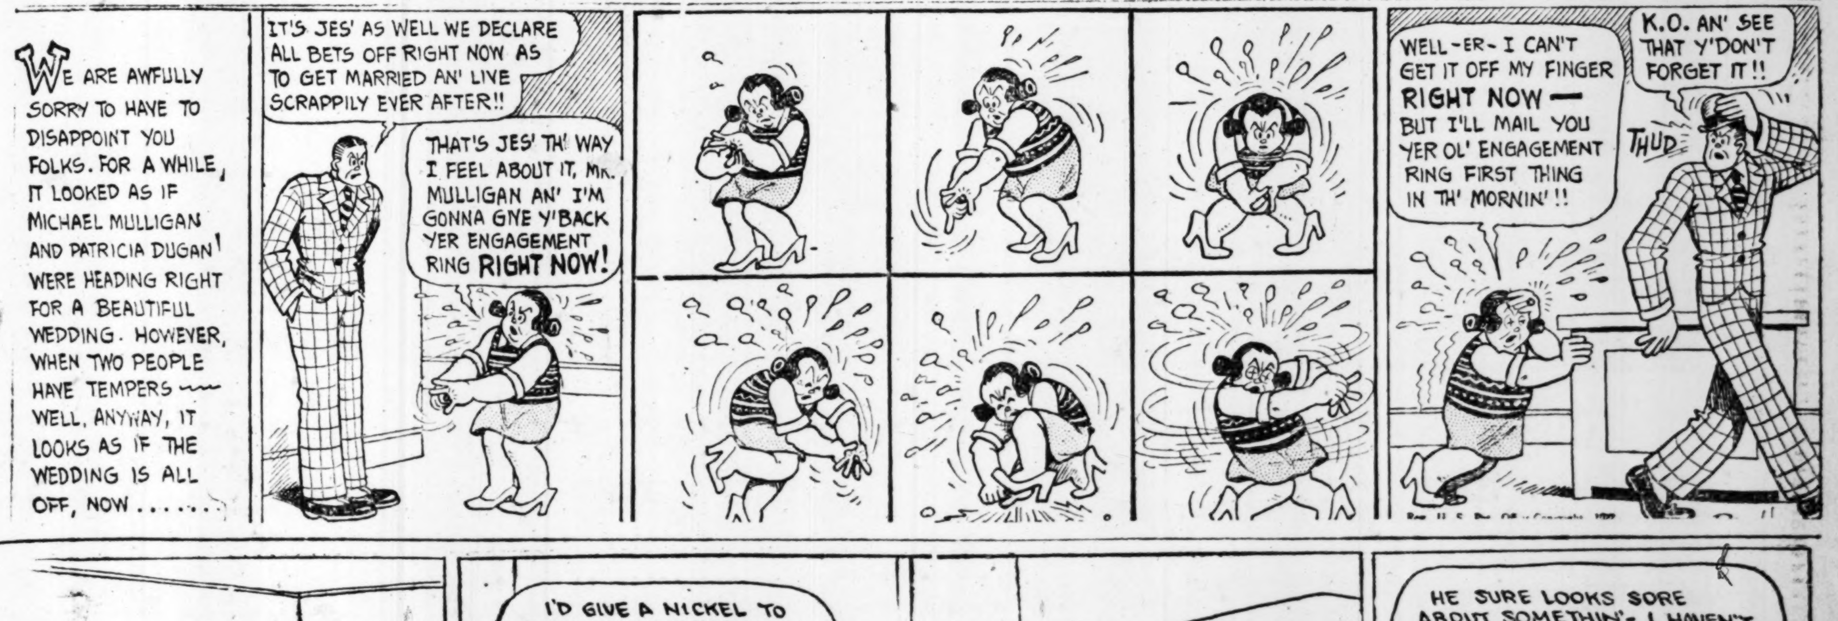
GASOLINE ALLEY—SAY IT WITH LONG STEMS



YESSA, MIS WALTA WALLET LIVE-HERE. MY AIN'T THEY LONG STEMS!
FOR YOU, MIS WALT. SOMEBODY SAYIN' A LONG MESSAGE WITH FLOWERS.
WHO COULD IT BE? IT'S NOT MY BIRTHDAY.
IT'S FROM HELENE, WALT! AREN'T THEY GORGEOUS!
SO SHE'S BACK! THEY'RE BEAUTIFUL. I ONLY HOPE HER SENTIMENTS ARE EXPRESSED BY THE ROSES AND NOT BY THE THORNS.
IT'S A PEACE OFFERING, WALT. SHE WANTS TO STAY ON THE GOOD SIDE OF US.
WELL THAT'S EASY AND SHE KNOWS HOW SHE CAN DO IT.

Winnie Winkle, The Breadwinner.

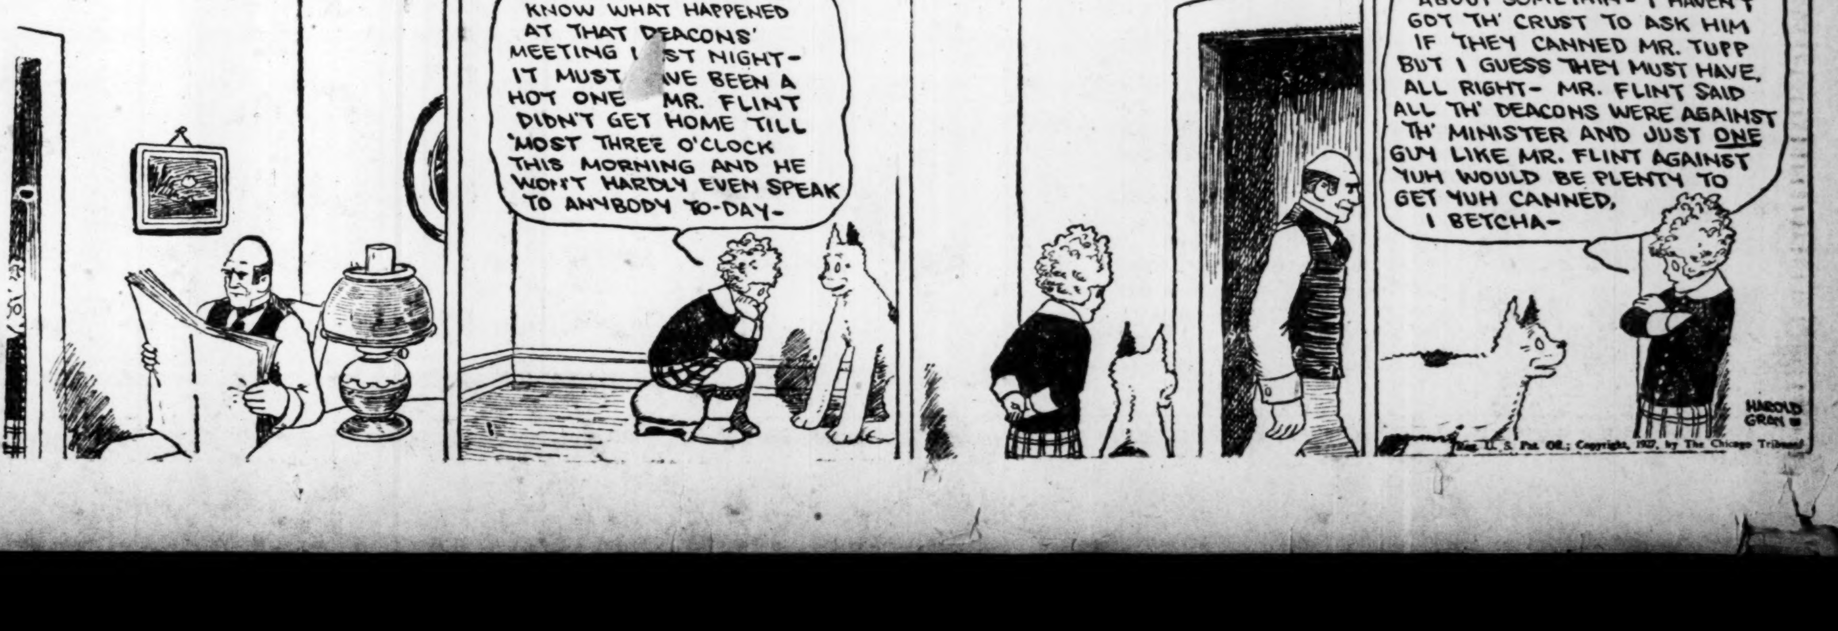
A Ring Battle.



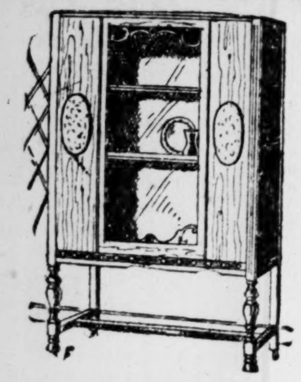
WE ARE AWFULLY SORRY TO HAVE TO DISAPPOINT YOU FOLKS. FOR A WHILE, IT LOOKED AS IF MICHAEL MULLIGAN AND PATRICIA DUGAN WERE HEADING RIGHT FOR A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING. HOWEVER, WHEN TWO PEOPLE HAVE TEMPERS — WELL, ANYWAY, IT LOOKS AS IF THE WEDDING IS ALL OFF, NOW ......
IT'S JES' AS WELL WE DECLARE ALL BETS OFF RIGHT NOW AS TO GET MARRIED AN' LIVE SCRAPPILY EVER AFTER!!
THAT'S JES' TH' WAY I FEEL ABOUT IT, MR. MULLIGAN AN' I'M GONNA GIVE Y' BACK YER ENGAGEMENT RING RIGHT NOW!
WELL - ER - I CAN'T GET IT OFF MY FINGER RIGHT NOW — BUT I'LL MAIL YOU YER OL' ENGAGEMENT RING FIRST THING IN TH' MORNIN'!!
K.O. AN' SEE THAT Y'DON'T FORGET IT!!
THUD

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—

The Sphinx.



I'D GIVE A NICKEL TO KNOW WHAT HAPPENED AT THAT DEACONS' MEETING LAST NIGHT - IT MUST HAVE BEEN A HOT ONE - MR. FLINT DIDN'T GET HOME TILL 'MOST THREE O'CLOCK THIS MORNING AND HE WON'T HARDLY EVEN SPEAK TO ANYBODY TO-DAY -
HE SURE LOOKS SORE ABOUT SOMETHIN' - I HAVEN'T GOT TH' CRUST TO ASK HIM IF THEY CANNED MR. TUPP BUT I GUESS THEY MUST HAVE, ALL RIGHT - MR. FLINT SAID ALL TH' DEACONS WERE AGAINST TH' MINISTER AND JUST ONE GUY LIKE MR. FLINT AGAINST YUH WOULD BE PLENTY TO GET YUH CANNED, I BETCHA -
HAROLD GRAY
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune



Odd China Cabinets at Cost

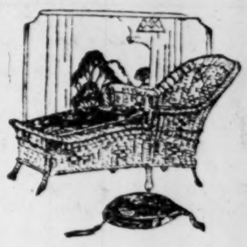
$19.50

$1.00 Down

STERCHI'S

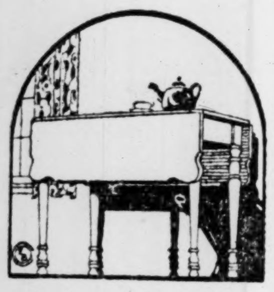
32 stores' and 8 factories' buying power enable them to offer these Unmatchable Values! Our main East Mitchell store has recently been remodeled and is now chock full of new merchandise. We want you to visit this Great Home Furnishing Institution and see the tremendous stock of dependable Furniture and Home Furnishings. IT COSTS LESS AT STERCHI'S.

Chaise Longues



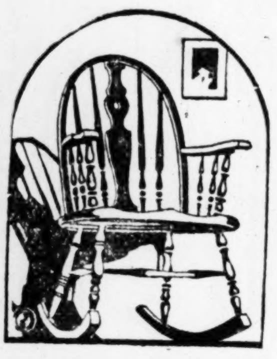
Beautiful Fiber Chaise Longue, attractively upholstered, specially priced in this big event—

$24.50



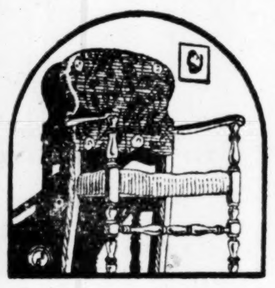
Drop Leaf Table

Note the shaped drop leaves and the graceful turned legs. Buy one now and decorate to suite your taste $6.75



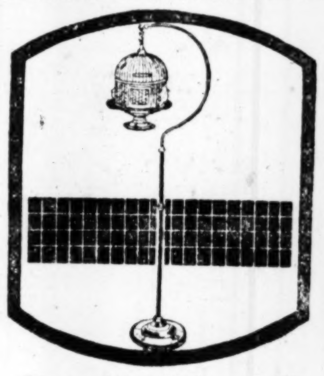
Windsor Rockers

$9.50



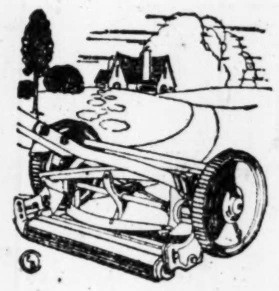
Occasional Chairs

$14.75



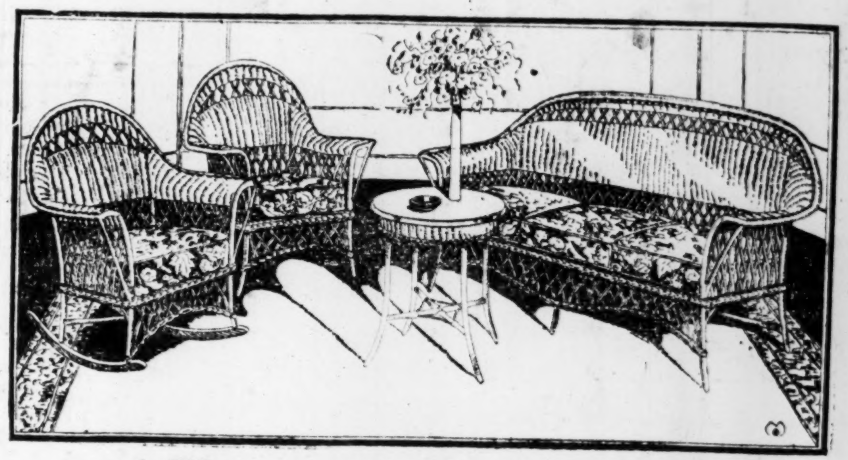
Complete! Special!

$5.95



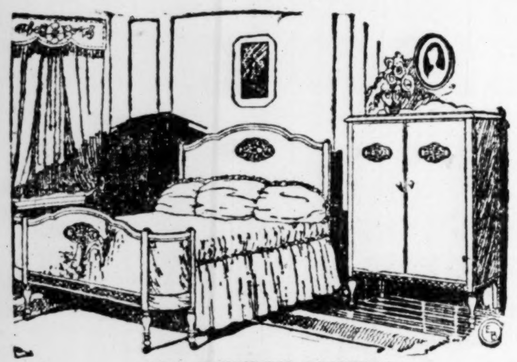
Lawn Mowers

Big Stock at Special Prices



A Fibre Suite of Real Beauty—Special! Big Display at Special Prices

1,000 ODD PIECES



100 2-PIECE SUITES

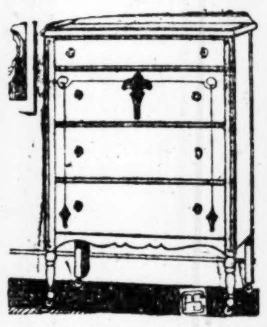
EXTRA SPECIAL

2-Piece Bedroom Suite

Consisting of Bowfoot Bed and Chifforobe, a limited number of these 2-piece Suites to go for . . . $39.50

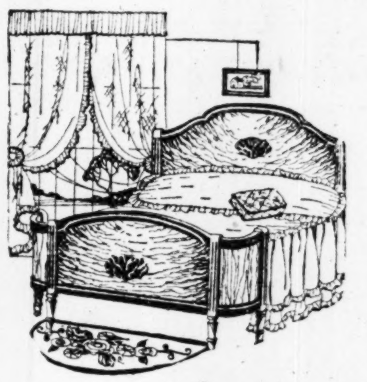
Pay Only $1 Down

Think of buying a bed that sold originally for $60.00—now at $14.95! A manufacturer had 1,000 odd pieces— Beds, Chiffonobes and Chests of Drawers—to make room and get the money he let us have them at our own price. Enamels, Green Decorated, Walnut, Mahogany and other finishes—just the thing to match up your suites.



CHIFFONIERS

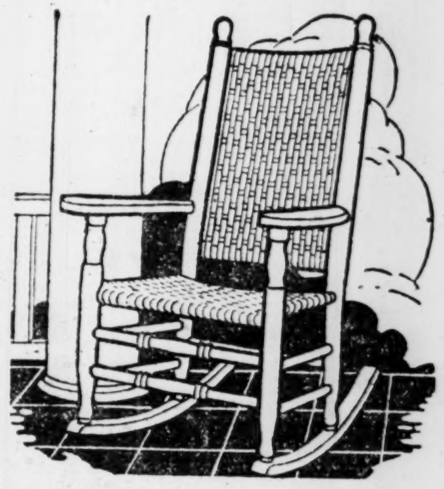
$14.75



Many attractive styles and finishes to select from. Values up to $50.00. They all go in this big "Odds and Ends" event, while they last—

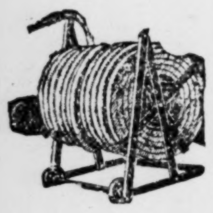
$14.95

$1.00 DOWN



PORCH ROCKER SPECIAL

Big, Strong, Sturdy Porch Rockers $5.95



Rubber Hose

EXTRA SPECIAL

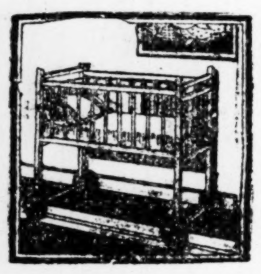
25-ft. Lengths with Couplings

$2.45

50-ft. Lengths with Couplings

$4.85

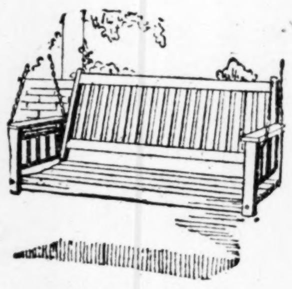
Enameled Cribs



Constructed with drop-leaf sides and finished in a snow-white enamel. You can get one for

$2.95

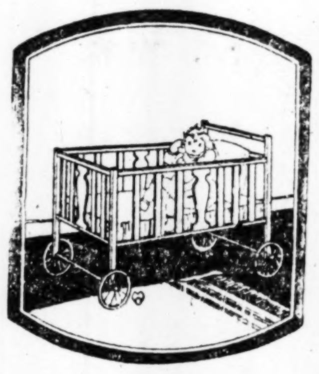
Porch Swings



Special in Porch Swings

Now $3.95 Up

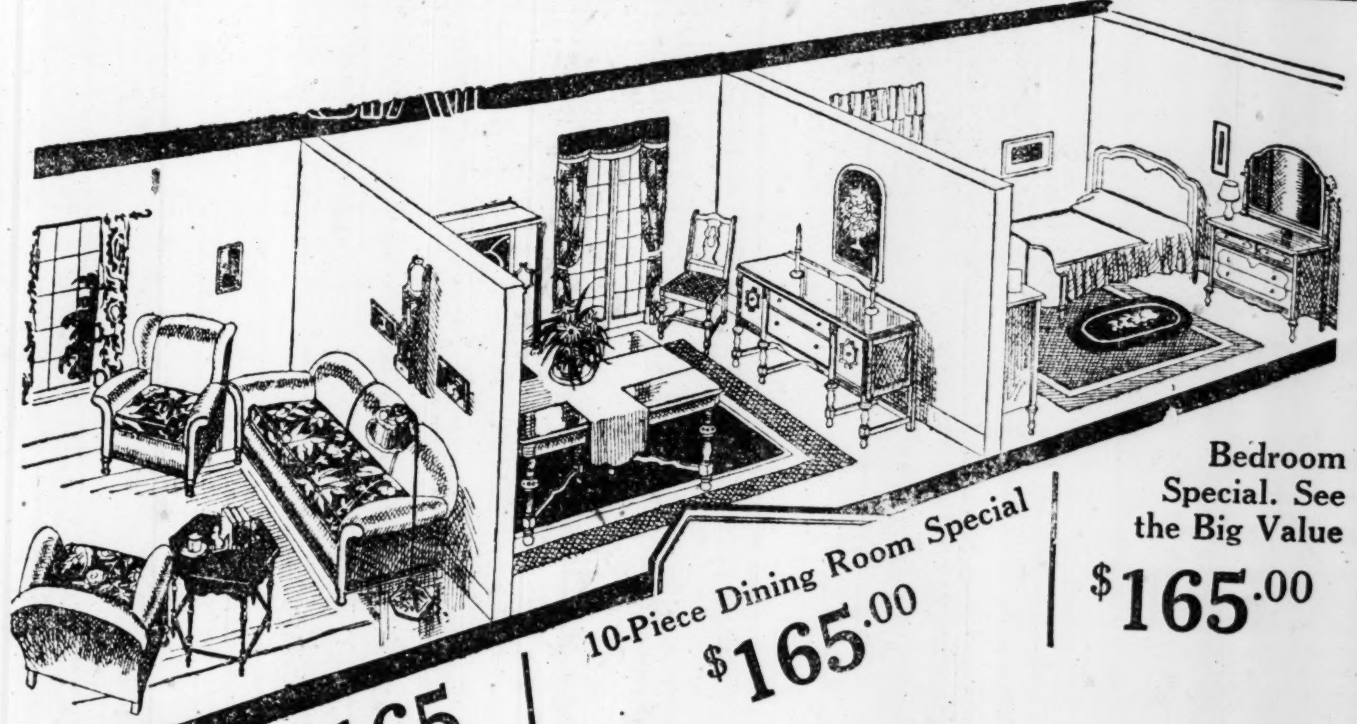
This hardwood style—3-foot width—with shaped seat, including steel chains for hanging.



Comfortable

This rubber tired wheel bassinet has a comfortable spring. Easy to move from room to room. White enamel finish.

$14.95

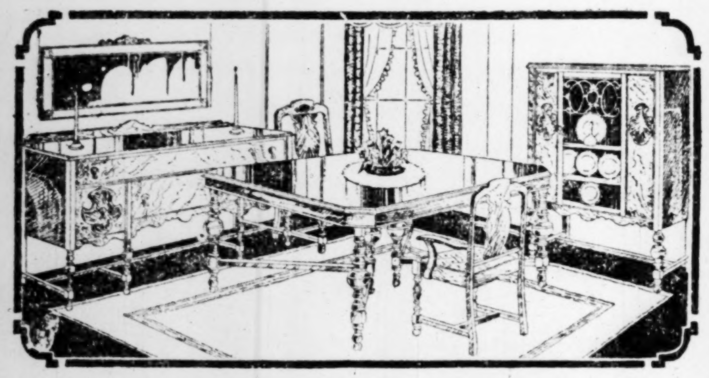


5-Piece Living Room, Special $165

10-Piece Dining Room Special $165.00

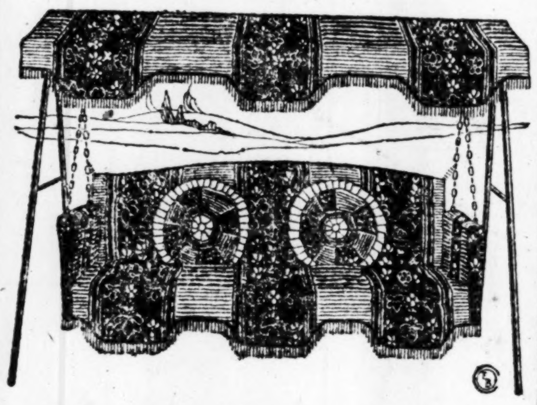
Bedroom Special. See the Big Value

$165.00



Dining Room Suites

Large and complete line of fine Dining Room Suites—in all designs and finishes. Make your selections now at Sterchi's. Easy Terms.



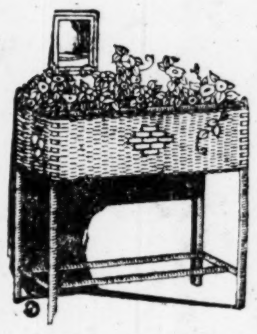
Couch Hammocks

$14.50 up

See our wonderful line of Gliding Hammocks at . . . . $34.50 Up

500 Phonograph Records

Popular Tunes, Different Makes. Today, 4 for $1.00



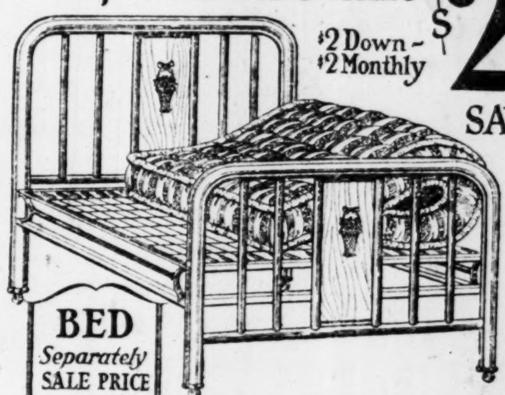
Fibre Fernery

$2.95

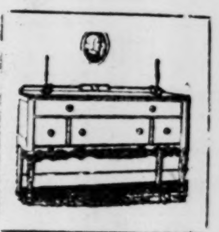
Complete Bed Outfit

$2 Down—$2 Monthly $25.50

SAVE $15 or more

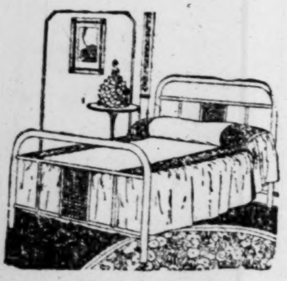


BED Separately SALE PRICE $11.95



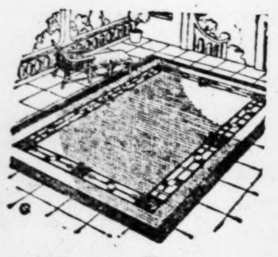
Buffets $28.75

Many of these buffets are taken from regular suites—many in walnut color.



Metal Beds

$8.75



Grass Rugs

The popular 6x9 ft. size, closely woven for long wear, in a variety of colorings and patterns today at just $5.35

STERCHI'S

7-9-11 East Mitchell Street and East Point Store

32 Associate Stores and 8 Factories

Porch Rockers To Go at $1.85

DOUBLE OPERATIC BILL ASSEMBLES REPRESENTATIVE AUDIENCE

SOCIETY FLOCKS TO DRIVING CLUB FOLLOWING PERFORMANCE

Supper-Dance at Club Draws Many Parties

Following the double presentation of "Gianni Schicchi," by Puccini, and Montemezzi's "L'Amore dei Tre Re" Tuesday evening, society was whirled in purring motors to the Piedmont Driving club, where was enacted the outstanding social event of the day.

Surpassing in brilliance all other events of the calendar, Metropolitan song birds, visitors and Atlanta opera-goers gathered for supper and dancing in the beautiful gold and white ballroom.

Southern hospitality was revealed in all its delightful phases and this popular club demonstrated its surpassing power of entertaining par excellence. The bowers of exquisite spring blossoms formed a perfect background for the handsome toilettes of the south's fairest beauty, their hues blending and contrasting in gorgeous profusion.

The beautifully appointed supper tables, ranging the length of the ballroom and encircling the dance floor, presented a lovely scene with their floral centerpieces, featuring spring's choicest roses, snapdragons, sweet peas, valley lilies and lilacs. Graceful French baskets, filled to overflowing with these flowers, adorned the center of the tables, where congenial parties were seated for supper, which was served at midnight. Tall pink tapers burned in silver candlesticks which encircled the central decorations, and other pretty details harmonized in color and selection. The favors were attractive imported musical novelties.

Congenial Parties.

One of the largest parties of the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Cary Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Dana Belser, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGonigal, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nunnally, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacDougald, General and Mrs. Charles Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, Jr., John Wheatly and Sam Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Huger had as guests at their table Miss Suzanne Zeigler, of New York; Miss Callie Orme, William Sibley, Walter Whiteman and Murray Shaun.

Dining with Frank Harrold were Mrs. J. B. McCrary and Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, of Macon.

Visitors Honored.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Holmes, Dr. and Mrs. John Fitts, Dr. and Mrs. John Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Willingham Tift and Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Anderson dined together.

Dr. Newdigate M. Owensby had as his guests Dr. and Mrs. Charles P. Hodge, Miss Laura Pearce, Dr. Champion Holmes, Dr. Paul Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard See, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ramspeck were together.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cobb had as their guests Mrs. Phillip McGregor Parker, of Great Neck, L. I., and Grosvenor Bemis.

Mr. and Mrs. Smythe Gambrell, Miss Mary Louise Brumby and Charles Boynton formed a party.

Miss Maria Brown, Miss Frances Brown, Miss Susan Blake, of New York; Howard Smith, John Hopkins and others were together.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. George McCarty, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ottley, Mr. and Mrs. Sims Bray, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Savage, of Gadsden, Ala., dined together.

Miss Mary Knight, Miss Mary Rhorer, Erroll Eckford and John Barnett were together.

Major and Mrs. A. T. Colley were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyle.

Mrs. Frank Ellis Honors Mrs. Caldwell At Buffet Luncheon

Mrs. James H. Caldwell, of New York, one of the opera week's most prominent visitors, who is the guest of Mrs. James D. Robinson, at her home in Druid Hills, was the central figure at the buffet luncheon at which Mrs. Frank S. Ellis entertained Tuesday at her home on Peachtree circle.

Exquisitely appointed tables were placed underneath the rose-trellised pergolas while others were placed under vari-colored umbrellas. The hostess, who is famed for her artistic taste in attaining the unusual and beautiful, featured the Palm Beach idea in the many attractive suggestions, a fact appreciated by many of Mrs. Ellis' guests, who had visited this wonderful resort together the past winter. Spring flowers adorned the drawing room and living room, roses, lilies, peonies and iris predominating in the floral effect, while palms and ivy formed an effective background. A lace runner adorned the refectory table in the dining room, and three silver loving cups held spring blossoms.

Mrs. Ellis was gowned in an imported gown of beige chiffon and a felt hat to match.

The guest list numbered 60, including a number of the artists and out-of-town visitors and a few Atlanta friends.

Miss Farmer Presents Pupils in Recital.

An interested assembly of friends greeted the students from the first and second grade [illegible] classes of Miss Anna Mae Far[illegible] in the recital held in chamber of commerce hall.

Special mention can be given to the playing of Amaryllis Pickett, Alice Taylor, Elsa Nix and Geraldine Robertson, who showed clearness, feeling and through study of their solos. The five numbers played by the little eight-year-old Nell Echols were particularly interesting.

Those participating were: Georgiabel Lyon, Dorothy Taylor, Dorothy Laney, Durward Laney, Frances Wallace, Miriam Jones, Alice Taylor, Charlotte Huff, Geraldine Robertson, Elsa Nix, Nell Echols, Ellen Murray, Mae Tom Haynes and Amaryllis Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. Bray Honor Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims Bray entertained informally at dinner Tuesday evening at their home on Juniper street, the occasion honoring Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bray and Mrs. Helen Case, of St. Louis, wro arrived Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bray. The beautifully appointed table was graced in the center by a Venetian bowl of vari-colored flowers and Venetian glass candlesticks holding pink tapers added to the lovely appointments. Covers were placed for the honor guests, and members of Mr. and Mrs. Bray's family.

Miss Willis Weds Robert R. Ozmer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Willis announce the marriage of their daughter, Mamie Emaline, to Robert R. Ozmer, the ceremony having taken place Wednesday, April 27 at Clear Branch, Tenn.

Musical Program At Chapter House.

The Julia Jackson chapter of the Children of the Confederacy will hold a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the U. D. C. chapter house, Juniper and Sixth streets. Following a brief musical session, the afternoon will be devoted to a special musical program in charge of Miss Louise Mitchell, given by piano pupils of Miss Dorothy J. Waldman. Classical numbers by Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, Chopin and Moskowski promise a varied program of unusual interest.

Mrs. John C. Sage, director of this chapter, and Miss Martha Carmichael, president, extend a most cordial invitation to all members to attend.

Mrs. Lamar Rucker Gives Luncheon.

Mrs. Lamar Rucker, of Athens, entertained a few friends at luncheon Tuesday at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel. Her guests were Mrs. John MacDougald, Miss Mary Ella Yancey and Mrs. William L. Erwin and Mrs. Howell Erwin, of Athens.

Luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock in the main dining room of the hotel.

Mrs. Colquitt Gives Buffet Luncheon.

Mrs. Walter Colquitt was hostess Tuesday at a buffet luncheon at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue.

A profusion of red and white peonies and iris in pastel shades decorated the spacious reception rooms. The table in the dining room was graced in the center by green Venetian glass bowls filled with pink roses, pink and white snapdragons, yellow iris and delphiniums. Greca candlesticks held unshaded pale green candles, these being tied with bunches of sweet peas and delphiniums. The bon bons in Venetian comports carried out the pastel motif, delicate lavender, rose, yellow and green being used.

Assisting her hostess in the entertainment of her guests were Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Sr., Mrs. Glenville Giddings, Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Jr., Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Joel Hurt and Mrs. J. M. Keough.

The guest list numbered 65.

Confederate Poet Laureate Visits City for Ope[illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyle and their sister, Miss Phoebe Fraser, of Memphis, Tenn., are at the Biltmore en route from the Confederate Veterans' reunion recently held in Tampa, Florida.

Mrs. Boyle is well known as Mrs. Virginia Fraser Boyle, poet laureate for life for the United Confederate Veterans, the Confederate Southern Memorial association, the United Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of Confederate Veterans. This prominent group of visitors will be entertained at a series of social affairs during their Atlanta visit.

Nashville Visitors Are Entertained.

Mrs. J. W. Wallace, Miss Sallie Herbert and Mrs. Thomas L. Herbert, of Nashville, Tenn., opera guests of Mrs. H. W. Beers, are being entertained at a round of lovely parties.

Mrs. Davis Thornton honored the visitors at an informal luncheon Tuesday at the Atlanta Athletic club. Invted to meet the guests [illegible] honor were a small group of friends. In the afternoon Mrs. Frank Berry entertained Mrs. Beer's guests at a matinee party.

Mrs. W. W. Martin To Be Hostess.

Mrs. William Worth Martin will entertain Saturday afternoon at the tea-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel. The guests will include a group of young girls and boys.

Delta Chi Sorority To Give Tea Saturday.

The Delta Chi sorority of Woodberry Hall, will entertain the members of the 1927 graduating class at tea Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Grady Jones in Druid Hills.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Sarah Duncan, president of the sorority; Miss Rosa Woodberry, Mrs. Travis Brannon, president of the alumnae, and Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Turrentine Is Bridge Hostess.

Mrs. Roy E. Turrentine entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club at her home in Fort McPherson. Playing during the afternoon were Mesdames Turrentine, A. M. Parsons, William L. Mitchell, Marvin W. Peck, Bert N. Bryan, Cyril E. Faine, Winfred Skelton and George E. Steinmeyer.

Youth Attends Grand Opera

The above photograph presents a foursome of lovely sisters, youthful belles in Atlanta society who are listed among the prominent opera-goers and music lovers. Miss Mary Sadler is at the upper left, while Misses Margaret Nelson, seated, and Miss Louise Nelson, standing, form the central group, and Miss Ida Sadler is at the right, all of whom will grace every performance given throughout this week by the Metropolitan Opera company in the auditorium. Photographs by Brubäcker's studio.

'Gianni Schicchi' and 'L'Amore dei Tre Re' Delightful Vehicles for Many Stars

The proverbial something old and something new was truly and delightfully presented Tuesday evening by the Metropolitan Opera company. The combining of the two operas, "Gianni Schicchi" and "L'Amore dei Tre Re," proved to be a master stroke. The something new—Puccini's "Gianni Schicchi"—was sung in Atlanta for the first time. The many listeners were happily surprised to find that grand opera could be amusing.

The ever-popular De Luca sang the role of "Gianni Schicchi." The audience chuckled gleefully as he disposed of the dead Buoso's property to the grasping heirs, keeping a gigantic share for himself, to be given later to the lovers.

Louise Hunter, who took the role of Lauretta, daughter of Gianni, is always a joy—our sweetheart as well as Rinnuccio's. Armand Tokatyan, as Rinnuccio, made an entirely satisfactory lover. Kathleen Howard acted very realistically the part of the shrewish aunt.

"L'Amore dei Tre Re" has been sung in Atlanta before. One hears an opera repeated in much the same mood as one meets an [illegible] friend. The three kings, Leon Rothier, Lawrence Tibbett and Giovanni Martinelli, are kings indeed, for they are sovereigns in the world of music and rulers each over their respective realms—basso, baritone and tenor. Each one took his part superbly.

Rosa Ponselle, as the unhappy Fiora, was cast in a role that frequently falls the lot of woman—endless conflict between love and duty.

This popular leading soprano of the Metropolitan was enthusiastically and uproariously received by Tuesday evening's audience and her glorious voice proved superb in the dramatic role of Fiora.

Lovely Box Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morell Atkinson entertained in their box, Mr. and Mrs. James Gould, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Dick.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacDougald entertained in their box Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGonigal.

In Mr. and Mrs. A. Ten Eyck Brown's box Tuesday evening were Miss Frances Brown, Miss Susan Blake, of Boston, Mass.; Grosvenor Bemis and Howard Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Keller F. Melton and Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Clarke were in a box Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry English and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Johnson shared a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. De Give had in their box, Miss Eleanor Langley, of New York; Miss Pauline De Give, Dan Conklin and Henry De Give, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hinman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rawson were in a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nunnally and Mr. and Mrs. John Hill were seen in a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, Jr., of Buford, Ga., had as honor guests in their box, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Pennino, of Havana, Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dozier Little had in their box Mrs. L. O. Stevens and Mrs. H. M. Wortham, of Macon.

In Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dobbs' box were Mrs. Mildred Dobbs Howard and others.

Mrs. Robert H. Martin had as guests in her box, Mrs. Clarence Knowles, Mrs. James L. Well and Mrs. Earl Cone.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ellis, III., Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Wager, Miss Rebecca Ashcraft and Claude McGinnis.

J. J. Haverty had as guests in his box Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bellman and Miss May Haverty.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenn O. Stone entertained Mr. and Mrs. Thresher Ames Rippey, Jr., and Dr. and Mrs. Bryan K. Vann.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Francis Herreshoff had as guests in their box, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Memminger.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maddox and Dr. and Mrs. Dunbar Roy were in a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant entertained Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Camden Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. William Akers entertained in their box, their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. George Cook, of Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peacock, of Cochran, Ga., and William Murphy, of Savannah.

Mrs. George Ferguson Armstrong, of Savannah, had in her box, Mrs. Lorton Davis, of Ocala, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Inman, Miss Lucy Armstrong and Iva Davis.

Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith's guests were Mrs. Charles R. Crisp, of Americus, Ga., and Mrs. William C. Wright, of Newnan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Payne entertained Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Robinson, Mrs. James C. Caldwell, of New York; Mrs. Arthur Head, of Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis were seen in a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhodes entertained a group of friends.

Biltmore Tea-Dance Assembles Many Opera Visitors

One of the delightful affairs of opera week was the tea-dance Tuesday afternoon held in the Georgian ballroom of the Biltmore hotel from 4:30 until 6:30 o'clock. On each of the tea tables was a vase of pretty bright colored spring flowers.

Miss Adelaide Howell, of Gainesville, Ga., attractive opera guest of Miss Jane Sharpe, was the central figure in a party. Covers were placed for Misses Howell Sharpe, Ida Nevin and Celeste Martin, Henry Johnson, Jr., Graves Smith, Edwin Pearce, George Sharp, Veazy Rainwater Jr., and Robert Martin, Jr.

In a party were Mr. and Mrs. William Barnwell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Howard See and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Le Roux.

Mrs. Louise Ware entertained in compliment to Miss Mae Quinney, of Waynesboro, Ga., the guest of Mrs. Klatt Armstrong, and for Mrs. E. M. Lovelace, of Brewton, Ala., the guest of Mrs. Copeland. Covers were placed for Miss Quinney, Mrs. Lovelace, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. H. Clay Moore, Sr., Mrs. I. S. Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. Lawrence Vickery and Mrs. Ware.

Theta Kappa Nu Gives Dance.

The Georgia Alpha chapter of the Theta Kappa Nu fraternity of Oglethorpe university will entertain at an informal dance Friday evening, May 6, at the Henry Grady hotel.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY WILL BE EVIDENCED WEDNESDAY

Druid Hills Barbecue To Honor Opera Stars

Southern hospitality in its most charmingly informal fashion will be in evidence today when the annual barbecue for the Metropolitan stars and officials will be given for the seventeenth time at Druid Hills Golf club at noon.

The greensward and wooded hills on the spacious estate of the club, considered one of the most beautiful in the south, will form a picturesque background for brilliantly clad women, who will attend the 'cue. Sports costume will bloom as frequent as dogwood in the Druid Hills. Long tables, decorated for the occasion, will hold the smoking viands and visitor, star, host and hostess, alike, will enjoy one of the most unique entertainments of the brilliant opera season.

Lowry Arnold, president of the Druid Hills club, and Mrs. Arnold will welcome the guests in the roles of official host and hostess. They will be assisted by the following directors of the club and their wives including Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Sam T. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brine, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Newell and Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Paullin.

The tables will be placed near the pits and a special table will be arranged for the opera stars and officers of the Atlanta Music Festival association — Harry M. Atkinson, president; John W. Grant, vice president; Charles Howard Candler, second vice president, and Robert S. Parker, secretary and attorney.

Special Parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Arnold will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis and their guest, Mrs. Norwood Hastie, of Charleston, S. C., Mrs. Harvey Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Logan Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Black will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Argyle Parsons, of New York; Mrs. Lamar Rucker, of Athens, Ga., and Mrs. John MacDougald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wardlaw will entertain Miss Ruth Sullivan, of Seattle, Wash.; Miss Edna Belle Raine, W. C. Wardlaw, Jr., and Jack Donovan.

Mrs. J. Edgar Paullin will entertain Miss Nellie Hightower, Mrs. Frank Fleming, Mrs. J. G. Oglesby, Mrs. Hugh Dorsey, Miss Marion Wilkinson, of Valdosta, Mrs. Frank Boland, Mrs. Thomas Hinman, Mrs. Evelyn Harris, and Mrs. Robert D. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Nevin and Mrs. Mary Nevin Vaughn and Miss Ida Nevin will attend the barbecue together.

Mr. and Mrs. Veasy Rainwater will have Mr. and Mrs. Giuseppe de Luca, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Morgan, Miss Martha Edmondson, T. R. Keesey, of Chicago, and J. H. Rogers, of New York as guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregg will be together.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parks and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Maddox will have as their guests Colonel Garland Jones, Thomas Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fischer, of Newnan; Mrs. Jack Barnett, Mrs. L. P. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sterne, Miss Sue Brown Sterne, Miss Anne Keeling, of Dallas, Texas; John Wilson, Meridian, Miss., and Miss Effie Wilson, of Meridian, will form a party.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hutly, of New York, will be together.

Mrs. Ozburn Chambers will entertain Mrs. Katherine Connerat and Miss Lillian McKey, of Valdosta, Ga.

A congenial group includes Mrs. Cyrus Strickler, Mrs. James Smythe, Miss Dorothy Meacham, Mrs. Arthur Lucas, Mrs. LeRoy Wynne, Mrs. Lewis Beck.

Dr. and Mrs. George Fuller and Dr. and Mrs. Claude Hughes will form a party.

Honoring Mrs. Ned E. Detinet and Miss Margaret Cammack, of New York, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Oldknow, will be the party given by Mrs. W. L. Riley. Guests include the visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Oldknow.

Mrs. Duncan Forester will entertain a group of friends in compliment to her guest, Miss Mary L. Bunkey, of Leesburg, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooledge will have as guests Mrs. Watson, of Belfast, Ireland; Dr. and Mrs. Marion Hull, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hull, Miss Lucy Armstrong, of Savannah; Mrs. E. H. Clarke, of Moultrie, and Richard Hull.

Colonel and Mrs. Percy Jones will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adamson, of Cedartown, Ga.

Mrs. Charles T. Hopkins will have as her guests at the barbecue at Druid Hills Golf club, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warren, Mrs. Henderson Warren, Miss Hattie Warren, Jim Warren, all of Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Jefferson Pearce, of New York, Mrs. Isaac Levy, of Tampa, Fla., and Miss Nancy Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daniel, Miss Anne Spalding and Fred Paige will be together.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Beers will entertain a party in compliment to their house guests, Mrs. W. J. Wallace, Mrs. Thomas L. Herbert and Miss Sallie Herbert, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. David Thornton.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Anderson will entertain Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Conners and others.

Other Reservations.

Others having reservations are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kline, R. W. Alger, George W. Brine, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holditch, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Floyd, Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy Childs, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Beall, Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. White, Thomas Lyon, Colonel and Mrs. Melville Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spiker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Thornwell Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Rambo, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon King, Dr. J. G. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Klatte Armstrong, L. J. McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mather, Mrs. Arthur Tufts, Mr. and Mrs. F. Graham Williams.

The Story of Today's Opera

"Turandot"

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

In the first act of "Turandot" the rising curtain reveals a square before the imperial palace of Pekin, celestial city of the China of legend and fantasy. A portico faces the palace sculptured with monsters, unicorns, dragons. Heads of persons beheaded are shown at the top of poles. The city of Pekin is seen in the distance, flooded by the rays of a setting sun. The square is peopled by a picturesque Chinese crowd listening intently to a mandarin reading a death decree from the heights of the bastions.

In the decree it is stated that Turandot the Pure, the daughter of the emperor, shall wed the prince of noble blood who will be able to solve three enigmas she shall propound. Should he fail to solve the enigmas he shall be put to death by the sword. The young prince of Persia is the last who has failed to solve the enigma and he is condemned to death in the decree.

As the death decree is concluded the crowd grows unruly and utters yells and shouts. During the excitement an old man falls to the ground and a young girl who accompanies him vainly tries to protect him from being trampled. A young stranger answers the girl's call for aid and while he helps the old man to his feet he recognizes him as his father.

Love Plot Bared.

The old man is Timur, who has been dethroned as king of the Tartars, and the young man is Calaf, his son, who is called the Unknown Prince. Both are in exile. The girl is Liu, a slave, who secretly loves Calaf. In the meanwhile preparations are made for execution of the prince of Persia. The unfortunate prince of Persio approaches preceded by a choir of boys singing a dirge and followed by court dignitaries. The crowd calls for mercy for the youthful prince to Turandot, while the Unknown Prince condemns Turandot bitterly for her cruelty and just at this moment Turandot appears like a vision and the crowd, as if by enchantment, becomes silent and falls prostrate on the ground.

Turandot, with an imperious gesture, calls for the death of the young Persian prince while the Unknown Prince stands gazing at her in rapt ecstasy. Turandot and the crowd disappear and Timur, the Unknown Prince and Liu are left alone in the square. The beauty of Turandot has worked its spell and the Unknown Prince avers that he will attempt to solve the enigmas and despite entreaties of Timur and Liu he steps forward to sound a gong, signifying that he has accepted the challenge.

Ping, Pang, Pong.

Three grotesque dignitaries of the court, Ping, Pang and Pong, stand between the Unknown Prince and the gong and endeavor to dissuade him, in a humorous way, telling him how hopeless will be his attempt. The Unknown Prince is undeterred in his determination to accept the challenge, notwithstanding a warning given by ghosts of dead princes appearing on the bastions and by the executioner himself, carrying the bleeding head of the young Prince of Persia, which he places on the end of a pole. The Unknown Prince turns a deaf ear to the entreaties of Timur and Liu and rushes to the gong and sounds the challenge three times, crying, "Turandot, Turandot, Turandot."

The first scene of the second act shows a pavillion in the imperial palace and Ping, Pang, and Pong are disclosed recalling the glories of China's past 7,000 years when everything was conducted according to the most ancient rules until the advent of Turandot. Since their time they sum up the events by saying, "three sounds of the gong, three enigmas and off goes another head." They recall that in the present year 13 heads of princes have been cut off and as they ask what will be the final outcome the blare of trumpets, announces that another victim has accepted the challenge and is ready to take the test and die.

In Death's Shadow.

In the second scene of the second act the action is laid again in the square in front of the palace. A great stair is shown leading up to the palace. The crowds gather, mandarins appear in rich robes and the Eight Wise men, with scrolls containing the solutions of the enigmas which Turandot will put to the Unknown Prince, stand on the stairway. The emperor of China enters, the Unknown Prince stands at the foot of the stairs while Timur and Liu are in the crowd in front of him. The proclamation is read, Turandot appears and advances to the front and addressing the crowd relates that centuries before an ancestor of hers was carried from this very palace by the foreign invader. She says she has taken an oath to avenge this deed and haughtily warns the Unknown Prince against his attempt. The princess tells the Unknown Prince that the enigmas are three and that death is but one and he replies that the enigmas are three but life is one. The princess advances the three enigmas and the Unknown Prince gives the right solution, the first is "Hope," the second is "Blood" and the third is "Turandot."

Crowds shout in exultation over the victory of the unknown prince, but Turandot refuses to be beaten and calls on her father to save her. The emperor reminds her that her oath is sacred. She then warns the prince if he insists on carrying out the provisions of the oath that he will rue the day he weds her as she will be his torment. The unknown prince then makes a counter proposition. He tells Turandot if she can tell him his name before dawn of day he will free her from her vow and consent to die.

People Terror Stricken.

The first scene of the last act is laid in the palace garden. Under royal command the news is spread that no one is to sleep that night and that the name of the unknown prince is to be revealed before day under penalty of death. The terror-stricken people invade the garden in a panic and implore the unknown prince to reveal his name. Ministers offer him love, riches and glory if he will tell his name, but he has set his heart on Turandot and declines. Guards bring Timur and Liu into the garden shouting they can reveal the name of the prince. Ping recognizes them and recalls that they spoke to the prince on the night before. Just then Turandot enters, orders the guards to drag the secret from Liu. The girl cries that she alone knows the name of the prince but will never real it, whereupon, she is surrounded by the angry crowd while the prince tries vainly to defend her. The executioner is called to torture her, and fearing that under this torture she will reveal the name, Liu grabs a dagger and kills herself. The crowd pities the girl while Timur and the prince mourn over the body of the little slave.

Turandot is greatly moved by the sacrifice of the girl as her body is borne away amid lamentations. Turandot and the prince are left alone and the prince implores her to cast off her mask but she is adamant in her plan to avenge her ancestor and avows she will remain pure and chaste beyond the passions of the world. The unknown prince then snatches her veil from her face and kisses her passionately. The kisses change Turandot and she admits that she has been conquered and avows that from the time he had appeared before her she had loved him in secret. She implores him to go forth and seek greater glory, but the prince reveals to her his name and tells her that death for her would be his greatest joy. When Turandot learns that the unknown prince is Calaf, son of Timur, King of the Tartars, her pride reasserts itself and overjoyed at her victory, she says she will lead the prince before her people to die.

The last scene shows the princess leading the prince before the emperor and people at dawn. At the foot of the throne she cries "August Father, I know the name of the stranger, his name is—Love." The princess then embraces the prince and the people scatter flowers before them singing "The Light of the World Is Love."

Convention Delegate Of Music Club Back From Chicago

Mrs. DeLos Hill, state chairman of the past president's assembly of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs, who was the delegate to the National Biennial of Music club convention, which was recently held in Chicago, has returned to Atlanta and prepared her report of the convention for submission to her local club.

Mrs. Hill states that the convention was literally a "singing biennial" featuring the presentation of a chorus of over 600 voices. Many cities sent choruses of from 50 to 100 voices, all of which were assembled in the presentation.

Other features of the convention were the concerts of the Chicago Symphony orchestra with Stork conducting, and the appearance of the Harmonica Wizards from Philadelphia. Many outstanding addresses were given by persons who are nationally famous in the musical world and demonstrations were given in conducting public school, Sunday school and church music.

Social Items

Miss Martha Irwin is at the Davis-Fischer sanitarium, where she underwent an appendix operation Monday.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bray, of St. Louis, arrived Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sims Bray at their home on Juniper street.

***

Miss Alix Gress, of Jacksonville, Fla., is spending several days with Mrs. Hugh Richardson, Jr., at her home on Pace's Ferry road.

***

Mrs. Andrew Cooper, of Rome, arrives Wednesday by motor to visit Mrs. Frank M. Inman at her home on Peachtree road and will be honor guest at an informal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Inman this evening preceding the presentation of "Turandot" at the auditorium.

***

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arnold and Misses Louise and Sarah Arnold, of Rome, are among those attending grand opera in Atlanta this week.

***

Miss Carrie Bouldin, of Nicholasville, Ky., is visiting Mrs. William Weiman at the Georgian Terrace during opera week.

***

Miss Josephine Hollis has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Espy in Savannah.

***

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and son, John Miller, spent the week-end in Atlanta as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Lively.

***

Mr. and Mrs. George Melville Hope, Jr., announce the birth of a daughter, Dorothy Jean Hope, April 15.

***

Mrs. Kate Green Hess is ill at the Davis-Fischer hospital, where she underwent a serious operation Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Dillard, of Columbus, Ga., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Greene on Howard street, having been called to Atlanta on account of the illness of Mrs. Hess.

***

Mrs. George Eubanks, Jr., of Rochester, Minn., returned home Friday after a month spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lewis, at their home on Sherwood road. Mrs. George Eubanks, Sr., returned home with her daughter and will spend the month of May as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Eubanks.

***

Miss Reita Chambers, of Jacksonville, Fla., will arrive Friday morning to be the guest of Miss Dorothy Hinman for several days. Miss Chambers and Miss Hinman will be delightfully entertained at the opera on Friday and Saturday.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Revell have returned to their home in Chicago, Ill., after a visit to Atlanta where they were prominent guests attending the Paine-Saffarrans wedding last Saturday afternoon, which was brilliantly solemnized in St. Luke's Episcopal church. They also attended the performance of "La Traviata," Verdi's tuneful opera, which inaugurated the seventeenth season Monday evening of the Metropolitan's presentation of grand opera in Atlanta.

***

Mrs. Edward Cole, of Cartersville, arrives in Atlanta Thursday to visit Mrs. W. C. Satterfield at the Georgian Terrace and to attend the performance of Mignon presented at the auditorium by the Metropolitan Opera company. She was among the prominent visitors at Monday evening's premiere.

***

Mrs. E. E. Epting, of Anderson, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ruffell, of Canal Zone, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Ratliffe at their home in Ansley Park.

***

Mrs. Samuel Candler Dobbs, of Lakemont, is among the prominent guests attending opera.

***

Mrs. E. V. Carter, Sr., returned home Tuesday from a Mediterranean cruise.

***

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bray and Mrs. Frank C. Case, of St. Louis, Mo., are at the Biltmore hotel.

***

Misses Katherine Johnson and Elixta Johnson, of Chattanooga, are at the Biltmore hotel.

***

Miss Clara Louise Scott, whose marriage to Arthur Beall will take place during the coming month, was honor guest at the matinee party Tuesday given by Mrs. John C. Carter, of Columbus, who is in Atlanta for the wedding. Guests included Miss Scott and her attendants.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Conyers and little daughter, Madge Pollock, have returned to their home in St. Petersburg, Fla., after visiting relatives in Atlanta and Cartersville.

***

Mrs. Daisey P. Wright, Mrs. J. H. Pettey, Miss Minerva Turnage and C. E. Wright, Jr., of Greenwood, and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Westbrook, of Jackson, are Mississippi guests at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

***

Among the Metropolitan artists who are at the Georgian Terrace are Riccardo Dellera, Vittoro Fullin, Millo Picco, Miss Ina Bourskaya, Ezio Pinza, Miss Thalia Sabanieva, Vincenzo Reschiglian, Marchesi Mario, Mlle Lucrezia Bori, Leon Rothier, Armando F. [illegible]ini and Tedesco Alfio.

***

Mrs. James T. Granberry, of Nashville, Tenn., is among the opera visitors and is at the Georgian Terrace this week.

***

Mrs. Josiah Flournoy, of Columbus, is spending opera week at the Georgian Terrace.

Beautiful National Capital Visitor Attends Opera

The above likeness presents Mrs. Howard Tucker, of Washington, D. C., who with her mother, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, also of Washington, is a beautiful figure seen each evening at the grand opera presentations. Mrs. Tucker was formerly Miss Bessie Draper McKeldin and resided in Atlanta in her early childhood. Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Tucker are the guests of Mrs. William P. Hill and are receiving a cordial welcome by their many Atlanta friends.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The West End Study class meets with Mrs. R. M. Gann on Lee street this morning.

The Bass Junior High P.-T. A. will have a call meeting at 11 o'clock in the David Meyer library. The executive board of Bass Junior High P.-T. A. meets this morning at 9 o'clock in the David Meyer library.

The pre-school circle of Highland school meets this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Miss Mary Dickinson, of the Anti-Tuberculosis society, will speak on "How to Keep the Children Well in the Summertime" at a meeting of the Crew Street Pre-School circle at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The Rhododendron club meets at the home of Mrs. Arthur Burdett, 90 Palisades road, at 3 o'clock.

The Kle club meets at the home of Mrs. William Hinds, 763 Techwood drive.

The Woman's Union Bible club meets at 10 o'clock at the Wesley Memorial church.

This evening Queen Esther chapter, U. D. of O. E. S., will hold a regular meeting in the Red Men's wigwam.

The executive board of Pryor Street P.-T.A. meets at 10 o'clock at the school.

The executive board of the West End Woman's club meets at 2 o'clock with Mrs. J. M. Maury, chairman, and the open meeting follows the executive board meeting.

The O. B. X. sorority of Washington seminary meets at the home of Miss Geraldine White on Peachtree road.

Davis-Fischer Benefit Postponed.

The plans for the Davis-Fischer alumnae benefit have been indefinitely postponed.

Miss Plummer Will Entertain at Tea.

Miss Emily Haywood Plummer has issued invitations to a tea to be held April 29, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kemp Plummer, on Westminster drive. Sixty members of the young school girl set have been invited.

Slams and Salaams

By Louise Dooly

THIS from a letter: "I see you Mr. Babbitt are at outs on your declarations of faith. Mr. Babbitt, of course has a good deal of backing in his belief that money will buy anything. Or that what money won't buy is not worth buying. There is an old Chinese proverb which expresses rather neatly the other viewpoint:

"If thou of fortune be bereft
And in thy store there is but left
Two loaves, sell one, and with the dole
Buy hyacinths to feed thy soul."

IT interests me no little, by the way, that most of the responses this department gets are comments on its more serious themes and moods. What I'm curious about is this:

Do I handle the serious stuff more aptly? or are the majority of my readers serious minded people? or are the serious minded among my readers merely more articulate?

A PROMISE OR A THREAT.

IF the department has any friends of its more frivolous moments, or even of those malicious humors which provide the first part of its caption—the slams—they had better speak out, else they may wake up some morning to find that the department has gone over bodily to that great throng, "the uplifters of their voices and the human race," and that the caption aforesaid has been changed from "Slams and Salaams" to "Sunshine and Shadows," or words to that effect.

TECHNIQUE.

IN the meantime, I shall risk a trivial paragraph on the quotation of a bit of matrimonial wisdom which was revealed to me only recently. It is that the husband with a real mastery of matrimonial technique always limits his admiration of his wife's clothes to those she has held over from last year.

Do you get the economy in that system?

SOPHISTICATION.

AND here is a thought from my notebook which I do not know whether to put under the serious head or the playful:

It concerns the astonishing number of words I have jotted down from the few modern novels I have time or inclination to read which I would remind myself to look up in a dictionary. From their context, or my intuition, I dare not ask just anybody what they mean.

Just below that, I find I have written:

Isn't it remarkable that it is the most censorious people who do and say the most indelicate thing?

CONVERSATION with the same lady who brought up her sons on the proverb: "He that ruleth his own spirit is greater than he that taketh a city," was occasion for another memorandum which I though, when I put it down in my note book, ought to give me a subject some day for a whole column of comment.

"The outdoors is inviting," she remarked, "but I must stay in long enough to write some letters."

"Why letters, when you are taking a vacation from routine?" I tempted her.

"But these are very necessary letters," she assured me. "The most important are to my two daughters-in-laws. I am quite willing to put myself out to show them a little thoughtfulness, because they are so thoughtful of me."

NOW can't you imagine what a harmonious family that must be? And what a happy world we'd have if all in-laws were like that? A whole volume of suggstion lies in that simple statement of mutual consideration.

Then why write a volume when a few words tells the story?

Perhaps I ought even to reserve this for that later date when I may find it better judgment to make the department, as above threatened a Sunshine column.

A Come-Back.

There can be no doubt in my mind or anybody's else under which head the following reflections belong:

They were brought about by the reading matter in the Easter Monday newspapers in Gotham which was used to balance the space given the Easter Sunday sermons. This reading matter concerned the return to fashion's favor of the tailleur for women.

PERHAPS it lost out—it has, of course, been declasse now for yeahs and yeahs—because its old name was as suggestive of mere vulgar utility as its old aim; a coat suit, or a tailored suit, it was called. No wonder it was relegated first to the bargain basement, and finally it was so degraded that the Salvation Army would high-hat such a donation for its proteges. Even down-and-outers have some self-respect.

RENAMED a season or so ago the "Tailleur," it has timidly and with many set-backs, striven to reinstate itself in good society, and the Easter news said:

"Each spring for the last three years the season has begun auspiciously for the mannish tailleur. Each season has seen it as definitely rejected by the promenading fashionables. Yesterday, however, the prodigal was welcomed with loud hosannas and the tailored maiden was the lady of the hour."

IF the tailleur does again "come in," it will provide one more instance of the influence of fashion and a name over many obstacles, notably comfort and good looks.

It is good looking enough when it is complete, but misearably uncomfortable. Make it comfortable—that is, break up its completeness by removing the coat, to reveal mere blouse and skirt, and its good looks are gone.

Oh, yes, I know the industry will say: "The old ugly shirt waist and skirt lines are gone; the tailleur has its foundation in one-piece complete, or blouse and skirt of becoming design even without the coat."

Yes, I know. But then it isn't a tailleur. It's an ensemble.

AND, speaking of the phraseology of fashion, the newest expression (to me) stunned me quite absolutely.

A smart costumer was trying to convince a customer that the gown the customer was having fitted perfectly complemented her personality.

"It suits your exactly. It gives you just the right veneer," was what the smart customer said.

Did the customer buy the gown? I don't know. But under the circumstances, I wouldn't have had it for a gift.

Dr. and Mrs. Cook Honored at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Ramspeck entertained last evening with a dinner party at their home on Ridgecrest avenue, preceding the opera performance, honoring Dr. and Mrs. George L. Cook, of Tampa, Fla., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Akers.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Ramspeck's mother, Mrs. C. B. Veal, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Wilson, and Mrs. Thomas Strickland.

Among the out-of-town guests present besides Dr. and Mrs. Cook, were Mrs. J. W. Wallace and Miss Sallie Herbert and Mrs. Thomas Herbert, of Nashville, Tenn., the guests of Mrs. H. W. Beer; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peacock, of Cochran, Ga.; William Murphy, of Savannah, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Akers; Mr. Ragsdale, of New Jersey, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayer; Mrs. Shelby Myrick, of Savannah, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis; Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, of Buford, and their guests, Senor and Senora Jose Pennino.

The guests included a group of friends of the honor guests, who recently resided in Atlanta.

Our 41st Anniversary
and Second Anniversary
Sale
Begins Thursday
April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS
no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

There's Something In a Name!

You Are Invited to See
Live Mannikins Display

NATURE'S RIVAL
Tip-Top
A GARMENT COMPLETE

Soft, silky—without bones or elastic—yet accomplishing the utmost in figure restraints. The perfect garment for hot weather.

Today and Thursday, 2:30 to 3:30
Auditorium, Fifth Floor

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Clearing the Decks for Summer!

Lingerie—House Frocks

12 BATISTE AND MUSLIN GOWNS, usually $2.95 and $3.95. Long sleeves and V neck. Trimmed in tucks, lace, embroidery	$1.89
12 FRENCH NAINSOOK GOWNS, usually $6.95 to $7.50. V-neck and long sleeves. Hand-made	$3.47 to $3.75
24 SILK RADIUM SLIPS, usually $2.98. Deep hems, inverted pleat at side. Flesh, white and street shades. Sizes 36 to 44...	$1.98
CREPE DE CHINE SLIPS, usually $4.95 to $5.95. Shadow-proof hemstitched tops, side pleats. Pastel and street shades	$2.99
12 CHILDREN'S SILK BONNETS, usually $1.50 to $1.95. Of rayon, frilly with ribbons and ruffles. Sizes 1 yr. to 3 yrs...	89c
28 PORCH FROCKS, usually $4.95 to $6.95. Of French gingham, broadcloth, rayon. Sizes 36 to 42. To clear at.......	$2.39

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Child's French Wear

36 NAINSOOK GOWNS. Usually $2.50 and $3.50. Infant to 6-yr. sizes. Long or short sleeves. Lace or tuck trimmed. Hand-made	$1.25 and $1.75
67 HANDMADE TEDDIES. Usually $2.95. Trimmed with scallops, entredeux lace or embroidery. Sizes 2 to 6. To clear	$1.49
45 HANDMADE NAINSOOK PETTICOATS. ½ price for clearance. Trimmed with embroidery, real lace edge and Irish crochet.............	½

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Lamps—Shades—Pottery

STUDIOS OF INTERIOR DECORATION

BOTTLE LAMPS. Usually $3.60, $6, and $15. Small lamps are in green—larger, other colors	$2.25 $3.50 and $10
SOAPSTONE CARVED FIGURES. Formerly $5. In many odd Chinese shapes	$2.50
CARVED SOAPSTONE LAMP. Originally $45. Hand-etched bronze base, and batik velvet shade	$25
WROUGHT IRON FLOOR LAMP. Formerly $34. Candle lights. Parchment shade—brass trimmed	$25
CHINESE CORAL POTTERY LAMPS—Originally $18.50. Brass stand. For boudoir. Reduced to	$10
BOOK LINEN SHADES. Usually $6 to $12. Several colors. Sizes 10 to 16-in.	$4 to $8
PLEATED PIGSKIN SHADES. Usually $5 to $10. Several colors. Sizes 8 to 14-in. Sale price	$3.50 to $7
SILK BROCADE SHADES. Usually $12 and $15. Lovely Gold and Rose—odd shape ... to clear	$10
OLD PRINT SHIELD SHADES. Usually $8 and $10. Variety of sizes and number of prints	$6.50 to $8.50

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Glove Silk, Rayon

8 RAYON GOWNS. Usually $2.98. Lace-trimmed. Slightly soiled from display. To clear	$2.23
20 PR. GLOVE SILK AND RAYON STEP-INS. Usually $1.50. Lovely pastel colors. Broken sizes	79c
15 PR. RAYON PAJAMAS. Usually $2.98. Neatly tailored or lace trimmed..........	$1.89
7 PR. BLACK RAYON UNION SUITS. Usually $3.50. To go at practically half price.....	$1.79
12 PR. GLOVE SILK STEP-INS. Usually $2.98. Novelty styles. Fine quality glove silk	$1.79
12 PR. GLOVE SILK STEP-INS. Usually $3.95. Reduced to go at worthwhile savings	$2.19
5 GLOVE SILK VESTS. Usually $2.98. Specially priced for Month-End Clearance..	$1.59

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Draperies—(Remnants)

MARQUISETTE, NETS, CRETONNE AND SILK DRAPERIES. Usually $1.50 to $10 yard. Length 1½ to 5 yards. To clear at..	75c to $5 yd.
RUFFLED CURTAINS AND CURTAIN PANELS, usually $1 to $3. yard. Two or three pairs of a kind	½ Price

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Odd Chairs

CLEARANCE OF DINING AND BEDROOM CHAIRS. Usually $6 to $15 each. 1 and 2 of a kind—few in sets of 6. To go at $3 to $7.50	½ Price

—RICH'S, FIFTH FLOOR

75 Sets! Florene Hand Embroidered

Italian Linens

7 Pieces Oblong Luncheon Sets 13 Pieces Oblong Luncheon Sets Regularly $6.95 to $18.95..........	½ Price
5 Pieces—Bridge Sets 7 Pieces—Breakfast Sets Regularly $5.95 to $10.95...........

Ecru linen, exquisitely decorated with Italian cutwork and hand embroidery!
Most Unusual Values!

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Linens—Bedspreads

50 RAYON BEDSPREADS. Usually $2.95. Gold color only. Sizes 80x105-in. Scalloped.	$1.59
50 DOZ. PURE SILVER BLEACH FLANDERS DAMASK NAPKINS. Usually $3.98 doz. 18x18 in. Hemmed..........6 for	$1.29
25 BREAKFAST CLOTHS. Usually $3 to $5.98. Odd lots and slightly soiled. All linen	½ Price
25 FINE PURE LINEN HEMSTITCHED BREAKFAST SETS. Usually $3.95 and $5.95. Lavender checked designs only. Cloth and 6 napkins	$1.98 and $2.98
300 YDS. DAMASK REMNANTS. Lengths 1 1-2 to 3 1-2 yards. Mercerized and linen damasks	⅓ Off

300 YDS. FINE IRISH LINEN SHEETING—

72-in. wide, regularly $1.75..................	$1.25 yd.
90-in. wide, regularly $2....................	$1.50 yd.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Specialty Shop Clearance! DRESSES!

20 Dresses, prints, crepes and georgettes. Lovely spring things, unusually fine workmanship. Formerly $49.50 to $59.50....................	$30
20 Dresses, odds and ends from late winter and early spring stock. Handsome dresses, exquisitely made. Formerly $89.50 to $187.50	$30 to $79.50

All Winter Evening Wraps ½ Price and Less

SPECIALTY SHOP
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

25 Dresses! Formerly $34.95 to $39.50

—25 dresses—a quality group, to clear at a fraction of their former price! Navy georgettes, fine flat crepes with subtle tucks—smart necklines. Colors correct for right now—and for many gay tomorrows! Only 25 of them, so figure the savings—and HURRY!

$18.50

30 Frocks! Formerly $25

—30 Frocks, proclaiming their $25 value in every perfect line! Lustrous satins, black trimmed in gay contrasting colors! Georgettes, in smart navy, soft summer-y pastels! A few brocaded in gold!

$12.50

MEDIUM-PRICE SHOP
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

$24.95 and $39.50 Sub-Deb Coats

—Group of early spring coats of fine tweeds and woolens—with lovely fur collars or without! Marvelous coats for your vacation in mountains or the north—for your motor trip—and to begin next Fall!

—Simply must be cleared off our racks—and in the Month-End off they go at $10.75 and $19.75!

½ Price & Less

SUB-DEB SHOP
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Bags—Novelties

35 IMPORTED BEADED BAGS, usually $12.95 to $17.50. Imitation needlepoint and silk. Pouch shapes. To clear at	$5.95
REAL LEATHER BAGS, usually $2.95. Pouch and underarm shapes. Nicely lined and fitted	$1.69
ENAMELED CLOCKS, usually $9.95. Small shapes to use for traveling or boudoir. Gayly colored enamel	$2.95
FRENCH INITIALED LINEN KERCHIEFS, usually 39c to 59c. Printed colored borders—handrolled hems	29c
MEN'S LINEN AND SILK KERCHIEFS, usually $1.50 and $2. Handrolled hems. Printed colored borders	69c
CLEARANCE LEATHER AND SILK BAGS. Usually $5.95 to $15. Different colors. Slightly mussed from handling	$2.98

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Remnants Silks and Woolens

1 to 6-yd. lengths

15,000 YDS. SILK REMNANTS. Radiums, taffetas, georgettes, chiffons, printed silks and washable flat crepes and crepes de chine, plaid and checked taffetas	¼ to ⅓ OFF
WOOLEN REMNANTS. Flannels, spring coatings, wool plaid coatings, wool jerseys, serges, wool crepes	¼ to ⅓ OFF

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Antique Dept.

2-PC. SILK DAMASK LIVING ROOM SUITE. Formerly $380. Hairstuffed. Down-filled cushions. Copper-colored silk damask covered. Sale price	$255
FRENCH WALNUT CHAIR. Originally $129.75. Covered in fine needlepoint. Sale price	$86.50

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

Miss Junior Specials

MISS JUNIOR COATS. Formerly $9.95. Fine tweeds, in sizes 7 to 10. Only 12 to CLEAR!	$5
CLEARANCE BLOOMER FROCKS. Usually $1.65 to $1.95. Chambray, broadcloth, prints. Guaranteed fast. 7 to 10	$1
BROADCLOTH SHIRTS. Usually $1.95. In white only. Limited number in sizes. 8 to 10	$1
SATEEN AND CREPE BLOOMERS. Usually 95c. In pink and black. Mostly sizes 4 and 6. Few in 8 and 10....	50c

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Art Department

50 VELOUR PILLOWS. Usually $2.29 and $2.95. Oblong shapes. Blue, mulberry and brown	$1.39
10 WROUGHT IRON MAIL BOXES. Usually $3 and $4. Of wrought iron, natural color. Complete with key	$1.95
5 FLOOR LAMPS. Usually $29.95. Jr. floor lamps and bridge lamps, wrought iron stand, onyx base. With shade	$12.95
12 OSTRICH BOUDOIR PILLOWS. Usually $10. Oblong shapes. Colors, rose, apricot, white, green and orchid	$2
15 FLAPPER DOLLS. Usually $4.95. For living room or boudoir. Dresses in taffeta. Orchid, blue and rose	$2.95
25 PIECES MAJOLICA POTTERY. Usually $3 to $7.50. Candlesticks, comports, vases. Dellarobbia and Raphael designs	$1.95

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Men's Wear

450 MADRAS, PERCALE, BROADCLOTH SHIRTS. Usually $1.59. In solid colors and stripes. Broken sizes 14 to 17..........	69c
300 CHECKED NAINSOOK UNIONS. Usually 89c. Cut full and roomy. Elastic waistbands. 36 to 46	49c
18 LIGHTWEIGHT BATH ROBES. Usually $4.95. Striped materials. Large, medium and small sizes........................	$3.45
240 PR. PAJAMAS. Usually $1.79. Of madras and cotton pongee. Striped and figured All sizes	$1.19

MEN'S FURNISHINGS DEPT.
—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Sports Blouses—Sweaters

BROADCLOTH BLOUSES. Usually $1.95. Tuck-in and overblouses in blue, tan and white. Few vestees	$1
25 SLIP-OVER SWEATERS. Usually $2.95. Attractive summer colors. With and without collars	$1.95

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

BROAD-ALABAMA & FORSYTH STS.~PHONE WALNUT 4636

PUCCINI'S LAST WORK, BASED ON CHINESE FAIRY TALE, TONIGHT

Great Opera "Turandot" Climaxes Festivities

Tullio Serafin, premiere conductor of the Metropolitan Opera company, will conduct his third succeeding opera of the week Wednesday evening in his last appearance this season before the great stage at the auditorium, when Puccini's posthumous opera, "Turandot," will be staged in Atlanta for the first time the work has been seen in the country outside of New York.

The opera promises to be the high point of interest of the week and Atlanta society is expected to overflow the great auditorium to witness the event. The sensational young Canadian tenor, Edward Johnson, who will be heard here for the first time, is expected to receive a great ovation. Florence Easton will share honors with the tenor in the leading role of the Princess Turandot.

The directors, officials, and artists of the Metropolitan will be honored with a barbecue at Druid Hills, an event, which has been given during every opera season for 17 years. At this time hundreds of guests will take part in the old-fashioned barbecue in picnic fashion.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Inman will entertain with an informal dinner, preceding the opera, at which their guest, Mrs. Andrew Cooper, of Rome, Ga., will be the honor guest. A prominent event of the social calendar of the day will be the wedding of Miss Mary Palmer Caldwell to Robert Montford McFarland, Jr., which will be beautifully solemnized at the Westminster church this evening. Preceding the wedding, Miss Caldwell will be entertained at tea at the home of Mrs. Edward Cullen on Ridgecrest road. Dr. and Mrs. John Caldwell, the parents of the bride, will receive at their home following the wedding.

Tea and Supper-Dances.

Tea and supper-dances will assemble opera visitors before and after the performance of "Turandot." The Atlanta Biltmore will be the scene of an "al fresco" tea on the terrace at 4:30 o'clock and a supper-dance will be given in the ballroom of the hotel at 10:30 o'clock and from 11 to 1 o'clock the Athletic club will give a supper dance for opera visitors, stars and officials.

Vivid Fashion Show.

The double bill of "Gianni Schicchi" and "L'Amore dei Tre Re" might easily be called a triple bill for the fashion show in the boxes and thronging the aisle during the intermission was a spectacle demanding constant admiration. Rhinestones and crystals on sheer chiffon, which gowned the lavish display of southern beauty seated in the semi-circle of boxes were surpassed in brilliance by hte flashing of diamonds and the soft glow of rare pearls. Fans in striking designs added high lights of moving color to the scene.

The charming official hostess of the week, Mrs. H. M. Atkinson, wife of Mr. Atkinson, president of the Music Festival association, was the center of interest receiving artists and visitors in a constantly gathering stream. She was beautifully gowned in white satin and her flowers were orchids. Adding to the vivacious interest of the conversation in the box were Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson's guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Dick and Mr. and Mrs. James Goud, of New York.

Visitors Greeted.

Hundreds of visitors receiving greetings during the intermissions made this brief time but a moment filled with excited conversations.

The party of Mrs. J. R. Mobley was another point of gathering for promenaders. Her guest, Mrs. Russell Clapp, of Toledo, Ohio, and Mrs. Raymond Demere, of Savannah, were pictures of loveliness expressed in supressed colors in their chiffon frocks in pastel shades with shoulder bouquets of orchids.

Mrs. Ray Powers, of Paris, France, was a stunning figure drawing admiring glances in her costume of flesh colored chiffon trimmed in silver sequins. Mrs. Shelby Myrick, of Savannah, was another vision in soft shell color, dominated by gold trimmings.

The turquoise blue chiffon decorated with gleaming silver, which costumed Mrs. Ernest Dismukes, of Columbus, Ga., dominated a group of interested friends gathered in the lobby. Mrs. Helen Case, of St. Louis, was seen in flesh crepe with silver sequins. Another St. Louis visitor, who formed a picture of flower-like loveliness, was Mrs. Joseph Bray in hyacinth blue chiffon over pink satin.

Brilliant Costumes.

Amid the hum of conversation and the moving throng of gay colors, Mrs. James D. Robinson and her guest, her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Head, of Oklahoma City, were attractive figures. Silver and flesh color were featured in the costume of the charming visitor, while Mrs. James H. Caldwell, of New York, was resplendently gowned in orchid chiffon, silver trimmings blending with her exquisitely coiffed gray hair.

Another feted guest receiving homage was Mrs. James Alexander, of Chicago, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. William Akers had as their opera visitors, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peacock, of Cochran; Dr. and Mrs. George Cook, of Tampa, Fla., and William Murphy, of Savannah.

Miss Dorothy Clarke and Mrs. Sergeant Hamilton, of Washington, D. C., were the popular guests of Judge and Mrs. Nash Broyles. Mrs. Norwood Hastie, of Charleston, S. C., the attractive visitor of Mrs. Henry W. Davis, who has been showered with parties since her arrival, was handsomely gowned in a richly embroidered Parisian costume. Another outstanding visitor, who formed a focus for gathering friends was the charming Mrs. Alexander Revel, of Chicago.

Entertainment Showered.

In the orgy of entertainment were visitors entertaining other visitors. Mrs. George Armstrong and her beautiful daughter, Miss Lucy Armstrong, of Savannah, had as their guest, Mrs. Norton Davis, of Ocala, Fla., who was a brilliant figure in vermillion chiffon. Mrs. Leigh Palmer, of Washington, whom Atlanta society claims as its own, was a familiar figure in the milling crowds. Another favored Washington guest was Mrs. Howard Tucker. From historic old Richmond was a notable contribution in the charming presence of Mrs. Meriweather Jones. Two pretty cousins who claimed the attention of scores of friends were Mrs. Jack McFarlin, of Quincy, Fla., and Mrs. Harrison Jones, her hostess.

Mrs. Louis Stephens and Mrs. Henry Wortham, were two lovely matrons from Macon who are the guests of their sister, Mrs John D. Little.

WRINKLES AGE SIGNS Due to Skin Starvation

Now it has been discovered that wrinkles, crow's feet, flabby tissues and age signs are due to a starved condition of the skin. But now a wonderful new Tonic Creme—Golden Peacock Tonic Tissue Creme—has a stimulating effect on the skin. While you sleep it works its magic—arousing the sluggish, starved cells to new life.

Start using this splendid new food for starved skins—now, today. Unless it makes your skin soft and supple in ten days, your money will be refunded. At all good drug and department stores.

Created by The Paris Toilet Co., makers of the famous Golden Peacock Bleach Creme.

Golden Peacock TONIC TISSUE CREME

Let Us Finish Your Kodak Films

If you want good, clear, sharp film developing and bright, glossy prints send or bring your Kodak finishing to us. We give quick, careful service and work that is in by 9 A. M. is finished by 5 P. M. same day. Our line of films is complete and we specialize in Kodak enlarging and mail order finishing. Address mail orders to Desk F.

MUNN'S
Broad at Walton St

End Oily, Sallow Skin

A little Calonite powder sprinkled on a wet cloth and rubbed gently over the face each night ends shiny, oily skins—puts new life into sallow skin, and cleans the pores of all dust, dirt and prevents blackheads. It makes the skin feel refreshed and bright, so you [illegible] a good night's rest.—(adv.)

Miss Harper Honors Miss Anne Keeling.

Miss Anne Keeling, of Dallas, Texas, the guest of Miss Sue Brown Sterne, was honor guest at the exquisitely appointed luncheon given Tuesday by Miss Lucy Elizabeth Harper at her home on Fifteenth street.

The table was overlaid with a lace cover in the center of which was placed a low silver bowl of spring flowers.

Mrs. J. N. Harper assisted her daughter in entertaining. Eight guests were invited to meet Miss Sterne.

Miss Barbara Allen Weds R. H. F. Headley.

Atlantans are interested in the announcement made by Mrs. H. W. Allen, of Buford, of the marriage of her daughter, Barbara, to Robert Thomas French Headley, of Rochester, N. Y. The marriage was solemnized in Charlottesville, Va., Sunday in the presence of a few close friends.

The bride is a beautiful and charming young girl and although she never made a formal debut, she has enjoyed wide popularity since her school days. The bride received her education at Ogontz school in Philadelphia, further completing her studies in Washington. Her brother is Bona Allen, III.

Mr. Headley is a prominent young lawyer and was educated at the University of Virginia. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Headley, of Rochester.

The bride and groom will make their future home in Rochester, N. Y.

Admired Figure in the Brilliant Horseshoe

Lending the charm of her presence and occupying a box at grand opera every evening is Mrs. Harry L. English, one of the most beautiful members of Atlanta's exclusive society, whose likeness is pictured above. Her exquisite costumes have been admired at every performance given at the auditorium, as Mrs. English is noted for her perfection of taste in selecting sartorial effects most becoming to her ethereal type of blonde loveliness.

Mrs. Foote Gives Luncheon For Dr. and Mrs. Cook.

Dr. and Mrs. George Cook, of Tampa, Fla., guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Akers were honored by Mrs. W. O. Foote at luncheon Tuesday at the Henry Grady hotel.

Covers were placed for Dr. and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. William Akers, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Peacock, of Cochran; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Allen, William Murphey, of Savannah, and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Foote.

Mrs. Cumming Honored At Small Luncheon.

Mrs. Henry Cumming, of Augusta, the guest for opera of her sister, Mrs. Dillon Akers, was honor guest at luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. William Percy, at the Atlanta Athletic club.

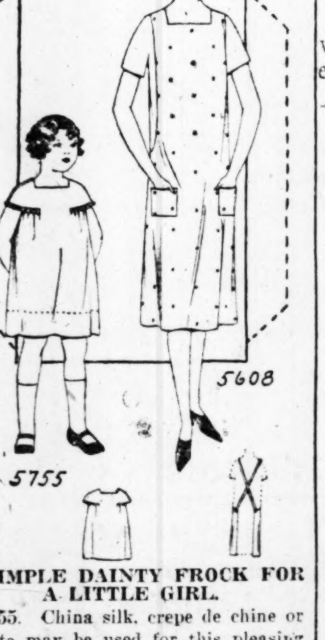
After luncheon the party was entertained at the matinee at the Erlanger theater.

Art Hostesses Are Entertained.

The following members of the Atlanta Art association have been invited to act as hostesses Wednesday, April 27, at the exhibition of etchings and paintings by Alfred Hutty, now on view at the High Museum of Art, 1032 Peachtree street: Mrs. Robert S. Parker, Mrs. Robert S. Pringle, Mrs. Dennie Peteet, Mrs. Mark Cooper Pope, Mrs. H. S. Wagner, Mrs. T. Guy Woolford.

Museum hours are from 10 to 4:30 o'clock on week days and 2 to 5 on Sundays.

The Constitution's Patterns



A SIMPLE DAINTY FROCK FOR A LITTLE GIRL.

5755. China silk, crepe de chine or batiste may be used for this pleasing model. Lace, chiffon pleating or embroidery will be attractive for decoration.

The pattern is cut in four sizes: 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. A 4-year size will require 1 5-8 yards of 32-inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

A SIMPLE APRON STYLE.

5608. Unbleached muslin, percale, linen, gingham and chintz are attractive for this design. Binding in a contrasting color or rickrack braid may be used for trimming.

The pattern is cut in four sizes: Small, medium, large and extra large. A medium size will require 2 1-4 yards of 27-inch material.

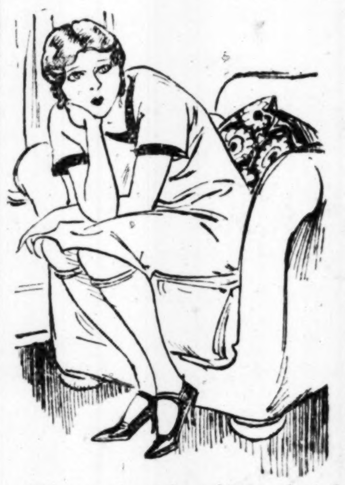
Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date spring and summer 1927 book of fashions.

In ordering patterns write name and address plainly on a sheet of paper. Order by number and include price in silver or stamps. Do not mail letter to The Constitution building in Atlanta, but address as follows: Fashion Department, The Constitution, 11-13 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

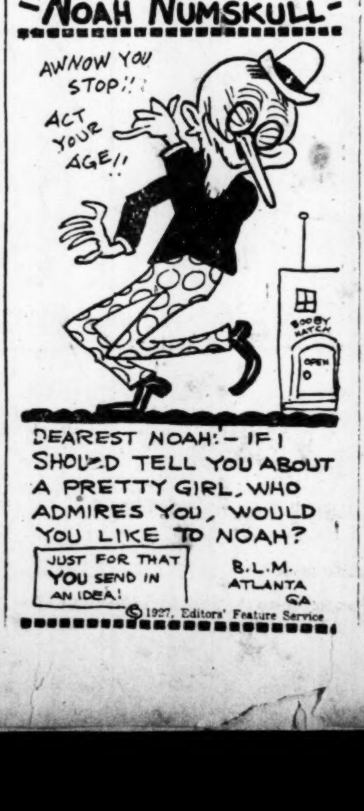
Kitty McKay

By Nina Wilcox Putnam



"I've got spring fever, but I won't take anything for it—I enjoy that kind of poor health."

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

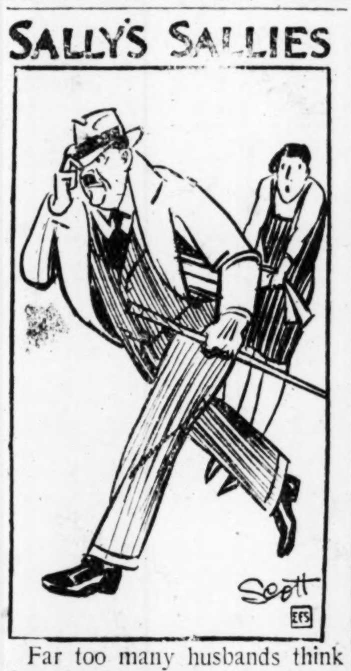


-NOAH NUMSKULL-
AWNOW YOU STOP!!
ACT YOUR AGE!!
BOOBY HATCH
OPEN
DEAREST NOAH!—IF I SHOULD TELL YOU ABOUT A PRETTY GIRL, WHO ADMIRES YOU, WOULD YOU LIKE TO NOAH?
JUST FOR THAT YOU SEND IN AN IDEA!
B.L.M. ATLANTA GA
© 1927, Editors' Feature Service

Euzelian Class Presents Play.

The Euzelian class of Gordon Street Baptist church will present a play, "Old Maids' Club," Tuesday evening, May 10, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Lucile Avenue school. The proceeds are to go for the church building fund. Admission is 15 and 25 cents.

Those taking part are Miss Nell Aldridge, Elsie Babb, Genelle Cartledge, Jewell Cofield, Lenus Daniell, Ruby Mae Driver, Evelyn Eason, Thelma Harbin, Ruby Lockett, Lorene Askew, Julia Mitchell, Mary Alice Mitchell, Lucy Stevens, Miss Katherine Swint, Mildred Womack, Velma Peek, Elsie Peek and Misses Mae Bullock and Elizabeth Norris, violinists.



Far too many husbands think they should get time off for good behavior.

Every Day
Aching Feet
Impair Your Health

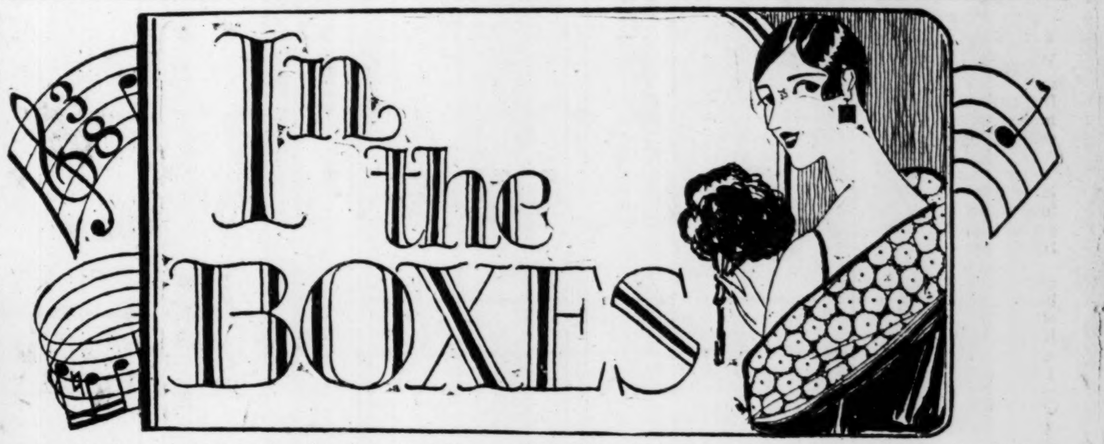
Why should one walk on their feet every day and suffer the pain and discomfort, all of which may be caused by one of the small bones in the foot being out of its normal position, from the above cause. You can have instant relief by consulting our Foot Specialist and have your feet examined and the proper appliance fitted to correct the cause.

EXAMINATION FREE
Wizard System

R. A. PARKER
Orthoprazic Foot Specialist
(Private Dept.)

Stewart

FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.



Atlanta society and prominent visitors will gather in gorgeous array to witness the Metropolitan's magnificent performance, "Turandot," at the auditorium this evening. Seated in the horseshoe of boxes that encircle the arena will be a representative group of the flower of southern society and their guests, who will add a special charm to this brilliant occasion.

The entire auditorium will present a gay and festive scene when the curtain rises on the first brilliant double bill of the 1927 musical festival season. Magnificent gowns, colorful shawls and exquisite flowers will give a note of beauty to this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morell Atkinson will have in their box Lucrezia Bore, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Dick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry English and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Johnson will share a box together.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hinman, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rawson will be in a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nunnally and Mr. and Mrs. John Hill will be seen in a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen, Jr., of Buford, Ga., will have as honor guests in their box, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Pennino, of Havana, Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dozier Little will have in their box Mrs. Louis Stevens, and Mrs. H. M. Wortham, of Macon.

In Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dobbs' box will be Mrs. Mildred Dobbs Howard and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maddox and Dr. and Mrs. Dunbar Roy will occupy a box together.

Mr. and Mrs. William Akers will entertain in their box their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. George Cook, of Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peacock, of Cochran, Ga., and William Murphy, of Savannah.

Mrs. George Ferguson Armstrong, of Savannah, will have in her box, Mrs. Lorton Davis, of Ocala, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Inman, Miss Lucy Armstrong, and Iva Davis.

Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith's guests will be Mrs. Charles R. Crisp, of Americus, Ga., and Mrs. William C. Wright, of Newnan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Payne will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant will have as guests in their box, Mrs. Richard Wilmer, of Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, Jr., and James Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. DeGive will entertain in their box, Miss Eleanor Langley, of New York; Miss Pauline De Give, Murray Shoun and Henry De Give, Jr.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. Ten Eyck Brown will have as their guests Miss Maria Brown, and Thomas Blake, of Boston, Mass.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacDougald will have as their guest Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacDougald.

J. J. Haverty will entertain in his box Dr. and Mrs. Lon W. Grove, and Miss May Haverty.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Preston Arkwright, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lanier, of West Point, Ga., their house guests.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Francis Herreshoff will entertain Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Martin will entertain in their box Mr. and Mrs. John K. Ottley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhodes will entertain in their box Miss Josephine Crawford, and Miss Constance Adams.

In a box will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Robinson, Mrs. Arthur Head, of Oklahoma City and Mrs. William McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenn O. Stone will have with them in their box Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Newell and Mr. and Mrs. Thresher Ames Rippey, Jr.

In a box will be Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Porter, Mr. and Mrs. B. Graham West, and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Wimings.

Mrs. George Armstrong will entertain in her box her daughter, Miss Lucy Armstrong and others.

Miss Martha Murdock Weds W. W. Beaupre In Anderson, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jones, of Decatur, announce the marriage of their neice, Miss Martha Murdock, to William W. Beaupre. The wedding ceremony was performed in Anderson, S. C., Saturday, April 23, at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Beaupre is a charming young woman of exceptional blond beauty and has a voice of rare sweetness, and is the granddaughter of Mrs. W. K. Shepard and a cousin of Miss Elizabeth Jones.

Mr. Beaupre is a former resident of St. Louis, having been in Atlanta only a year and a half. He is a grandson of Colonel Beaupre, the inventor of naval cannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaupre expect to make their home in Atlanta.

Miss Grier To Wed Samuel Woods In Decatur Thursday

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Isabel Barbara Grier to Samuel Baker Woods Thursday evening, April 28, at the Decatur Presbyterian church.

Miss Grier is a daughter of Dr. Nettie Grier, a missionary to Suchowfu, China, and Miss Grier herself has been a missionary in the same field. She is a cousin of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. McCain, of Agnes Scott college, and is at present visiting them. Mr. Woods is a son of Rev. Henry Woods, D. D., who also has been a missionary to China for many years. It was on the foreign mission field that these young people became acquainted. Mr. Woods is now in business in Charlotte, N. C.

Several complimentary entertainments are planned for the wedding party. Mrs. J. R. McCain is giving a luncheon at her home on South Candler street for the bride and her attendants Thursday noon. Misses Mary and Emily Ramage are giving a dinner to the wedding party after the rehearsal on Wednesday evening. Misses Lucy and Elizabeth Grier, sisters of the bride and students at Agnes Scott college, will give a reception to all the wedding guests at the alumnae house on the campus after the ceremony Thursday evening.

IZAAK WALTON LEAGUE TO MEET AT DECATUR

Izaak Walton League of DeKalb county will hold its monthly meeting at the Decatur courthouse next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. R. E. Wager, of Emory university faculty, who is president of the league, will have charge of the meeting.

State Forester B. M. Lufburrow, who will be present, will address the meeting on the meaning of national forest week. Dr. Wager will explain the league's part in the preservation of wild life throughout the country. Three reels of animal pictures will be shown.

Springtime Brings an Awakening of the Garden and the Forest

With it comes a renewed interest in society—in life. The wise hostess will take inventory of her silverware at this time, and see that it is ample to meet any occasion.

Allow your jeweler to advise you on enlarging your collection. His counsel is sound, experienced, and free. His new spring stocks of silverware are complete and include many new items never displayed before. With his aid you may keep your silverware up to date, modern, correct.

The Atlanta Retail Jewelers' Association

Twenty of Atlanta's Leading Jewelers

Opera Notes and Sidelights

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

The coming of the Metropolitan Opera company to Atlanta this year will bring one of the best of Richard Wagner's operas to be sung in German and will bring with it the Atlanta debut of Walther Kirchoff, hailed as one of the greatest of modern German singers.

Kirchoff will sing the title role in "Lohengrin" and as he has spent a large part of his life mastering the intricacies of German opera he is expected to give this role one of its finest presentations here.

"A singer to handle one of Wagner's outstanding roles as it ought to be handled must devote many years of his life to study and hard work," Kirchoff said Tuesday. "In the first act of 'Lohengrin' there are about 1,000 bars of music and as there are about three words to a bar you can realize how much detailed work must be done to master the tones."

Kirchoff was a member of the German army during the world war, serving as a captain of cavalry and later being transferred to the infantry. He paid a great tribute to the ability of Americans as soldiers.

Mr. Kirchoff will sing one more engagement in this country at Cleveland during the first week in May and will then leave for his home in Berlin.

High praise for Lawrence Tibbett came Tuesday from a fellow member of the Metropolitan Opera company who knows what he is talking about. The praiser was Giuseppe DeLuca, who has sung on numerous occasions the same role Tibbett sang Monday night in "La Traviata."

"You sang that role perfectly," DeLuca told Tibbett Tuesday.

Members of the corps de ballet of the Metropolitan company are almost to a girl, young, ambitious and good looking. The girls are hard workers and have perfected the intricate dances with marvelous ability.

The girls are popular with all members of the company and with numerous Atlanta opera lovers and are coming in for all kinds of social attentions at the Biltmore. They will appear in a special dance on the Biltmore lawn Thursday night in the "Venetian Fete," which will be the outstanding social entertainment given by the Music Festival association during the local engagement.

Armand Tokatyan, Armenian tenor, is the "Beau Brummell' of the Metropolitan Opera company and could get a fine job after his opera days posing for clothing advertisements. He and Beniamino Gigli apparently are close rivals in haberdashery and both make frequent appearances on the Biltmore terrace in modern modes which ought to excite the envy of the Prince of Wales.

Edward Johnson, famous American tenor, will sing the leading male role in "Turandot" Wednesday night. He is one American singer who has won international success without using a foreign name for his professional work. Mr. Johnson said it is better for an opera singer to use a foreign name.

"The American people somehow or other mistrust the ability of a singer who has no foreign name."

He said if he had his career to live over again he would call himself "Edoardo di Giovanni" even in his native Canada.

Extra, extra—Louise Hunter, popular little soprano, had a picture made by Kenneth Rogers, Constitution photographer, at the Biltmore hotel Tuesday and she did not smile.

"That's the first and last one I'll have taken without smiling as I always smile for sheer joy of being in Atlanta," she explained.

Our 41st Anniversary
and
Second Anniversary Sale
Begins Thursday, April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS
no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

SHOPPING GUIDE

Where to Dine—

Tea Rooms

POLLY'S TEA ROOM
Boulevard at Ponce de Leon
FRIED CHICKEN DINNER 50c
Choice of two vegetables, head lettuce, strawberry short cake, coffee.

THE ELITE TEA ROOM
141 Sycamore St., Decatur
Palatable foods delightfully served. Chicken dinner Sundays. Delicious desserts. Special orders served, 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.
"It's All Home Cooking—Delicious"

Business Announcements

Music

ATLANTA CONSERVATORY
The Foremost School of Music in the South
Advantages Equal to Those Anywhere
GEO. F. LINDNER, Director,
Peachtree and Broad Sts.
Atlanta, Georgia

Cakes and Candies

Think of Mother With a Box of HOME-MADE CAKE OR CANDY FROM MRS. F. B. REESE
140 Arcade—IVy 0903

GARDNER'S FAMOUS CAKES
"As Good as You Can Bake"
ALWAYS FRESH
Old Virginia Pound Cake.
Light fruit "containing nuts and fruit."
One pound 6 ounces, three layer family cake, all flavors.
Butter sponge, square and round.
Black Walnut, white iced.
Phone your grocer for your Sunday cake. If he does not carry them phone us and we will deliver your requirements through him.
MAYS DISTRIBUTING CO.
IVy 2466 12 Peters St. IVy 2466

Beauty Culture

FORSYTH BEAUTY SHOPPE
Best steam permanent; modern appliances and quality work.
600 FORSYTH BLDG. IVy 4331

STRASSER'S BEAUTY SHOP
Nestle circuline wave, safest and most scientific of processes, Marinello treatments and manicures. IVy 0271.

Wearing Apparel

CHARIS

The most important addition to women's garment in years. The one thing that will enable you to go without a regular corset and yet improve your figure and have the vital support every woman needs, no matter how slender she may be. For stout women Charis is indispensable. The marvelous, adjustable, one-piece garment is so light in weight you won't know you have it on. It keeps the abdomen flat and helps reduce it. And gives a smooth, straight line from bust to knee. Costs little, but is priceless in comfort and body freedom. Demonstrations cheerfully given in your own home. Phone WAlnut 7964.
CHARIS SHOPPE
607-9 Georgia Savings Bank Bldg.
Atlanta, Georgia
Come to Office for Fitting
We can add a few women of refinement to our organization—Where territory is open.

Spring Fashion is informally Tailored. Let "Arnone, the Ladies' Tailor," make your tailored apparels now. Fur trimmings. 325 Peachtree St., cor. Ivy St.

House Furnishings

Pianos

CABLE PIANO CO.
The beauty and charm of a Baby Grand Piano adds dignity to the home.
Mason & Hamlin Pianos
84 North Broad

Undecorated Furniture

HUGHES WOOD TURNING CO.
Unfinished furniture, hand-painted and decorated; wood novelties. 912 Lake avenue, N. E. WAlnut 1418.

Where Society Gathers To-Day

TURANDOT

Andte sostenuto ♩= 40
Mosso
fff
m.s.
Ped.

The posthumous opera of Giacomo Puccini, "Turandot," will be sung in Italian at the auditorium at 8 o'clock by the Metropolitan Opera company, Tullio Serafin conducting.

The seventeenth annual barbecue will be given at the Druid Hills Country club in honor of the directors, officials and artists of the Metropolitan Opera company and the officials of the Music Festival association.

There will be an opera supper-dance at the Atlanta Athletic club from 11 to 1 o'clock honoring members of the Metropolitan company.

The wedding of Miss Mary Palmer Caldwell to Robert Montford McFarland, Jr., will be solemnized at the Westminster church this evening. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Caldwell.

There will be an opera tea-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

There will be an opera supper-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore at 10:30 o'clock this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Inman will entertain at an informal dinner preceding the opera in compliment to her guest, Mrs. Andrew Cooper, of Rome.

Mrs. Ben Hall will entertain at a bridge-tea in honor of Miss Clare Louise Scott and Miss Marion Hull, two popular spring brides-elect.

Mrs. Adelaide Howell Bower will entertain at a swimming party at the home of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell, Jr., on West Pace's Ferry road, in compliment to her niece, Miss Adelaide Howell, of Gainesville, Ga.

Mrs. Claude Williamson and Mrs. Fred Nesbit will entertain at a bridge-luncheon at the East Lake Country club in compliment to Mrs. Charles A. Nesbit, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Black will entertain in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Argyle Parsons, of New York, and Mrs. Lamar Rucker, of Athens, at the Druid Hills barbecue.

Mrs. James Ragan will entertain at luncheon at 1:30 o'clock at her home on Inman circle.

Mrs. Walter Elliott will be hostess at a luncheon at the Biltmore in honor of Miss Anne Keeling, of Dallas, Texas, the guest of Miss Sue Browne Sterne.

Mrs. Richard Johnson will entertain at tea at 4:30 o'clock at her home on Wesley road, complimenting Mrs. Louis Stevens and Mrs. Henry Wortham, of Macon, who are the guests of Mrs. John D. Little.

MEXICANS AGAIN ACCUSE CATHOLICS OF TRAIN ATTACK

Mexico City, April 26.—(AP)—Having defeated an attack on the Juarez-Mexico City train Sunday morning, and routed in a five-hour battle the outlaws who committed the Guadalajara train outrage a week ago, federal forces today continued a vigorous campaign against rebels in the state of Jalisco.

It was stated that President Calles has received many messages of support from many parts of the country with offers to fight for the government against the "Catholic rebellion," which the government again charged was responsible for the recent train attack.

A government statement said that the brave fight of soldiers in a military train which preceded the Juarez-Mexico City train prevented an assault that might have equalled the Guadalajara attack which caused the deaths of about 100 persons. The statement says that the most recent attack also was "organized by the Catholic episcopate and led by Catholic extremists."

Military trains carrying machine guns, are traveling ahead of some of the most important passenger trains and all other trains have increased guards of federal soldiers to prevent or defeat further attacks.

Today's statement declared that the Guadalajara outlaws had been defeated in a five-hour battle at El Guitarrero valley in the state of Jalisco and that 60 members of the band were killed. The statement added that the rebels were commanded by "the Catholic priests, Vaga and Aguila." The fate of these men was not stated.

Blood Test To Tell Paternity of Child Is Denied by Judge

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Galesburg, Ill., April 26.—County Judge Riley E. Stephens this afternoon refused to order a blood test as a means of determining paternity of a child. Motion for the test was made by attorney for John Doubet, 25, Maquon farmer, who denies charges brought by Miss Mabel Shaffer, 18, that he is the father of her 18-months-old daughter.

DETECTIVES GUARDING EMORY DORMITORIES

With the recent epidemic of burglaries on and about the campus of Emory university, detectives have been placed on guard by order of President Harvey W. Cox. Two rooms in Dobbs dormitory were robbed Monday as a climax to the series of daylight depredations.

Mrs. Dobbs Gives Perpetual Scholarship to Tallulah

Mrs. Samuel Candler Dobbs, of Atlanta and Lakemont, whose donation of a $2,000 perpetual scholarship to Tallulah Industrial school, is announced by Mrs. Bolling Jones, chairman of perpetual scholarships for the school for the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, which owns and maintains this individual school, where Georgia's underprivileged mountain children receive an education. Photograph by Thurston Hatcher.

Mrs. Bolling Jones, chairman of perpetual scholarships for Tallulah Industrial school, announces the gift of a $2,000 perpetual scholarship for Tallulah by Mrs. Samuel Candler Dobbs, which will be called the Mary Ruth Dobbs scholarship, named for the generous donor.

Remarkable School.

This remarkable school, located on the side of Cherokee mountain at Tallulah, and where underprivileged mountain children have received their education for 17 years, is owned and maintained by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, the only organization in the country which sponsors such a project. Mrs. Dobbs has a summer home at Lakemont, just over the mountains, and only about ten miles from the school, in which she has become deeply interested during her residence at Lakemont, paying regular visits to the school, learning at first hand the worthiness of its purpose. Her magnanimous deed will enable boys and girls whose homes lie in the fastness of the Blue Ridge mountains, shut off from contact with the outside world, to enjoy educational advantages for time immemorial.

National Commendation.

Tallulah Industrial school has won national commendation and recognition, and is considered one of the most individual institutions in the United States. It is maintained for children of mountaineers, representative of the purest Anglo-Saxon blood in America. Besides the endowment, made possible through such unselfish gifts like that of Mrs. Dobbs, who is prominently known in Atlanta, some of the school's revenue is derived from handcrafts, taught by the school. Exhibits of basketry, weaving, carving, hand-sewing and other specimens of handcraft, the work of the pupils, has won favorable comment in practically every large city in the country where the exhibits have been shown.

Mrs. John K. Ottley, of Atlanta, is president of the board of Tallulah trustees, while Mrs. A. P. Brantley, of Blackshear, is president of the Georgia federation, with Mrs. Bolling Jones state chairman of perpetual scholarships.

Cinderella Children's Shoppe
116-118 PEACHTREE ARCADE
GENUINE BY-LO DOLLS
NON-BREAKABLE AND CHINA HEADS
Regular $3.95 size, special.......$2.95
Regular $5.50 size, special.......$3.95
Regular $7.95 size, special.......$5.95

20% Discount
ON 65 Persian Chinese RUGS
All Sizes
Opera Week Only
Y. H. Shahbaz & Sons
ORIENTAL RUG SHOP
246 Peachtree St. IVy 5117

Shah Abbes
The Great
1596-1628

ROTARY CHOOSES CHARLOTTE MAN

Spartanburg, S. C., April 26.—(AP)—Dave Clark, of Charlotte, was unanimously chosen as the nominee for the governorship of the fifty-eighth district of Rotary International for 1928, and Charlotte was selected as the place for the 1928 conference at the final business meeting of the 1927 conference here this morning.

Mr. Clark was elected nominee for the office and his election is to officially take place at the international conference at Ostend, Belgium. His unanimous election as nominee was confirmed when the secetary of the conference was instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the assembly. The unanimous selection of Charlotte as the place of the next conference followed closely upon Mr. Clark's election.

Orangeburg then put the conference on notice that it would be invited next year to hold is 1929 meeting in that city.

The registration committee reported a total of 235 men and 152 women registered for the conference, a grand total of 387 Rotarians and Rotary-Anns.

The chairman of the credentials committee reported that 27 of the 28 clubs in the district are represented with a total of 55 electoral votes.

LEAGUE ARMS MEETING CLOSES

Geneva, Switzerland, April 26.—(AP) The preparatory disarmament commission adjourned tonight without fulfilling its allotted task of preparing a draft treaty for the reduction of armaments. In the opinion of President Loudon, voiced in his valedictory address, the destiny of disarmaments now definitely depends upon the power of public opinion and the will of the governments to negotiate agreements on the great unsettled issue.

M. Loudon declared that the commission's work in the last five weeks had demonstrated that a successful disarmament conference is practically assured in the future and believed that the forthcoming economic conference and the three-power naval conference would prepare the way for a resumption of the discussion, which he hoped would be about November 1.

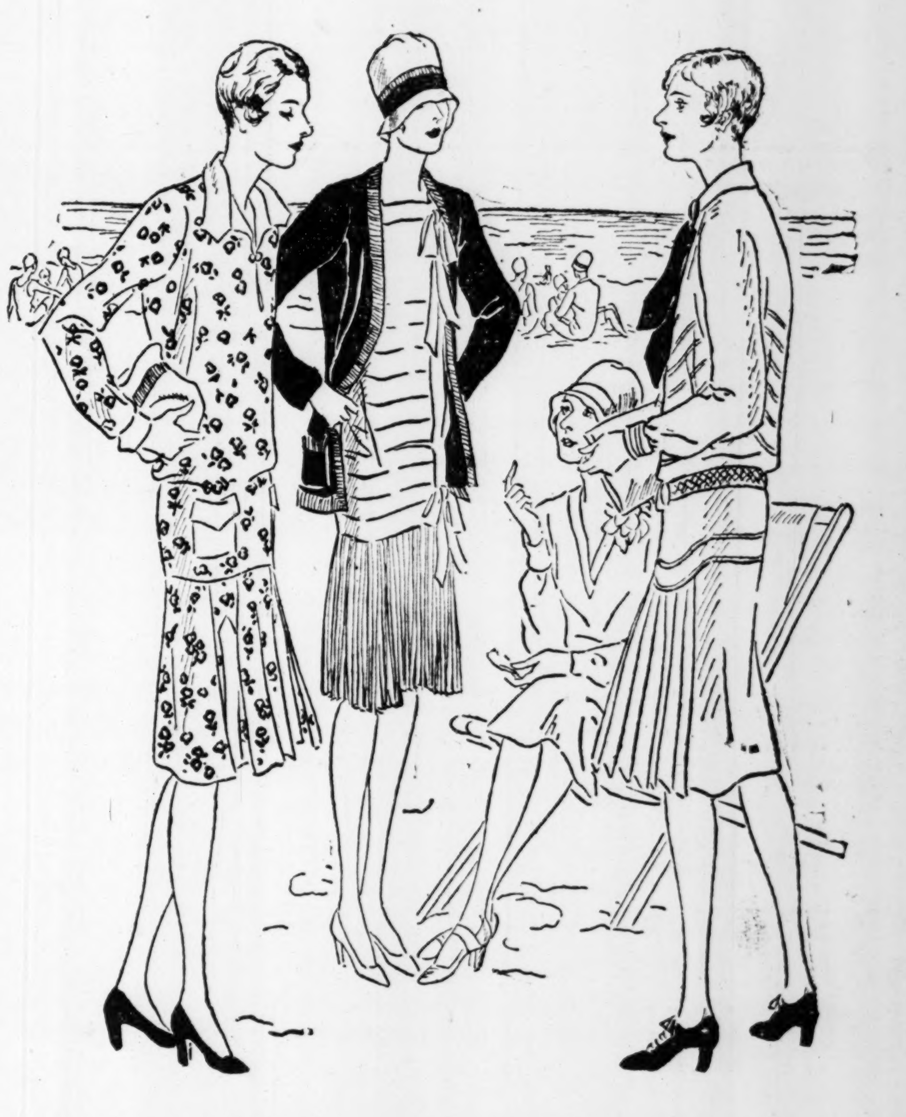
In the meantime the report goes to the council and the assembly of the League of Nations for action. The only two major points on which an accord has been reached are the decisions to limit military effectives and air forces, though both the United States and Great Britain have made reservations on the failure to limit trained reserves.

Indeed, the whole document is so dotted with reservations of the various delegations that practically the entire problem will have to be reconsidered on the occasion of its second reading. The outstanding difficulty is the break over the method of naval limitation, which the three-power conference may help to repair.

President Loudon, of the disarmament commission, today referred to the Washington naval conference as the first step toward stopping the naval construction race. Experts are of the opinion that the participation of France in the tripartite conference would clarify the British attitude. They think that Great Britain may hesitate to accept a scheme of limitation by categories of warships if France remains silent or adheres rigidly to her policy of freedom in the allocation of the total French tonnage.

It is understood that the plan is to frame a convention which would be binding on the United States, Great Britain and Japan only so long as France and Italy do not exceed a fixed tonnage in cruisers, destroyers and submarines.

"Regenstein's Smart Styles"
300 New Frocks
Just Arrived



Flowered Chiffons—Figured Georgettes
Georgettes—Romanettes
Printed Silks—Flat Crepes

$15.00 $18.00 $19.75

DRESSES with a style to them. Dresses with a snap to them. Dresses with a clever cut to them. Dresses for the sophisticate. Dresses for the debutante. Dresses for the business woman. Never was there such a collection. Never were there dresses so absolutely irresistible to you. For your every waking hour. For your every whim and need. In spring's newest styles—in advance summer styles. And best of all are the low prices.

Apparel Dept.—Second Floor

REGENSTEIN'S
"55 Years in Atlanta"

Yellow Jackets Rout Moss to Beat Vandy, 10 to 3

Boys' High Trounces T. H. S. Smithies, 27-3

Purple Nine Enjoys Big Day at Bat, Collecting 22 Hits—Two Games This Afternoon.

BY BEN COTHRAN.

BOYS' HIGH proved its adroitness if nothing else Tuesday afternoon at Spiller's when the scheduled baseball game between Tech High and the Purple turned into an affair which some bright soul dubbed the "Tech High-Boys' High relays." Taking first in most of the events, Boys' High won by the overwhelming score of 27 to 3.

Gabe Tolbert, head coach at Tech High, got one consoling thought out of the affair. "My outfielders won the marathon, anyhow," he said, laughing it off. Considering the fact that the Purple got 22 hits, a number of them for extra bases, and the way the Smithie fielders were blowing when they came in, Gabe wasn't so far wrong at that.

The Boys' High outfit should have enough revenge to last it until next year, after Tuesday's rout. It was the second time the two had met in baseball, and Tech High won the first encounter, 5-4, in a good game.

Boys' High had two bad innings, the fourth and seventh, when no runs were chalked up. The fourth was the worst, for in this frame the Purple batters went down in one-two-three order, the only time such a thing happened to them during the whole game.

Ten errors by the Smithies, four of them by Davis in the first two innings, got Boys' High off to a good start. Just to prove what can sometimes happen in a prep baseball game, Boys' High scored nine runs in two innings on a total of three hits—aided by six errors on behalf of the Smithies.

After those two innings Boys' High settled down to banging out the rest of its 22 hits, getting 10 or 12 men at bat in one inning—from the scorers—and having a big time generally.

Leak Donehoo, called "Chicken" by his teammates, brought himself out of a two weeks' slump Tuesday afternoon. Out of six trips to the plate this stocky youngster got three hits, two of them doubles. He scored three runs. While behind the plate he played a good game, stopping Breezy Winn's fast ones without letting any go by him.

White, Smithie third baseman, played the best and partly the worst game for his side. At bat White was good, getting three hits out of four at bat, one of them a double. He made three miscues in the field, having been shifted from third to shortstop. However, these were partly made up for with some good stops in the latter part of the game.

Breezy Winn, he of the moustache, who pitches for the Purple, had a good time in the box. Twelve Smithie batsmen faced him, and were whiffed. Two free passes were issued by this stocky hurler.

How It All Started.

Boys' High started on its scoring jag when Davis, of the Smithies, heaved the ball about ten feet over Whitney's head, trying to catch Hardin at first. McGaughey grounded out to short. Then Howell knocked one to Davis, who climbed to a higher altitude on this throw, and by the time Whitney got the ball, Hardin had scored and Howell was nearing third. Not to be outdone by Davis, Whitney threw to third and the ball almost landed in the bleachers.

And so it went throughout the game.

It seems the manager of the Smithies passed out about the seventh inning, overwrought with grief at the sight of his team's downfall.

Two games are on tap for today in the prep loop. The University-Commercial High game, scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, will be played this afternoon at Grant park. The G. M. A. cadets will meet Marist on the Marist diamond.

The Box Score.

BOYS HIGH—	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Baldwin, 1b.	7	4	3	6	0	0
Hardin, 2b.	5	1	0	3	0	0
Blustein, rf.	2	1	0	0	0	0
McGaughey, 3b.	6	2	1	1	1	0
Howell, cf.	6	3	2	3	0	0
Winn, p.	5	3	2	0	14	0
Matthews, lf.	5	2	2	0	0	1
Reagan	7	3	4	2	0	1
Bright, rf.-2b.	7	2	3	0	2	0
Donehoo	6	3	3	12	3	0
Wynne, lf.	1	2	1	0	0	0
xReeder	1	1	1	0	0	0
Totals	58	27	22	27	20	2

TECH HIGH—	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Palmer, cf.	3	0	2	2	0	0
Hutt, rf.	4	0	0	1	0	1
Whitley, lf.	4	0	0	1	0	0
White, 3b.-ss.	4	1	3	6	1	3
Whitney, 1b.	4	0	0	8	0	1
Hammond, c.	3	0	0	6	1	0
Brown, c.	1	0	0	2	1	1
Chandler, 2b.	4	1	1	1	3	0
Davis, ss.-3b.	2	1	1	0	3	4
Wells, 3b.	1	0	1	0	0	0
Pugh, p.	2	0	0	0	4	0
Tucker, p.	1	0	0	0	4	0
Wade, p.	1	0	0	0	1	0
Totals	34	3	8	27	18	10

xHit for Howell in ninth.

Score by innings: R.
Boys' High ....272 014 047—27
Tech High ....001 200 000— 3

Summary: Two-base hits, Howell, Donehoo 2, White, Palmer; three-base hits, Howell, Matthews, Winn; stolen bases, Baldwin, Hardin, McGaughey, Matthews, Reagan; sacrifice hit, Donehoo; left on bases, Boys' High 10, Tech High 5; first base on balls, off Pugh 4, off Tucker 2, off Winn 2; struck out, by Winn 12, by Pugh 4, by Tucker 2, by Wade 2; hits, off Pugh 7 in 5 2-3 innings, off Tucker 7 in 2 innings, off Wade 8 in 1 1-3 innings; hit by pitcher, by Winn (Palmer); passed balls, Hammond 3, Brown; winning pitcher, Winn; losing pitcher, Pugh. Umpire, Weatherly. Time, 2:40.

California

All the Charm of the West

Yellowstone

Opens June 19.

Via West Yellowstone, only rail entrance directly on Park boundary. World's greatest geysers, canyons, lakes, waterfalls, greatest wild animal refuge. Nature's weirdest spectacle. Through Pullmans. See Colorado, Ogden, Salt Lake City, en route.

is to be found in California. World ports, metropolitan cities, lofty mountains, seashore, Yosemite, Sequoia (Big Trees), movies in the making, gay beaches, Spanish missions, orange groves—delightful days, cool nights.

Starting May 15 and June 1

LOW Summer Fares to All the West

Many Fine Fast Trains Daily from CHICAGO and ST. LOUIS

Let our travel experts, who have visited these regions, tell you how, at surprisingly low cost, you can visit one or as many of the great western wonderlands as you choose on one Union Pacific tour.

Colorado

Rocky Mountain National Park—our nearest mountain playground. Friendly mountains nearly three miles high, wild animals, wild flowers, wonderful trails, fine fishing. Inexpensive accommodations. Many daily trains during summer season from Chicago and St. Louis.

Zion and Grand Canyon Nat'l Parks

America's greatest combination scenic tour—includes Kaibab Forest, Bryce Canyon, Cedar Breaks. This newest, most colorful and enchanting vacationland is now easy of access by rail. Through Pullmans to Cedar City, the Gateway All-Expense tours. Excellent accommodations. Opens June 1.

MAIL COUPON

ADDRESS 201
W. C. Elgin, General Agent
Union Pacific System
1232 Healey Bldg., Phone Walnut 5163
Atlanta, Ga.

Send without charge information and booklets on California ☐ Zion-Grand Canyon National Parks ☐ Yellowstone ☐ Colorado ☐ Pacific Northwest and Alaska ☐ All-Expense Escorted Tours ☐ Dude Ranches ☐

Name
Address
City.............State

Pacific Northwest and Alaska

To see Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Vancouver, Victoria, Rainier, Mt. Hood, Columbia River, Puget Sound, is a never-to-be-forgotten pleasure. Fine daily trains from Chicago and St. Louis.

Escorted All-Expense Tours to Zion-Grand Canyon National Parks Yellowstone, Colorado California Pacific Northwest and Alaska Ask about them

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

THE OVERLAND ROUTE

718

OVERLAND ROUTE

Plans Being Completed For Field Day

Many Features Make Up Program at Fort McPherson May 15.

Plans are shaping up for the big Vets field day at Fort McPherson, which will be held May 15. This program is being sponsored by the fort authorities through the co-operation of General H. O. Williams, the post commander, and Colonel George F. Baltzell, the commander of the Twenty-second Infantry. Every assistance has been given the veterans to put on the program, which is being staged to raise funds to send the delegation to El Paso in June. Lieutenant John Weckerling, athletic officer of the Twenty-second Infantry, is directly in charge.

The big feature of the day will no doubt be the appearance of Bobby Jones. When asked to participate, Bob thought the best idea would be to let O. B. Keeler drive a few and he himself make a speech. Realizing what a feature this would be and to give Bob a chance before a very large jury, Lieutenant Weckerling accepted this proposition immediately. While this would no doubt help Bob in his pursuit of legal training, it is thought that more people would probably come out to the fort if they were sure that he was hitting a few.

BUTTS COUNTY BUYS ROAD MACHINERY

Jackson, Ga., April 26.—(Special.) The board of commissioners of Butts county has recently bought a new tractor and a new road machine, the equipment having arrived during the week. The new machinery will be used in grading the Jackson and Indian Springs highway, and in working the various lateral roads in the county.

$6

Sixteen Styles!

MEN you'll like Stewart's Six Dollar oxfords. Made for wear and looks and a fit in every pair!

Men's Dept.

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY

8 W. Alabama St.

FRED S. STEWART CO. — 25 Whitehall St.

Cobb, Weak and Old, Beats Sox by Himself

Peach Scores Two Runs, Steals Home and Ends Game With Unassisted Double Execution.

BOSTON, April 26.—(AP)—Ty Cobb turned back the hands of time 10 years at Fenway park today.

Ten years ago, when Bill Carrigan was piloting a championship Red Sox team, the "Georgia Peach," then top man for the Detroit Tigers, drew keen enjoyment in upsetting the Hosemen at every opportunity.

Today, with Carrigan again at the helm, Cobb came to Fenway park in a Philadelphia uniform and worried the Sox clean out of a ball game. He made three hits, a double and two singles, and stole home just when the act would fluster the faltering Boston team the most.

He drove in two runs, he scored two himself, and to cap the climax he ended the game with a double play unassisted.

That last play was the gem of the day. There was only one out. Ira Flagstead was on second and Jacobson was on first when Phil Todt poked a Texas leaguer into short right field. Cobb raced in, scooped the ball right off the grass blades, dashed to first ahead of the lagging Jacobson and the last Boston chance was gone.

Connie Mack's rehabilitated Athletics overcame a six-run Boston lead to down the Red Sox, 9 to 8. The Athletics used 20 players.

WHITE SOX SWAMP TIGERS.

Chicago, April 26.—Ted Lyons held Detroit to six hits today and the White Sox hammered a quartet of Tiger pitchers, easily defeating the visitors, 9 to 3. Hunnefield led the attack for Chicago with four hits, while Metzler the Sox new outfielder, collected three, including a double. Ward's fielding was a feature of the Sox defense.

Three detective bureau squads—21 picked men all armed to the teeth—tore into the ball park at breakneck speed late today in response to a riot call just as the game ended. There wasn't any riot, just a gleeful celebration by Sox rooters.

The Box Score.

DETROIT.	ab.	h.	po.	a.	CHICAGO	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Tavener,ss	5	0	1	2	Kamm,3b	4	1	0	3
Ruble,lf	2	0	4	0	Hun'field,ss	4	4	2	4
McManus,2b	4	0	0	3	Metzler,cf	5	3	1	0
Manush,cf	3	1	1	0	Falk,lf	3	1	4	0
Heilmann,rf	4	1	0	0	Barrett,rf	4	1	0	0
Blue,1b	4	2	12	0	Sheely,1b	4	1	9	1
Warner,3b	4	1	2	5	Ward,2b	2	0	7	5
Bassler,c	4	1	4	3	McCurdy,c	4	2	4	0
Whitehill,p	1	0	0	1	Lyons,p	3	1	0	1
Collins,p	0	0	0	1
xWingo	1	0	0	0
Smith,p	0	0	0	0
xxGehringer	1	0	0	0
Stoner,p	0	0	0	2
xxxNeun	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	6	24	17	Totals	33	14	27	14

xBatted for Collins in fifth inning.
xxBatted for Smith in seventh inning.
xxxBatted for Stoner in ninth inning.

Score by innings: R.
Detroit ....000 200 001— 3
Chicago ....102 201 12x— 9

Summary: Runs, Ruble, Manush, Heilmann, Kamm, Hunnefield 3, Metzler, Falk, Ward, Lyons 2; error, Sheely; two-base hits, Blue, McCurdy, Metzler; sacrifices, Hunnefield, Falk, Sheely; double play, Hunnefield to Ward to Sheely; left on bases, Detroit 7, Chicago 8; base on balls, off Lyons 4, off Whitehill 3, off Smith 2, off Stoner 1; struck out, by Lyons 3, by Whitehill 1, by Smith 1, by Stoner 1; hits, off Whitehill 7 in 3 innings (none out in fourth), off Collins 1 in 1 inning, off Smith 1 in 2 innings, off Stoner 5 in 2 innings; balk, Whitehill; losing pitcher, Whitehill. Umpires, Van Graflan, Dineen and Nallin. Time of game, 2:18.

INDIANS TROUNCE BROWNS.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 26.—Cleveland made it two out of three from St. Louis today when Willis Hudlin held the Browns to five hits and won the game, 6 to 2. The Indians hit Gaston hard in the first three innings, bunching four hits for three runs in the opening round. The Browns threatened in the sixth. They had filled the bases when Luke Sewell retired the side with a snap throw to first.

The Box Score.

ST. L.	ab.	h.	po.	a.	CLEV.	ab.	h.	po.	a.
O'Rourke,3b	3	0	3	0	Jamieson,lf	4	0	2	0
Adams,2b	3	1	8	2	Fonseca,2b	4	1	0	5
Sisler,1b	4	1	12	3	Summa,rf	4	1	1	0
Williams,lf	4	1	1	0	Burns,1b	4	3	14	0
Rice,rf	3	0	1	1	J. Sewell,ss	4	2	3	3
Schulte,cf	4	0	0	0	Gerken,cf	3	2	3	0
Gerber,ss	2	0	1	3	L. Sewell,c	4	1	4	1
Schang,c	3	0	1	0	Lutzke,3b	2	0	0	4
Gaston,p	2	1	2	3	Hudlin,p	3	0	0	3
Wingard,p	1	0	0	4
xE. Miller	0	0	0	0
xxBennett	1	1	0	0
xxxO. Miller	1	0	0	0
Totals	31	5	24	16	Totals	32	10	27	16

xBatted for Gaston in sixth.
xxBatted for Gerber in ninth.
xxxBatted for Wingard in ninth.

Score by innings: R.
St. Louis ....001 010 000—2
Cleveland ....311 000 01x—6

Summary: Runs, O'Rourke, Gaston, Fonseca, Summa, Burns 2, J. Sewell, L. Sewell; errors, Gerber, Gerken; two-base hits, Gaston, J. Sewell 2, Summa, Burns; sacrifice hit, Lutzke; double play, Gaston to Gerber to Sisler; left on bases, St. Louis 8, Cleveland 4; first base on balls, off Wingard 1; off Hudlin 6; struck out, by Gaston 1, by Hudlin 3; hits, off Gaston 7 in 5 innings, off Wingard 3 in 3 innings; wild pitches, Wingard 2; losing pitcher, Gaston. Umpires, Gersel, Connolly and Rowland. Time, 1:52.

ATHLETICS NOSE OUT RED SOX.

Boston, April 26.—Connie Mack's Athletics used 20 players today to overcome a seven-to-one lead and eventually defeat the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 8. Cobb starred in the Philadelphia victory.

The Box Score.

PHILA.	ab.	h.	po.	a.	BOSTON	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Dykes,2b	4	2	2	3	Wanninger,ss	5	1	3	2
xxxxCollins	1	0	0	0	Rothrock,2b	4	1	2	2
Galloway,ss	0	0	0	0	Tobin,cf	5	3	3	0
Lamar,lf	4	0	5	1	Flagstead,cf	2	0	3	0
Cobb,rf	4	3	4	0	Jacobson,lf	5	3	3	0
Simmons,cf	4	3	2	0	Todt,1b	5	1	8	0
Hale,3b	4	0	0	3	Haney,3b	3	0	4	3
Branom,1b	3	0	6	0	Hartley,c	3	1	0	0
xxFox	1	0	0	0	Hoffmann,c	0	0	1	1
Poole,1b	2	1	3	0	Wiltse,p	3	1	0	0
Perkins,c	3	1	0	0	Welzer,p	0	0	0	0
Cochrane,c	2	0	2	0	Harriss,p	0	0	0	0
Boley,ss	3	0	3	1	zRegan	1	0	0	0
Bishop,2b	1	0	0	1	Lundgren,p	0	0	0	1
Ehmke,p	1	1	0	0
Quinn,p	1	0	0	0
xWheat	1	0	0	0
Willis,p	0	5	0	2
xxxFrench	1	0	0	0
Gray,p	0	0	0	0
Totals	39	16	27	12	Totals	36	11	27	9

xBatted for Quinn in seventh.
xxBatted for Branom in seventh.
xxxBatted for Willis in eighth.
xxxxBatted for Dykes in eighth.
zBatted for Harriss in eighth.

Score by innings: R.
Philadelphia ....100 002 330— 9
Boston ....034 000 001— 8

Summary: Runs, Dykes 2, Galloway, Cobb 2, Simmons, Hale, Bishop, French, Rothrock, Tobin 2, Jacobson 2, Todt, Haney, Hartley; Errors, Dykes 2, Branom, Rothrock, Wiltse, Harriss; two-base hits, Dykes, Cobb, Perkins, Jacobson 2, Hartley; three-base hits, Dykes, Cobb; stolen bases, Cobb, Simmons; sacrifice, Lamar, Simmons, Flagstead 2; double play, Cobb (unassisted); left on bases, Philadelphia 8, Boston 7; bases on balls, off Ehmke 2, off Gray 2, off Wiltse 2, off Welzer 1; struck out, by Gray 2; hits, off Ehmke 7 in 2 1-3 inning; off Wiltse 9 in 6 2-3 innings, off Quinn, 1 in 3 2-3 innings, off Welzer 1 in 1-3 inning, off Willis 1 in 1 inning, off Harriss 1 in 1 inning, off Gray 2 in 2 innings, off Lundgren none in 1 inning; winning pitcher, Willis; losing pitcher Harriss. Umpires, Evans and McGowan. Time of game, 2:14.

National League

GIANTS WIN EASY ONE.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 26.—The Giants made their first appearance of the season in Brooklyn today and hit hard behind the splendid pitching of Fred Fitzsimmons to score a 7-to-2 victory over Wilbert Robinson's tailenders. Bill Terry led the New York attack with a home run, a double and a sacrifice fly.

The Box Score.

N. Y.	ab.	h.	po.	a.	BROOK.	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Tyson,lf	5	1	6	0	Partridge,2b	4	2	4	4
Lindstrm,3b	5	3	0	1	Carey,cf	3	0	5	0
Ott,cf	3	0	0	0	Hendrick,1b	4	0	7	1
Mueller,cf	2	2	4	0	Meusel,rf	3	1	2	0
Hornsby,2b	3	0	2	3	Felix,lf	4	1	1	0
Terry,1b	4	2	6	1	Marriott,3b	4	1	2	4
Harper,rf	4	2	0	0	Butler,ss	4	2	4	3
Farrell,ss	4	2	1	1	Deberry,c	3	0	2	3
Hamby,c	4	1	6	2	zzStatz	1	0	0	0
Fitzsimns,p	4	1	2	1	Barnes,p	2	1	0	1
					zJacobson	1	0	0	0
					Cantrell,p	0	0	0	1
					zzzHerman	1	0	0	0
Totals	38	14	27	9	Totals	34	8	27	17

zBatted for Barnes in seventh.
zzBatted for Deberry in ninth.
zzzBatted for Cantrell in ninth.

Score by innings: R.
New York ....010 102 111—7
Brooklyn ....000 011 000—2

Summary: Runs, Lindstrom, Mueller, Hornsby, Terry 2, Harper, Hamby, Meusel, Butler; errors, Farrell, Hamby, Marriott, Butler; two-base hits, Terry, Harper; three-base hits, Butler, Marriott, Fitzsimmons; home run, Terry; stolen base, Butler; sacrifices, Farrell, Fitzsimmons, Terry, Harper; double play, Farrell to Hornsby to Terry; left on bases, New York 11, Brooklyn 7; base on balls, off Barnes 1, off Fitzsimmons 2, off Cantrell 2; struck out, by Barnes 1, by Fitzsimmons 6; hits, off Barnes 11 in 7 innings, off Cantrell 3 in 2; losing pitcher, Barnes. Umpires, Hart, Rigler and Pfirman. Time, 2:10.

PIRATES DEFEAT CARDS.

St. Louis, April 26.—After six consecutive victories the St. Louis Cardinals lost to Pittsburgh today, 9 to 5, and the Pirates again went into National league leadership. It was the fourth straight victory for Lee Meadows, Pirate pitcher. Sherdel, who started on the mound for the Cardinals, was batted out in the third. Wright and Southworth each made home runs with two men on.

The Box Score.

PITTS.	ab.	h.	po.	a.	ST. L.	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Granth'm,1b	4	1	11	0	Douthit, cf	4	1	3	0
Layne,lf	5	0	0	0	Southwth,rf	4	2	0	0
Cuyler,cf	3	2	2	0	Frisch,2b	3	1	2	3
P.Waner,rf	3	2	4	0	Bot'mley,1b	4	0	12	0
Wright,ss	5	2	3	2	L.Bell,3b	4	1	2	1
Traynor,3b	5	2	3	2	Hafey,lf	4	2	3	1
Rhyne,2b	5	2	2	3	Snyder,c	4	0	3	0
Spencer,c	4	1	2	0	Thevenow,ss	4	2	2	2
Meadows,p	4	1	0	2	Sherdel,p	0	0	0	2
					H.Bell,p	2	0	0	1
					Keene,p	0	0	0	1
					zClark	1	1	0	0
					zzTorporcer	1	0	0	0
Totals	38	13	27	9	Totals	35	10	27	11

zBatted for H. Bell in 7th.
zzBatted for Keene in 9th.

Score by innings: R.
Pittsburgh ....313 100 100—9
St. Louis ....300 000 200—5

Summary: Runs, Grantham, Cuyler 3, P. Waner, Wright 2, Traynor, Rhyne, Douthit 2, Southworth, Thevenow, Clark; errors, Spencer, Southworth, L. Bell 2; two-base hits, Rhyne, Cuyler, Wright, Grantham; home runs, Wright, Southworth; stolen bases, Cuyler, Waner; sacrifices, Waner, Frisch; double plays, Sherdel to Frisch to Bottomley, Thevenow to Bottomley, Thevenow to Frisch to Bottomley, Rhyne to Wright to Grantham, Traynor to Rhyne to Grantham; left on bases, Pittsburgh 7, St. Louis 5; bases on balls, off Meadows 1, off H. Bell 3, off Keene 1; struck out, by H. Bell 1, by Meadows 1; hits, off Sherdel 9 in 2 1-3 innings, off H. Bell 2 in 4 2-3 innings, off Keene 2 in 2 innings; wild pitch, Keene; losing pitcher, Sherdel. Umpires, Moran and Jordan. Time, 2:03.

REDS DOWN CUBS.

Cincinnati, April 26.—The Cincinnati Reds batsmen hammered Jones from the box in the sixth inning today and scored six runs to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 5, in the third game of the series.

The Box Score.

CHI.	ab.	h.	po.	a.	CIN.	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Adams,2b	5	2	2	1	Critz,3b	4	0	1	2
Heathct,rf	4	0	4	0	Walker,rf	5	2	2	1
Steph'sn,lf	2	0	2	0	Zitzmann,lf	2	0	3	0
Wilson,cf	4	2	3	0	Kelly,1b	4	2	[illegible]	1
Grimm,1b	4	1	7	3	Hargrave,c	4	0	3	1
Freigau,3b	2	1	0	3	Dressen,3b	3	0	2	2
Gonzales,c	3	1	0	3	Allen,cf	4	2	3	0
xTolson	1	0	0	0	Ford,ss	3	1	3	3
Cooney,ss	1	0	2	1	Luque,p	0	0	2	2
English,ss	2	0	0	3	Lucas,p	2	1	0	1
xxWebb	1	1	0	0
Jones,p	3	1	0	2
Osborn,p	0	0	0	0
xxxScott	1	0	0	0
Totals	33	9	24	15	Totals	31	8	27	13

xBatted for Gonzales in ninth.
xxBatted for English in ninth.
xxxBatted for Osborn in ninth.

Score by innings: R.
Chicago ....010 102 001—5
Cincinnati ....100 016 00x—8

Summary: Runs, Stephenson 2, Wilson, Grimm, Webb, Critz, Walker, Zitzmann 2, Dressen, Allen, Ford, Lucas; errors, Wilson, Freigau, Cooney, English; two-base hits, Kelly, Wilson, Walker; three-base hit, Lucas; home run, Webb; stolen base, Zitzmann; sacrifice hits, Luque, Zitzmann; double plays, Critz to Ford to Kelly, Walker to Luque, Gonzales to English to Gonzales to Adams; left on bases, Chicago 4, Cincinnati 7; first base on balls, off Jones 6, off Luque 5; struck out, by Jones 1, by Osborn 3, by Luque 1, by Lucas 2; hits off Jones 6 in 5 innings (none out in sixth), off Osborn 2 in 3 innings, off Luque 7 in 5 1-3 innings, off Lucas 2 in 3 2-3 innings; passed ball, Gonzales; winning pitcher, Lucas; losing pitcher, Jones. Umpires, Klem, Wilson and McLaughlin. Time, 2:06.

St. Marks Seeks Place in League

A meeting of the girls' division of the Y. Church association was held Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. and St. Marks applied for membership in the Volley Ball league. If another team can be secured to equalize the league, St. Marks will be accepted.

A committee was appointed to make all arrangements for a swimming meet, the date to be announced later, and a committee was also appointed to work out a tennis tournament.

Any team wishing to join the Volleyball league should call Miss Gilbert at Walnut 2684. The league plays scheduled games every Friday night.

The schedule for next Friday follows:

Third Baptist vs. Patillo Memorial.
First Methodist vs. Western Heights Baptist.

Arenowitch Will Be Out Of Tech Game

Star Fielder Injured in Practice for Annual Jacket-Bulldog Clash.

BY MARCUS BRYANT.

Athens, Ga., April 26.—Billy Arenowitch, outfielder, and as brilliant a warrior as ever wore red and black spangles, will be absent from the line-up of the Georgia Bulldogs this week when they meet Georgia Tech, age-old rivals. The scene of activities has been definitely settled and relieves this topic of conversation. And, Dame Fate settled the fact that "little Billy," as many of his admirers know him, will be hors de combat, due to his receiving a cut when spiked this afternoon as Coach William White and his Bulldogs were preparing for the annual clash.

And, there is other news emanating from the Bulldog camp tonight. Jack Waller, Bulldog right-hander, is confined at the university infirmary. However, Jack is expected to return in time to resume his hurling activities in an effort to check any hitting attack launched by the Tornado.

"Mickey" Frain, Georgia second baseman, is bothered with a hurt which, however, will not keep him on the bench. Does it not seem as if the injury jinx, so common in football, is going into other fields of sport for the Bulldogs?

Coach White allowed the Bulldogs a day of rest Monday, following a grind of four games last week, in which the Bulldogs divided a series with Notre Dame and captured two games from Clemson. To date, 20 games have been played and of this number 14 are chalked on the winning side of the ledger.

Just who will handle the pitching for the Bulldogs is undecided. At this writing "Shaky" Kain, "Lefty" Stewart, Emmett Tully, and Walter are the availables.

Besides the baseball games, Georgia and Tech hold interest this week in two other sports. Tennis teams of the two institutions meet Friday afternoon at East Lake, while freshmen lacrosse teams are engaged Saturday morning.

TECH FACULTY NINE DEFEATS MILITARY, 5-4

Professor Ralph Peters Black was not anonymously dubbed "Rip" for nothing. He ripped a four-station ride off Captain H. A. McChrystal in the third inning of the pastime party featuring the Georgia Tech faculty and the military training unit Tuesday afternoon. However, his ability as a ripper was unavailing and the disciples of erudition gave way before the militant Martians, 4 to 5, in a game that must have been a lulu.

Professor Mundorff, who pitches and teaches basketball, and Professor Wenn, who catches and teaches commerce, comprised the shove-and-stop system for the faculty. Captain H. A. McChrystal, R. O. T. C. adjutant, and Lieutenant Edgar E. Glenn, a top-notcher in Tech's sky-skimming department, pitched and caught for the Martians.

The teachers in orthodox civilian subjects seemed sloppiest at the platter. Out of a total collection of six bingles credited them one was Black's circuit drive and the other was Mundorff's three-base smack. The militia also rode the apple for extra bases, especially in the third, when they took the winning run along with three others.

Score by innings:		R.	H.	E.
Military Inst'rs.	002 002 0	4	6	3
Faculty	404 000 0	5	9	3

Batteries: Faculty, Mundorff and Wenn; Militia, McChrystal and Glenn.

Instead of the usual county institute in West Chester, Pa., extension classes will be held in psychology of the adolescent child and in nature study. Undergraduate credit will be allowed.

Smith Breaks Ankle In Slide to Third

Tech Scores Nine Runs in First Four Innings to Send Moss to Showers—Smith Plays Brilliant Game.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 26.—The Yellow Jacket became a stinging, biting, hard-hitting, troublesome, pestilent, ornery cuss this afternoon as it swept over the Commodores for a 10-to-3 verdict and an even series.

Malcom Moss was in constant trouble from the time "Shorty" Smith greeted him with a slashing triple until he retired in the fourth inning with two men on and six runs across in that frame, to bring the Tech total to nine tallies.

Tech knocked him hither, thither and yon.

The Yellow Jackets, riding the crest of their victory, were jerked down into the depths in the ninth inning when the brilliant "Shorty" Smith smashed his ankle sliding into third base. In the Vandy series Smith had collected eight hits out of 11 trips to the plate and in addition turned in a game at the shortfield that was nothing less than brilliant.

His ankle was broken in three places above the joint and badly dislocated. He is lost for the season and no greater blow to their ball team can be imagined.

Carney and Chaisson allowed the Commodores six hits in six different innings. They got men on the bases via free passes and Tech errors, but could not hit when the transportation was needed most.

All in all, it was the story of hitting and not hitting. The Tech team collected 17 bingles which were quite enough, thank you.

Vandy took a half dozen, which were not nearly sufficient for their needs and purposes.

The Box Score.

VANDY.—	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Lancaster, rf.	5	0	1	1	0	0
Waller, 2b.	3	2	1	5	1	1
Owens, ss.	4	0	0	0	0	0
Hendrix, cf.	5	0	2	1	0	0
Jones, lf.	3	0	0	2	0	1
Brooks, 1b.	3	0	0	11	0	1
Spears, 3b.	4	1	1	1	0	0
Oliver, c.	3	0	0	4	4	0
Peoples, c.	1	0	1	2	0	0
Moss, p.	1	0	0	0	2	1
Armistead, p.	3	0	0	0	2	0
Totals	36	3	6	27	14	4

TECH—	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Smith, ss.	6	3	5	1	5	1
Moreland, 2b.	5	1	2	2	2	1
Parham, lf.	1	1	1	1	0	0
Crowley, 3b.	6	1	2	0	1	0
Angley, rf.	6	2	2	0	1	1
McCash, cf.	2	1	1	1	0	0
Stevens, c.	4	0	1	6	1	1
Brewer, 1b.	5	1	3	16	0	0
Carney, p.	3	0	0	0	5	0
Chaisson, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Schulman, ss.	0	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	41	10	17	27	15	4

Score by innings: R.
Vandy ....100 110 001— 3
Tech ....111 600 001—10

Summary: Two-base hits, Spears, Smith, Moreland; three-base hits, Waller, Smith, McCash; stolen bases, Crowley, Angley, McCash, Hendrix; sacrifice hits, Carney, Stevens, McCash, Moreland; double play, Moreland to Smith to Brewer; left on bases, Vandy 12, Tech 14; first base on balls, off Moss 3, off Armstead 4, off Carney 4, off Chaisson 3; struck out, by Moss 1, by Armistead 2, by Carney 2, by Chaisson 4; hits, off Moss 11 in 3 innings, off Schulman 6 in 6 innings, off Carney 6 in 6 innings, off Chaisson 1 in 3 innings; wild pitches, Moss, Carney; passed balls, Oliver, Stevens; winning pitcher, Carney; losing pitcher Moss. Umpire, Pique. Time, 2:05.

Mosely Park Wins Over Bell Nine

Mosely Park celebrated Memorial day Tuesday afternoon by defeating the Southern Bell baseball team, 15 to 10, at Mosely park in a hard-fought game.

McCrary, on the mound for Mosely, got off to a rather bad start, and Southern Bell scored all of its runs in the first five innings. After that McCrary was well nigh invincible, and no more runs were scored.

Hapeville Blanks Mount Olive, 5-0

Hapeville Baptist baseball team defeated Mount Olive Tuesday afternoon at Hapeville, 5-0, in a fast, hard-fought game.

Evans, on the mound for the Baptists, held the Mountain boys well in hand at all times, and struck out 14 men, holding his opponents to a total of four hits.

Parks-Chambers Beats Daniel Bros. In Undie Battle

The undies is, or are, won.

Not one, but won, by the Parks-Chambers demon pastimers in a special match with the Daniel Brothers organization, both specializing in "cluks and soots" in the vicinity of chiffon lane, better known as the first half of 10 points. The demons from Parks-Chambers scored six errors to nine, and won the game, 13 to 8.

At a late hour last night the division of the shirts and knickers and sweaters and, most unmentionable of all, the undies, was being carried on with gusto. Deniable reports had it that a corps of large sized craps had been called in to assist in the division.

Be that as it may, the division ought to favor Mr. Burr, who was at first base. Mr. Burr pulled a fast one on Mr. Reeves who did the pitching for the Daniel outfit when he hit for four sacks. Being at first base, Mr. Burr had several opportunities to err, but committed that breach only once so he ought to get something for that.

Outside of that everything was, in the manner of the initiated, chicken.

The Box Score.

PARKS-CHAMBERS.	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Morton, cf.	5	0	3	0	0	0
Chambers, 2b.	6	0	1	3	3	3
Langford, c.	3	1	0	8	0	0
Burr, 1b.	5	3	3	11	0	1
Harbison, 3b.	4	4	3	0	2	1
Reed, p.	5	2	2	0	1	0
Pitchard, ss.	5	3	1	3	5	0
McKibbon, lf.	5	0	1	2	0	0
Allen, rf.	1	0	0	0	0	1
Malone, rf.	4	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	43	13	14	27	11	6

DANIEL BROS.	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
C. Daniel, 3b.	5	1	2	0	0	2
Keel, 2b.	4	2	2	5	2	1
Clayton Daniel, ss.	5	2	2	0	2	0
Reeves, p.	3	2	2	0	2	0
Jones, 1b.	4	1	1	8	0	1
Austin, c.	4	0	0	11	0	1
Stalnaker, rf.	2	0	1	0	0	1
Chambers, cf.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Gardner, lf.	5	0	0	0	0	1
Alton, rf.	3	0	2	0	0	0
Johnson, cf.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	40	8	12	24	7	9

Score by innings: R.
Daniel Brothers ....201 000 104— 8
Parks-Chambers ....010 301 44x—13

Summary: Two-base hits, Harbison, Norton, Reeves; three-base hit, Harbison; home run, Burr; double play, Pitchard to Burr; bases on balls, off Reed 4, off Reeves 5; struck out, by Reed 7, by Reeves 11; hit by pitcher, by Reed (Austin). Umpires, Glassman and Maddox. Feature plays—Home run by Burr; double play, Pitchard to Burr. "Comedy of Errors."

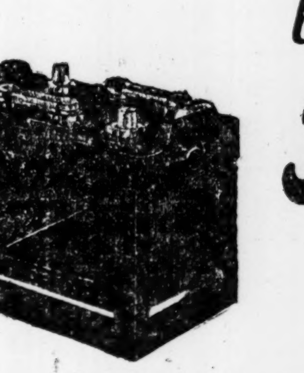
SAFE & SPEEDY
Standard of the South
STANBACK
HEADACHE POWDERS
10¢ and 25¢

NOW! BATTERIES EASY TERMS

NEW RUBBERIB

by

Prest-O-Lite



because it gives
—many more starts
—more hours of light
—longer life
—less bother

THE NUMBER OF CARS in this city which we are daily equipping with this great battery is literally astounding. The demand for it exceeds any we have ever experienced in our history; and the only explanation is, of course, the fact that it is really a better battery.

We can put the proper size in your car in five minutes any time—no matter what you are driving. Complete stock on hand.

Battery Service Company
304 Peachtree St. IVy 2818
INVESTIGATE OUR TIME PURCHASE PLAN
Recharge 75c. Free Testing and Water

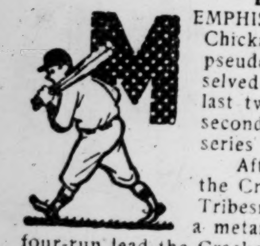
ALWAYS ON THE JOB

Chickasaw Rally In Late Innings Beat Crackers, 5 to 4

Lead of 4 Runs Fails To Bring Locals Win

Francis Weakens in Last of Game, Giving Up Four Runs After Mates Get Lead.

BY HERBERT CALDWELL.



MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 26.—Emulating the spirit of the Chickasaw braves, from whom they derived their pseudonym, the Tribesmen arose and assorted themselved in a belated uprising, scoring four runs in the last two innings to defeat the Crackers 5 to 4 in the second of the series today at Russwood. It evened the series that ends tomorrow afternoon.

After three defeats, two to the Bears and one to the Crackers, lost in a rather lackadaisical manner, the Tribesmen played the game as if they had undergone a metamorphosis, hanging on tenaciously in face of a four-run lead the Crackers acquired in the third inning. Little Clarence Griffin was the survivor over the bigger Ray Francis in a battle of left-handers.

Turner Barber, center fielder of the Tribesmen, was most conspicuous in the Tribal uprising. He singled to start a rally in the eighth when the Chicks scored two runs and it was blast from Barber's bat that would have been good for two bases that drove in the winning run in the ninth with one out. There were others very conspicuous in the belated uprising, but Barber started and finished the winning rally.

Up to the turbulent eighth, Francis had turned the Chicks back with five hits and one run in the fourth. Frank Welch, the Cracker right fielder, and late of the Athletics, prolonged a possible Chick victory with a sensational catch in the eighth. Barber started with a liner to center for a single. Dan Taylor, who had previously singled and doubled, but to no avail as far as a score, tripled over Welch's head scoring Barber. Joe Klugman, who has been nursing an infected foot the last five games, shambled from the bench to bat for Mike Smith, a left-handed swinger who hadn't had much success swinging against the left-handed Mr. Francis. Klugman combed the first ball pitchen between the base and Gilbert for a double. Jerry Standaert, who had previously tripled, was at bat and Chief Milan showed his faith in Standaert by letting him swing. He was out, Francis to first. Then Mr. Welch, late of the Athletics, butted in. George Ferrell blasted one to deep right center that bore every semblance of a safe blow. Mr. Welch gave chase and with his back to the diamond pulled down the ball with his gloved hand, making a back-handed catch. Klugman had to hurry to get back to second. Schmandt then flied to Welch, and the Chicks' hopes flickered, only to burst out again in the ninth.

Cousineau Starts It.

Ed Cousineau started the new rally. He sent one scooting past third. It was good for a double but the ball took a freakish turn when it bounded against the bleachers and before Zoeller could recover, Cousineau was at third. Charlie Engle, who had gone hitless, arose to the occasion with a single to right, scoring Cousineau, with the tying run. Griffin sacrificed. Barner, a left-handed hitter, facing the left-handed Mr. Francis, combed one between left and center that would easily have been good for a double, but when Barber saw that Engle had scored he detoured after touching first base. Those scored, hereinbefore described, added to one the Chicks got in the third had won a ball game. Standaert and Cousineau were the scoring combination in the fourth. Standaert started the inning with a prodigious clout over Haas' head in center for a triple. Gilbert made a nice stop to throw out Ferrell and hold Standaert at third. Schmandt fouled out to first and it looked like Standaert's triple might be wasted but Cousineau rammed one to center for a single. Griffin was out on a grounder to Francis.

Crackers Score.

Five of the Crackers' nine hits off Griffin came in the third inning when Griffin heaped further troubles on himself with a wild throw to first in an attempt to nip a runner. Brock singled but was forced by Frances when Standaert made a neat stop and throw to Engle. Here Ferrell helped Griffin out momentarily with a magnificent throw from right to nail Francis at third on Zoeller's single. Ferrell shot the ball to Standaert on a line with Standaert standing on the bag when he made the catch. The throw brought an extended applause. Griffin put Zoeller in scoring distance when he chunked wild to first for him, allowing him to go to second. Cueto singled, scoring Zoeller and Griffin's troubles really begun. Haas walked, Welch singled to center scoring Cueto and putting Haas on third. Rhiel doubled to right, scoring Cueto and Welch, but Rheil was out at third, Ferrell to Taylor to Standaert and Welch scored just in the nick of time to make the score legal.

The Crackers threatened after that and had runners on second and first when the ninth passed away. Haas singled to start the sixth. Welch flied to left, Rhiel forced Haas and then Rhiel swiped second, but Barber went to the foothills and somersaulted after bringing down a hectic crash by Gilbert.

Brock singled with one out in the eighth but Francis struck out and Schmandt took Zoeller's sizzling grounder.

The Crackers went out in order in the eighth but arose again in the ninth only to be set down. Rhiel struck out to start it, Engle made a sensational stop and throw of Gilbert's grounder when the ball took a weird hop, Engle going into the air for it. Schwab doubled to center. Brock, who had singled twice, was purposely passed to get Francis, who was out on a weak roller to Klugman.

The Box Score

MEMPHIS—	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Barber, cf.	5	1	2	3	0	0
Taylor, 2b.-lf.	4	1	3	1	1	0
Smith, lf.	3	0	1	4	0	0
xKlugman, 2b.	1	0	1	0	1	0
Standaert, 3b.	4	1	1	2	2	0
Ferrell, rf.	3	0	0	2	2	0
Schmandt, 1b.	4	0	0	11	0	0
Cousineau, c.	4	1	2	3	0	0
Engle, ss.	3	1	1	1	4	0
Griffin, p.	3	0	0	0	1	1
Totals	34	5	11	27	11	1

ATLANTA—	ab.	r.	h.	po.	a.	e.
Zoeller, lf.	4	1	1	2	0	0
Cueto, ss.	4	1	1	0	5	0
Haas, cf.	3	1	1	3	0	0
Welch, rf.	4	1	[illegible]	4	0	0
Rhiel, 2b.	4	0	1	0	1	0
Gilbert, 3b.	4	0	0	0	4	0
Schwab, 1b.	4	0	1	16	0	0
Brock, c.	3	0	2	0	0	0
Francis, p.	4	0	0	0	5	0
Totals	34	4	9	z25	15	0

x—Batted for Smith in eighth.

z—One out when winning run scored.

Score by innings:

Atlanta ....004 000 000—4

Memphis ....000 100 022—5

Summary: Two base hits, Taylor, Klugman, Rhiel, Schwab; three base hits, Standaert, Taylor, Cousineau; sacrifice hits, Ferrell, Griffin; stolen base, Rhiel; left on bases, Memphis 7, Atlanta 5; base on balls, off Griffin 2, off Francis 1; struck out, by Griffin 3. Umpires, Brennan and Shannon. Time 1:40.

College Baseball

COLLEGE BASEBALL.

At Nashville: Georgia Tech 10; Vanderbilt 3.

At Elon College 4; Hampden Sidney 2 (10 innings).

At Emory, Va.: Emory and Henry 11; Carson Newman 2.

At Quantico, Va.: Wake Forest 3; Marines 1.

At Winston-Salem 11; Raleigh 4.

At Durham 10; Rocky Mount 11.

Mrs. King Defeats Her Husband Here In Billiard Match

In their first of three exhibitions, Mrs. Bertha M. King, world's undefeated woman billiard champion, defeated William King at York's Tuesday, running out the game with a run of 17.

Mrs. King had a handicap of 75, and Mr. King 40. Mrs. King's score was 40 and that of Mr. King 50. The Kings will be in town for exhibitions two more days, performing today at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m., and the same hours on Friday.

A large gallery was on hand at the exhibition Tuesday night, and the difficult shots executed by Mrs. King drew much applause. All Atlanta women are invited to attend the exhibitions.

HOW THEY STAND

CLUBS—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Birmingham	8	5	.615
New Orleans	7	5	.583
ATLANTA	8	7	.533
Nashville	8	7	.533
Memphis	5	6	.455
Chattanooga	6	8	.429
Little Rock	4	4	.400
Mobile	5	8	.385

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

CLUB—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	8	4	.667
Washington	7	5	.583
St. Louis	5	4	.556
Philadelphia	6	5	.545
Detroit	4	4	.500
Cleveland	6	6	.500
Chicago	6	7	.462
Boston	2	9	.182

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

CLUB—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	8	4	.667
New York	8	4	.667
St. Louis	7	4	.636
Philadelphia	7	4	.636
Boston	8	6	.571
Chicago	4	7	.364
Cincinnati	4	8	.333
Brooklyn	2	11	.083

SALLY LEAGUE.

CLUB—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Asheville	4	2	.667
Charlotte	4	2	.667
Knoxville	3	2	.600
Spartanburg	3	3	.500
Macon	3	3	.500
Columbia	2	3	.400
Augusta	2	3	.400
Greenville	1	4	.200

SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE.

CLUB—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Montgomery	10	4	.714
Jacksonville	9	4	.682
Savannah	9	6	.600
Columbus	7	7	.500
Pensacola	7	7	.500
Albany	6	8	.429
St. Augustine	4	10	.286
Selma	4	10	.286

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

Memphis, 5; Atlanta, 4.
Chattanooga, 3; Mobile, 1.
Nashville, 6; New Orleans, 2.
Birmingham 5; Little Rock, 4

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Cleveland, 6; St. Louis, 2.
Chicago, 9; Detroit, 3.
Philadelphia, 9; Boston, 8.
Washington at New York: cold weather

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Pittsburgh, 9; St. Louis, 5.
Cincinnati, 8; Chicago, 5.
New York, 7; Brooklyn, 2.
Boston at Philadelphia: cold weather.

SALLY LEAGUE.

Macon 8; Greenville 4.
Asheville 5; Columbia 4.
Charlotte 12; Knoxville 11.
Spartanburg 5; Augusta 2 (13 innings).

SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE.

Savannah 6; St. Augustine 1.
Jacksonville 13; Albany 8.
Pensacola 5; Montgomery 4.
Selma 2; Columbus 1.

TODAY'S GAMES.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

Atlanta at Memphis.
Little Rock at Birmingham.
Mobile at Chattanooga.
New Orleans at Nashville.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

St. Louis at Cleveland.
Washington at New York.
Detroit at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Boston.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Chicago at Cincinnati.
New York at Brooklyn.
Boston at Philadelphia.
(Only three games scheduled.)

SALLY LEAGUE.

Charlotte at Knoxville.
Columbia at Asheville.
Greenville at Macon.
Spartanburg at Augusta.

SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE.

Savannah at St. Augustine.
Jacksonville at Albany.
Montgomery at Pensacola.
Columbus at Selma.

TEXAS LEAGUE.

Fort Worth, 6; Wichita Falls, 3.
Shreveport, 3; Dallas, 2.
Houston, 2; Waco, 6.
Beaumont, 10; San Antonio, 3.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.

Los Angeles, 12; Missions, 5.
Seattle, 4; Portland, 8.
Sacramento, 2; Oakland, 4.
(Only three games played.)

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

·BY · DICK · HAWKINS·

What, No Tobacco?

The chawing of such nasty things as slippery ellum and lickorish should be barred in the Southern league. That is, such practices should be barred if the charges regarding Joe Martina are true.

Either the practices should be barred or Uncle Joe should be examined by a brain specialist to discover if the section of his brain registering olfactory impulses. Anybody should know that "lickorish" is about as free from odor as a fertilizer plant in the rain.

Providing again that Pol McLarry's allegations are true Mr. Martina decorated the ball at a very opportune time to start a fine scandal what with Mr. Kenesaw Mountain Landis in the grandstand watching the naughty "lickorish chawer" in action.

Just the mere fact that the ball smelled of licorice and was slightly discolored might or might not mean much. Maybe Joe's doctor won't let him chaw tobaccer.

* * * * *

Some Funny Heads.

The man who exposes his own tricks is a poor performer but a glance through a pile of exchanges on our desk reveals some funny headlines decorating the pages of southern newspapers.

NOTE—If any of the following heads are recognized by perpetrators of the same there is no offense meant.

1. GOOD SIGNS
MERCER STAR
FOR PEACHES

Just what Peaches will do with the above-mentioned star is problematical. Probably she will sue for breach of promise or something.

2. WAKE FOREST BEATS
WILLIAM AND MARY

Another flogging scandal to mar the tranquillity of the south. Just read this one—don't spell it out.

3. TOBACCO, POTATOES
PLANTED IN TOOMBS

4. MIDNIGHT CLUB
HEARS EXPERT
TALK ON BRIDGE

He stood on the bridge at midnight—club.

And that's only a few of them out of one day's issue of a few Dixie paper. The English language as "she is written" in the newspaper is entirely "something else," if you choose to make its meaning something else.

* * * * *

Ozark Ripley Talks.

Just in the way of a reminder, tonight is the night when sportsmen will have the opportunity of hearing Ozark Ripley, the man who knows the biography of every bird and beast, speak at the Izaak Walton meeting.

The league will meet in the assembly room of the Robert Fulton hotel at 8 o'clock and the sportsman who fails to hear Ozark Ripley will be sorry for evermore, amen.

CRACKER STICK WORK.

Player	G.	AB.	R.	H.	2b.	3b.	HR.	SH.	SB.	Pct.
Rhiel	12	47	10	22	7		1	2	2	.468
Haas	15	56	18	24	5	3	2	4	1	.429
Zoeller	15	62	14	23	3				5	.371
Murphy	8	26	3	8	1	1			2	.308
Welch	4	18	3	5	2					.278
Cueto	15	62	16	17	1			5	2	.274
Gilbert	14	52	6	13	2			2	1	.250
Schwab	15	58	7	14	3	3		7	1	.241
Brock	7	25	6	6	2			1		.240
Niehoff	11	37	8	11	2		1	1	1	.216
Kohlbecker	8	26	3	5	1					.192

TECH GRCOMING ONE-MAN TEAM FOR PENN RELAYS

:: HAMM TO REPRESENT SCHOOL IN ANNUAL MEET ::

Another of Georgia Tech apparent specialties, one-man athletic teams, is grooming for trial.

This time it is Ed Hamm, the prolific dash and jump king, who is prolific in the sense that he seems to be able to stretch one hop into more feet and inches than any other southern cinder and field artist and possibly any other hop artist in the broad expanse of America's 48 commonweals. He is grooming for the annual Penn relays.

Hamm, and this is one time there is nothing in a name, for he is anything but a ham, and, anyway, he pronounces it "Homm"—has jumped broader than any other broad jumper in the business this year, according to close tabulation kept on the leading contenders by Coach Harold Barron. His mark is 23 feet 10 and 7-8 inches. Boy, what a swell hop-scotcher he turned out to be.

Anyway, Coach Barron and Tech are placing all their hopes in the performances of Hamm, and, aside from his amazing hopping proclivities, he can set a merry pace in the century and do plenty well in the 220. He leaves for Philadelphia today and is entered in the 100 and broad jump.

He will be accompanied by Baskin, of Auburn, a finished hurdler, on his trip to the northern rodeo.

COTTON STATES LEAGUE.

Laurel 2; Monroe 1.
Gulfport 7; Alexandria 3.
Vicksburg 4; Meridian 2.
Hattiesburg 7; Jackson 1.

Southern League

PELICANS LOSE ONE.

Nashville, Tenn., April 26.—Wildness of three New Orleans pitchers and two infield errors in the eighth inning enabled Nashville to score six runs and win from the Pelicans, 6 to 2. Davis' home run accounted for both New Orleans runs. It was the fourth straight win for Fred Johnson.

The Box Score.

N. ORL'S	ab.	h.	po.	a.	NASH'LE	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Gardner,ss	4	1	2	5	Kern,cf	4	1	1	0
Mulvey,cf	5	2	4	0	Fowler,3b	5	1	2	1
Morgan,rf	5	3	3	[illegible]	Bates,p	4	3	2	1
Davis,1b	4	4	7	0	McLarry,1b	4	0	10	1
Deal,3b	5	0	1	3	Smith,lf	4	1	1	0
Blakesley,lf	3	0	1	0	Mackey,c	3	1	2	2
Ewoldt,2b	4	0	4	3	Torpy,2b	2	1	3	3
Lingle,c	4	3	1	2	Black,2b	0	0	0	0
Murchison,p	4	0	1	0	Haley,ss	3	0	4	3
Brown,p	0	0	0	0	Johnson,p	4	0	0	7
Osborne,p	0	0	0	0
Martina,p	0	0	0	0
Totals	38	13	24	12	Totals	33	8	27	19

Score by innings: R.

New Orleans.............000 020 000—2

Nashville...............000 000 06x—6

Summary: Runs, Mulvey, Davis, Fowler, McLarry, Smith, Torphy, Black, Hafey; two-base hits, Bates, Smith, Mulvey; home runs, Smith, Mulvey; home runs, Davis; double plays, Johnson to Haley to McLarry; Johnson to Fowler to McLarry; left on bases, Nashville 8, New Orleans 11; base on balls, off Murchison 2, off Brown 1, off Osborne 2; struck out, by Johnson 2, hits, off Murchison in 7 2-3 innings 7 with 3 runs, off Brown in 1-3 inning none with no runs; off Osborne in no innings none with no runs; losing pitcher, Murchison. Umpires, Roberts, Hopper and Johnson. Time of game, 2:05.

LOOKOUTS WIN, 3 TO 1.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 26.—Red Bates pitched steady ball and allowed the Mobile Bears but six hits here this afternoon to win his game, the second of the series, 3 to 1. Eddie Lewis had a good day at bat, with three hits for a total of six bases in three trips.

The Box Score.

MOB.	ab.	h.	po.	a	CHAT.	ab.	h.	po.	a.
Willms,cf	4	0	3	0	Lewis,rf	3	3	3	0
Hood,lf	4	1	1	1	Carroll,lf	3	2	1	0
Stock,2b	4	1	3	2	Defate,ss	4	0	1	4
Welch,3b	3	1	2	0	Hipps,1b	4	0	12	1
C.Andsn,1b	4	2	5	2	Chapman,3b	3	1	1	2
Herrera,ss	4	1	3	1	Johnston,2b	2	0	0	4
Susko,rf	3	0	4	0	D.Andersn,c	4	1	4	1
Queery,c	3	0	3	2	Tangemn,cf	3	2	3	0
Morris,p	2	0	0	3	Bates,p	4	[illegible]	2	3
xPalm	1	0	0	0
Tutwiler,p	0	0	0	1
Totals	32	6	24	12	Totals	30	9	27	15

xBatted for Morris in eighth.

Score by innings: R.

Mobile ....100 000 000—1

Chattanooga ....001 010 01x—3

Summary: Runs, Hood, Lewis 2, Johnston; errors, Stock, Herrera, Johnston; two-base hit, Lewis; three-base hit, Lewis; sacrifices, Welch, Lewis; stolen bases, Tangeman 2, Johnston, Herrera; left on bases, Mobile 5, Chattanooga 9; base on balls, off Morris 4, off Tutwiler 1; struck out, by Morris 3, by Bates 2, by Tutwiler 1; hits, off Morris 8 in 7 innings with 2 runs; wild pitch, Morris; losing pitcher, Morris. Umpires, Buck Campbell and Williams. Time, 1:45.

BARONS ARE VICTORIOUS.

Birmingham, Ala., April 26.—Birmingham's rally in the ninth inning produced enough runs to defeat Little Rock, 5 to 4, in the opening game of the series this afternoon. Baird, Baron third baseman, tripled with two men on base to tie the score and Schepner singled after the bases had been loaded with two passes.

The Box Score.

LITTLE R.	ab	h.	po.	a.	BIRM.	ab.	h.	po.	a.
S'dquist,3b	4	1	0	2	Barnes,cf	4	1	2	0
Battle,ss	4	1	1	3	zSchepner	1	0	0	0
Washbn,2b	4	3	2	3	Jourdan,1b	4	1	9	1
Gulley,rf	4	0	2	0	Ganzel,lf	4	1	2	0
Grimes,1b	3	0	11	1	Bigelow,rf	3	1	1	0
Jones,cf	3	1	2	1	Yaryan,c	4	2	5	1
Redmon,c	3	1	3	0	Rosenfd,2b	4	2	3	3
Ostergd,lf	3	1	3	0	Baird,3b	4	3	2	2
Dumont,p	4	0	0	2	Gillis,ss	3	1	3	3
Robinson,p	0	0	0	0	Evans,p	0	0	0	0
					Cun'gham,p	2	0	0	2
					zzCooper	1	0	0	0
					Mitchell,p	0	0	0	3
Totals	32	8	24	12	Totals	34	12	27	15

xNone out when winning run scored.

zBatted for Barnes in ninth.

zzBatted for Cunningham in seventh.

Score by innings: R.

Little Rock . ...310 000 000—4

Birmingham . ...010 010 003—5

Summary: Runs, Sandquist 2, Battle, Grimes, Bigelow, Yaryan, Rosenfeld, Baird 2; errors, Sandquist, Jourdan; two-base hits, Washburn 2, Barnes, Yaryan; three-base hits, Ganzel, Bigelow, Baird; sacrifices, Battle, Gulley, Jones; stolen base, Bigelow; double plays, Grimes to Battle, Battle to Washburn to Grimes, Rosenfeld to Gillis to Jourdan; hits, off Evans in 2-3 innings 4 with 3 runs, off Cunningham in 6 1-3 innings 3 with 1 run, off Dumont in 8 innings 11 with 5 runs; bases on balls, off Evans 2, off Cunningham 3, off Dumont 3; struck out, by Dumont 2, by Cunningham 4, by Mitchell 2; wining pitcher, Mitchell; losing pitcher, Dumont. Umpires, Bick Campbell and Weaver. Time of game, 1:56.

Wallis Requests Municipal Golfers To Observe Rules

L. L. Wallis, superintendent of parks and playgrounds, Tuesday issued an appeal to golfers to observe rules of the courses and prevent the trailing of galleries. At the same time, he announced that golf house keepers and other park employees have been instructed to enforce the rule in an effort to preserve summer greens.

"We do not wish to be forced to be unpleasant concerning this rule, but must do something in order to keep trailing galleries from causing serious damage to greens we have worked so hard during the winter and early spring months to sod," he said. "The grass is yet young and tender and easily crushed. We are not making an unreasonable request and hope golfers and others will cooperate in keeping Atlanta-owned courses the prettiest in the entire south."

LEADING BATTERS

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

PLAYER-CLUB—	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Klugman, Memphis	8	25	6	12	.480
Carroll, Chattanooga	13	46	9	22	.478
Rhiel, Atlanta	12	47	10	22	.468
Ganzel, Birmingham	13	49	4	22	.449
Haas, Atlanta	15	56	18	24	.429

Leader year ago today, Hendrick, New Orleans, .491.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

PLAYER-CLUB—	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Sand, Philadelphia	11	41	12	18	.439
Hornsby, New York	12	44	18	19	.432
Tyson, New York	12	52	13	22	.423
Lindstrom, New York	12	53	9	22	.415
Hafey, St. Louis	11	40	4	16	.400

Leader year ago today, Hornsby, St. Louis, .442.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

PLAYER-CLUB—	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Simmons, Philadelphia	12	45	9	21	.470
Gehrig, New York	13	47	15	21	.447
Goslin, Washington	12	47	14	21	.447
Koenig, New York	13	56	9	24	.429
Judge, Washington	12	40	5	17	.425

Leader year ago today, Carlyle, Boston, .467.

Morehouse Wins First Track Meet

Taking nine first places in the first meet to be held between the three Atlanta colored colleges, Morehouse ran away with high honors in the track meet staged Monday afternoon at Morris Brown.

Morris Brown finished second and Atlanta University third. Morehouse also collected several second places in the various events to run their total up above its opponents.

The records made at the meet Monday will stand as official as it was the first meet between the three schools.

Ted Clark, Umpire, Dropped by Martin

Southern League Head Announces That Atlanta Umpire Will Be Replaced by Hopper.

BY TOM THOMPSON.

BILLY RHIEL, the Dublin Dutchman, was happy Tuesday night, even though he had dropped to third place in the league's five top macemen.

Umpire Ted Clark, of the Southern league, has drawn a virtual discharge and has been supplanted by Boothe Hopper, a former pitcher, in the Martin loop's active board of baseball judges. Clark is an Atlanta resident.

Clark, it will be remembered, received considerable razzing from sports writers and others following his rumpus involving Rhiel, Bert Niehoff and Tom Rogers on Tuesday, April 19, when the Crackers received a 9-7 trouncing from the Baronial clan of Birmingham.

The outcome of the Cracker outcry against Clarkian decisions on that eventful day was a total fineage of $60 and a three-day suspension for the Dublin Dutchman. Bert drew $25 of the fines, Billy was socked for $25 and the Gallatin gunner was nicked for $10.

Mr. Clark's decisions that day found disfavor even among the fans, and it was learned that several of them voiced dissatisfaction against his work here in the Baronial series during which time Rhiel drew his suspension.

The announcement from Memphis last Sunday night in which it was stated that Hopper had been appointed to the Dixie loop umpire staff was received in certain quarters in Atlanta as meaning that Clark would be released from his duties. It did, though at that time there was nothing said about it.

NEW UMPIRICAL PAIRINGS MADE.

Memphis, Tenn., April 26.—(AP)—Umpire Ted Clark has been replaced in the Southern association by Umpire Boothe Hopper, it was announced here tonight by President John D. Martin. Clark will umpire college baseball games in Mississippi during the remainder of the collegiate season upon recommendation of President Martin.

Because of water damage to the home of Umpire William Brennan, of New Orleans, he was granted a leave of absence of four days and will leave here for the Crescent City tomorrow.

Effective tomorrow the following pairings in Southern association umpires is announced by President Martin, to continue until the expiration of Brennan's leave of absence:

Johnson and Hopper, Shannon and Robertson, Williams and Buck Campbell, Bick Campbell and Weaver.

Player Scheiber, of Mobile, is under a three-day suspension inflicted for conduct at Sunday's game at Memphis, the league president announced.

Major League Leaders

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Including Games of April 25.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Batting, Hornsby, Giants, .463; runs, Hornsby, Giants, 17; hits, Tyson, Giants, [illegible]; doubles, Thomas, Braves, 6; triples, Hendrick, Robins, 4; homers, Williams, Phillies, 4; stolen bases, Tyson, Giants, 5; pitching, Meadows, Pirates, won 3, lost 0; Haines, Cardinals, won 3, lost 0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Batting, Simmons, Athletics, .462; runs, Ruth, Yankees, 15; hits, Koenig, Yankees, 24; doubles, Lamar, Athletics, 6; Gehrig, Yankees, 6; triples, Lazzeri, Yankees, 3; homers, Gehrig, Yankees, 4; stolen bases, Judge, Senators, 5; Goslin, Senators, 5; pitching, Ruether, Yankees, won 2, lost 0; Coveleskie, Senators, won 2, lost 0.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Minneapolis, 6; Toledo, 7 (15 innings).
St. Paul, 11; Columbus, 4.
Milwaukee, 3; Indianapolis, 8.
Kansas City, 5; Louisville, 4 (11 innings).

STRIB FIGHT OPENS SUMMER RING SEASON

BY JACK FARRELL.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, April 25.—One week from tonight, New York's open air boxing season gets under way with the William Stribling-Tommy Loughran fight at Ebbetts' field. Both lads were the guests tonight of Promoter Humbert J. Fugazy at a box party at the New Amsterdam theater. Tomorrow the Georgian will start his preparatory work in Newark, while Loughran will train at Pompton, N. J.

Stribling is starting off with Bob Lawson and Mexican Tommy White as sparring mates. Chuck Burns, who fights Georgie Courtney on the same bill, will join his staff later in the weak. Loughran will content himself tossing gloves at King Solomon for a few days.

Our 41st Anniversary and Second Anniversary Sale Begins Thursday April 28

IN FORTY ONE YEARS no sale like this!

Frohsin's
Correct Dress for Women
50 WHITEHALL

The Town's Awake to Our

Carlton's
For Quality and Value

1/2 Price On Men's and Young Men's SUITS

These suits were left from our heavy Easter selling. There are all sizes, but not of each lot.

All Suits Have Two Pairs Of Trousers

Carlton's
36 Whitehall Street

BOYD
Introduces a combination long desired—the low band and the very long point—It's an ARROW COLLAR
20¢
Cluett, Peabody & Co. Inc.

Piedmont
CIGARETTES
LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

BREAKING THE RECORD !

All you high handicap men, gaze at this golf record: The longest officially tested drive (Broadmoor course, Colorado Springs) is 470 yards.

There's "distance" in this record, too!

"Straight down the fairway" for 20 consecutive years and never once "in the rough!" Piedmont, and Piedmont alone, has ranked among the five leading brands every year since 1906—and is still going strong. Purity, richness, unmatched mildness; all golden Virginia tobacco—that's what holds it in popular favor.

Note. With the sole exception of our celebrated Richmond Straight Cuts, Piedmont is the only "Virginia tobacco" cigarette enjoying a national sale.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Also in vacuum tins of 50

Big Rodeo Show Plans Forwarded By Leaders Here

Coincident Tuesday with announcement of Chief of Police James L. Beavers that violation of Atlanta ordinance prohibiting mistreatment of animals will not be permitted at the rodeo show to be staged the week beginning May 14, at Lakewood park, Carl F. Hutcheson, Atlanta attorney and general chairman of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, sponsoring the exhibition here, stated he, too, would oppose any such attempt.

This assurance from officials came as a result of a protest against the proposed show Monday night by Mrs. Katherine Weathersbee, secretary of the Atlanta Humane society.

In explaining the position of the Junior order, Mr. Hutcheson declared that similar shows have been staged in all sections of the United States and in England and that their value as an educational feature can not be over-estimated.

"The rodeo is an annual event in Chicago for the benefit of an orphans home; the show is staged annually in Madison Square, New York, for a hospital; last year a mammoth one was pulled at the sesqui-centennial exposition in Philadelphia; roundups have been held annually at Cheyenne for 17 consecutive years," Mr. Hutcheson said. "We are not attempting to begin an exhibition without having full knowledge of the program.

"Hotel Astoria in New York each year gives the Roosevelt trophy, valued at $9,000, for events at the Penland, Ore., and Cheyenne rodeos. Further Tex Austin carried the same show which will be offered here to England in 1924 where it piled up the enormous attendance of 165,000 daily."

Jack Ault and Chick Hannan, promoters of the exhibition, both denied Tuesday that they contemplate anything which would conflict with city and state laws regarding treatment of animals, and exhibited indorsements from Governor Clifford M. Walker and Mayor I. N. Ragsdale.

"We could not afford to betray the confidence of these executives in the event by putting on anything which they could not approve," they said.

POLICE OFFICIAL DENIES CONNECTION.

The Atlanta Police Relief association has no connection with the rodeo which will be given in Atlanta the week beginning May 14, J. M. Austin, secretary and treasurer of that organization, declared Tuesday.

"The only event planned by the police relief association is a barbecue which will be served on June 1 between 12 and 3 o'clock at Lakewood park," Mr. Austin said. "The rodeo promoters approached us six weeks ago, but we did not engage the exhibition."

Milledgeville Infant Killed By Brother's Bat

Milledgeville, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—Henry McMillan, 2-year-old son of M. M. McMillan, who resides about three miles west of this city, was instantly killed this morning when he was struck over the heart with a baseball bat by his 9-year-old brother, Joseph McMillan.

Several young boys were having a baseball game in the yard of Mr. McMillan and young Joe McMillan was at the bat and had taken a swing at the ball that had been pitched to him. In the meantime his little brother had walked up in the rear and was struck with the full force of the bat just above his heart and was instantly killed.

Dr. T. M. Hall, of this city, rushed to the home but could do nothing to revive the child as the blow had been instantly fatal.

The child will be buried at Meriwether, Ga., today. He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters.

Japan Will Send Delegation of 50 To Naval Parley

Geneva, April 26.—(AP)—Japan's delegation to the three-power naval conference, it was announced tonight, will number 50 persons. Present indications are that the conference will be confronted by numerous difficulties. One report is that Great Britain may favor abolition of big seagoing submarines. This caused considerable comment as the experts deem it likely that the United States would insist upon the maintenance of this type for communication with outlying possessions.

It also is reported, though this is not confirmed, that Japan will not be satisfied with the 5-5-3 ratio in its application to cruisers and destroyers.

Hugh S. Gibson, chief American delegate to the three-power will receive on Thursday his letters of recall as American minister to Switzerland. He will then proceed to Brussels and present his letters of credence as ambassador to Belgium. He also will officially visit the grand duchess of Luxembourg, being also accredited to that country.

Now that the general reduction of armaments has received a temporary check, interest has turned to the chances of success of the three-power naval parley, and it is being asked whether France, which has left the door open, will decide to send an observer, now that the general conference for handling naval, land and air armaments has been undoubtedly postponed for a considerable time.

COPPER CORNICE FALLS; MISSES MAN, HITS CIGAR

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution.)

Chicago, April 26.—Detective Sergeant Rehling, of the Desplaines street station, accustomed to being shot at, made the target of bricks and bombs, merely lifted his eyebrows and reached for his gun today when an unseen force flipped a cigar from his mouth.

At the same instant a mass of copper fell at his feet, dusting off his uniform.

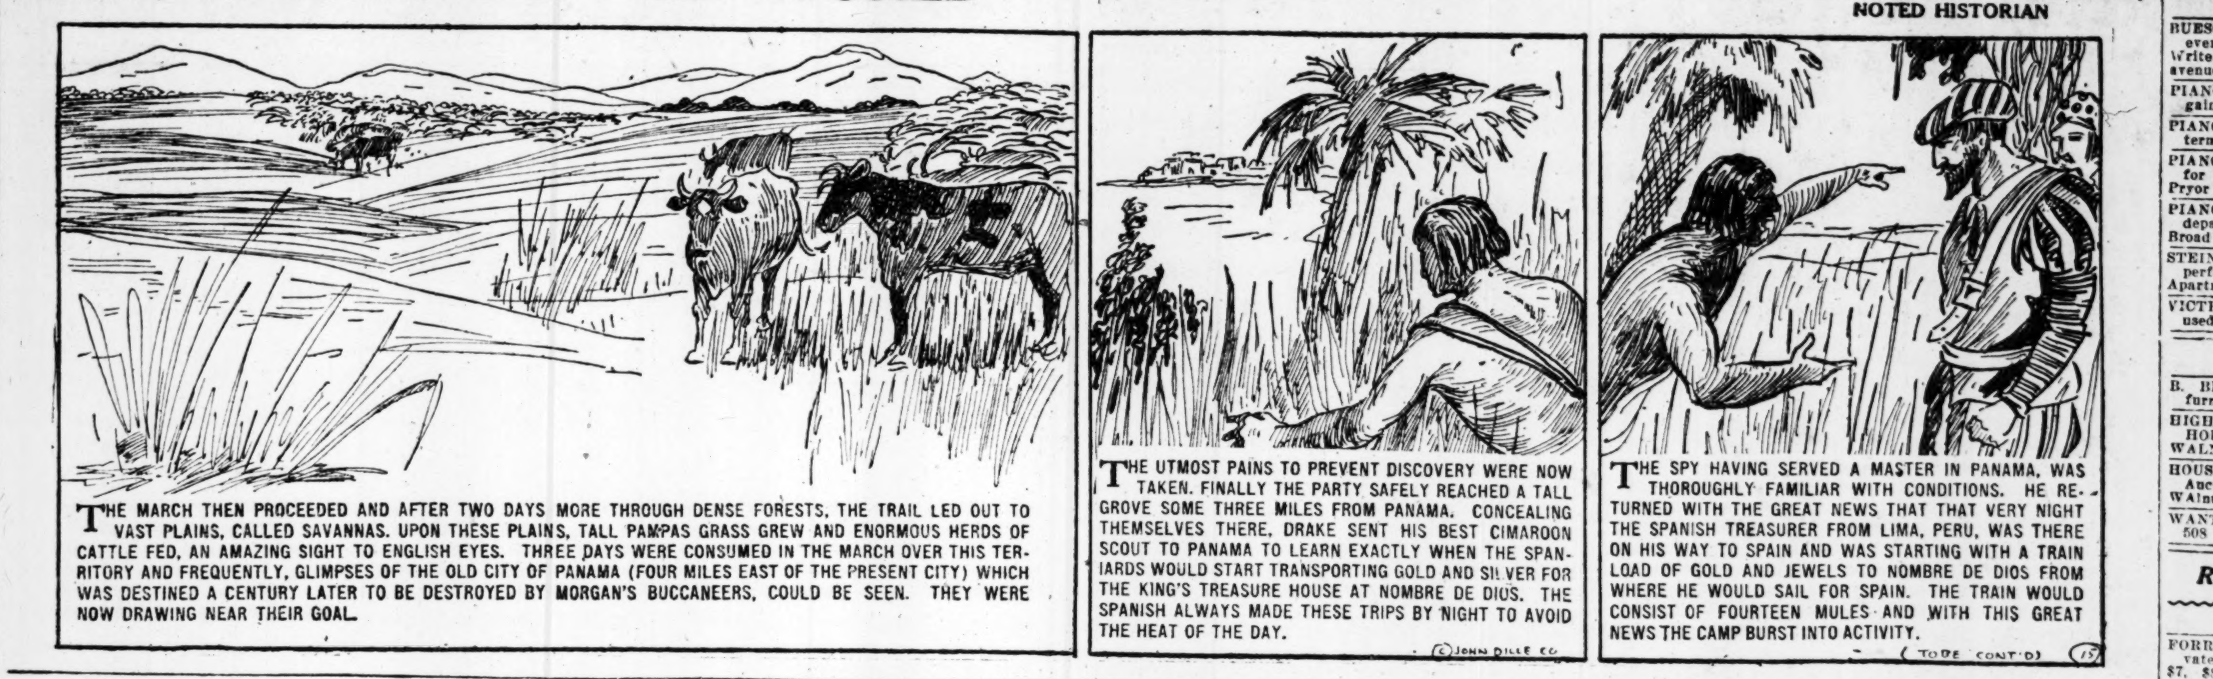
Rehling, talking with Joe Pilgrim, manager of a theater which had just been painted, had just lighted his cigar when it was dashed from his mouth, the holder remaining between his teeth.

A section of copper cornice, weighing more than 100 pounds, had suddenly left its moorings and fallen four stories, clipping off the cigar but missing both men by a fraction of an inch.

MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

Sir Francis Drake

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING, NOTED HISTORIAN



THE MARCH THEN PROCEEDED AND AFTER TWO DAYS MORE THROUGH DENSE FORESTS, THE TRAIL LED OUT TO VAST PLAINS, CALLED SAVANNAS. UPON THESE PLAINS, TALL PAMPAS GRASS GREW AND ENORMOUS HERDS OF CATTLE FED, AN AMAZING SIGHT TO ENGLISH EYES. THREE DAYS WERE CONSUMED IN THE MARCH OVER THIS TERRITORY AND FREQUENTLY, GLIMPSES OF THE OLD CITY OF PANAMA (FOUR MILES EAST OF THE PRESENT CITY) WHICH WAS DESTINED A CENTURY LATER TO BE DESTROYED BY MORGAN'S BUCCANEERS, COULD BE SEEN. THEY WERE NOW DRAWING NEAR THEIR GOAL.

THE UTMOST PAINS TO PREVENT DISCOVERY WERE NOW TAKEN. FINALLY THE PARTY SAFELY REACHED A TALL GROVE SOME THREE MILES FROM PANAMA. CONCEALING THEMSELVES THERE, DRAKE SENT HIS BEST CIMAROON SCOUT TO PANAMA TO LEARN EXACTLY WHEN THE SPANIARDS WOULD START TRANSPORTING GOLD AND SILVER FOR THE KING'S TREASURE HOUSE AT NOMBRE DE DIOS. THE SPANISH ALWAYS MADE THESE TRIPS BY NIGHT TO AVOID THE HEAT OF THE DAY.

THE SPY HAVING SERVED A MASTER IN PANAMA, WAS THOROUGHLY FAMILIAR WITH CONDITIONS. HE RETURNED WITH THE GREAT NEWS THAT THAT VERY NIGHT THE SPANISH TREASURER FROM LIMA, PERU, WAS THERE ON HIS WAY TO SPAIN AND WAS STARTING WITH A TRAIN LOAD OF GOLD AND JEWELS TO NOMBRE DE DIOS FROM WHERE HE WOULD SAIL FOR SPAIN. THE TRAIN WOULD CONSIST OF FOURTEEN MULES AND WITH THIS GREAT NEWS THE CAMP BURST INTO ACTIVITY.

Masonic Club.

The Atlanta Masonic club will hold its regular meeting Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock at the Henry Grady hotel, according to announcement by the Rev. R. N. High Moor, president of the club. A speech by Miss Mary Dickerson will feature the program.

Drinks Kerosene.

Marjorie Louise Hamm, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hamm, of 345 Stonewall street, swallowed a quantity of kerosene Tuesday morning, but after first aid treatment at Grady hospital the child was reported to be out of danger and not seriously ill.

THE CONSTITUTION

Classified Advertising

CLASSIFIED RATES.

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:

One time	20 cents
Three times	17 cents
Seven times	15 cents

Ads ordered for three or seven days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears, and adjustments made at the rate earned.

Phone for our messenger.

WAlnut 6565

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Schedules Published as Information. (Central Standard Time.)

ATLANTA TERMINAL STATION

Arrives—	A., B. & C. RAILROAD	—Leaves
7:00 p.m.	Cordele-Waycross	7:50 a.m.
5:50 a.m.	Brunswick-Waycross	9:30 p.m.
5:50 a.m.	Tifton-Thomasville	9:30 p.m.

Arrives—	A. & W. P. R. R.	—Leaves
11:40 pm	New Orleans-Montgomery	6:00 am
7:35 pm	Newnan-Columbus	7:50 am
6:35 pm	Montgomery Local	8:25 am
2:10 pm	New Orleans-Montgomery	1:25 pm
7:40 am	New Orleans-Montgomery	4:20 pm
10:40 am	Newnan-Columbus	4:45 pm
8:10 am	West Point Local	5:35 pm
12:30 pm	New Orleans-Montgomery	6:05 pm

Arrives—	C. OF GA. RY.	—Leaves
6:05 am	Mac-Sav-Alb-Thosvl	7:45 am
6:10 p.m.	Mac.-Jax.-Mi.-Tampa	8:45 a.m.
1:35 pm	Macon-Albany-Millen	1:00 pm
10:45 am	Macon	4:00 pm
8:35 am	Mac-Jax-Miami-Tampa	6:50 pm
7:00 am	Mac-Jax-Miami-Tampa	9:06 pm
3:30 pm	Macon-Millen-Sav.	9:40 pm
7:20 pm	Macon-Albany	11:30 pm

Arrives	SEABOARD AIR LINE	—Leaves
8:00 pm	Hamlet-Monroe	6:10 am
7:30 pm	Birmingham-Atlanta	6:50 am
4:10 pm	N. Y.-Wash-Rich-Norf	11:30 am
6:30 am	Birmingham	11:40 pm
8:45 am	Athens-Abbeville	4:15 pm
6:40 am	N. Y.-Richmd-Norf	8:00 pm
11:20 am	Birmingham-Memphis	4:35 pm

Arrives—	SOUTHERN RAILWAY	—Leaves
5:40 am	Columbia-Ashe.-N. Y.	12:10 am
8:15 pm	Anniston-Birmingham	5:45 am
7:10 pm	Charlotte	6:15 am
8:40 pm	St. Louis-K. C.-Bham.	7:00 am
9:40 pm	Chic-Cleve-Detroit	7:05 am
7:05 pm	Valdosta-Brunswick	7:05 am
7:30 pm	Rome-Chatta Local	7:10 am
3:55 pm	Piedmont Limited	8:00 am
7:20 pm	Columbus	8:00 am
5:25 pm	Valdosta-Jax-Miami	8:35 am
4:55 pm	Richmond-Wash-N. Y.	12:05 pm
3:15 pm	Sarasota-Tampa-St. Pete	12:15 pm
5:40 pm	Crescent Limited	12:50 pm
11:40 am	Rome-Chatta Local	2:30 pm
12:01 pm	Cinci-Chicago-Detroit	3:25 pm
11:15 am	Columbus	4:00 pm
11:10 am	Fort Valley	4:05 pm
11:40 am	Macon	4:10 pm
11:35 am	Bham-Mem-K. C.-Denver	4:30 pm
7:50 am	Air Line Belle	5:20 pm
7:40 am	xHeflin Accommo.x	5:25 pm
8:25 am	Cincin-L-ville-Detroit	5:40 pm
5:25 am	Washington	7:40 pm
7:45 am	Macon-Valdosta-Jax	7:50 pm
6:15 am	Jax-Brunswick-Miami	8:50 pm
6:55 am	Jacksonville-Miami	9:50 pm
5:55 am	Bham-Shreve-Ft. Worth	11:30 pm

Following trains arrive and depart from PEACHTREE STATION ONLY

5:00 pm	Birmingham	9:35 am
9:35 am	Washington-New York	5:00 pm

xDaily except Sundays.

UNION PASSENGER STATION

Arrives—	GA. R. R.	—Leaves
12:30 pm	Augusta	6:10 am
3:30 pm	Augusta-Columbia	12:15 pm
8:10 pm	Augusta	3:00 pm
x7:35 am	Social Circle	6:10 pm
z8:30 am	Social Circle	6:10 pm
6:50 am	Charleston-Wilmington	8:00 pm
6:50 am	Augusta-Columbia	8:00 pm

xDaily except Sunday. zSunday only

Arrives—	L. & N. R. R.	—Leaves
5:00 pm	Knoxville via Blue Ridge	7:05 am
8:41 pm	Cin-Chic-L'ville	7:25 am
10:50 am	Copperhill Local	4:10 pm
11:35 am	Knoxville-Cin-L'ville	3:35 pm
8:20 am	Cin-Detroit-Cleve	6:35 pm

Arrives—	N. C. & St. L. Ry.	—Leaves
6:10 p.m.	Nashville-Chattanooga	8:00a.m.
6:29 p.m.	Chatta-Nash-Chgo-St. L.	9:00 a.m.
8:00 a.m.	Chatt-St. Louis-Chgo.	6:45p.m.
7:10 a.m.	Chatta-Nash-St. Louis	8:30 p.m.
11:30 a.m.	Chattanooga Local	5:00 p.m.

BUS SCHEDULE

PEACH BELT LINES
Parlor Car Service Between
ATLANTA—GRIFFIN—MACON Terminal
148 Peachtree Street
WAlnut 6300

BUS SERVICE TO GRIFFIN AND MACON
CARTERSVILLE AND ROME
MONROE AND ATHENS
DOUGLASVILLE AND CARROLLTON
LAGRANGE AND COLUMBUS AND OTHER POINTS.
FROM UNION BUS STATION
17 N. FORSYTH ST. WALNUT 3351.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Travel Opportunities 1

DRIVING to Miami and all principal cities. Passengers wanted. MAin 5283-W.

"Where-You-Can-Buy-It" 5A

CHARIS—Combination corslet adjustable abdomen support, brassiere. $6.75 609 Georgia Savings Bank Bldg. WAlnut 7964.

EDDY REFRIGERATOR—"The father of them all." 1847 Hightower Hardware company, 100 Whitehall.

KELVINATOR electrifies your refrigeration Kelvinator, Atlanta, Inc., 25 Houston.

MASON & HAMLIN PIANO—Cable Piano company, 84 North Broad street.

VICTROLAS—Cable Piano company, 84 North Broad street.

CRESTLAWN CEMETERY LOTS.
63 N. Forsyth St. WAlnut 1624

ROSELAND CEMTERY LOTS FOR SALE WAlnut 8704. 301 McGlawn-Bowen Bldg.

Beauty Aids 6A

ANSLEY BEAUTY SHOPPE, coolest shoppe in Atlanta, permanents given in two hours, perfect comfort. WAlnut 4449.

EXPERT permanent marcels, $6. Permanent Waving Specialty Shop, 1201 Wynne-Claughton building. IVy 4297.

EUGENE PERMANENT, $8.50. Elizabeth Beauty Parlor, 514 Forsyth Bldg., IV. 0462.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Beauty Aids 6A

KATHLEEN'S BEAUTY PALOR.
1131-A Hurt Building. IVy 1526.

MARCEL, permanent appointment, not a disappointment. W. T. Carr, 731 Ponce de Leon. HEmlock 9120.

PERMANENTS, scalp treatment, beauty lines. Forsyth Beauty Shoppe, 600 Forsyth building. IVy 4331.

REGULAR $15 Eugene waves, $10: first 30 days. Kay & Blasingame Beauty Shoppe, 69 North Pryor. IVy 9062.

SPECIAL PRICES on permanent waving. Strasser's, 45 Fairlie. IVy 0271.

Personals 7

ARE YOU SICK? Have you been treated by numerous doctors without results? If so consult us free; let us demonstrate to you what conscientious, skillful treatment can do for you; experience counts; charges reasonable; hours daily 9 to 6.
DR. PHILLIPS
and Associated Specialists.
34½ Peachtree Street.

CURTAINS washed, silk and cotton, work guaranteed. WEst 3052-J.

DARLING—God bless you, there is no other. My world is empty without you always, dear. In Miami at Leamington, possibly week yet. Call.

DR. G. V. McELROY (colored), one of the world's greatest friends; if you are sick and worried in mind see me. 156 Harris street, N. E., WAlnut 6090.

FOR SALE—One grand opera ticket, third row center, arena Wednesday night. Call WAlnut 1224.

MATERNITY HOSPITAL — Private, confidential. Children boarded. Mrs. M. T. Mitchell, 338 Windsor stret, Atlanta.

OPERA TICKETS—La Forza Del Destino, Turandot, Lohengrin. HEmlock 6658, 205 McKenzie building.

OPERA TICKETS for sale at Piedmont Hotel, Cigar stand. IVy 3338.

OPERA TICKETS—D. C. fourth row, $5.50; Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday. Call WEst 3528 or WAlnut 4176.

TWO dress circle seats fourth row, Friday matinee. IVy 4571.

TWO CHOICE SEATS — THIRD ROW, DRESS CIRCLE. WEDNESDAY; REDUCED PRICE. WALNUT 1658.

TWO choice opera seats each: Turandot, Lohengrin, Romeo and Juliette. Call Miss Speer after 8:30 Wednesday morning, WAlnut 6796.

Strayed, Lost, Stolen 10

FOUND—Gardner's famous sponge square, 15c, for strawberry shortcake. Phone your grocer.

LOST—TENNIS RACKET; REWARD. CALL MA. 0421-J.

WILL person who picked up spectacles on Forsyth street Tuesday call Miss Page, WAlnut 5176? Reward.

$25.00 REWARD.

LOST—Platinum diamond bar pin, in or near Rich's. HEmlock 0407-W or IVy 1860. D. E. McCord.

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobiles for Sale 11

ASBURY & HOLLOWELL, INC.
Authorized Ford Dealers.
New and Used Ford Cars.
380 Peachtree St. IVy 0507.

BUICK USED CARS—D. C. Black, 312 Peachtree street. IVy 1860.

BUICK—Good used cars. Decatur Buick Co., 262 Peachtree. IVy 4905.

CHEVROLET passenger cars and speed wagons. John Smith company, 190 West Peachtree street.

CHEVROLET—If you are in the market for a new Chevrolet, any type, I will sell my cash deposit of $350 for $300. IVy 4768, 301 Hayden street.

FALCON-KNIGHT.
CARS—F. E. MAFFET, INC., DEALERS, 167 WEST PEACHTREE. HE. 1165.

FORDS—All models and types, liberal terms Clyde Langford Motor company. WAlnut 7512.

GOOD USED CARS—C. K. Byfield. 238-240 Peachtree street. IVy 0367.

HUDSON-ESSEX used cars. Goldsmith-Becker Co., Inc., 229 Peachtree.

HUPP—New and used. Thompson-Cauthorn Motor company, 439 Peachtree. WAlnut 9252.

IF INTERESTED in a used Ford car see Mr. Baris, 169 Marietta street.

LATE 1925 Hudson coach, five new tires, make me offer. '24 Chevrolet truck, good shape, $45 cash. 482 Edgewood avenue.

LINCOLN—Fine used cars. Rippey Motor Co., 295 Spring street. IVy 0867.

NASH—Used cars. Martin-Nash Motor Co. 541 Peachtree street.

OAKLAND—We sell and buy on merit. Darnall Motor Co., 285 Spring street.

OVERLAND, WILLYS-KNIGHT, 15 East North avenue. Willys-Knight, Inc.

PACKARD—Used cars. Atlanta Packard Motors, 441 Peachtree.

STUDEBAKERS—100 per cent value. Yarbrough-Mentzer company. Used Car Department, 385 Peachtree. HEmlock 6813.

USED CARS—See Atlanta Cadillac company 152 West Peachtree.

WILL SELL my 1926 Nash six, seven-passenger sedan on easy terms. This car has seen very little service and the price will surprise you. Call Mr. Garmon, IVy 2727, or HEmlock 0265-W.

Motorcycles for Sale 11A

HARLEY-DAVIDSON—New, all makes second hand. Cunningham Motorcycle Co., 128 West Peachtree.

HARLEY-DAVIDSON, new and second-hand All other makes; second-hand and genuine new parts for Harley-Davidson, Indian and Henderson. Everything for the motorcycle
CUNNINGHAM MOTORCYCLE CO.
128 West Peachtree. IVy 3238

Auto Trucks for Sale 12

RELIABLE USED TRUCKS. ATTRACTIVE PRICES AND LIBERAL TERMS. THE WHITE CO., 70 BOULEVARD, N. E.

GOOD REBUILT USED TRUCKS, LIBERAL TERMS. FEDERAL MOTOR TRUCK SALES CO., 242 W. PEACHTREE.

Auto Accessories, Tires & Parts 13

BROWN'S PARKING PLACE.
GOOD used tires for sale, washing, alemiting. 27 Houston street. IVy 6860

NEW and used parts, all cars. Piedmont Auto Parts company, 268 Marietta street.

Tires and Tubes 13B

MICHELIN tires, easy terms, expert lubrication, road service. Jack's Service Station, 999 Pryor street, S. W. IVy 9042.

TIRES, $3.20 and up; slightly used. City Tire Stores, 52 North Avenue, N. E. Pierce-Arrow building.

Parking and Greasing 16B

PARKING, GREASING; any car washed $1 Cotton's Wash Rack, Peachtree and Linden.

Wanted—Automobiles 17

CASH for late model Chevrolets and Fords. 52 Houston street.

AUTOMOTIVE

Wanted—Automobiles 17

CASH paid for good used cars. Asbury & Hollowell, Inc., 380 Peachtree street. IVy 0507.

CASH for your used car. Highest market price paid. J. M. Harrison & Co., south's largest used car dealers. 125-131 Ivy street WAlnut 3966.

LET US sell your automobile for you. Atlanta Automobile Exchange, 441 Peachtree street, WAlnut 7541.

WE BUY sell and exchange used Fords. 20 West Harris street. IVy 8822.

BUSINESS SERVICE

Cleaning and Dyeing

LADIES' DRESSES, $1. Men's suits, $1. Spring coats, no fur, $1. Spratling's, WAlnut 2556.

American Bed Renovating

$3.00 NEW ticking, best work. Gate City Mattress Renovating company. IVy 6478.

Cleaning, Dyeing, Renovating

PARIS HATTERS, 40 North Broad street, IVy 8962. Don't throw that old hat away. We can make it look like new.

HATTERS—Satisfaction guaranteed; mail orders given prompt attention. Acme Hatters, 21 South Forsyth street. WAlnut 7202.

ORIENTAL RUG SHOP—Y. H. Shahbas & Sons, 246 Peachtree, IVy 5117.

ROUNTREE'S.
77 Whitehall street. WAlnut 6914.

RUGS CLEANED by Felds Lightning Process: guaranteed not to take out nap or glue. IVy 4138. 159 Whitehall street.

Concrete Work

ARTISTIC porch and garden furniture. R. L. Hadden & Sons, 444 Highland avenue, N. E. IVy 7445.

CONCRETE WORK—Driveways, garden pools, flower boxes. Atlanta Cast Stone Co., IVy 4824; evenings, IVy 0297.

Dressmaking

DRESSMAKING, hemstitching, picoting, pinking and buttons covered. WEst 0998-J. 340 Hopkins street.

EXPERIENCED seamstress desires both plain and fancy sewing. Call HUntley 7669-J.

General Building

WANTED—All kind building and repairs plans free. Phone WEst 2833-J.

Garbage Cans

CARLOAD, cheap. Duckett & Co., 1 South Pryor and 245 Marietta Sts. WAlnut 1158.

Hardwood Flooring

HAVE your old floors resurfaced and refinished. Call MAin 5273.
J. M. KARWISCH MFG. CO.

Moving, Trucking, Storage

HAWKINS TRANSFER & STORAGE
FIREPROOF STORAGE, WE. 1010

BARKER WAREHOUSE COMPANY
"Your Household Goods."
WAlnut 4282-4283.

WE MOVE, pack and store pianos. Ludden and Bates, 80 North Pryor street.

Painting, Papering, Decorating

CAPITAL WALL PAPER CO.
Wholesale and retail. 36 W. Peachtree St.

WALL PAPER cleaning, polish and shellac floors, window washing. Work guaranteed HUntley 7931-J.

I. W. OSBURN, painting and papering; guaranteed. 200 Spring. WAlnut 8108.

PAINTING and decorating, first-class work, estimates glady furnished; 10 months' payment plan. IVy 2971.

Painting, Plastering, Roofing

LATHING and plastering, painting and tinting, brick work and cement. John Gear, 123 Hillard street. Phone HUntley 7931-J.

TINTING AND PAINTING—Work guaranteed. WEst 0587-J.

ROOMS tinted from $2 to $5; expert painting. Call WEst 0630-J.

ROOMS tinted, $2 to $5. Painting and plastering. Satisfaction guaranteed. WEst 3052-J.

Painting, Tinting and Plastering

FOR painting, tinting and plastering, cheap, call Eugene Lucas, IVy 9047.

Repairing and Refinishing

PHONOGRAPHS REPAIRED—WAlnut 3380 18 North Pryor. Atlanta Phono company.

SHEARER MACHINE COMPANY.
185 Whitehall street. WAlnut 6433. Electric and acetylene welding, machine work

Repairing and Upholstering

FURNITURE REPAIRED and refinished; work called for. 64 West Third. HEmlock 4290.

Roofing

REROOF, cash or terms. WAlnut 8579 White Roofing Co., Walton building.

ROOF NOW—Take 10 months to pay. Only expert white labor used. Guarantee Roofing company, IVy 4946.

Roofing, Guttering and Repairing

W. S. STROUD, WEst 3145, 22 years' experience. Call me and save money.

Sand

CONTRACTORS—Can save you money on washed screened sand. Nickajack Sand Co., 428 Atlanta Trust Bldg. WAl. 1539.

BUILDERS' and contractors' clean branch sand, $1.50 per ton delivered. W. D. Hardaway Coal Co., WAlnut 3808. 133 East Hunter.

Storage, Washing and Polishing

WALL STREET AUTO STORAGE—Monthly and weekly rates. 28-34 Wall street.

Tailoring and Pressing

M. HELLMAN, Tailor—Suits made to order; alterations, remodeling. 141½ Peachtree street.

Window Shade Cleaners, Mfgrs.

DIXIE WINDOW SHADE CO.—Window shade cleaners; mfgs. of window shades HEm. 5057.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Female 32

ACADEMY OF TYPEWRITING
1216 Wynne-Claughton Bldg. Enroll now.

LADIES—Make money at home spare time, addressing cards; no canvassing; experience unnecessary; particulars 2c stamp. Southern Sales company, Box 435-X, Mt. Pleasant, Tenn.

LEARN BEAUTY CULTURE—Special terms offered for a limited time to meet the demands. Splendid wages for steady or part time work. Call or write for our special offer. Moler College, 23 N. Forsyth street.

STUDENTS to take beauty culture, course in all lines, expert instruction. Amer-Beauty School, 58½ Whitehall street, Atlanta, Ga.

WANTED—THREE GOOD COOKS AND FIVE MAIDS. 119 EDGEWOOD AVE.

WANTED—Experienced tent and awning makers. M. D. Smith Tent & Awning Co., 136½ Marietta street.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Female 32

WANTED—WOMEN PRESSERS ON SILK DRESSES. APPLY TROY LAUNDRY, 210 HOUSTON STREET.

20 SALESLADIES—

House-to-house demonstrators, nationally advertised product sold world over; salary, carfare and lunch money. Apply No. 8 Cone street, Thursday morning, 9 o'clock.

Help Wanted—Male 33

A MARRIED man with car for city sales work. 800 Forsyth building.

A $5,000 POSITION.
WE will assign exclusive territory to an ambitious salesman desiring a life-time position where cooperation from headquarters combined with national and local advertising will create leads for the sale of a necessity. Hundreds of satisfied owners in Atlanta are furnishing new prospects every day. An industrial salesman can make $100 per week and up. Salesmanager will assist in closing sales whenever necessary. Apply OIL-O-MATIC SALES CO., 429 Peachtree street, W. T. Dreger, Salesmanager.

AMBITIOUS young man over 25 wanted for saleswork; must be aggressive and neat appearing; experience not necessary; man with car preferred. 800 Forsyth Bldg.

COMPLETE course $25. Southern Barber College, 46 West Mitchell street, Atlanta, Georgia.

CIGAR SALESMEN—$35 per week and expenses or commission. Former experience unnecessary. Send stamped, addressed envelope for full particulars. Carolina Cigar company, Greensboro, N. C.

DRIVERS WANTED—Attractive proposition for alert and energetic men over 21 years of age, who know the city and can furnish references. Yellow Cab Co., 359 Courtland street.

FOUR young men who want work with rapid advancement and are willing to work for $20 per week while learning. Apply to Mr. Lyle, 2 till 4 P. M., 408 Red Rock Bldg.

GOVERNMENT JOBS—Mail carriers-clerks, railway postal clerks, $1,700-$3,000 year Men 18 up. Steady. Sample coaching free. Write today sure. Franklin Institute, Dept. 46-P, Rochester, N. Y.

HIGH GRADE real estate scout, representative or salesman for central and subcentral business property sales and leases and industrial properties and sites.
EXCEPTIONAL future for capable and experienced man with vision and imagination.
COMMISSION basis only, but you will work directly with, and in full cooperation of, realtor specializing in this field of activity.
CORRESPONDENCE and interviews will be strictly confidential
For appointment address V-984, Constitution, or phone WAlnut 6496.

IF YOU are a salesman and have $100 to $500 to invest, I can show you the safest and best opportunity you've seen in years with Atlanta company; 43 salesmen have signed applications last few weeks. This is the sort of chance you've been looking for. Do not waste my time unless you mean business and are ready to act. See Mr. Ford, 513 Forsyth Bldg.

MALE HELP WANTED.
HIGH GRADE real estate scout, representative or salesman for central and subcentral business property sales and leases and industrial properties and sites.
EXCEPTIONAL future for capable and experienced man with vision and imagination.
COMMISSION basis only, but you will work directly with, and in full cooperation of realtor specializing in this field of activity.
CORRESPONDENCE and interviews will be strictly confidential.
FOR APPOINTMENT, address V-984, Constitution office or phone WAlnut 6496.

MEN become fireman, brakeman, colored train or sleeping car porters. Experience unnecessary. $150-$250 month. Good roads. Write Inter Ry., Dept. 8, Indianapolis Indiana.

MEN, LEARN BARBERING—Special short-course offer for limited time to meet the demands; splendid wages for steady or part-time work. We also teach ladies' shingling and all beauty culture. Splendid paying profession for men. Investigate our special summer course. Open day or evening. Inquire Moler Barber College, 23 N. Forsyth St.

QUICK RETURN FOR HIGH-CLASS REALTY SALESMEN.

LAKE FOREST is Atlanta's most exclusive suburb, laid out in broad avenues and drives in the beautiful forest covered hills surrounding Silver lake. Paving, landscaping and other elaborate improvements going forward rapidly. Complete and effective cooperation extended to our sales force. Men and women of seasoned selling experience can derive immediate and satisfactory income from this connection.

LAKE FOREST CORPORATION,
185 Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

SALESMAN with car wanted for protected territory in Georgia for auto accessory jobber; high-class man of neat appearance able to make security bond required. Give complete information in first letter; also need man for Florida territory. Address V-991, Constitution.

SALESMEN.
OF GOOD address and sales ability, having real estate or specialty selling experience, who has wide city acquaintance, can make a profitable connection. See Mr. Sala between 8 and 10 mornings, 811 Wynne-Claughton Bldg.

SALESMEN—$15 DAILY. SOMETHING NEW. EVERY MERCHANT A LIVE PROSPECT. CASH IN ON BASEBALL CRAZE. BIG QUICK MONEY FOR WORKERS. CAN MAKE $5 EACH NIGHT IN SPARE TIME. CALL 35 EXCHANGE PLACE, OPPOSITE HURT BLDG.

SALESMEN

Can discuss with us a very desirable selling connection. Men of energy and earning capacity can have a steady income. This is an unusual opportunity for men desiring permanent position.

SEE SALES MANAGER
63 North Forsyth Street.

SIX SALESMEN—With hardware and grocery experience, local territory; straight salary. Mr. MacRae, room 1209 Robert Fulton Hotel. 9 to 11 a. m.

TWO salesmen for city, good pay. Apply 1807 Citizens & Southern Bank building.

WANTED—Train news agents for long runs, good pay for right party. Apply 34 East Hunter street. Crescent News & Hotel Co.

WANTED—Salesman owning car, national advertised toilet manufacturer, no curiosity seekers need apply. Apply room 222 Cecil hotel, 6 to 9 p. m. Wednesday.

WANTED—Baker for 125-room hotel, located close to Atlanta; must be able to make bread and pastry; wages $100 per month and meals. Address F-2041, Constitution.

WANTED—Several solicitors, we have a very attractive proposition to offer those who can qualify and are desirious of securing a permanent position: you can earn $25 to $50 per week. For full information see Mr. Moye, city circulation department. The Atlanta Constitution.

WANT two salesmen who are not afraid to work, can give you steady work with a future, experience unnecessary, earnings unlimited. 619 Rhodes building.

WHITE DRIVERS WANTED — Drivers wanted who know the city thoroughly; must be over 21 years of age; good chance for advancement. Apply Atlanta Baggage & Cab Co., 46 East Ellis street.

$1,140-$3,000 YEAR—Government jobs. Men-women, 18 up. Steady. Sample coaching free. Apply today. F-2025, Constitution.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Male and Female 34

BOOKKEEPER, STENOGRAPHER, TYPISTS. STENOGRAPHERS' CLUB, 224 CANDLER BLDG., WALNUT 5194.

Teachers Wanted 34A

WE NEED about 125 teachers of good qualifications and preferably with some experience for grades, high schools, colleges, principals and superintendents at good salaries. No charge before placement or for consultation. State preparation, experience and salary desired in first letter. Enclose small photo if possible. Interstate Teachers Bureau, Dept. C, 147 Whitehall St., Atlanta, Georgia.

Situations Wanted—Female 36

GRADUATE nurse desires position as doctor's assistant immediately. Call Miss Caughron, HEmlock 7853.

LADY, unincumbered desires position as nurse, companion to elderly woman. Address V-989, Constitution.

LADY PIANIST desires work in music department or dance orchestra; experienced. WEst 1667-W.

YOUNG LADY stenographer with experience, desires position. Phone IVy 1608-W.

YOUNG lady stenographer, experienced, competent, conscientious; can furnish A-1 references, desires position. Call MAin 0323-J.

Situations Wanted—Male 37

A SELECT LIST OF EXPERIENCED PEOPLE HAVE REGISTERED IN OUR EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT. They have furnished us with character references and good credentials. We only register good ones. It will be to your interest to call Draughon's Employment department and make known your wants. Draughon's college is glad to render this service to the business interests of Atlanta. No charges are made to anyone; 145 Draughon students alone have been placed since January 1.

PERMANENT or temporary work. Thoroughly reliable and experienced. A-1 references. WEst 3081-M.

SALESMAN—Best references, with car, desires connection; reliable concern. Address V-988, Constitution.

WANTED—Job as watchman, night or day; good references. Address V-983, Constitution.

YOUNG MAN wants connection with good firm; eight years' experience in dry goods and ready-to-wear; now employed but desires to make change; salary $35 week; will accept traveling if firm will furnish car and pay expenses. Phone MAin 0851. Ask for Mr. Mercer after 6 o'clock p. m.

FINANCIAL

Business Opportunities 38

CANDY manufacturer wants man to take charge of shipping department. Must invest $1,000 in this business. References. Address B. U. S., care Constitution.

DISTRICT manager wanted for Georgia city. If you feel you can produce $200,000 or more write or see R. F. Shedden, manager Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. Assets $800,000,000. Grant building, Atlanta, Ga.

DRUG STORE, soda fount, cigars, etc., in one of the office buildings in the center of the city, good corner location, well established. Now doing business of $8,000 per month and can be doubled. Fixtures and stock will easily inventory $25,000 but owners compelled to sell and can be bought for $10,000 and might give some terms.
GEO. W. WARE & CO.
In business since 1888.
725 Atlanta National Bank Bldg.
Phone WAlnut 1086.

GROCERY and meats, doing $4,000 per month; present location 8 years. Call WEst 1094-W after 6 p. m.

IF YOU are a salesman and have $100 to $500 to invest, I can show you the safest and best opportunity you've seen in years with Atlanta company; 43 salesmen have signed applications last few weeks. This is the sort of chance you've been looking for. Do not waste my time unless you mean business and are ready to act. See Mr. Ford, 513 Forsyth Bldg.

MILLINERY BUSINESS in best business block in city of 15,000, doing a thriving business; owner retiring; ill health; $3,500 cash. P. O. Box 376, St. Augustine, Fla.

TEA ROOM—Centrally located. Doing a nice business. Must sacrifice at once. Worth investigating. $625 buys all. No telephone information.
FOLSOM REALTY & INS. AGENCY, INC.
412 Candler Bldg. WAlnut 4635

TRAVELING service to meat markets operating our portable electric block leveling machine. This service is needed everywhere on rough, unsanitary chopping blocks. For particulars see Mr. Heath, Hotel Aragon, evenings 5 to 8.

WANTED—Drug store; will buy in city or some good town. Give full information. Address Box F-2038, care Constitution.

WANTED—Partner with few thousand additional capital to run veneer mill now operating; good opportunity for right man. Profits. Address P. O. Box 1443.

Investments, Stocks—Bonds 39

OPPORTUNITY for large, quick returns from investment of a few hundred dollars. Call Mr. Ford, WAlnut 0567, for appointment.

Loans on Automobiles 39A

LOANS ON AUTOMOBILES
AND REFINANCING LOANS
FULTON INDUSTRIAL CORPORATION
607-608 Atlanta National Bank Building

LOANS on automobiles, 10 months to repay, car remains in your possession. Southland Loan & Investment Co., 205 Forsyth building.

Money to Loan—Mortgages 40

FIRST MORTGAGES MADE
And Purchase Money Notes Bought
W. O. ALSTON
1204 Citizens & Southern Bank Building

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.
ON Atlanta real estate at 6% interest, 5 or 10 years. Edgar Dunlap Insurance Agency. 204 Candler building. WAlnut 3460.

FIRST and second mortgages on monthly repayment plan; loans, lowest rates of interest. Hubert M. Riglee, Law Offices 1508 Citizens & Southern bank

IF YOU want quick mortgage money on Atlanta real estate see me. George P. Moore, No. 315 Healey building.

LOANS—Central property, 6 per cent; residential and business property 8 per cent. W. B. Smith, WAlnut 8381. 19 Walton.

LOANS—Monthly straight or reducible loans made on Atlanta and suburban real estate: low rates and liberal repayment features. Mortgage Bond & Trust Co., 16 Walton street.

LOANS on real estate. Funds to loan on improved city and suburban property; current rates. We also specialize in sale of city and farm property. WAlnut 2023. S. W. Carson, 414 Atlanta Trust Company Bldg.

MONEY for first loans on Atlanta and suburban real estate at prevailing rates. T. B. Gay Co., 1012 Grant building. WAlnut 5678.

REAL ESTATE—We have money on hand to make loans at current rates. Adair Realtors, Healey building. WAlnut 0100. Atlanta, Ga.

REAL ESTATE loans promptly arranged at best rates. Long experience; excellent service. Stansbury Realty Co., 231 Candler Bldg., WAlnut 6752.

FINANCIAL

Personal Property Loans 40A

A RESPONSIBLE CORPORATION LENDS ON FURNITURE
SOLICITS YOUR ACCOUNT.
FULTON INDUSTRIAL CORP.
607-608 ATLANTA NAT. BANK BLDG.

HELPFUL LOANS
MADE to husband and wife on household security at legal rates on terms of repayment to suit your pocketbook in amounts up to $300. Buy for cash and more than save the interest, or consolidate all those annoying small bills into one account with one small monthly payment.
SERVICE is our last name, but it comes first in our dealings with you.
THE MASTER LOAN SERVICE, INC.
212-13 Healey Bldg.
WAlnut 2377.

CONFIDENTIAL LOANS
On Automobiles, Furniture, Pianos, Notes, etc.

SOUTHERN SECURITY COMPANY, INC. 204-7 Atl. Ntl. Bk. Bldg. WAlnut 0634

JEFFERSON LOAN SOCIETY
LOANS ON DIAMONDS
8 AUBURN AVENUE

LOANS ON FURNITURE—United Small Loans Corp., 30 Arcade Bldg. WAl. 5413.

LOANS to housekeepers on home furniture, pianos, etc. Only lawful interest, with one to 20 months to repay. Security Idustrial Corp., 201 Peters Bldg. WAlnut 2077.

LOANS UP TO $300
TO HUSBAND AND WIFE.

No Indorsers. No Publicity.
Lawful Interest—No Other Charges.

LOANS are made for a long time with small monthly payment, with the privilege of paying larger payment or in full at any time. Every dollar paid on loan reduces the interest cost.

POPULAR FINANCE CORPORATION
301 PETERS BLDG.—7 PEACHTREE STREET—PHONE WALNUT 5295-6-7.
OPPOSITE PEACHTREE ARCADE.

LOANS $50.00 TO $300.00.
ON FURNITURE, pianos and indorsed notes, at legal rate of interest. Bonded to the state. Atlanta Small Loan Co., 33½ Mitchell St., S. W. Phone WAl. 8832. C. G. Mathis, president.

MONEY TO LOAN
Up to $300 on Furniture and Indorsed Notes.
SEABOARD SECURITY CO., INC.
250 Arcade Building.
WAlnut 1810.

ON DIAMONDS AND VALUABLES
3 PEACHTREE ST. ESTABLISHED 1893

Salaries Bought 40C

SALARIES BOUGHT—No indorsements. Federal Investment Company, 204 Peters building.

SALARIES BOUGHT—Quick, ready money. 201 McKenzie building.

INSTRUCTION

Local Instruction 43

BALLROOM dancing taught in my home. Lessons by appointment. MAin 4787-W.

Private Instruction 45

JUAN D. PALLI, teacher of the Spanish language, 59 Houston. IVy 8164.

LIVE STOCK

Poultry and Live Stock 49

BABY CHICKS—Thousands weekly; will hatch your eggs. Woodlawn Hatcheries. WAlnut 4095.

MERCHANDISE

Articles for Sale 51

NEWS PRINT—

Flat newsprint paper, suitable for small publishers and job printers. The price is right. P. O. Box 1731, Atlanta, Ga.

REGULATION PAINT, $1.69 gal. Duckett Co., 1 South Pryor. 245 Marietta. WAlnut 1158

SEE US BEFORE BUYING PAINT AND ROOFING. JACOBS SALES CO., 45-47 DECATUR ST., WALNUT 2876.

SINGER, White sewing machine, practically new, $10 to $50. 142 S. Forsyth. WA. 7919.

TRUNKS, $2.00 up; clothing, electric iron, two violet ray vibrators, bricklayer tools, complete baseball suit, cheap. 107 Trinity avenue.

UNCLAIMED EXPRESS—Auction sale by American Railway Express company at 62 Courtland street, S. E., Atlanta, Ga., on Thursday, April 28, 1927, beginning at 10 a. m.

Building Materials 53

LATHS $4 per 1,000. Massell Lumber Co., 26 Jones avenue. IVy 4276.

LUMBER—Williams-Flynt Lumber company Lumber and building materials. 236-250 Elliott street. IVy 1095.

SASH PULLEYS.
Western Sash & Door Co.

PLUMBING SUPPLIES 53A

WHOLESALE and retail; buy direct. 117 Central avenue. Pickett Plumbing Supply company.

Business and Office Equipment 54

TYPEWRITERS—We sell, rent and repair all makes. Special rental rates to students. Phone WAlnut 2860.
AMERICAN WRITING MACHINE CO.
57-A N. Forsyth St. Atlanta, Ga.

USED OFFICE FURNITURE.
WE OFFER a large lot of miscellaneous used office equipment, consisting of desks, chairs, safes, files, etc., at low prices.
HORNE DESK & FIXTURE COMPANY.
89 North Pryor Street.

SHIPMAN-WARD rebuilt Underwoods, Regals, rebuilt Royals; cash or terms. We buy, sell, rent and repair all makes. Quick Service Typewriter Co., 16 Arcade, phone WAlnut 1618.

USED office furniture; bargains. Newell-Thomas Office Equipment company, 60 Walton street.

Fuel, Feed, Fertilizer 56

DRY WOOD FOR SALE. STOVE-WOOD LENGTHS. FAIRFAX 2143. EVANS-INMAN LUMBER CO., HAPEVILLE, GA.

KIRKWOOD COAL COMPANY
DEARBORN 1795.

Household Goods 59

FAVORITE Furniture Store—Lowest prices, terms. 33 North Pryor street. WAl. 1339.

FOR SALE—Cheap for cash, piano and house furnishings at 15 Forrest.

GOOD USED FURNITURE cheap. 414 Edgewood avenue. Vittur's Transfer & Storage company

NEW refrigerator, 25-pound, top icer, half price. IVy 4374.

STOVES, furniture bought and sold. Repair all kinds stoves, ranges. T. C. Blankenship, 215 Peters street, MAin 4208.

MERCHANDISE

Musical Merchandise 62

BUESCHER saxophones, Olds trombones, everything in music; expert repairing. Write us. Ritter Music Co., 54 Auburn avenue.

PIANOS—You can always get the best bargains at Edlco Piano Co., 241 Peachtree.

PIANOS—New and used players, special terms. Walter Hughes, 19 Auburn avenue.

PIANO—Standard make, upright, will sell for balance due. Carder Piano Co., 61 N. Pryor street.

PIANOS—All makes. Visit our exchange department. Cable Piano Co., 84 North Broad street.

STEINWAY Upright piano, 3 years old, perfect condition. 388 Boulevard, N. E., Apartment 3. IVy 1245.

VICTROLAS—Excellent condition, slightly used. Terms. Bame's, Inc., WAlnut 5776.

Wanted To Buy 66

B. BERNARD pays cash for used house furnishings. Phone IVy 0572.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID FOR HOUSEHOLD GOODS. A. AUERBACH. WALNUT 0448.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS bought by Central Auction company. 10-12 East Mitchell. WAlnut 9739.

WANTED—Cash register. Will pay cash. 508 Gould building. DEarborn 1018-W.

ROOMS AND BOARD

Rooms With Board 67

FORREST, 140—Near Peachtree, room, private bath, hot biscuit, fried chicken, $7, $8.

HEMLOCK 6963—Private north side home, lovely room, business couple or gentlemen.

NORTH SIDE—Private home; attractive, large, well-ventilated front room; excellent meals; couple or gentlemen. HEmlock 3878.

NORTH SIDE HOME—Lovely upstairs front room, excellent meals, $32.50. HEmlock 7999-W.

PEACHTREE ST., 733—Lovely front room, excellent meals, private bath, references required.

PONCE DE LEON—Attractive room for business ladies or men. Excellent meals. WAlnut 9305.

PONCE DE LEON, 300—Attractive front room, tile bath with shower, good meals.

SHELTON HOTEL—Homey home for business and professional men; rates reasonable; grill attached. 14 West Peachtree.

WEST END—Gentlemen, business couple, business girls, good home-cooked meals. WEst 1446-W.

WEST END—Attractive front room next to bath, new brick bungalow, with or without meals, business couple or gentlemen. 390 Hopkins street. WEst 3031-R.

YE KOPPER KETTLE INN.
584 Peachtree, vacancy for refined young lady; also single room, adjoining bath.

BEAUTIFUL grounds, large room with bath, opposite Atlanta Biltmore. Phone HEmlock 0051.

DESIRABLE large room and private bath with individual table service; also one single room. 209 N. E. Fourteenth St.

FRONT room with board, private family. 681 Central avenue. MAin 5589-J.

FRONT ROOM, two meals, $40 for one person, $60 for two; no other boarders. WAlnut 9362.

GENTLEMAN to share room, separate beds, splendid meals; reasonable. 166 Ponce de Leon.

LARGE room with private bath, couple or family; splendid meals, all conveniences; reasonable. 166 Ponce de Leon.

NICE room and board cheap, or meals; walking distance. 21 Simpson, IVy 4342-W.

NICELY furnished rooms, with board, walking distance; two gentlemen. MAin 1734.

THOSE appreciating privileges in nice home, steam heat, best board. WEst 2767-J.

TWO business people, home comforts, garage; references. Private home. HEmlock 4857.

311 PONCE DE LEON—Large attractive front room, all conveniences, references, reasonable, good meals. WAlnut 8072.

351 WEST PEACHTREE—Large and small room, connecting, suitable for small family; excellent meals. HEmlock 7268

407 N. BOULEVARD—Nice room, board, heat, home cooking, private home. HUntley 7867-R.

443 WASHINGTON—Nice single and double rooms, garages, walking distance; good meals.

428 PEACHTREE—Few vacancies, desirable parties only; steam heat, hot water, good meals; rates reasonable. IVy 0826.

560 WEST PEACHTREE—Room, single beds; young men; excellent meals. HEmlock 1074.

675 MYRTLE ST.—First house off Ponce de Leon, front room, private home, excellent meals; 2 people; also roommate for young lady. IVy 0912-J.

699 PIEDMONT, corner Third, lovely room, stationary wash stand, hot water, excellent meals, all conveniences. WAlnut 6935. Garage.

Rooms Furnished 68

ANSLEY PARK—Lovely large room, bath, convenient to Peachtree car. HEmlock 1258-J.

CHESTERFIELD bachelor apartments, reasonable rates. All modern conveniences. Apply 15 West Harris street, next door Capital City club.

BEAUTIFULLY furnished room, bath, gentlemen; North Side, walking distance. WAlnut 4763.

IVY INN HOTEL, 195 Ivy street; large, clean rooms, homelike; weekly rates $4 up. Auto parking free. IVy 8560.

LANGHORNE, 421—Desirable furnished rooms, all conveniences, gentlemen or business women. Phone WEst 2896-W.

NORTH SIDE—Private home, attractive room for business lady. HEmlock 4119-W.

PEACHTREE SECTION—Lovely room, twin beds, also single room, nice apartment, connecting bath, walking distance, gentlemen. Walnut 6474.

PEACHTREE, 450—Large attractively furnished rooms, with or without kitchenette, garage. HUntley 7765-J.

UNION HOTEL—30½ East Alabama street, freshly painted throughout, hot and cold water, 75c to $1.50. Special weekly rates. Under new management.

WEST PEACHTREE HOME — Desirable room, near bath, young man; garage. HEmlock 4255.

ATTRACTIVE newly decorated front rooms, convenient to car line, private home. 983 Crescent avenue. HEmlock 1011.

IT WILL PAY YOU
TO SEE a few choice rooms we are offering for $9.50 a week. They are all with bath, clean and well ventilated.
They are bound to just suit.
MARTINIQUE HOTEL
Ivy and Ellis Sts. WAlnut 7046

LARGE front room, convenient location, three car lines; garage. WAlnut 9918.

LARGE ROOM—Owner's home, best north side location. HEmlock 4034-J.

NICELY furnished room with bath, all conveniences. WAlnut 7334.

NICELY furnished room, private family; one block to two car lines. WEst 1741-W

NICELY FURNISHED room, connecting bath, with couple. WAlnut 9988.

ONE furnished room, one unfurnished; reasonable. 31 Fourth street, N. E., GEneva 8231-W.

TO GENTLEMEN or business couple, front bedroom upstairs adjoining bath, facing Grant park. MAdison 5837-J.

745 W. PEACHTREE—Large room, every convenience, good car service. HEmlock 7832.

835 BRIARCLIFF PLACE—Highland avenue, attractive rooms, private bath, garage; gentlemen; references. Breakfast if desired. HEmlock 0418-J.

$13—NORTH SIDE home; young man, share room adjoining bath. HEmlock 4877-W.

Rooms Unfurnished 68A

TWO large connecting rooms, adjoining bath, water, lights, phone; business couple; no children; reasonable. 187 Crumley. MAin 1863-W.

Rooms Fur. or Unfur. 68B

ONE FURNISHED, 1 unfurnished, southeast and southwest corner exposures, adjoining bath; all conveniences; out Lucille avenue car line. Adults preferred. 490 Ashby street, S. W.

149 THIRD ST., N. E.—Three rooms, steam heat, connecting bath. WAlnut 7172.

766 PEACHTREE—Rooms, single, conveniences, private baths. HEmlock 7650.

Hotels and Restaurants—68c

MID-TOWN HOTEL.
"JUST around the corner from the business district." Reasonable rates, steam heat, hot water, first-class restaurant operated in connection. 103 North Pryor street.

Rooms for Housekeeping 69

BILTMORE SECTION—1, 2 bedrooms, kitchen, private family, good location; reasonable. HEmlock 4322-W.

INMAN PARK—137 Elizabeth street, 2 or 3 unfurnished or partly furnished rooms. WAlnut 4050.

GENUINE Porto Rico potato plants, $2 1,000, delivered. Government inspected. Cash with order. Lewis H. Cottongim, 75 South Broad street.

FOUR rooms, sleeping porch, garage, 490 Copenhill avenue, WAlnut 9044.

ROOMS AND BOARD

Rooms for Housekeeping 69

TWO unfurnished connecting rooms, north side, $18. WAlnut 5364.

TWO rooms and kitchenette furnished, private home, adults. HEmlock 2853.

TWO rooms with kitchenette, also room for gentlemen with twin beds; references exchanged. MAin 0956-W.

146 FORREST AVE.—Near Peachtree, large room, kitchenette, private entrance; also bedroom.

964 LUCILE—Bedroom, kitchen completely furnished, adults $25, garage $4. WEst 0684.

Where To Dine 71

POLLY'S TEA ROOM.
Boulevard and Ponce de Leon. HEm. 9351.

CECIL COFFEE SHOP
OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

Apartments Furnished 74

NORTH SIDE 2 rooms, kitchenette and private bath, immediate possession. HEmlock 7773.

NORTH SIDE—Three and five-room apartments, $35 and $50 month. WAlnut 4270.

PIEDMONT PARK section, attractive four-room apartment, very desirable location. HEmlock 7646-J.

VIRGINIA-HIGHLAND SECTION.
UNUSUALLY attractive six-room furnished duplex apartment, modern throughout, three bedrooms, two tile baths with showers, double garage. 1365 Highland avenue, one block beyond Morningside drive. WAlnut 0559.

BEAUTIFULLY furnished apartment to sublease. 504 Boulevard, N. E., apartment No. 3 or 6.

FURNISHED APARTMENTS—One to three rooms, $25 to $60, walking distance. Call IVy 9524, manager.

NEWLY decorated three-room apartment; lights, phone furnished. Inman Park. IVy 0825-J.

SMALL apartment, new and clean. WEst 1405-J.

THREE, four and five rooms, $50 to $75 per month, by month or year. HEmlock 4040. Office corner Highland and North avenue.

VERY DESIRABLE 2 or 3-room apartment; all conveniences; now available; also single room; garages. 49 East Third street, just off Peachtree. HEmlock 0400.

20 ELEVENTH ST., N. E.—Three rooms, kitchen and bath, $75 a month. HEmlock 1077.

3-ROOM apartment, furnished, $28 month. Call MAdison 6064-J. 501 Crew street.

3 NICELY furnished housekeeping rooms; all conveniences; adults. After 6 o'clock WEst 2248-J.

887 PONCE DE LEON—Five rooms, front, fully furnished, linen, silver. Reduced HEmlock 5728.

Apartments Unfurnished 74A

DURANT PLACE, one-half block from Ponce De Leon avenue, seven-room apartment with two independent bedrooms. DEarborn 2820-J.

CASTLE PINES—Peachtree road, beautiful 4-room efficiency apartment, second floor, front; shown by appointment. Further information call HEmlock 4734-W.

FLEMING APT.—Juniper and Tenth streets, four-room apartment with front and back porches, $60. DEarborn 2820-J.

INMAN PARK—Four-room apartment, newly decorated. HEmlock 4034-J.

INMAN PARK—Five-room lower duplex, steam heat, 93 Druid Circle, IVy 7075.

NORTH SIDE—Desirable five-room duplex apartment, steam heat, all conveniences, garage, side drive, servant's room, chicken yard, shade trees. Reasonable rental. IVy 4333.

ST. CHARLES—Apartments, 5 rooms, porch, garage; sublet at loss if taken at once. 1025 St. Charles avenue. HEmlock 5021-J

WEST END PARK—Attractive four rooms and bath, garage, strictly private. WEst 1904.

APARTMENT FOR RENT—Phone WAlnut 2723. W. L. & John O. DuPree.

FOR APARTMENTS—Fitzhugh Knox & Sons, Norris building. WAlnut 8947. 233 Peachtree street.

FOUR rooms, Murphy bed in living room, breakfast room, furnished, sublease $47.50. 373 Moreland, N. E., apartment 16. IVy 1323-J.

SUBLEASE—Five large room apartment, front and back porch. WAlnut 3897.

131 FORREST AVE., N. E.
RIDLEY COURT—FIREPROOF.
FOUR-FIVE rooms, porches, garage. Call owner. WAlnut 7416.

428-430 HIGHLAND—Near Boulevard, three rooms, kitchenette, bath; special. HEmlock 4589-W.

488 PEEPLES ST.—Five-room first floor apartment, all conveniences. WEst 2386.

751 CASCADE AVE.—FIVE ROOMS AND GARAGE. WEST 1405-J.

711 PIEDMONT AVE.—One room, kitchenette apartment, partly furnished, for immediate occupancy. Call Mr. Keiley, HEmlock 6408, during day or WAlnut 1262 night.

Apartments—Fur. or Unfur. 74B

THREE and four-room apartments, furnished or unfurnished. 330 Forrest avenue.

246 PONCE DE LEON AVE.—Three-room completely furnished apartment. Call WAlnut 7009.

696 PEACHTREE—Apartment 4-L, Frigidaire, elevator service, cafe in building. No children.

Business Places for Rent 75

PEACHTREE ARCADE—Two floors being changed into offices, display rooms and shops, $30 and up. Garage in basement; postoffice, information desk and every service, all under one roof.

TWO new stores, Ormond street, corner Martin, suitable for drug or grocery store; $45 and $32.50 each. Special price for lease. L. E. Hallman, telephone WEst 3449-J.

Houses for Rent Furnished 77

FOR RENT—I would rent my summer home in Nacoochee valley, Georgia, to reliable party. I would also sell or lease my Jersey herd at Nacoochee. Dr. L. G. Hardman, Commerce, Ga.

FURNISHED house in beautiful suburb, seven rooms attractively furnished, large lot, shaded by pines. On car line. Clean, reasonable. DEarborn 1735-J, 10 to 4.

Houses for Rent, Unfurnished 77A

KIRKWOOD—Six-room bungalow, deep lot, garage, near school, $45. Euclid, four-room apartment, $30. WAlnut 7900.

NORTH SIDE—Lovely home, 10 rooms, two baths, lavatory, laundry, double garage. Rent $125 month. Geo. P. Howard, WAlnut 5629.

C. G. AYCOCK REALTY CO.
Rents, loans insurance. WAlnut 2867.

EIGHT-ROOM HOUSE, 967 Sells avenue, West End, large corner lot, six rooms, 15 Love street, both good condition, low rent. Owner, WEst 0160-J, WAlnut 3947.

6-ROOM Decatur bungalow on paved street, near North Decatur car line. HEmlock 4034-J.

MODERN 5-room bungalows, $30 to $35, West Eighth and Ninth streets, near Hemphill avenue car. HEmlock 1673-J.

NEW 6-room brick house with side drive and garage. WEst 1405-J.

SIX-ROOM house, garage, 2 acres garden, pasture for cow, pigs, chickens, $12.75 month. Few minutes' walk west U. S. Hospital No. 48, Oglethorpe car. McGann, 904 Healey building. WAlnut 4214.

963 PONCE DE LEON AVE.—Four-room, front apartment with porch, plenty of windows, newly papered, gas range, refrigerator and kitchen cabinet, $65 month. Possession May 1. Must sublease at once. HEmlock 4678.

Office Space for Rent 78

CANDLER ANNEX—Units 12x16 and larger, or one large with small connecting private office available. Excellent location, minimum rental rate. WAlnut 3970.

FORSYTH BUILDING offers desirable office space. Centrally located. Space can be divided to suit individual needs. WAlnut 3970.

PETERS BLDG., at Five Points; most centrally located; single and suitable units. Apply Suite 610-11.

LARGE office space or store. 429 Spring street. Apply 1017 Healey building.

428 HIGHLAND AVE.—Seven rooms, bath, one, two families, $40. HEmlock 4589-W.

3,000 SQUARE FEET office space now available in Brown building. Suitable for large organization desiring spacious quarters in central location. Apply 214 Brown building, or IVy 7900.

Shore & Mountain—For Rent 79

FOR RENT—Raymond Lake Inn, furnished; boating, bathing and fishing; week-end and vacation; 45 miles concrete through Newnan. Also bungalows. Give reference and experience. Apply to I. Winslett, Raymond, Ga.

Wanted—To Rent 81

WANT to rent half of office. WAlnut 3984.

WANTED—Three or four-room apartment, must be either north side or West End, private home. Address I-682, Constitution.

WANTED—Room and kitchenette on ground floor in steam-heated apartment or bungalow for not over $30 per month. Address V-990, Constitution.

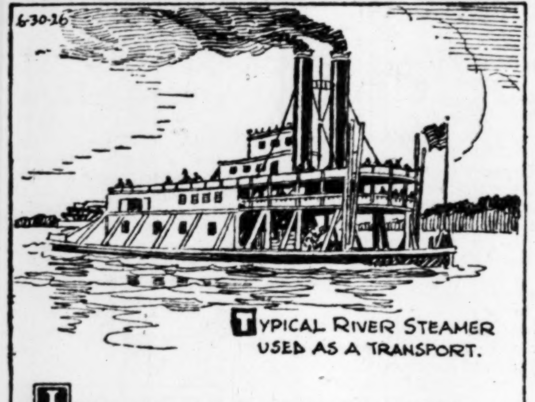
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

River War Vessels.

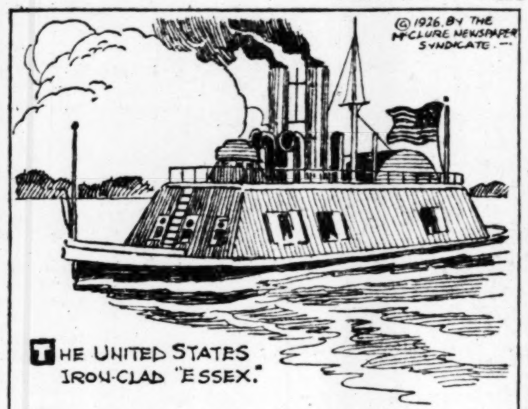
by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate



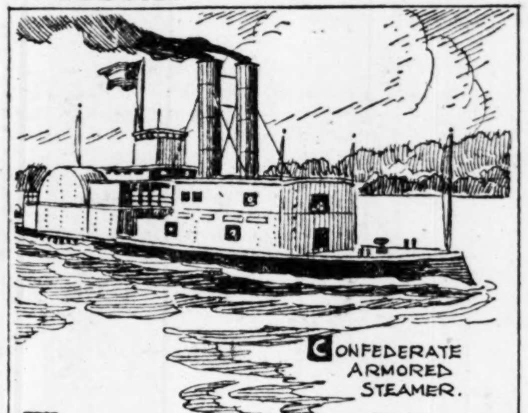
6-30-26
TYPICAL RIVER STEAMER USED AS A TRANSPORT.

IN THE CIVIL WAR, ONE OF THE TASKS OF THE NORTH WAS TO WREST THE CONTROL OF THE MISSISSIPPI AND OTHER INLAND RIVERS FROM THE CONFEDERATES. TO DO THIS WARSHIPS WERE NEEDED AND MANY STRANGE-LOOKING RIVER CRAFT WERE CONVERTED INTO GUNBOATS AND RAMS.



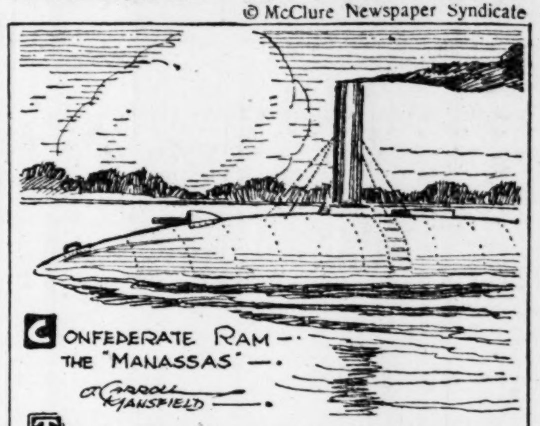
© 1926. BY THE McCLURE NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE
THE UNITED STATES IRON-CLAD "ESSEX."

THE FIRST RIVER GUNBOATS OF THE WAR WERE WOODEN VESSELS, BUT THESE WERE EASILY DAMAGED BY SHELLFIRE AND THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT BEGAN THE CONSTRUCTION OF "IRONCLADS" WHICH COULD BETTER WITHSTAND A BOMBARDMENT.



CONFEDERATE ARMORED STEAMER.

THE CONFEDERATES ALSO TURNED FROM PINE BULWARKS AND COTTON BALES AS A PROTECTION FOR THEIR WAR STEAMERS AND BEGAN CONVERTING THESE VESSELS INTO "IRONCLADS". THE "GEN. STERLING PRICE" (ABOVE) WAS NOT ONLY HEAVILY ARMED BUT WAS EQUIPPED WITH AN IRON PROW FOR RAMMING.



THE MOST DREADED OF THE CONFEDERATE RIVER WARSHIPS WERE THE RAMS WHICH WERE DESIGNED TO SINK ENEMY SHIPS BY COLLISION. ABOVE IS SHOWN THE "MANASSAS", WHICH WAS BUILT IN THE SHIPYARDS OF NEW ORLEANS AND RENDERED IMPORTANT SERVICE UNTIL HER DESTRUCTION IN 1862.

TOMORROW—THE INLAND NAVY.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Brokers in Real Estate R

BURDETT REALTY CO.—We negotiate any kind of real estate problems.

MERCHANTS & MECHANICS BANK—35 North Forsyth street. WAlnut 1600

CUMBERLAND Realty & Trust Co. Leases, loans, insurance, sales. Second floor Wynne-Claughton building. WAlnut 2550.

NUTTING, J. R. & CO.—1001 Georgia Savings Bank building. WAlnut 0156.

PONDER REALTY CO.—Cascade road, R. F. D. No. 1. Phone WEst 4030.

RICHARD C. SHOUP AND ASSOCIATES—5 Carnegie Way. WAlnut 1450. Opposite library.

RANKIN-WHITTEN CO.—Real estate and rents. 51 North Forsyth. WAlnut 0636

SALES—BUSINESS LEASES—Haas & Howell Real Estate Department. Haas-Howell building. WAlnut 3111.

SHARP & BOYLSTON—36 Luckie street. WAlnut 2930.

SESSIONS LOAN AND TRUST CO.
Rents, Leases, Sales and Finance.
Wynne-Claughton Bldg. WAlnut 0996

SOUTHERN REALTY & TRUST CORP.
608 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg. WAlnut 1840

THROWER, M. L.—24 Walton street. WAlnut 0163

TURMAN-BROWN CO.—210 Georgia Savings Bank building. WAlnut 4274.

A. GRAVES SELLS houses, lots, income property and farms. 12½ Wall street.

ADAMS-CATES CO.—204 Grant building. WAlnut 5477.

ATLANTA Trust Company real estate department. Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg.

B. M. GRANT CO.—Ground floor Grant building. Forsyth street entrance. WAlnut 1600.

Farms and Land for Sale 83

FARM for sale, good location, reasonable. WAlnut 7415. 451 Decatur street.

Houses for Sale 84

LINWOOD PARK—6-room bungalow, all conveniences, $6,500. Bennett, WAlnut 1511-8795.

NORTH SIDE SACRIFICE.

$500 WILL handle this ideally arranged 6-room brick bungalow, tile bath, large commodious rooms, with exceptionally large "livable" living room, hardwood floors, concrete drive and garage, situated on a large lot and a beautiful street. This property $2,000 under price. Call Mr. Hodge, WAlnut 1840.

SOUTHERN REALTY & TRUST CORP'N.
608 Atlanta Trust Company Bldg.

ST. SIMONS OUTING.
SIX-ROOM COTTAGE for sale in Brunswick. South end of city, southern exposure, very cool. Address E. L. Fader, 511 First avenue, Brunswick, Ga.

BARGAIN—New five-room bungalow, large lot, easy terms. Owner, HEmlock 7692-J.

BEAUTIFUL new bungalow, store, Woco filling station on rich two-acre lot for $5,500. $1,500 cash, $50 per month. A real pickup and good business proposition. E. L. Harling, WAlnut 5620.

BEFORE buying a home inspect the furnace. Be sure it's a Moncrief.

CONSULT us before building a home. Better Homes, Inc., 435 Spring street.

NEW brick duplex on north side thoroughfare. Steam heat, copper screens. A beautiful place and $500 less than actual cost of construction.

SIXTEEN acres near Emory university, with a bold spring and beautiful building site. Price $1,000 per acre.

FOLSOM REALTY & INS. AGENCY, INC.
412 Candler Bldg. WAlnut 4635

HOME BUILDERS—Atlanta Realty & Construction Co., Healey building, IVy 3180.

HOME BUILDERS—You furnish the lot, we furnish the home; no cash required. W. P. Ward company, WAlnut 8507.

HOMES without loans. W. D. Beatie, 226 Trust Company of Georgia building. WAlnut 2811.

LET Norris Construction Co. build your home. 815 Forsyth building. WAlnut 2749.

MOST good builders use the Moncrief furnace; specify Moncrief for your home.

MUST SELL DRUID HILLS HOME.
FORCED to sacrifice beautiful home, nearly new, worth over $10,000, for $8,750; easy terms; steam heat, nice lot, delightful. Address P. O. Box 2183, Atlanta.

MUST sell my fine Druid Hills home. It cost me $30,000. The first person who will pay me $5,000 cash and assume a reasonable loan will get the biggest bargain in Atlanta. Address I-679, Constitution.

NEW BRICK bungalow, $5,250, easy terms. H. J. Cranshaw, Rhodes building, WAlnut 1551.

NEW eight-room brick bungalow, two tile baths; accept small property cash payment. Call WAlnut 5570; at night, MAin 1342.

SEE those Hopkins bungalows on Glen Iris drive. P. B. Hopkins & Son, Palmer Bldg.

WILL sell $597 equity in 1421 Boulevard drive for $200. WAlnut 8139.

Use Constitution Want Ads for Results

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Houses for Sale 84

20 PER CENT, fourth ward, three double houses, good condition, $1,000 cash. WAlnut 0559.

207 WINTER AVENUE.
PRIVATE owner will sell below value, lovely Bungalow, 6 rooms, breakfast room and bath, hardwood floors throughout, furnace heat, garage; lot 50x175; price and terms right. Call WAlnut 4285.

$2,000 DEPOSIT on beautiful new brick bungalow. Will take $900. IVy 4366. 256 Peachtree street.

$2,000 BELOW COST.
BRAND-NEW 7-room brick veneer, best north side section. A perfect plan. Elevated shady lot. Get in touch with me immediately if you want to buy the biggest bargain ever offered in a home. WAlnut 2749.

Lots for Sale 85

ANDREWS DRIVE—Choice lot, 300x400 for $20,000. Chas. L. Greene, WAlnut 4309

AVONDALE ESTATES.
DEARBORN 0176. DEARBORN 3231.

GOOD vacant lot for sale cheap. Massell Realty Co., 15 Poplar St., WAlnut 1697.

VACANT LOT in East Atlanta on Brownwood avenue for cash. Call FRanklin 1020-J after 6 p. m.

Property for Colored 85A

LINCOLN MEMORIAL PARK—The exclusive burial park for colored people. WAlnut 3381.

$2,750—$300 cash, three rooms, lot 50x100, paved street, fourth ward. Mr. Morris, 891 Simpson. WEst 1418.

$3,750—Five-room bungalow, West Hunter near Ashby. $2,000—Four-room modern bungalow near Magnolia, small cash payment, balance like rent. $4,200—Beautiful 6-room bungalow, garage; Simpson street near Griffin. John S. Allen, IVy 2769.

To Exchange Real Estate 88

TRADE city property for small farm near Atlanta. 1003 Fourth Nat'l Bank.

Wanted Real Estate 89

FOR quick action list your property with R. H. Jones & Co., 829 Grant building.

FOR QUICK SALE—List your property with us. Brannan-Beckham & Co., 302-6 Norris building. WAlnut 2191.

HAVE client for two-story brick home in Emory section, must be a good value. Call WAlnut 4071.

HOME WANTED—Have equity of $25,000 in well rented business property near Terminal Station, want to exchange not to exceed 1-2 this equity for modern unencumbered home; will take balance in first mortgage bonds or purchase money notes. Might consider some vacant property with $5,000 cash. Owner. Address V-982, Constitution.

TRADE improved Florida property for Georgia farm. Owner, IVy 6231.

WE WANT REAL ESTATE listings of all kinds. Hicks & Hern, 229 Grant Bldg.

Auction Sales 90

J. P. KING AUCTION CO.
332 Healey Bldg. WAlnut 0340.

OGLESBY REALTY AUCTION COMPANY—Oglesby Bros., Auctioneers, Ansley hotel IVy 1100.

SMYTH BROS., Real Estate Auction Co. P. O. Box 1612. HEmlock 5446.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

PITY OF IT IS

OWNER of that picturesque tract of 18 1-2 acres is forced to sell. On Bankhead highway beyond Chattahoochee river. Clear stream, spring, trees all over. $500 cash deposit guarantee road paved this year. 680 feet front. Marvelous bargain.

JAMES L. LOGAN,
929 Grant Bldg.

DRUID HILLS SECTION

BEAUTIFUL 6-room cream brick bungalow, with breakfast room, on one of the main thoroughfares and car line, all conveniences. Situated on a large, level, corner lot. Price reduced to $7,000; reasonable terms. For appointment call Mr. Bennett, WAlnut 1511.

J. H. EWING & SONS
EXCLUSIVE AGENTS.

Brick Bungalow Values

JUST off Peachtree road, six-room cream, brand-new, steam heat, for only $8,500.

JUST off North Decatur road, red brick, cost owner $9,000. He says sell for $7,500.

SMALL cash payments and reasonable terms will handle either of these. See Copeland.

Burdett Realty Company
WAl. 1011. 116 Candler Bldg.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

$9,000 BRICK

JUST being completed—Virginia avenue section. Six rooms and breakfast. All conveniences. Buy now. Finished to suit you. This is a bargain. Call Mr. Dolvin, WAl. 3585.

LINWOOD SECTION

ON BEAUTIFULLY elevated and well shaded lot. Large brick bungalow containing three bed rooms and two glassed-in sleeping porches. Tile bath and extra lavatory. Hot water heat. Concrete daylight basement. Price $9,500. Terms.

B. M. Grant Company
Grant Bldg. WAlnut 1600

Virginia-Highland Section $7,500.00

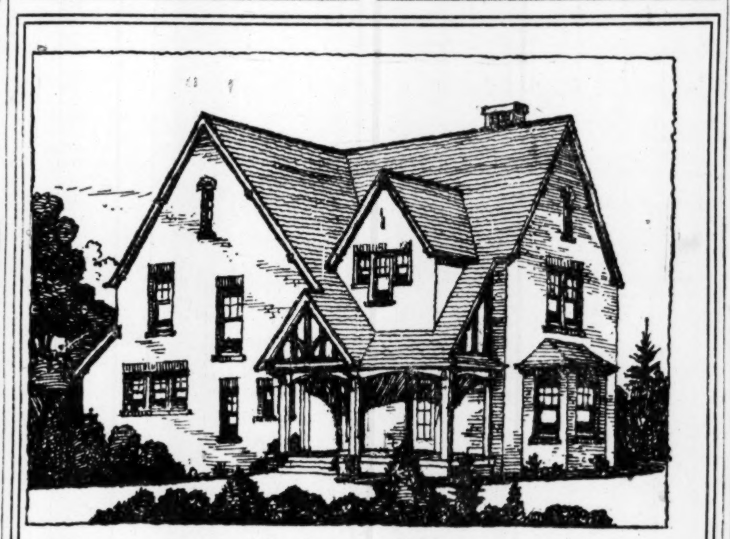
SEVEN-ROOM bungalow; extra large rooms and more than the usual closets; Holland furnace; large basement with servant's room. Beautiful flowers and shrubbery in front and back yard. A complete and livable home in every respect. Car, bus and stores only one block, school three blocks. A real bargain on easy terms. Phone Mr. Woodward, HEmlock 3173-W or WAlnut 1011.

Burdett Realty Company
Realtors Candler Bldg.

SUBURBAN ESTATE on Chattahoochee River

THIRTY ACRES; six-room white house, garage, barn, poultry yard, fruits, flowers, garden. Beautiful and picturesque elevation. Over 1,000 feet front on finest paved road in Fulton county and the river. Concrete swimming pool 60 feet long. Fine timber. Fifteen acres rich soil in cultivation. Very choice section. Spend your last days here in comfort. Confer for price.

JAMES L. LOGAN
929 Grant Bldg.



Maximum Value--Minimum Cost

Building a house at a price too low is poor business; building at a price too high is unfair.

Our long experience has taught us how to buy the best materials at the minimum prices, how to arrive at the exact cost of the house before the contract is signed, and how to handle labor so as to get the best results.

If you will let us build your home you will be sure to get your money's worth.

We'll build the nine-room brick veneer home shown here for $8,850

ALL WE REQUIRE IS THAT YOU OWN A SUITABLE LOT OR HAVE A SUBSTANTIAL EQUITY IN SUCH A LOT. WE ASK FOR NO MONEY, AND YOUR MONTHLY PAYMENTS BEGIN THIRTY DAYS AFTER THE HOUSE IS COMPLETED.

The arrangement of the living room, dining room, library, hall, breakfast room and kitchen on the first floor and the four bedrooms and bath on the second floor is for convenience, economy and compactness.

There are plenty of closets.

The price includes garage and driveway.

Atlanta Realty & Construction Company
1003-1004 HEALEY BUILDING IVY 3180-3181

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

HOLDERNESS STREET

LOT adjacent to 528 Holderness, next to corner of Oak. Price $1,400. Easy terms. Call Mrs. Oster, WEst 3211.

Weyman & Connors
58 Marietta St. WAlnut 2162

ACREAGE WANTED

CAN USE 50 acres or more on North Side for subdivision. If you have anything suitable at reasonable price get in touch with me. We are not agents and will buy direct from owner only.
Address V 992 Constitution.

NEAR NORTH AVE. AND HIGHLAND

A DANDY six-room bungalow with oak floors, furnace, side drive and garage, nice shade trees for the children to play under, right at one of the best schools in Atlanta; a high-class home-owning neighborhood. Cost present owner $9,000. Must sell at once to raise little money. Will sell for $6,300; cash $1,200. A pick-up!

J. H. EWING & SONS
REALTORS
67 N. Forsyth St. WAl. 1511

DRIVE OUT AND SEE

620-624-628 South McDonough street in Decatur. Three beautiful new brick bungalows. They have six rooms and breakfast room, each; clear oak floors throughout; many built-in features, plenty of closets, beautiful shaded lots, cement side drive and garages, half block of car line. Price $7,250 each. On very liberal terms.

PHONE our office, a salesman will call for you.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
REAL ESTATE—HOME BUILDERS
104-6 N. Pryor St. WAl. 6438

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

EXCHANGE

MOST attractive corner lot with beautiful two-story red brick, two tile porches, nine rooms, four bed rooms, sleeping porch, breakfast room, sun parlor; lot is 100x360 feet, artistically landscaped with shrubbery and flowers. Fruit trees in rear. Price is $20,000 with an unusual opportunity for some profitable trading. For further information call Druid Hills sales office, 1730 Candler Bldg., WAlnut 3973.

DRIVE OUT AND SEE 126-132 South Moreland Avenue

Two brand new bungalows, just completed and ready to move in, they are complete in every detail, hardwood floors, all conveniences, level lots, cement side drives and garages. One block of two car lines. If you can pay rent you can own one of these homes. The price and terms are very reasonable.

PHONE our office, a salesman will call for you.

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
REAL ESTATE—HOME BUILDERS
104-6 N. Pryor St. WAl. 6438

TODAY'S BEST VALUES

$8,000—A beautiful new brick home in Morningside. A well constructed and very attractive home, priced right for quick sale.

$12,500—Two-story steam heated, new brick home, located in a most delightful section, three bed rooms, sleeping porch and bath on second floor, large living room, dining room, breakfast room and kitchen on first floor. This home is exceptionally good value. Let us show you.

$3,500—$150 cash, $25 month. Pretty little new home in Kirkwood.

$7,500—Virginia-Highland section, non-resident owner is offering a dandy brick bungalow at real sacrifice price. It is near school, cars and community stores.

$11,000—Druid Hills, seven-room modern brick bungalow on lot more than 400 feet deep. Real value here.

YOU just can't afford to buy a home 'till you have seen us.

John J. Thompson Co.
REALTORS
Candler Bldg. WAl. 3935

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Automotive

WILLYS-OVERLAND FINE USED CARS

Unusual Values in Useful "Transportation"

4 4 4
Peachtree

2 4 3
West Peachtree

"Ask for Cars by Number"

Car No. 281 — 1926 Ford Touring, new tires	$235
Car No. 22 — 1924 Willys-Knight Club Sedan	475
Car No. 253—1924 Ford Tudor Sedan	175
Car No. 284 — 1926 Chevrolet Coach	500
Car No. 260-A—1924 Maxwell Touring	150
Car No. 282—4-Pass. Willys-Knight Coupe	150
Car No. 49-A — 1923 Hudson Coach	135
Car No. 38—1924 Overland Sedan	250
Car No. 244 — 1925 Dodge Coupe, new tires	450
Car No. 130 — 1923 Dodge Coupe	250
Car No. 68—1924 Overland Coupe	250
Car No. 246—1923 Hupmobile Roadster	250
Car No. 263 — 1923 Dodge Touring	165

OPEN EVENINGS

Willys-Overland, Inc.
IVy 4846
HEmlock 7483

Automotive

Midnight Sale
8 P. M. to 12 P. M.
SATURDAY
Another 99c FORD

Will Be Sold at 10 P. M., Saturday, April 30, 1927

We have sold 65 used cars in 7 days. This is evidence of the values we are giving.

TODAY'S SPECIALS

BUICKS

'21 Buick Six touring	$175	'24 Buick Six coupe	$765
'21 Buick Six coupe	225	'24 Buick Six sedan	865
'21 Buick Six touring	175	'25 Buick Six sedan	885
'22 Buick Four touring	145	'25 Buick Six coach	875
'23 Buick Six touring	550	'25 Buick Six coach	825
'23 Buick Six coach	550	'25 Buick Six sedan	925
'23 Buick Six sedan	595	'26 Buick Six brougham	1,395
'24 Buick Six touring	645

DODGES

'24 Dodge touring	$345	'23 Dodge coupe	$275
'23 Dodge coupe	285

STUDEBAKERS

'24 Studebaker coach	$645	'24 Studebaker Lt. 6 tour.	$265
'24 Studebaker coach	725	'23 Studebaker Spec. sedan	445
'24 Studebaker Lt 6 tour.	275	'23 Studebaker sedan	275

NASHES

'26 Nash Adv. sedan	$1,045	'24 Nash Adv. 6 touring	$445
'26 Nash Spec. sedan	895	'24 Nash Adv. 6 coach	825

FORDS

'26 Ford coupe	$385	'24 Ford touring	$ 95
'25 Ford coupe	225	'24 Ford touring	125
'25 Ford coupe	200	'24 Ford coupe	185
'25 Ford coupe	225	'24 Ford roadster	160
'25 Ford coupe	275	'23 Ford touring	65
'24 Ford coupe	185	'22 Ford touring	50

IVy 4905 TERMS

262 Peachtree

Used Car Store of DECATUR BUICK CO.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Automotive

1924 Willys-Knight 5-Pass. Sedan

PAINTED a beautiful dust-proof gray. New tires, and carries our liberal guarantee. $165 cash, balance $27.75 per month.

Willys-Overland, Inc.
HEmlock 7483 IVy 4846

Special Month-End Bargains

1926 Overland Sedan	$575
1926 Jewett Sedan	600
1927 Dodge Roadster	850
1926 Dodge Touring	850
1924 Dodge Touring	375
1925 Dodge Coupe	450
1924 Chevrolet Sedan	200
1926 Hudson Coach	650
1923 Hupmobile Touring	200

All Above Cars in A-1 Shape and Guaranteed

Ford

1926 Touring	$275
1926 Roadster	250
1927 Sport Roadster; like new	450
1925 Coupe	250
1924 Coupe	200
1924 Fordor Sedan	275
1925 Tudor Sedan	275

Twenty-five Tourings, '24 and '25 Models, from $100 Up.
All Thoroughly Overhauled and Guaranteed.

TERMS TRADES

Open Evenings Until 9 O'Clock

Asbury & Hollowell Inc.
Authorized Ford Dealers
Formerly Belle Isle-Street Co.
380 Peachtree Street
IVy 0507

HUPMOBILE

Guaranteed Used Cars in Writing

1926 Ford Coupe	$ 375
1926 Ford Touring, winter enclosure	275
1923 Ford Coupe	50
1925 Ford Coupe	250
1924 Nash "4" Coupe	450
1925 Dodge Sedan	700
1923 Dodge Touring	225
1924 Hupmobile Touring, winter enclosure	450
1924 Nash Advanced "6" Touring	475
1926 Chrysler "58" Sedan	650
1923 Hupmobile Touring	75
1926 Hupmobile "6" Sedan	1,150
1926 Hupmobile "8" Sedan	1,650
1926 Oldsmobile Coach	775
1925 Willys-Knight Coupe	550

Open Evenings
Others to Select From Easy Terms

Thompson-Cauthorn Motor Co.
433 PEACHTREE ST.
WAlnut 9252

USED CARS

Many Exceptional Values on Display at Attractive Savings.

SEE THESE AT ONCE

1926 Oakland Coupe. Driven 7,000 miles	$ 775
1927 Oldsmobile Sedan. All equipment. Never been sold	1,000
1926 Oldsmobile 6 Coach. Original finish good	575
1925 Oldsmobile 6 Coach	400
1926 Chrysler 70 Coach. Original finish good	900
1926 Chrysler 70 Sedan. Like new	1,150
1927 Chrysler 50 Coupe. Slightly used	675
1926 Nash Adv. 6 Roadster. Extra good	850
1925 Nash Adv. 6 Touring	600
1924 Nash Sedan. Extra good	625
1926 Dodge Touring. Refinished	475
1924 Dodge Coupe. Balloon tires	425
1924 Dodge Coupe. Special	225
1925 Hudson Coach. Special	575
1926 Essex 6 Coach	550
1923 Essex 6 Coupe	175
1925 Overland 2-door Sedan	385
1922 Franklin Touring. High hood	300
1925 Ford Roadster	125
1925 Ford Roadster	150
1926 Ford Coupe. Balloon tires	325
1925 Ford Coupe	175
1924 Ford Coupe	140

Many more to select from at prices from $50 to $1,500.

We Pay Cash for Good Used Cars

TRADES TERMS

J. M. HARRISON & CO.
125-131 Ivy St. WA. 3966

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Financial

FIRST AND SECOND MORTGAGE LOANS

Lowest Rates of Interest and Commission

HUBERT M. RYLEE
Law Offices, 1508 Citizens & Southern Bank Bldg.

Auctions

AUCTION SALE TODAY
10 A. M.

Residence and Business Property

MARIETTA CAR LINE
(MOSELEY STOP)

Todd-Worsham Auction Co.
629 Candler Bdg. WAlnut 1000

Rentals

GET LOCATED ON SPRING STREET
While It's Choicest Location Is Available!

The Fine New Keiley Building

133-35-37 Spring Street, at Cor. Cain

The bus and auto thoroughfare used by Atlanta's biggest quota of money spenders—50 cars a minute pass in front.

A TWO-STORY steel, stone and brick structure. One of the very highest class, finest constructed store buildings in Atlanta. Imposing in appearance, beautifully finished in limestone. It has the appearance of a three-story building owing to the 19-foot ceilings on the first floor and the 14-foot ceilings on second floor. Area 60x85 feet to alley; 10,000 square feet of floor space. Nine skylights; entire building flooded with daylight. No dark corners. Every appointment for comfort and convenience. Each floor has four toilets. With its 19-foot ceilings the first floor is ideal for a mezzanine floor. The largest and highest ceilings of any Atlanta store building are planned into this building. Ideal location for merchant or branch sales organization who can use store space for merchandise and sales, and upper floor for executive offices, or related interests.

Highly responsible parties will be co-operated with by VERY LOW first year price, increasing annually on five-year lease.

INSPECT THIS BUILDING TODAY!

For Further Particulars Phone Your Real Estate Agent or JOHN KEILEY, Henry Grady Hotel

AT THE THEATERS

ERLANGER—Kennedy-Blackmer company in "The Mountain Man."

FORSYTH (Permanent Stock Company)—"The Little Spitfire."

GEORGIA (Keith-Albee Vaudeville and Pictures)—Five acts. "Getting Gertie's Garter."

GRAND—(Loew's Vaudeville and Pictures)—Five acts, "Women Love Diamonds."

HOWARD (Feature Pictures, Publix Stage Units)—"Knockout Kelly" and "Victor Herbert Melodies."

METROPOLITAN (Feature Pictures)—"Just Another Blonde."

RIALTO (Feature Pictures)—"Across the Pacific."

ALAMO NO. 1—Western pictures and comedy.

ALAMO NO. 2—"Sorrows of Satan."

ALPHA—"Across the Plains."

CAMEO—"Valencia."

TUDOR—"The Devil Horse."

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSES.

CAPITOL VIEW—"Son of His Father."

FAIRFAX—"The Frontier Trail."

PALACE—"Old Loves and New."

PONCE DE LEON—"The Prince of Pilsen."

TENTH STREET—"Secrets."

WEST END—"Male and Female."

Erlanger.

"The Mountain Man," astonishingly gripping as the title role is played by Sidney Blackmer, is keeping up the fine pace set by the Wagner Production company at the Erlanger theater. Large audiences have been the rule this week—undoubtedly attracted by the fact that Madge Kennedy and Sidney Blackmer again are placed in the forefront in two splendid roles. Seats for the performance are on sale at the box office, and at the M. Rich & Bros. Co. store. Next week will see another exceptional offering, when "Quarantine" will be played at the Erlanger theater for the first time in Atlanta.

Forsyth.

"The Little Spitfire" (Stock). Nothing in the way of a show ever has caused the furore of interest that this week's bill is doing at the Forsyth. Snappy lines, breezy wit, clever humor, fresh situations and a rare newness about "The Little Spitfire," is making it decidedly the most attractive of any offering at the popular playhouse in recent weeks. Miss Ellis Baker, Dick Stevenson, Fred Raymond, Gus Forbes, Rhea Diveley and others are having a great time in one of the funniest and most wholesome features in many a moon here. Shows each night are jammed, and matinees are overflowing. A hint: get reservations early.

Tenth Street.

"Secrets." The story of two who wed in life's springtime and lived through its winter—lived, loved, sometimes misunderstood—until the grey of their hair became the living symbol of undying devotion. Portrayed by the screen's perfect lovers—Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien. Tomorrow Milton Sills in "Paradise."

Palace.

"Old Loves and New." One of the most widely read novels of recent years will be presented in screen form today when "Old Loves and New" makes its appearance at the Palace. Lewis Stone in the finest, fastest moving role he ever had. He'll sweep you off your feet. Tomorrow Antonio Moreno in "The Flaming Forest."

West End.

"Male and Female." Today Gloria Swanson, sharing honors with Thomas Meighan, comes back to West End in a Cecil B. DeMille production, "Male and Female." Gloria is in the picture in which she reached her highest pinnacle of stardom. Supported by one of the greatest casts ever assembled for any one picture. Tomorrow Clara Bow in "It."

Loew's Grand.

Vaudeville and Pictures. Barbette, the girl who created such a big sensation in European music halls with her great novelty act, is the headline attraction on the bill at Loew's Grand theater this week. Other acts on the bill are Teck Murdock and company in "Up a Tree," Fred Pisano and Jack Landauer in a comedy skit; Bob McDonald and Helen Oakes in a dancing act and Patty Reat and Brothers. The Loew feature picture is "Women Love Diamonds," a society drama with Pauline Starke and Owen Moore.

Tudor.

"The Devil's Horse," one of the strongest tales of frontier life ever made into a motion picture, is unfolded in "The Devil Horse," now being shown at the Tudor. The star of this picture is none other than Rex, the horse marvel, whose acting has rated even higher than some humans who cavort before the camera. In this picture Rex is aided by another champion, Yakima Canutt.

Fairfax.

"The Frontier Trail," Harry Cooper's thrilling western scheduled for today at the Fairfax, is a story of those stirring days when the savages massacred the white invaders of their wilderness. Harry Carey plays the part of an army scout, a service which was the "eyes of the army" of those days, as the aviation is now. Tomorrow Reginald Denny in "What Happened to Jones."

Rialto.

"Across the Pacific." Historic scenes in Warner Bros.' production of "Across the Pacific," starring Monte Blue and directed by Roy Del Ruth at the Rialto were reenacted during the filming of that picture on the very spot where they actually took place, 23 years ago. "Across the Pacific" is a melodramatic historical spectacle adapted by Darryl Zanuck from the Charles D. Blaney story.

Howard.

"Knockout Reilly"—Richard Dix, famous Paramount star, heads the Howard theatre program this week, in his latest comedy drama, "Knockout Reilly," which is hailed by critics everywhere as a fitting successor to the star's famous football masterpiece, "The Quarterback." "Knockout Reilly" is fast, funny, thrilling and above all entertaining. "Victor Herbert Melodies" is the chief stage attraction. Martel, the organ sensation, presents "The Haunted Voice" on the mighty Wurlitzer. Keep your eyes wide open for announcement of the Howard's New Idea.

Metropolitan.

"Just Another Blonde"—Dorothy Mackaill, Jack Mulhall, William Collier, Jr., and Louise Brooks are registering big hits in "Just Another Blonde," First National's new photoplay which is attracting large crowds to the Metropolitan theatre this week.

Corinne Griffith in her latest production, "The Lady in Ermine" will be the feature photoplay at the Metropolitan theatre next week in addition to the vitaphone.

Ponce de Leon.

The Prince of Pilsen will be shown at the Ponce de Leon theater today and Thursday, featuring Anita Stewart and George Sidney. The picture, a rollicking farce, is directed by Paul Powell, who made "Pollyanna," starring Mary Pickford.

It is lavish with scenes dealing with court life in a mythical European kingdom. When George Sidney was commanded to stand up and wed a princess, he thought he was being initiated into some secret lodge, then came disillusionment and the firing squad. A bandit chief figures in the plot also and contributes to the many thrilling moments. Hoot Gibson, in "The Silent Rider," presented by Carl Laemmle, will be shown at the Ponce de Leon on Friday of this week.

700 STRIKING PUPILS EXPECTED IN CLASS TODAY

New Albany, Ind., April 26.—(AP)—Seven hundred pupils of the New Albany High school who walked out Monday when the school board refused to reemploy Charles B. McLinn, principal, and Miss Alice Funk, botany teacher, are expected to return to their classes tomorrow, leaders of the strike having agreed late today at the request of McLinn, to call off the strike.

Following refusal of the school board to reconsider their ouster of the two teachers, McLinn called the leaders to his home and urged them to return to their classes on the ground that an indefinite strike would work a hardship on the pupils.

The students staged another parade through the city today.

Whether a protest meeting being planned by many parents and friends of McLinn for Wednesday or Thursday night will be carried out, has not been determined.

GASTONIA FUNERAL FOR MRS. G. M. NOLEN

The body of Mrs. George M. Nolen, wife of the assistant freight traffic manager of the Southern railway, who died Monday night at the residence, 916 Linwood avenue, was taken Tuesday night to Gastonia, N. C., where funeral services and interment will be held today.

Mrs. Nolen moved to Atlanta about two years ago with members of her family from Washington, D. C., and during her stay in the city she had been an active member of the Druid Hills Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Nolen is survived by one daughter, Miss Martha Nolen; four sisters, Mrs. S. P. Stowe and Mrs. G. W. Stowe, both of Belmont, N. C.; Mrs. H. B. Pursley and Mrs. A. C. Kelly, of Hickory, N. C.; four brothers, Dr. G. R. Patrick, of Bessemer City, N. C.; W. H. Patrick, of Gastonia, N. C.; J. A. and M. R. Patrick, both of Belmont, N. C.

BRITISH PUT HEAVY DUTY ON AUTO TIRES

London, April 26.—(AP)—The house of commons tonight ratified a number of budget resolutions. Of chief interest to Americans are a 33 1-3 per cent duty on automobile tires and the preservation of the existing duty on sensitized films.

MRS. W. HORNBERGER SUCCUMBS TUESDAY

Mrs. Willis Hornberger, 43, died Tuesday night at her residence, 34 Glenwood drive.

Surviving her are her husband and a daughter, Janet Hornberger; two sisters, Miss Theresia E. Austin, and Cora B. Austin, of Cleveland, Ohio, and a brother, Lorenzo Austin, of Akron, Ohio.

The body was removed to the chapel of Ed Bond & Condon company. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

NEW ALUMNI HEAD

EUGENE GUNBY.
Prominent in Atlanta bank circles, has been named president of the Berry Schools Alumni club of Atlanta.

JAMES R. NUGENT, POLITICAL LEADER IN JERSEY DIES

Trenton, N. J., April 26.—(AP)—James R. Nugent, of Newark, former democratic political leader, who helped to make Woodrow Wilson governor and broke with him later, died tonight.

LODGE NOTICES

The regular communication of Malta lodge, No. 641, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple, corner Peachtree and Cain streets, this (Wednesday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Entered Apprentice degree will be conferred by Brother C. B. Brewer, junior warden. All duly qualified brethren are cordially invited. By order of NESBIT TILLY, W. M.
GEORGE L. DUNCAN, Secretary.

A called communication of Bolton lodge, No. 416, F. & A. M., will be held this (Wednesday) April 27, for the purpose of paying last sad tribute of respect and giving Masonic burial to our deceased Brother D. F. Hood. Lodge will be opened at 1 o'clock. Interment 2 o'clock at Mt. Harmony church. By order
R. D. WEBB, W. M.
W. J. WOOD, Secretary.

The Ruffians club of Adamsville lodge, No. 171, F. & A. M., will hold a meeting this (Wednesday) evening, April 27, 1927, beginning at 8 o'clock. All members are cordially invited to meet with us.
W. L. BATES, President.
L. P. COGBILL, Secretary.

A called communication of Pythagoras lodge, No. 41, F. & A. M. will be held in the Masonic temple, Decatur, Ga., this (Wednesday) evening, April 27, 1927 at 8 o'clock. The Master degree will be conferred. R. W. Brother Raymund Daniel, deputy grand master, will deliver a lecture on the degree. All duly qualified brethren cordially and fraternally invited. By order of GEORGE R. JONES, W. M.
H. G. HOLLINSHEAD, Secretary.

A called communication of Kennesaw Lodge No. 33, F. & A. M., will be held in the lodge hall at Marietta, Ga., this (Wednesday) evening, April 27, at 7 o'clock, at which time the degree of Master Mason will be conferred. All duly qualified brethren are cordially and fraternally invited to attend. By order of O. D. LINDSEY, W. M.
FLEMING COMMFORT, Sec.

The Atlanta Theosophical Society will hold their regular business meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, room 202, Peachtree building, corner Peachtree and Baker streets. All members are urged to be present.
MRS. LOUISE LYERLY, President.

The regular meeting of Creek Tribe No. 15, Improved O. R. M., will be held in its hall, 2d floor, Red Men's Wigwam, 86 Central avenue, this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock. No degree work. Smoker. All members are urged to attend. Visiting brothers will always receive a Red Man's welcome to our wigwam. By order of E. E. AIKEN, Sachem.
J. D. QUINN, Chief of Records.

GEORGE H. SEAWELL VISITOR HERE, DIES

George H. Seawell, former prominent business man of Johnson City, Tenn., died suddenly Monday night at the home of his brother, Luke Seawell, 136 East Seventeenth street, following an attack of acute indigestion.

He had been in perfect health and seemed to be in normal health Monday afternoon, spending several hours in the city. He was here on a business visit and during the day conferred with several Atlanta men relative to opening an office here.

He was formerly connected with a large railroad in Texas as passenger conductor. Several years ago he came to Georgia, with the Texas company, and later moved to Johnson City, Tenn., where he was engaged in the oil business.

Mr. Seawell was a member of the Elks, Masonic lodge, Knights Templars and was a Shriner.

He is survived by his widow and four brothers, Luke, B. W., and John F. Seawell, all of Atlanta, and Harry H. Seawell, of Chicago.

Funeral arrangements for Mr. Seawell will be announced later, by H. M. Patterson & Son, in charge.

MORTUARY

MRS. MARY HOLLOWAY.

Mrs. Mary Holloway, 67 years of age, of 388 Hunter street, S. E., died Monday at a private sanitarium. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. H. C. Winn and Mrs. Carrie Bartow; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Stowers and Mrs. Carrie Jones; eight grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of Harry G. Poole.

CHARLES MATTHEWS.

Charles Matthews, of 768 Capitol avenue, S. E., died Tuesday morning at a private sanitarium. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. D. M. Matthews, and one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Tucker. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the chapel of Barcley & Brandon Co.

R. E. BULLARD.

R. E. Bullard, of 315 Peters street, died suddenly Tuesday. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the chapel of Harry G. Poole.

MRS. VARINA MAY CLAYTON.

Mrs. Varina May Clayton died Tuesday afternoon at a private sanitarium. Surviving are her husband, and three brothers, F. C., C. M. and J. M. Pritchard; a sister, Mrs. V. M. Forster, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary White. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Barclay & Brandon company.

Funeral Notices

CLAYTON—Mrs. Varina May Clayton died Tuesday afternoon, April 26, 1927, at a private sanitarium. Besides her husband she is survived by four brothers, Mr. W. R. Pritchard, Mr. F. J. Pritchard, Mr. C. M. Pritchard and Mr. J. M. Pritchard; one sister, Mrs. V. M. Forster, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary White. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Barclay & Brandon Co.

THWAITS—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thwaits, Miss Hazel Thwaits, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thwaits, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thwaits and Mrs. Belle Thwaits are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Tom Thwaits this (Wednesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, No. 1462 Ryan street. Rev. Mingledorf will officiate. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery. Harry G. Poole, funeral director.

HOLLOWAY—The friends of Mrs. Mary Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wynn, Mrs. Carrie Bartow, Mrs. Sarah Stowers, Mrs. Maggie Jones, and Mrs. Hattie Holloway are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Holloway this (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel of Harry G. Poole. Rev. W. J. DeBardeleben will officiate. Interment will be in East View cemetery. The following gentlemen will please act as pallbearers and meet at the chapel at 1:45 o'clock: Messers. T. B. Hucker, Lawrence Bartow, J. W. Bartow, Albert Bartow, Ben Holloway and Bill Wingard.

MATHEWS—The friends and relatives of Mr. Charles Mathews, of 768 Capitol avenue, Mrs. D. M. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tucker and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hudgins are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Charles Mathews this (Wednesday) afternoon, April 27, 1927, at 2:30 o'clock at the chapel of Barclay & Brandon Co. Rev. H. O. Nash will officiate. Interment to follow in West View cemetery. The following gentlemen will kindly serve as pallbearers and meet at the chapel at 2:15 o'clock: Mr. W. A. Sharpe, Mr. C. F. Morris, Mr. John F. Green, Mr. Milton Hall, Mr. B. B. Hudgins and Mr. William Modena.

Professional Ethics Transformed Into Professional Service
J. AUSTIN DILLON CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
502 South Pryor Street MAin 4680-4681
AMBULANCE SERVICE

Funeral Notices

BULLARD—The friends of Mr. R. E. Bullard, are invited to attend his funeral Sunday afternoon, May 1, 1927 at 2 o'clock from the chapel of Harry G. Poole. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

GANN—Mrs. Lillie Foster Gann died Monday afternoon at the residence, No. 104 Echo street, in her 45th year. She is survived by one son, Mr. W. H. Gann; two sisters, Mrs. G. W. Comer and Miss Minnie Foster, and brother, Mr. John H. Martin, of Cumming, Ga. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. Harry G. Poole, funeral director.

HORNBERGER—Mrs. Willis Hornberger died at her residence, 24 Glennwood drive, Tuesday night. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Janet; two sisters, Miss Threa E. and Cora B. Austin, of Cleveland, Ohio; one brother, Mr. Lorenzo Austin, of Akron, Ohio. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Ed Bond & Condon Co., 135 Ivy street.

BRAMLITT—Funeral for Mr. William E. Bramlitt, who died Monday, will take place this (Wednesday) morning, 10:30 o'clock at the chapel of Awtry & Lowndes. Dr. F. C. McConnell will officiate. Following gentlemen are requested to serve as pallbearers: Messrs. S. E. McConnell, J. O. Steele, W. M. Dunlap, W. H. Pinson, J. R. Williams and W. E. Fichett. Interment, West View.

BYRD—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Byrd, of 401 Hood street, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Manion, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wright, of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. George M. Byrd, of College Park, Ga., and Mr. B. C. Byrd are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Harry Byrd this afternoon, April 27, 1927, at 4 o'clock at the chapel of Barclay & Brandon Co. Rev. J. D. Bain and Rev. T. H. Jackson will officiate. Interment in Greenwood cemetery. The following gentlemen will please serve as pallbearers and meet at the chapel at 3:45 o'clock: Messrs. T. C. Brown, Jim Moore, A. F. Todd, W. D. Hardaway, Robert Pridgen and W. W. Butler.

THOMPSON—Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thompson, of Chattahoochee; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Manning, of Bainbridge; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall, of Columbia, S. C.; Miss Willie Thompson, Miss Lucile Thompson, of Chattahoochee; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, of Cordele; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, of Miami, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson, of Riverside, are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. John Jefferson Thompson this (Wednesday) morning, April 27, at 11 o'clock from the residence at Chattahoochee, Rev. T. P. Tribble officiating. Interment will be in Maloney Springs cemetery. The gentlemen selected to serve as pallbearers will please met at the residence at 10:45 a. m. John S. Dobbins & Son, funeral directors, Marietta, Ga.

HOOD—Friends and relatives of Mr. Dock Franklin Hood, of Gilmer; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Quirouet, of Atlanta; Mr. C. H. Hood, of Smyrna; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hood, of Miami, Fa., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Dock Franklin Hood this (Wednesday) afternoon, April 27, at 2 o'clock from Mt. Harmony church, Rev. A. A. Tilly and Rev. T. P. Tribble officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Harmony cemetery. Nephews of the deceased will serve as pallbearrs and will please meet at the residence on Oakdale road at 1 p. m. Members of Bolton lodge No. 416, F. & A. M., are especially invited to attend and will please meet at the church at 1:45 o'clock. Masons will have charge of the services at the grave. John S. Dobbins & Sons, funeral directors, Marietta, Ga.

SEAWELL—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Seawell, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Seawell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Seawell, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Bert W. Seawell, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Seawell are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. George H. Seawell this (Wednesday) afternoon, April 27, 1927, at 3 o'clock at the chapel of Black Undertaking Co., Marietta, Ga. Interment in Marietta cemetery. Rev. J. G. Patton will officiate. The following named gentlemen have been requested to serve as pallbearers: Mr. J. S. Jones, Mr. Henry T. Wood, Mr. F. B. Ramey, Mr. Charles M. Martin, Mr. B. E. Robertson and Mr. Roy Davidson. The funeral cortege will leave the residence, 136 East Seventeenth street at 1:30 o'clock. H. M. Patterson & Son.

(COLORED.)

HUDSON—Friends and relatives of Mr. Charlie Hudson, Mrs. Savannah Winkley, Mrs. Martha Hardeman, of Marietta, Mr. Judge Hudson, Mr. Cornelius Hudson, Mrs. D. W. Wharton, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Winkley, Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Brewster of Marietta, are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Charlie Hudson, on Wednesday afternoon, April 27 at 2:30 o'clock, from the Zion Baptist church, on Lemon stret, Marietta, Rev. Hutchinson officiating. Interment will be in the city cemetery. The gentlemen selected to serve as pallbearers will please meet at the residence, No. 211 Cole street, at 2 o'clock. Members of Eden lodge, No. 46, Masons, Fred Douglas chapter, No. 28, R. A. M.; J. Howard Fair commandery, No. 3, Daughters of Israel; No. 36 Good Samaritans and Household of Ruth, are especially invited to attend and will please meet at the church at 2:15 p. m. Members of Eden lodge, No. 46, Masons, will have charge of the services at the grave. Hanley & Co., No. 270 Edgewood avenue, N. E., funeral directors, in charge.

Ed Bond & Condon Co.
Funeral Directors
135 Ivy Street WAlnut 1768
Ambulance Service

ERLANGER THEATRE
ATLANTA'S THEATER BEAUTIFUL
TONIGHT AND ALL WEEK AT 8:30
MATS. TUES., THUR., SAT.
Charles L. Wagner Presents
Madge Kennedy
—with—
Sidney Blackmer
AND ASSOCIATE PLAYERS
—in—
"THE MOUNTAIN MAN"
A LOVE STORY OF THE SOUTH
FIRST TIME IN ATLANTA
PRICES: NIGHTS, 50c, 75c, $1.10
TUES. & THURS. Mats. 50c to All Parts of House. Sat. Mat., 50c and 75c SEATS AT BOX OFFICE AND AT M. RICH & BROS. CO. STORE

"There's One Near You"
COMMUNITY THEATRES
Direction Lucas and Jenkins
TENTH STREET
PEACHTREE AT TENTH
Today—NORMA TALMADGE
In "SECRETS"
Thurs.—"PARADISE"
PALACE
EUCLID AT MORELAND
Today—LEWIS STONE
In "OLD LOVES AND NEW"
Thurs.—"FLAMING FOREST"
WEST END
LEE AT GORDON
Today—GLORIA SWANSON
In "MALE AND FEMALE"
Thurs.—CLARA BOW in "IT"
DECATUR THEATER NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION—TO OPEN SOON

LOEW'S GRAND
Continuous 1 to 11 P. M.
Vaudeville 3:30-6:50-9 P. M.
BARBETTE
Sensational European Novelty
4 FOUR OTHER LOEW ACTS 4
Photoplay 2-4:30-7:50-10 P. M.
WOMEN LOVE DIAMONDS
PAULINE STARKE
OWEN MOORE
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture
Afts., 15c-25c Nights, 15c-30c-50c

TUDOR
Now Showing
REX, King of Wild Horses,
With
Yakima Canutt in
"THE DEVIL HORSE"

ATLANTA'S METROPOLITAN
Monday, May 2, First Presentation in Atlanta of the Picture That Talks, Sings, Plays!
VITAPHONE
It has thrilled the world. It will make you gasp! A Double-Barrelled Sensation!

AUDITORIUM GRAND OPERA
By METROPOLITAN OPERA COMPANY
GIULIO GATTI CASAZZA, Gen. Mgr. — EDWARD ZIEGLER, Asst. Gen. Mgr.
"TRAVIATA"……Monday Evening, April 25th
"GIANNI SCHICCHI" and "L'AMORE DEI TRE RE"……Tuesday Evening, April 26
"TURANDOT"……Wednesday Evening, April 27th
"MIGNON"……Thursday Evening, April 28th
"LOHENGRIN"……Friday Afternoon, April 29th
"LA FORZA DEL DESTINO"……Friday Eve., Apl. 29th
"ROMEO ET JULIETTE"……Sat. Aft., April 30th
"MADAM BUTTERFLY"……Sat. Eve., April 30th
All Evening Performances 8 O'Clock Sharp
All Matinee Performances 2 O'Clock Sharp
AUSPICES MUSICAL FESTIVAL ASSOCIATION OF ATLANTA —that sense of security that comes with Corduroy Tires

(Sidewall Protection) costs you nothing extra—
Very Easy Terms
if desired and at no advance over our low cash prices.
12 Months' Written Guarantee against punctures, blow-outs, rim cuts. Free insurance against grief, so to speak.
Free Tubes this week—
Old Tires traded in Liberal allowances.
BAILEY & CO., Inc.
Al. H. Bailey, Pres.
"Seventeen Years in Atlanta"

FAIRFAX
EAST POINT
Today—HARRY CAREY
In "FRONTIER TRAILS"
Thurs.—"What Happened to Jones"

KEITH-ALBEE GEORGIA
Atlanta's New Showplace
Continuous 1 to 11 P. M.
5 — KEITH ACTS — 5
Joe Marks & Co.
Johnnie Berks
And Three Other Big Acts
ON THE SCREEN
MARIE PREVOST
With Charles Ray
—IN—
"Getting Gertie's Garter"

Forsyth
The Forsyth Players
Present
"The Little Spit-Fire"
A Sure-Fire Comedy
Mats. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat. 2:30
Evenings 8:30
New Prices
Mats—35c and 50c
Nights — 50c - 75c

HOWARD
One of the Publix Theatres
Fast! Thrilling! Exciting!
RICHARD DIX
In the Greatest Picture of His Career
"KNOCKOUT REILLY"
—PLUS—
Murray Anderson's Dazzling Delightful "VICTOR HERBERT MELODIES"
Martel, the Organ Marvel
Other Novelties
25c Till 1 O'Clock
? It's coming ANOTHER NEW IDEA SOMETHING DIFFERENT DIFFERENT EVERY WEEK ?

PONCE DE LEON AT BOULEVARD
Today and Thursday
ANITA TEWART in
"THE PRINCE OF PILSEN"
Last Times Today
TOOTSIE DUNBAR
Novelty Dancer.

RIALTO
MONTE BLUE In
"Across the Pacific"
LAST EPISODE
"THE COLLEGIANS"

ATLANTA'S METROPOLITAN
Better Pictures Better Music
NOW PLAYING
One of the Year's Jolliest Pictures
"JUST A BLONDE"
WITH Dorothy Mackaill—Jack Mulhall
LEIDE AND HIS ORCHESTRA
Bob Cates, Radio Baritone
Metropolitan News and Views
Mack Sennett Comedy
"Hubby's Quiet Little Game"
Bargain Matinee Daily
11 A. M. to 1 P. M., 25 Cents
Coming Next Week
CORINNE GRIFFITH
—In—
"The Lady in Ermine"
—Also—
Vitaphone Presentations

PRIVATE LOANS
On Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry
W. M. LEWIS & CO.
4TH FLOOR PETERS BLDG.

Williams Auto Rent Service
Open or Closed Cars for Any Occasion. See Stone Mountain
83 N. FORSYTH ST. WAL. 0484-0485

FOR SALE
Flat newsprint paper suitable for small publishers and job printers. The price is right.
P.O.Box 1731, Atlanta, Ga.

WE PAY 4% ON SAVINGS
Compounded Quarterly
EMPIRE TRUST COMPANY
37 N. BROAD STREET

EUBANKS MANTEL & TILE COMPANY
MANTELS
TILE FLOORS and WALLS
457 Peachtree Street
Atlanta, Ga.

WAREHOUSE FOR RENT
10,000 square feet on one floor on the railroad tracks within half mile of the center of the city. Good light. Excellent for storage or manufacturing. Rate only $125.00 per month.
Adair Realty & Loan Co.
Healey Bldg. Realtors WAlnut 0100

BORROWERS
We have a large supply of private funds at 7% and 8%
Inquiries solicited.
WEYMAN & CONNORS
MORTGAGE LOANS ON REAL ESTATE
58 MARIETTA STREET WAL. 2162

As new as the opera
"TURANDOT"
are our ideas for Social Engraving. Call and see beautiful examples of our workmanship.
Foote & Davies Co.
"Five Seconds from Five Points"
Printers Lithographers Engravers

"SERVICE BEYOND THE CONTRACT"
Real Estate Loans
We Are Prepared to Fill Your Needs on Straight Loans or Loans Payable Monthly Quick and Courteous Service
Reasonable Charges
HAAS & HOWELL
Haas-Howell Bldg. Phone WAL 3111
HAAS & HOWELL INSURANCE

A MAGNIFICENT FARM
Containing Five Thousand Acres.
Near the City of Douglas, in Coffee County.
No better land and no better County in Georgia.
The right man can buy this farm at $75,000, subdivide and sell half of it for enough to pay for the whole, and have left, a farm worth a small fortune.
A reasonable cash payment, long time on balance at 6% interest, with liberal agreement as to releases.
This will beat any investment that can be made in Bonds and Stocks. This farm will produce in abundance all the crops grown in Georgia and is admirably adapted to live stock.
THE SOUTHERN MORTGAGE CO.
WAlnut 5416 10 Auburn Ave.

Edw. Richardson, C. P. A. W. C. Jackson, C. P. A. L. L. Davis, C. P. A.
RICHARDSON, JACKSON & DAVIS
Certified Public Accountants
MEMBERS AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANTS
1421-1423 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.

6% 7%
Loans on Residential and Business Property. Prompt Closing.
MORTGAGE BOND & TRUST CO.
C. J. Lewis, President
F. W. Patterson, V. Pres. 47 N. Broad St.
M. R. McClatchey, V. Pres. Phone WAlnut 2240

First Mortgage Loans at 5½%, 6%, 6½%, 7%
ATLANTA AND DECATUR REAL ESTATE
On residential, business and apartment properties
APPRAISALS MADE AND APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED HERE
Also First and Second Mortgages repayable in monthly installments
LEOPOLD J. E. ARTHUR
HAAS & HAAS
1109 Fourth National Bank Building Phones: WAlnut 5208-5209

H-4214 Joy's Flowers
LET US ARRANGE YOUR MESSAGE

Walnut 3216
FUNERAL DESIGNS
Gresham
West View Florist
113 PEACHTREE

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.
Albert Howell, Jr. W. P. Bloodworth
Arthur Heyman Herman Heyman
Hugh Howell Mark Bolding
DORSEY, HOWELL & HEYMAN
Lawyers
506 to 520 Connally Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.